Summary.—Excepting heavy showers in a few districts, light to moderate rain was general. Transplanting of winter paddy and reaping of autumn paddy and cutting, steeping and washing of jute are progressing. More rain is wanted in North Bengal for transplanting of winter paddy and steeping of jute. Some damage to jute by insect pests is reported from some places of West Bengal. The prospects of standing crops are reported to be fairly good. The average price of common rice for the province has risen by about 2·37 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week. The average number of persons engaged daily on test works in the Brahmanbaria subdivision of Tippera district was 84.

GOVERNMENT NOTICES AFFECTING TRADE.

EXPORT AND IMPORT SECTION.

IMPORT PROCLAMATION.

A Proclamation, dated 25th June, has been issued under section 43 of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, of which the following is the operative part :—

"As from and after the date hereof, subject as hereinafter provided, the importation into the United Kingdom of the following articles is hereby prohibited, viz. :—

Chemicals of all descriptions.
Electrical goods and apparatus, including electrical plant and machinery of all kinds, and insulating materials of all descriptions.
Scientific, mathematical and optical instruments.
Tungsten powder and ferro-tungsten.

"Provided always, and it is hereby declared, that this prohibition shall not apply to any such goods which are imported under license given by or on behalf of the Board of Trade, and subject to the provisions and conditions of such license.

"This Proclamation may be cited as the Prohibition of Import (No. 32) Proclamation, 1919."

IMPORTATION OF CHEMICALS.

The Board of Trade desire to give notice that whereas the Prohibition of Import (No. 32) Proclamation of 25th June 1919 prohibits, inter alia, the importation of all chemicals, the terms of the prohibition have been thus widely drawn solely for convenience of administration, and that it is not the intention at present to do more than to control the entry into the United Kingdom of certain classes of chemicals of a high degree of purity. The Department of Import Restrictions will therefore almost immediately issue general licenses for a large number of chemicals which are not of this description, and they will also issue licenses in suitable cases and for limited quantities of the chemicals which are retained under control. For this purpose the Department will be assisted by a committee which is now in process of formation and which will contain representatives of official, scientific, and trade bodies connected with the Chemical Industry.

Extract from the "Journal" dated the 3rd July 1919.

GOVERNMENT NOTICES AFFECTING TRADE.

EXPORT AND IMPORT SECTION.

RELAXATION OF EXPORT PROHIBITIONS.

The Board of Trade announce that the following relaxation of the existing prohibitions of export will be brought into force as from to-day.

Further relaxations will be announced in subsequent issues of the "Journal."

EXPORT PROHIBITIONS.

The following is a list of the articles affected and of the changes made in the nature of the prohibitions applicable to each. In explanation of the changes it should be noted that goods on List A are prohibited to all destinations, and that goods on List B to all destinations outside the British Empire, while goods on List C are prohibited only to countries neighbouring enemy countries.*

It will of course be understood that the existing position regarding trading with enemy countries is in no way affected by these modifications.

[NOTE.—Attention is called to the fact that by the Proclamation of the 1st October 1918, all goods, whether mentioned by name or not (excepting printed matter and accompanied personal effects, and the goods on the Export Free List published in the "Journal" of 20th March) are prohibited on List C.]

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

No. 2649.—With reference to the extract from the London Gazette published as Army Department notification No. 558, dated the 27th June 1913, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct the publication of the following Royal Warrant, dated the 13th June 1919, amending the rules regarding the age for retirement of officers of the Indian Medical Service :—

GEORGE R. I.—

Whereas we deem it expedient, with a view to furthering the efficiency of the service, to alter the ages at which officers of our Indian Medical Service holding administrative appointments with the undermentioned ranks shall be placed on the Retired List :

Our Will and Pleasure is that, subject to the safeguarding of the rights of the officers now holding these appointments :—

Our Director-Generals shall be placed on the Retired List at 60 instead of as heretofore at 62.

Colonels, Brevet Colonels and General Officers shall be placed on the Retired List at 57 instead of as heretofore at 60 :

Provided that in any special case where it would appear to our Governor-General of India in Council to be for the good of our service that a general officer holding an administrative appointment should be continued in employment he may be so continued for not more than one year.

The age at which Lieutenant-Colonels and Majors shall be placed on the Retired List will remain unaltered at 55 :

A Lieutenant-Colonel who entered the service before 1st April 1911 and who has been specially selected for increased pay under Article 8 of our Royal Warrant for the Indian Medical Service, dated 28th May 1913, may, if he attains the age of 55 years before he becomes entitled to the pension for 30 years' service, be retained until completion of such service.

Our Warrant dated 28th May 1913 for the promotion and precedence of our Indian Medical Service shall be amended accordingly.

Given at our Court at St. James' this 13th day of June 1919, in the ninth year of our Reign.

(Sd.) ED. S. MONTAGU.

2. Consequent on the issue of the above Royal Warrant, it has been decided, with the approval of the Rt. Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India—

(i) that the tenure of administrative appointments in the Indian Medical Service shall be four years, but officers will be eligible for re-appointment up to the age limit for retirement ;

(ii) that the rates of pension admissible to officers of administrative rank in the Indian Medical Service, in addition to the pension for length of service, shall be as follows :—

	£ per annum
Major-General, after 3 years' active service as such ..	350
Major-General, after 1½ years' active service as such	300
Colonel, after 4 years' active service as such ...	250
Colonel, after 2 years' active service as such ...	125

3. Officers at present holding administrative appointments will be allowed the option of electing to serve under the new rules.

A. H. BINGLEY, Major-General,
Secretary to the Govt. of India.

NOTIFICATION.

TEST EXAMINATION OF PRIVATE CANDIDATES FOR MATRICULATION EXAMINATION, 1920.

A Test Examination of private students, who have not attended any school, recognised or unrecognised, for at least one year previous to the ensuing examination, will be held at the office of the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, Calcutta, from Monday, the 1st December 1919. Such candidates only as reside in any of the districts of the Presidency Division, including Calcutta, will be admitted to the examination. The term "private student" includes schoolmasters.

2. Private candidates are students who have not attended any school for at least one year previous to the Matriculation Examination. They should produce proof that they have not attended any school for such period. They should also produce certificates of conduct and progress in studies from the authorities of the last school where they read and also a certificate from other reliable authorities regarding conduct and progress in studies after leaving school. The transfer certificates granted to them by the authorities of the schools in which they studied last or the Registrar's receipt for the fee paid in the case of those candidates who previously appeared at the Entrance or the Matriculation Examination must be submitted in original along with the application for permission to appear at the Test Examination. A statement of the antecedents of the candidate should accompany his application. He should state whether he read in any unrecognised school, and if so, in what school and in what year. A student who failed to pass the annual examination for promotion to the first class at the end of the year 1918 and then left school will, in no circumstances, be allowed to appear at the Matriculation Examination of 1920.

3. Bonâ-fide teachers employed in any of the schools in the Presidency Division may be admitted to the examination; they must produce certificates of service and character from their employers or from the Deputy Inspector of Schools of the district concerned.

4. No one shall be admitted to the Matriculation Examination unless he completes the age of sixteen years on the first day of the month in which the Matriculation Examination is held.

5. Each candidate should submit to the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, and not to the undersigned personally, not later than the 1st November 1919, his application for admission to the Test Examination, with the following particulars:—

(1) age, (2) residence, (3) father's name, (4) whether he appeared at any previous Entrance or Matriculation Examination, (5) second language besides English, (6) vernacular language, and (7) which two of the following optional subjects he has taken up:—

(a) Additional Mathematics.
(b) Additional paper in the classical language.
(c) History.
(d) Geography.
(e) Elementary Mechanics.

6. The admission-fee for the examination is Rs. 6 for each candidate, and is to be remitted with the application on or before the prescribed date, after which a fine of Rs. 2 is to be imposed for each week's delay. In no circumstances will the admission-fee be refunded.

7. No private student will be admitted to the Test Examination unless he is satisfactorily identified.

8. Candidates who are sent up by this office must appear at the Calcutta Examination centre.

9. Those who reside at a distance from Calcutta may, with special permission, present themselves at the Test Examination held by the headmaster of the nearest zilla or Government high school within the Presidency Division on condition that they appear at the centre selected by the candidates from that institution. The headmasters of such schools are hereby authorized to sign the applications, which must afterwards be countersigned by the undersigned. The fees and fines paid by these candidates as per paragraph 6 above should be utilized in meeting the cost of the examination.

10. The date of the Matriculation Examination in 1920 will be notified hereafter.

11. Applications and fees for admission to the examination must reach the office of the Registrar on or before the date to be fixed by the University.

Intermediate and B. A. Examinations in 1920.

Deputy Inspectors, Sub-Inspectors and bonâ-fide teachers of English schools in the Presidency Division, who have been employed as such for at least three years preceding the examination, will be admitted to the above examinations on production of certificates of character and length of service (with dates) from their employers. Laboratory assistants and demonstrators and librarians of affiliated colleges will be treated as teachers. Their applications must reach this office on or before the 4th December 1919.

1. In accordance with section 9, Chapter XV, of the revised Regulations dealing with the registration of University students, all candidates who intend to appear at any of the ensuing examinations of the University of Calcutta otherwise than as students of affiliated institutions, and who have applied for or have obtained the special permission of the Senate for the purpose, are required to apply to the Registrar of the Calcutta University for the registration of their names as University students. No person will be deemed a "University student" unless and until his name has been duly registered, and none but "University students will be eligible for admission to any University examination other than the Matriculation. A registration fee of Rs. 2 must accompany every application.

2. Candidates for the B.A. Examination must send to the Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division, and not to the undersigned personally, their F.A., I.A., or I.Sc. certificates, and candidates for the Intermediate Examination their Entrance or Matriculation certificates, together with a letter, in original, from the Senate of the Calcutta University, permitting them to appear at the examination.

3. Candidates should carefully read the printed form of application and supply all the information required by the University, including the Registrar's receipt in the case of those schoolmasters who were admitted to a previous examination of the same class.

4. The dates of the Intermediate and B. A. Examinations in 1920 will be notified hereafter.

5. Applications, with the countersignature of the undersigned and fees for admission to the above examinations, must reach the office of the Registrar on or before the dates to be fixed by the University, and must be sent to that office by the candidates direct.

M. P. WEST,
Inspector of Schools, Presidency Division.

CALCUTTA, 8, DALHOUSIE SQUARE, the 4th August 1919.

RULES FOR THE GUIDANCE OF PRIVATE CANDIDATES FOR THE MATRICULATION EXAMINATION.

THE following rules for the guidance of private candidates for the Matriculation Examination are published for general information :—

2. Private candidates are those who have not attended any recognised or un-recognised school for at least one year previous to the examination. The term "private students" includes bonâ fide school masters.

3. Private students must appear at the test examination of one of the following institutions on the date mentioned against it :—

Rajshahi Collegiate School	... ...	1st December 1919.
Dinajpur Zilla School	... ...
Jalpaiguri Zilla School	... ...
Rangpur Zilla School	... ...
Bogra Zilla School	... ...
Pabna Zilla School	... ...
Malda Zilla School	... ...
Darjeeling High School	... ...

Each private student will pay a fee of Rs. 3 to the head the institution at which he appears for the test examination. No private student will be admitted to the test examination unless he is accompanied for the purpose of identification by some person known to the head master of the institution at which he appears.

4. Application for permission to appear must be sent in time to reach this office not later than the 10th November 1919. The information to be given and the documents to be appended in original are the following :—

(a) The name of the school in which the candidate last studied.

(b) The transfer certificate, in original, granted to the candidate by the head master of the school in which he last read, or

(c) In the case of a candidate who previously appeared at the Matriculation Examination, the Registrar's receipt in original for the fee paid.

(d) Age of the candidate. No candidate who has not completed the age of 16 years on the 1st day of the Matriculation Examination will be allowed to appear at it.

(e) In the case of school masters, a certificate of good conduct from the secretary or proprietor of the school in which he is serving or from the Deputy Inspector of the district concerned.

(f) A certificate from a respectable gentleman to the effect that the candidate has prosecuted a regular course of study and has been subject to proper discipline and that he has not read in any school since the last Matriculation Examination.

(g) A statement by the candidate giving the following facts :—

(1) Residence.
(2) Father's name.
(3) Second language besides English.
(4) Vernacular language from which the translation is to be made into English in the first English paper.
(5) Which of the following subjects to be taken up :—

(ii) Additional paper in the classical language.
(iii) History.
(iv) Geography.
(v) Elementary Mechanics.

N.B.—A student who failed to pass the annual examination for promotion to class X at the end of the session 1918, and then left the school, can, under no circumstances, be allowed to appear at the examination.

5. The Inspector, on being satisfied, will countersign and return the application, which will then be the candidate's passport for admission to the test examination.

6. The head masters of the institutions named above should direct students who satisfy the test to appear before them in due time with their applications for admission to the Matriculation Examination, and to sign them in their presence. They will then be granted the necessary certificates and forward the applications to the Inspector for countersignature, after which they will be sent by the Inspector direct to the candidates.

7. In no circumstances should the fee for the Matriculation Examination be sent to the Inspector's office. It should be sent to the Registrar by the candidates themselves, together with the countersigned applications.

8. Private students must understand that the test examination of any school other than those named above will not be accepted by the Inspector.

9. The Matriculation Examination will be held in March 1920, the applications and fees must reach the office of the Registrar on or before the 17th January 1920.

Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The Fund is now of ten years' standing and has a balance of over three and-a-half lakhs with Government on four per cent. interest. For forms of applications and rules of the Fund apply to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

BILL

to consolidate and amend the law relating to the prevention of cruelty to animals in Calcutta.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the law relating to the prevention of cruelty to animals in Calcutta;

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Preliminary.

Short title, commencement and extent.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Calcutta Cruelty to Animals Act, 1919. [Cf Ben Act I of 1869, s 1; Ben. Act V of 1911, ss. 1 (3) and 148.]

(2) It shall come into force on such date as the Local Government may, by notification, direct.

(3) Except as otherwise hereinafter provided, this Act shall extend only to Calcutta; but it may be extended by the Local Government, by notification, to any other town or place.

2. (1) The following enactments, namely :— [Cf Ben Act II of 1891, s 2.]

(a) the Bengal Cruelty to Animals Act, 1869; Ben Act 1 of 1869.

(b) the Bengal Cruelty to Animals (Arrest) Act, 1869; and Ben. Act III of 1869.

(c) the Bengal Cruelty to Animals Act, 1900, Ben. Act III of 1900.

shall be deemed to be repealed—

(i) in Calcutta, from the date of the commencement of this Act, and

(ii) in any other town or place to which this Act may hereafter be extended under section 1, sub-section (3), from the date of such extension.

(2) Such repeal shall not affect the validity of anything done or suffered, or of any obligation or liability which may have accrued, under any of the said Acts; and all penalties incurred and other things duly done under any of the said Acts shall, so far as they are consistent with this Act, be deemed to have been respectively incurred or done hereunder.

(3) All proceedings pending under any of the said Acts, in Calcutta or in any other town or place, at the date when this Act comes into operation therein, shall be deemed to have been commenced under this Act.

3. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,— [Cf. Ben Act II of 1891, s.3.]

(1) "animal" means any domestic or captured animal;

(2) "Calcutta" means, subject to the exclusion or inclusion of any local area by notification under section 4, the area described in Schedule I to the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899; Ben Act III of 1899

(3) "the Corporation" means the Corporation of Calcutta; and

(4) "notification" means a notification published in the Calcutta Gazette.

Alteration of limits of Calcutta

4. The Local Government may, by notification, exclude from Calcutta any local area or include therein any area in the vicinity of the same, and defined in the notification. [Cf. Ben. Act II of 1891, s 4.]

Offences.

Penalty for cruelty to animals and for sale of animals killed with unnecessary cruelty.

5. Every person who— [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 3; Ben. Act I of 1869, s. 2.]

(a) overdrives, cruelly or unnecessarily beats, or otherwise ill-treats any animal, or

(b) binds, keeps or carries any animal in such a manner or position as to subject the animal to unnecessary pain or suffering, or

(c) offers, exposes or has in his possession for sale any live animal which is suffering pain by reason of mutilation, starvation, thirst or other ill-treatment, or any dead animal which he has reason to believe to have been killed in an unnecessarily cruel manner, shall be punished for every such offence with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both.

Penalty for overloading animals.

6. Every person who overloads any animal shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both, and [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 3 (a); Ben. Act I of 1869, s. 2.]

(1) the owner of that animal; and

(2) any person who, as a trader, carrier or contractor, or who, in virtue of his employment by a trader, carrier or contractor, is in possession of that animal or in control over the loading of it, shall also be liable to the same punishment.

Penalty for practising phuka

7. Every person who performs upon any cow the operation called phuka shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both, and the owner of the cow and any person in possession of or control over it shall be liable to the same punishment. [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 4; Ben Act I of 1869, s. 5A.]

Penalty for killing animals with unnecessary cruelty.

8. Every person who kills any animal in an unnecessarily cruel manner shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees, or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with both: [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 5.]

Provided that nothing in this section shall render it an offence to kill any animal in a manner required by the religion or religious rites and usages of any race, sect, tribe or class. [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 11.]

Penalty for being in possession of the skin of a goat killed with unnecessary cruelty.

9. If any person has in his possession the skin of a goat, and has reason to believe that the goat has been killed in an unnecessarily cruel manner, he shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, or with imprisonment which may extend to three months, or with both, and the skin shall be confiscated. [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s 5A.]

(Offences.—Weighbridges and Infirmaries.—Clauses 10-15.)

Presumptions as to possession of the skin of a goat.

10. (1) If any person is charged with the offence of killing a goat contrary to the provisions of section 8, and it is proved that such person had in his possession, after the offence was alleged to have been committed, the skin of a goat with any part of the skin of the head attached thereto, it shall be presumed, until the contrary be proved, that such goat was killed in an unnecessarily cruel manner. [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 5B.]

(2) If any person is charged with an offence against section 9, and it is proved that such person had in his possession, at the time of the alleged offence, the skin of a goat with any part of the skin of the head attached thereto, it shall be presumed, until the contrary be proved, that such goat was killed in an unnecessarily cruel manner, and that the person in possession of such skin had reason so to believe.

Penalty for employing animals unfit for labour.

11. Every person who employs in any work or labour any animal which by reason of any disease, infirmity, wound, sore or other cause is unfit to be so employed, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees, and [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 6 (1); Ben. Act I of 1869, s. 5.]

(1) the owner of that animal; and

(2) any person who, as a trader, carrier or contractor, or who, in virtue of his employment by a trader, carrier or contractor, is in possession of that animal or in control over the employment of it, shall also be liable to the same punishment.

Penalty for baiting animals, or inciting them to fight.

12. Every person who— [Cf Ben. Act I of 1869, s. 3.]

(a) incites any quadrupeds or birds, whether domestic or wild, to fight, or

(b) baits any animal,

and every person who aids or abets any one in such incitement or baiting, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

Penalty for permitting diseased animals to go at large or to die in public places.

13. Every person who wilfully permits any animal of which he is the owner to go at large in any public place while the animal is affected with contagious or infectious disease, or who, without reasonable excuse, permits any diseased or disabled animal of which he is the owner to die in any public place, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees. [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 7; Ben. Act I of 1869, s. 4.]

Weighbridges and Infirmaries.

Weighbridges.

14. (1) The Local Government may appoint the places at which weighbridges shall be established for the detection of cases of overloading of animals, and may also declare, by notification, the limits of the areas for which such weighbridges are established.

(2) The Local Government may erect weighbridges at the places so appointed, and may acquire, by purchase or otherwise, existing weighbridges erected by any person and maintain them for the purposes of sub-section (1).

Infirmaries.

15. The Local Government may, by general or special order, appoint places to be infirmaries for the treatment and care of animals in respect of which offences against this Act are believed to have been committed. [Act XI of 1890, s. 6 (1); Ben. Act I of 1869, s. 5B (1).]

(Weighbridges and Infirmaries.—Clauses 16-20.)

Power of Local Government to appoint Veterinary Inspectors and weighbridge-officers.

16. The Local Government may appoint such persons as they think fit,—

(a) to be Veterinary Inspectors for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act, and may declare the areas within which such officers shall exercise their powers under this Act and the areas of which they shall be in charge;

(b) to be weighbridge-officers, to have charge of any weighbridge or weighbridges established under section 14.

Animal, etc., to be taken to weighbridge in case of overloading.

17. Within the limits of any area for which a weighbridge has been established under section 14, any police-officer, or any other person duly authorized by the Local Government in this behalf, who has reason to believe that an offence against section 6 is being committed in respect of any animal, shall seize and take it, together with its load and the person in charge of the animal, to such weighbridge, and shall cause the load to be weighed on the weighbridge in the presence of such person.

Excess load to be removed in cases overloading.

18. (1) If the weighbridge-officer is not satisfied that an offence against section 6 has been committed, he shall inform the police-officer or person who seized the animal accordingly, and that officer or person shall forthwith release the animal and load.

(2) If the weighbridge-officer is satisfied that an offence against section 6 has been committed, he shall cause the excess load to be removed.

Unfit animal to be taken to Veterinary Inspector.

19. Any police-officer, or any other person duly authorized by the Local Government in this behalf, who has reason to believe that an offence against section 11 is being committed in respect of any animal, shall seize and take it, together with its load, if any, and the person in charge of the animal, to the weighbridge, if any, appointed for the area, within which such seizure is made, or, in the case of there being no weighbridge appointed for the area, to the nearest police-station, and shall remove the load forthwith and report the fact of such seizure to the Veterinary Inspector in charge of that area.

Excess load to be treated as unclaimed property in certain circumstances.

20. (1) Any excess load removed from an animal under section 18, sub-section (2), and any load which was being carried by an animal seized under section 19, and taken to the weighbridge, shall be kept by the weighbridge-officer, at the risk of the owner of such load, at the weighbridge, or at any other place appointed by the Local Government for this purpose, and, if not removed by the owner within twenty-four hours, it shall be made over by the weighbridge-officer to the police and removed to the nearest police-station.

(1a) Any load which was being carried by an animal seized under section 19 and taken to a police-station, shall be kept by the officer in charge of the police-station, at the police-station, or at any other place appointed by the Local Government for this purpose. The said load shall be kept during the first twenty-four hours of such detention at the risk of the owner thereof, and he may remove the same during that period.

(2) The officer in charge of the police-station shall—

(a) in the case of any load removed to the police-station under sub-section (1), and

(Weighbridges and Infirmaries.—Clauses 21-24.)

(b) in the case of any load referred to in sub-section (1a), if not removed by the owner within twenty-four hours, enter, in a register to be kept for the purpose, such particulars of the load as may be prescribed by rules made under section 30, and the load shall thereafter be returned to the person who proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Police that the same belongs to him, on payment of all costs incurred in the removal and detention of such load: [Cf. Ben. Act II of 1891, s. 59.]

Provided that if the load, or any part thereof, consists of articles which are subject to speedy and natural decay, or consists of livestock, that load, or part thereof, may forthwith be sold or otherwise disposed of under the orders of the Commissioner of Police in accordance with rules made under section 30; and the sale-proceeds, after deducting therefrom all expenses incurred in the removal, detention and sale of the entire load, shall be made over to the owner, on proof of his ownership, within six months from the date of entry in the register.

Disposal of sale-proceeds.

21. If within six months from the date of entry in the register no person satisfies the Commissioner of Police that he is the owner of the load, the Commissioner may cause it to be sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with rules made under section 30, and the proceeds of the sale under this section, or of the sale under the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 20, after deducting therefrom all expenses, shall be applied in such manner as the Local Government may prescribe by rules made under section 30. [Cf. Ben. Act II of 1891, s. 59 (4).]

Production of animal for examination by Veterinary Inspector.

22. (1) Any police-officer, or any other person duly authorized by the Local Government in this behalf, who has reason to believe that an offence against this Act has been or is being committed in respect of any animal, may, if the circumstances so require, seize the animal and produce the same for examination by the Veterinary Inspector, if any, in charge of the area in which the animal is seized.

(2) The police-officer or person who seizes any animal under sub-section (1) may require the person in charge of the animal to accompany it to the place of examination.

Examination of animals by Veterinary Inspector.

23. (1) For the purposes of the examination of an animal sent to a Veterinary Inspector in accordance with the provisions of section 22, he may submit the animal to any test which the Local Government may prescribe by rules made under section 30.

(2) If, on such examination, the Veterinary Inspector is of opinion that the animal is unfit to be employed on the work or labour on which it was employed at the time of its seizure, he shall either send the animal for treatment and care to an infirmary appointed under section 15, or (if he considers that a prosecution is necessary, or if the owner of the animal so elects) direct the prosecution of the offender and produce the animal before the Magistrate.

Power of Magistrate to send animal to infirmary

24. The Magistrate before whom a prosecution for any offence under this Act has been instituted may, if he thinks fit, direct that the animal, in respect of which the offence is alleged or proved to have been committed, shall be sent for treatment and care to an infirmary appointed under section 15. [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 6 (3).]

(Weighbridges and Infirmaries.—Clauses 25, 26.)

Detention and cost of treatment of animals at infirmaries.

25. (1) When any animal has been sent to an infirmary in accordance with the provisions of section 23, sub-section (2), or of section 24, it shall be detained there until, in the opinion of the officer in charge of the infirmary, it is cured, or again fit for the work or labour on which it has been ordinarily employed. [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 6 (3), (4), (5) and (6).]

(2) The cost of the treatment, feeding and watering of the animal in the infirmary shall be payable by the owner of the animal, according to such scale of rates as the Commissioner of Police may, from time to time, prescribe.

(3) If the owner refuses or neglects to pay such cost, or to remove the animal within such time as the officer in charge of the infirmary may prescribe, that officer may direct that the animal be sold and the proceeds of the sale be applied to the payment of such cost.

(4) The surplus, if any, of the proceeds of the sale, shall, on application to be made by the owner within two months after the date of the sale, be paid to him; but the owner shall not be liable to make any payment in excess of the proceeds of the sale.

(5) If no application is made by the owner for the surplus sale-proceeds within the period prescribed under sub-section (4), these proceeds shall be applied in such manner as the Local Government may prescribe by rules made under section 30.

Destruction of suffering or unfit animals.

26. (1) When any Magistrate, or the Commissioner of Police, has reason to believe that an offence against this Act has been committed in respect of any animal, the Magistrate or the Commissioner of Police may direct the immediate destruction of the animal, if, in his opinion, its sufferings are such as to render such a direction proper. [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 10.]

(2) When any animal is sent to an infirmary in accordance with the provisions of section 23, sub-section (2), or of section 24, the officer in charge of the infirmary may direct the immediate destruction of the animal, if, in his opinion, its sufferings are such as to render such direction proper, or if he considers it to be permanently unfit for work by reason of old age or some incurable disease.

(3) Any police-officer who finds any animal so diseased, or so severely injured, or in such a physical condition, that it cannot without cruelty be removed shall, if the owner is absent or refuses to consent to the destruction of the animal, at once summon the Veterinary Inspector in charge of the area in which the animal is found and, if the Veterinary Inspector certifies that the animal is mortally injured, or so severely injured, or so diseased, or in such a physical condition, that it is cruel to keep it alive, the police-officer may, without the consent of the owner, kill the animal or cause it to be killed in such manner as to inflict as little pain and suffering as practicable. [Cf. 7 Edw. 7, c. 5, s. 1.]

(Procedure.—Rules.—Clauses 27-30.)

Procedure.

Arrest of offenders.

27. (1) Any police-officer may arrest without a warrant any person committing in his view any offence against this Act, or any person against whom he has received credible information of having committed an offence against this Act, if the name and address of the accused person is unknown to the officer, and if such person, on demand, declines to give his name and address or gives a name and address which such officer has reason to believe to be false. [Cf. Ben. Act III of 1869, s. 1; Act V of 1898, s. 57.]

(2) When the true name and address of a person arrested under sub-section (1) have been ascertained, he shall be released on his executing a bond, with or without sureties, to appear before a Magistrate if so required:

Provided that if such person is not resident in British India, the bond shall be secured by a surety or sureties resident in British India.

(3) If the true name and address of such person is not ascertained within twenty-four hours from the time of arrest, or if he fails to execute the bond, or if so required, to furnish sufficient sureties, he shall forthwith be forwarded to the nearest Magistrate having jurisdiction.

Special power of search and seizure in respect of certain offences

28. If a police-officer, not below the rank of Sub-Inspector, has reason to believe that an offence against section 8 in respect of a goat is being or is about to be, or has been, committed in any place, or that any person has in his possession the skin of a goat with any part of the skin of the head attached thereto, he may enter and search such place or any place in which he has reason to believe any such skin to be, and may seize any such skin and any article or thing used or intended to be used in the commission of such offence. [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 7A.]

Search warrants

29. (1) If a Magistrate of the first class, or the Commissioner of Police, upon information in writing and after such inquiry as he thinks necessary, has reason to believe that an offence against section 7, section 8 or section 11 is being or is about to be, or has been, committed in any place, he may, at any time by day or by night, without notice, either himself enter and search, or, by his warrant, authorize any police-officer above the rank of a constable to enter and search, the place. [Cf. Act XI of 1890, s. 8; Ben. Act III of 1899, s. 501.]

(2) The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, relating to searches under that Code shall, so far as those provisions can be made applicable, apply to a search made under sub-section (1) or under section 28. Act V of 1898.

Rules.

Power of Local Government to make rules.

30. (1) The Local Government may, from time to time, make rules to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the Local Government may make rules—

(a) prescribing the maximum weight of the loads to be carried on or drawn by animals;

(Miscellaneous.—Clauses 31-37.)

(b) for regulating the use of tests and the manner of examination of animals;

(c) prescribing the qualifications of persons to be appointed to be Veterinary Inspectors and weighbridge-officers;

(d) prescribing the particulars to be entered in the register maintained under section 20, sub-section (2);

(e) prescribing such other forms or registers as may be required for carrying out the purposes of this Act;

(f) for carrying out the provisions of the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 20 and of section 21 in regard to the disposal of loads;

(g) prescribing the manner in which fines realized under this Act and sale-proceeds realized under section 21 and section 25, sub-section (5), shall be applied; and

(h) for regulating the destruction of animals under section 26.

Miscellaneous.

Delegation of powers.

31. The Local Government may delegate, under such restrictions as they consider fit, any of the powers conferred upon them by sections 14, 15, 16 and 20 of this Act to any person or local authority. [Cf. Ben. Act I of 1885, s. 86.]

Appointments made by local authority.

32. Every appointment made by a local authority under section 16, in exercise of the power delegated to it under section 31, shall be deemed to be an appointment made under the Act by which such local authority is constituted.

Limitation of time for prosecutions

33. A prosecution for an offence against this Act shall not be instituted after the expiration of three months from the date of the commission of such offence. [Act XI of 1890, s. 9; Ben. Act I of 1869, s. 6C.]

Persons appointed under section 16, 17, 19 or 22 to be public servants.

34. Every person appointed under section 16, 17, 19 or 22 shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code. Act XLV of 1860.

Indemnity.

35. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person who is, or who has been declared to be, a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code for anything which is, in good faith, done or intended to be done under this Act.

Power of local authority to pay certain expenses.

36. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899, the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, or the Bengal Local Self-Government Act of 1885, the Corporation, the Commissioners of a Municipality or the District Board may provide from the funds at their disposal such sums as may be necessary for paying the expenses incidental to the exercise of any of the powers delegated to them under section 31. Ben. Act III of 1899. Ben Act III of 1884. Ben. Act III of 1885.

Effect when Act is extended outside Calcutta

37. Whenever this Act is extended to any town or place outside Calcutta, under section 1, sub-section (3), the Local Government may, by notification, appoint persons, either by name or by official designation, to exercise and perform in such town or place the same powers and duties as are conferred or imposed by this Act on the Commissioner of Police. [Cf. Ben Act II of 1891, s. 61.]

THE CALCUTTA PREVENTION OF CRUELTY TO ANIMALS BILL, 1919.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE question of bringing up to date the law for the prevention of cruelty to animals, particularly in Calcutta, has been under the consideration of Government for some time past. The system in force in Calcutta does not appear to have eradicated the various forms of cruelty to which domestic and captured animals are often subjected. In 1915 the Government, with a view to the improvement of the law on the subject and its administration, appointed a representative Committee to examine the matter and to make suggestions with regard thereto. The Committee suggested that the existing law, which is contained in the Acts noted in the margin, might be amended in certain directions, particularly as regards overloading, the working of unfit animals and the practice of phuka. In order to carry out the suggestions of the Committee it has been thought desirable to introduce a consolidating Bill bringing together the entire law in Bengal on the subject of cruelty to animals, the opportunity being taken at the same time to make certain necessary amendments.

(1) The Bengal Cruelty to Animals Act, 1869 (Ben Act I of 1869).
(2) The Bengal Cruelty to Animals (Arrest) Act, 1869 (Ben Act III of 1869)
(3) The Bengal Cruelty to Animals Act, 1900 (Ben. Act III of 1900).
(4) The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act, 1890 (XI of 1890)
(5) The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Amendment) Act, 1917 (XIV of 1917).

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 1.

Sub-clause (2).—In order to give time to make rules under clause 30, it is intended to postpone the commencement of the operation of the proposed Act until a date to be notified by the Local Government.

Sub-clause (3).—The proposed Act will apply to Calcutta, in the first instance. It will be subsequently extended to other areas.

Clause 2.

Sub-clause (1).—The proposed Act will apply in the first instance only to Calcutta. In other places the old Acts will continue to be in force, but they will be repealed in those areas as soon as the new Act is extended to them.

Clause 4.

This clause is based on section 4 of Bengal Act II of 1891 and will enable the Local Government to alter the limits of Calcutta by notification.

Clause 5.

This clause follows section 3 of the Cruelty to Animals Act, 1890 (XI of 1890) and section 2 of Bengal Act I of 1869. In sub-clause (a) it has been made clear that "cruelly or unnecessarily" applies merely to beating; in sub-clause (b) the word "keeps" has been inserted to cover all cases of cruelty likely to come under the operation of this clause; and in sub-clause (c) thirst has been made an element of the offence.

Clause 6.

This clause is based on section 3(a) of Act XI of 1890. It has been amplified so as to make a trader, carrier or contractor and his servants liable, but not to make an ordinary fare liable.

Clause 7.

This clause reproduces section 4 of Act XI of 1890 and section 5A of Bengal Act I of 1869. It has been amended so as to make the owner and any person in possession of or control over the cow upon which phuka is practised liable to punishment as well as the person who actually performs the operation.

Clause 8.

This clause corresponds to sections 5 and 11 of Act XI of 1890.

Clause 9.

This clause reproduces section 5A of Act XI of 1890.

Clause 10.

In reproducing the provisions of section 5B of Act XI of 1890 the opportunity has been taken to make the intention clearer by removing the possible ambiguity involved in the original section that the skin could be in the possession of a person before the offence is actually committed.

Clause 11.

This clause reproduces the provisions of section 6 (1) of Act XI of 1890 and section 5 of Bengal Act I of 1869, but has been made more comprehensive so as to make the responsibility as wide as possible.

Clause 12.

This clause reproduces section 3 of Bengal Act 1 of 1869.

Clause 13.

This clause reproduces section 7 of Act XI of 1890 and section 4 of Bengal Act I of 1869.

Clause 14.

This is new. It is intended to facilitate the detection of cases of overloading of animals by establishing weighbridges. Power is taken in sub-clause (2) to acquire existing weighbridges.

Clause 15.

This clause reproduces section 6 (1) of Act XI of 1890 and section 5B (1) of Bengal Act I of 1869.

Clause 16.

This clause provides for the appointment of Veterinary Inspectors and weighbridge-officers.

Clause 17.

This clause empowers any police-officer to seize an animal with its load in case of overloading and to take it to the weighbridge appointed for the area in which the seizure is made. To prevent possible abuse of this power it has been provided that weighment of the load is to be made in the presence of the person in charge of the animal. Power is also taken in this clause and in clauses 18, 19 and 22 to vest veterinary officers, agents of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, etc., with the powers of police-officers.

Clause 18.

This clause prescribes certain duties of weighbridge-officers in respect of overloading.

Clause 19.

This clause authorizes the seizure and taking of unfit animals to weighbridges, or in areas where there are no weighbridges, to police-stations, where they are to be relieved.

Clauses 20 and 21.

These two clauses authorize the Commissioner of Police to treat an excess load not removed by the owner within a certain period as unclaimed property and to sell or otherwise dispose of it in accordance with rules made under clause 30.

Clause 22.

This clause empowers any police-officer or any other person authorized by the Local Government to seize an animal when an offence under this Act is believed to have been committed upon it and to produce the same before a Veterinary Inspector for examination.

Clause 23.

This clause gives power to Veterinary Inspectors to examine animals and to send them to an infirmary for treatment and care, if necessary.

Clause 24.

The Magistrate before whom a prosecution under this Act has been instituted is also empowered to send animals to an infirmary. This clause corresponds to section 6 (3) of Act XI of 1890.

Clause 25.

This clause is based on the provisions of section 6 (3), (4), (5) and (6) of Act XI of 1890, but power has been taken to detain an unfit animal in an infirmary till it is again fit for work.

Clause 26.

Sub-clause (1) reproduces section 10 of Act XI of 1890.

Sub-clause (2) gives power to the officer in charge of an infirmary to destroy an animal if its sufferings are so great as to justify its destruction, or if it is unfit for work owing to old age or some incurable disease.

Sub-clause (3) is based on section 1 of the English Statute 7. Edw. 7, c. 5 and authorizes any police-officer to kill an injured or diseased animal on the certificate of a Veterinary Inspector appointed under this Act for the area in which the animal is found.

Clause 27.

This clause, which is based on section 1 of Bengal Act I of 1869, gives power to a police-officer to arrest offenders without a warrant and to release them on bonds which in some cases are to be secured by one or more sureties.

Clause 28.

This clause reproduces the provisions of section 7A of Act XI of 1890 and confers power on police-officers not below the rank of Sub-Inspector to search and seize in respect of certain offences.

Clause 29.

This clause is based on section 8 of Act XI of 1890 and gives power to Magistrates of the first class and the Commissioner of Police to enter and search a place where certain offences are suspected to have been committed or to issue search warrants for this purpose.

Clause 30.

This clause gives power to the Local Government to make rules to carry out the purposes of the Act. Sub-clause (2) (a) takes power to prescribe load limits for draught cattle by rules, and sub-clause (2) (d) will enable rules to be made regarding the notice to be given to an owner before disposal of loads under clause 21.

Clause 31.

This clause enables the Local Government to delegate their powers under clauses 14, 15, 16 and 20 to any person or local authority.

Clause 32.

This clause provides that an appointment made by a local authority shall be subject to the same incidents as an appointment made under the Act by which the local authority is constituted.

Clause 33.

This clause prescribes a period of limitation for prosecutions under the proposed Act. It reproduces the provisions of section 9 of Act XI of 1890 and section 5C of Bengal Act I of 1869.

Clause 34.

This clause declares the persons appointed under clauses 16, 17, 19 or 22 to be public servants.

Clause 35.

This clause supplies the necessary safeguard in respect of acts done in good faith under the proposed Act by persons who are public servants.

Clause 36.

This clause will enable a local authority to whom power is delegated under clause 31 to meet the expenses incidental thereto from its own funds.

Clause 37.

This clause empowers the Local Government to provide for the performance of the functions of the Commissioner of Police when the proposed Act is extended outside Calcutta.

REPORT ON FAMINE IN THE DISTRICT OF BANKURA FOR THE WEEK ENDING THE 9TH AUGUST 1919.

THE rainfall during the week was general and sufficient. Transplantation on high land has been nearly completed. The distress is decreasing owing to improvement of agricultural prospects. Fifty-four relief works were open during the week and the number of persons relieved on them was 4,001. The total number of persons on gratuitous relief was 19,505, viz., 14,357 on cash doles in 128 unions, 3,683 on paddy-husking advances, 885 weavers and 580 better class poor. The grand total of persons relieved was 23,506. The number of persons relieved on private works was 875. The charitable societies also relieved 765 persons on weekly rice doles and 1,150 on doles of cooked food. Crime against property continues to be high. The physical condition of persons on relief works and the public health was generally good. Sporadic cases of cholera and malaria are reported. Cloth is being distributed to destitutes. The relief measures are adequate. The price of common rice varied from 5½ to 5¾ seers per rupee. Burma rice is being sold.

COLONEL A. SMITH, Principal, Bengal Veterinary College, continued to hold charge of the College as well as of the office of Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, throughout the year, Mr. P. J. Kerr and Mr. A. D. MacGregor being still absent on military duty. As in the previous year, all touring and inspection work of the department was performed by Babu Sarat Chandra Pál, Deputy Superintendent, who was on tour for 73 days, and inspected most of the important hospitals and dispensaries of the province. One veterinary assistant of the department returned from field service at the conclusion of the term of his agreement for two years, while seven others were on military duty.

2. The number of students at the Bengal Veterinary College at the end of the session was 165, of which number 63 belonged to Bengal, while most of the others came from Bihar and Assam. There has been a steady increase in the number of students, the figures for the previous three years being 135, 148 and 157; of these numbers 51, 54 and 55 respectively belonged to Bengal. Thirty-three students graduated from the College at the close of the session. Nine graduates belonged to Bengal and have subsequently been employed as veterinary assistants; but there is still a demand for qualified assistants. To improve their prospects their pay has been raised from Rs. 30—$\frac{10}{5}$—70 per mensem to Rs. 50—$\frac{10}{5}$—100 per mensem. The Governor in Council trusts that the improved prospects will attract a large number and a better class of students to the Bengal Veterinary College and thereby improve the efficiency of the department.

3. The report of the Civil Veterinary Department shows a considerable decrease in the mortality of animals from contagious diseases during the year, the total number of deaths reported being 15,569 as against 26,186 in the previous year, The most striking decrease was under the head rinderpest, the number of deaths being 10,772 as compared with 21,126 in the previous year. The decrease is reported to be due to the proper organisation of inoculation campaigns by the Veterinary Department in the affected localities. The death-rate from anthrax was, however, heavier this year than last year, owing to a particularly severe outbreak in the Sundarbans of the 24-Parganas. It is reported that, owing to the nature of this malady, its sudden onset and rapidly fatal termination, only in a few cases were veterinary assistants able to reach the seat of trouble in time to be of any assistance.

There were virulent outbreaks of rinderpest during the year all over Calcutta and its suburbs. Prompt measures were taken in each outbreak to prevent its spread and inoculation was performed in 4,984 cases.

4. During the year under report the itinerant veterinary assistants visited 13,462 villages and treated 58,025 animals, compared with 11,520 villages and 67,333 animals in the previous year.

5. In Calcutta and its suburbs all the stables were regularly inspected Glanders and farcy were detected in 13 and surra in four stables, against two and three respectively in the previous year. In the mufassal 17 deaths from glanders were reported as against 27 in the previous year. The mortality was the highest in the district of Bakarganj, where 13 cases occurred.

6. The number of stud bulls kept by Government and local bodies increased from 68 in the previous year to 104 in the year under review. Only 44 of these are the property of local bodies.

7. Four new dispensaries were recognised at Siliguri, Bankura, Satkhira and Chuadanga during the year, thus bringing the total number of such institutions to 31 as against 27 in the preceding year. The number of patients treated during the year was 43,312 as against 34,889 in the previous year. The Superintendent reports that the increase in the number of cases shows that the usefulness of these institutions is being fully appreciated by the public. The Governor in Council notices with satisfaction that arrangements are being made by the District Boards of Noakhali. Tippera and Bakarganj for the construction of veterinary dispensaries with quarters for veterinary assistants at Feni. Brahmanbaria and Patuakhali, respectively. No provision has, however, yet been made by the District Board of Murshidabad. Rajshahi, Jessore or Midnapore for such buildings. His Excellency in Council trusts that this omission will soon be remedied and that efforts will also be made by District Boards generally to bring the numbers of veterinary assistants in their district up to the sanctioned strength as soon as they can be supplied from the College by the Principal.

8. Though the report is evidence of the fact that much good work is being done by the department. the Governor in Council considers that, in order to popularise the work of the veterinary assistants and to extend their sphere of utility, each District Board should appoint a sub-committee consisting of two or three members to deal with the veterinary work of the Board.

9. The work of the Deputy Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, inspectors and of the staff of the Bengal Veterinary College was satisfactory. His Excellency in Council has much pleasure in acknowledging the valuable services of Colonel Smith and his zeal for the welfare of both the college and the department.

By order of the Governor in Council,

M. C. McALPIN,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

REPORTS ON THE WORKING OF THE SHIPPING OFFICES IN BENGAL FOR THE YEAR 1918-19.

NOTIFICATION.

The 13th August 1919.

No. 102Marine.—The following annual reports on the working of the shipping offices in Bengal for the year 1918-19 are published for general information.

F. A. A. COWLEY,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. S.-1926, dated Calcutta, the 23rd July 1919.

From—The Shipping Master, Calcutta,

To—The Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal, Marine Department.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith for the information of Government the Annual Report of the Calcutta Shipping Office for the year 1918-19.

A comparative statement of the number of seamen shipped and discharged under European and Indian articles for the years 1917-18 and 1918-19 is given below, from which it will be observed that the number of seamen shipped and discharged under European articles shows a little decrease, but a considerable increase is shown under the Indian articles. Further details as per Appendix I.

The number of seamen on European articles who deserted their vessels and failed to join was 11 and the numbers on Indian articles 393. The majority were replaced by substitutes.

Repatriation of distressed seamen.—The total number of seamen repatriated during the year was 84 of whom 54 were repatriated owing to illness, 14 on termination of agreement, one on account of injury, 10 under mutual consent, and 5 on account of venereal disease.

Relief to seamen.—The work-house afforded relief to 6 seamen at a cost of Rs. 253-8; of these one was sent to Lunatic Asylum at Ranchi, 3 absconded, one obtained employment, and one is still in that institution.

Twenty-five destitute seamen were admitted into the Sailors' Home during the year, and a loss of Rs. 253 was sustained owing to seamen being unable to pay their board: 15 seamen were relieved in the Alms House by the District Charitable Society at a cost of Rs. 1,486-8. Rupees 1,61,530 was paid to the crews of enemy vessels on account of balance of wages during the year, of which Rs. 29,742 was debited against the Board of Trade.

Compensation to Seamen of Sunken Vessels.—Rupees 1,860 was paid by the Government of Bengal for loss of effects to the surviving members of the crews of vessels sunk by enemy action and Rs. 5,124 by the Indian Relief Fund through this office as further compensation to the crews.

Relief granted to the dependants of interned seamen.—The amount of relief given to the dependants of seamen interned in Germany by the Indian Relief Fund through this office amounted to Rs. 4,440.

Administration of Trust Fund.—Appendix III shows the transactions during the year of funds held in trust under different heads.

Stamped papers to the value of Rs. 97-6 were used on account of security in disposing of the estates of deceased Indian seamen.

The balance of accumulated funds at the commencement of the year was Rs. 52,024 and the receipts during the year Rs. 1,68,424

The payment from the funds amounted to Rs. 1.12.080, and Rs. 3,298 lapsed to Government, leaving a balance of Rs. 1,05,070 in deposit at the close of the year.

Transaction with Board of Trade.—Rupees 1,11,873 represents the transactions with the Board of Trade. The sum of Rs. 29,742 paid on account balance of wages to seamen of enemy vessels and Rs. 43,835 paid to seamen under the Board of Trade scheme for loss of their effects through enemy action are included in the total transaction with the Board of Trade.

European Seamen's Money Orders.—A sum of £ 366 was remitted by seamen to their relatives in the United Kingdom, as compared with £ 56 of the previous year.

Financial results.—The figures below give the financial result of the office for the last five years:—

Year.	Receipts.	Disbursements.	Savings.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1914-15	1,04,854	61,599	43,345
1915-16	94,319	57,669	36,650
1916-17	94,074	69,238	24,736
1917-18	76,929	58,855	18,074
1918-19	86,356	60,250	26,106

A comparison in the savings of the present and the previous year shows an increase of Rs. 8,032 due to more fees and other receipts received during the year.

Expenditure.—Appendix IV details particulars of the receipts and expenditure of the year.

Administrative changes.—The following changes have taken place:—

Mr. C. S. Cameron has been acting as Assistant Shipping Master, Kidderpore, in place of Mr. C. H. Sharp who is still on leave and is in charge of the Discharge Certificate Department. The shipping and discharging work of the Branch Shipping Office has been done under the supervision of Mr. S. H. Reaks, M.B.E., who held the post of the Assistant Port Officer and Deputy Shipping Master throughout the year in addition to his own duties.

Captain D F. Vines, O.B.E., R.I.M., was Shipping Master throughout the year under report.

No. 418., dated Chittagong, the 21st May 1919.

From—The Shipping Master, Chittagong,

To—The Commissioner of the Chittagong Division.

I HAVE the honour to submit herewith the Annual Administration Report of the Shipping Office for the financial year 1918-19, together with Appendices I to III.

2. Financial results.—The amount received during the year was Rs. 1,957 and that expended was Rs. 580. The accompanying statement I shows the particulars of the receipts and expenditure of the past two years with explanation of the principal fluctuations.

3. Trust Funds.—The opening balance of the year under review was Rs. 1,058 and the receipts Rs. 1,23,835 or Rs. 30,511 in excess of that of the previous year ; the payments were Rs. 1,22,589, leaving a balance of Rs. 2,304 at the close of the year as shewn in statement II annexed.

4. Seamen shipped and discharged.—The number of seamen of all nationalities shipped and discharged during the year under report was 174 and 694, respectively, against 169 and 579 in the previous year as shewn in the statement III annexed.

5. Inspection of vessels.—The number of ships which arrived at this port during the year 1918-19 was 28 (excluding regular coasting steamers) against 22 in the previous year; of these 4 ships were manned solely by Europeans, 1 ship was manned by Japanese, 14 ships were manned by mixed crews of Europeans, Asiatics and Indians, and 9 ships were manned exclusively by natives of India. All the foreign-going ships were inspected by the Port Health Officer.

6. Condition of seamen.—There were 16 seamen admitted into the Chittagong General Hospital against 5 during the preceding year. Of the total admission 12 were discharged as cured, 2 discharged otherwise, one died and one is still in hospital. There were no cases of scurvy or death resulting from bad or insufficient food on board ships during the year under report.

7. Seamen's Money Order.—No remittances of wages were made to the United Kingdom by means of Seamen's Money Order.

8. Deserters.—Twelve lascars deserted during the year against 3 in the preyious year. There was no deserter among European seamen.

9. Deaths.—Three deaths occurred among the sea-faring community at this port during the year under report. One Mr. Theodore Eriesson, a Swedish subject, carpenter on board the SS. War Anemone, whilst returning to the ship at night, accidentally fell into the river ; his body was recovered three days after. One Din Mahamed, Indian fireman, on board the SS. Marwari, jumped overboard at sea and was never seen again.

10. Offences.—No cases were tried by the Magistrate under the Indian Merchant Shipping Act, I of 1859, during the year under report.

* The increase of discharging fees is due to the greater number of vessels having paid off

† The increase under this head is due to the balance of wages amounting to Rs. 1,046 of certain Indian seamen deserted from vessels having been forfeited to Government.

‡ The decrease is due to the present Shipping Clerk having been paid at Rs. 30, i.e., the minimum pay of the post up to 5th October 1917.

§ This amount was drawn by officers performing overtime work afloat.

MONTHLY WEATHER AND CROP REPORT OF BENGAL FOR JULY 1919.

I. Character of the Season.—The rainfall throughout the province was in excess of the normal everywhere except in the districts of Murshidabad, Burdwan, Midnapore, Hooghly and Dinajpur, where the fall was slightly defective. The usual rainfall statement is appended.

II. Progress of the Agricultural Operations.—Transplantation of winter paddy was proceeding under generally favourable conditions, but the progress was retarded in some districts of North and West Bengal for want of sufficient rainfall. Reaping of autumn paddy and cutting, steeping and washing of jute continued.

III. State of Standing Crops.—The condition of autumn paddy, jute and other standing crops was fairly good on the whole.

IV. Prospects and Probable Outturn.—A fairly good outturn of autumn paddy is anticipated. The prospects of winter paddy were generally reported promising.

V. Damage to Standing Crops.—Slight damage to the jute crop by insect pests was reported from some districts, mostly in West Bengal. In the low-lying tracts of Pabna and Faridpur jute, autumn paddy and deep water aman paddy also suffered some damage by flood.

VI. Condition of Agricultural Stock.—The condition of agricultural stock was generally fair. Cattle-disease was found to exist in the districts of Nadia, Murshidabad, Khulna, Burdwan, Midnapore, Hooghly, Dinajpur, Jalpaiguri, Malda, Cooch-Behar, Bakarganj and Tippera.

VII. Failure of Pasturage and Fodder.—The supply of fodder was sufficient throughout the province, except in the flooded tract in the district of Bogra.

VIII. Prices of Food-grains.—During the second fortnight of the month under review the price of common rice for the province rose in nineteen districts, fell in three and remained stationary in the rest. It varied from 4 seers per rupee at Rangpur to 6 seers at Jessore, Khulna and Jalpaiguri.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 14th August 1919.

Summary.—Light to moderate rain fell throughout the province. Reaping of autumn paddy is in progress. Transplanting of winter paddy and cutting, steeping and washing of jute are proceeding but the operations are being retarded in the northern and eastern districts for want of sufficient rain. Slight damage to jute by insects is reported from some West Bengal districts. The prospects of standing crops are reported to be fairly good. The average price of common rice for the province has risen by about 0·61 per cent. as compared with that of previous week. The average number of persons engaged daily in test works in the Brahmanbaria subdivision of Tippera district was 302.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 9541F.—The 21st August 1919.—In pursuance of rules 3 and 4 of the Bengal Legislative (Financial Statement) Rules, 1912, His Excellency the Governor is pleased—

(a) to direct that a Finance Committee of the Bengal Legislative Council be constituted for the purpose of discussing the Draft Financial Statement for 1920-21 and making proposals with reference thereto for consideration by the Government of Bengal, and

(b) to declare that the said Committee shall consist of twelve members, namely, six to be nominated by His Excellency the Governor, and six to be elected by the non-official members of the said Council.

No. 9542F.—The 21st August 1919.—In exercise of the power conferred by rule 4 (2) of the Bengal Legislative (Financial Statement) Rules, 1912, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to prescribe the following procedure for the election of six non-official members of the Finance Committee by the non-official members of the Bengal Legislative Council, in pursuance of Notification No. 9541F of this date:—

1. The election shall be made at a meeting of the non-official members of the Bengal Legislative Council to be held in Calcutta at such time and place as may be intimated to them by the Secretary to the Council by registered letter.

2. When sending such intimation, the Secretary shall invite each member to state, by registered letter, by a date to be fixed by the Secretary, whether he desires to stand for election.

3. The Secretary shall make a list of the names of all members who have, by the date so fixed, stated their desire to stand for election, and shall send a printed copy of such list by registered post to each non-official member one week at least before the date of the election.

4. The members present at the meeting shall elect one of their number to be Chairman and to preside over the election.

5. The Secretary shall attend the meeting, and shall deliver to each member present a printed list of the candidates for election.

6. Each member shall have six votes and may divide them among candidates at his discretion or may give all to any one candidate.

7. Each member present shall record his votes by entering in the printed list referred to in rule 5, against the name of each candidate for whom he wishes to vote, the number of votes he desires to give him.

8. (1) When the voting has been completed, the Secretary shall count the votes, and the Chairman shall announce the result to the meeting.

(2) When so counting the votes, the Secretary shall reject as invalid any printed list which has not been filled up in accordance with rules 6 and 7.

9. (1) If less than six candidates are elected, the Chairman shall invite the members present to vote again for as many candidates as may be required to make up that number.

(2) The Secretary shall then deliver to each member another copy of the printed list of candidates, after striking out the names of candidates who have already been elected.

(3) When further votes are invited under this rule—

(a) each member shall have as many votes as there are vacancies remaining to be filled, and may divide them among the candidates at his discretion, or may give all to any one candidate, and

(b) rules 7 and 8 shall apply.

10. The Secretary shall report the result of the election to the Local Government.

JAILS.

NOTICE.

No. 3109P.J.—The 22nd August 1919.—The Committee appointed to investigate the system of prison administration in India have prepared a paper of interrogatories, printed copies of which are available in the office of the undersigned. Anybody who wishes to furnish written answers to the questions and other cognate matters not contained in the paper of interrogatories should do so before the 15th October 1919. The interrogatories are reproduced below:—

PAPER OF INTERROGATORIES.

Classification of Jails.

I.—(a) Do you approve of the system of classifying jails in India on the basis of prison population or accommodation and of basing the pay of Superintendents on such classification?

(b) What maximum would you fix to the accommodation to be provided for in—

(i) a central jail,
(ii) a district jail?

Jail Construction.

II. Have you any recommendations to make on the subject of jail construction in India?

Superintendence of Jails.

III. (a) Have you any experience of the plan of promoting officers of the jailor grade to the post of Superintendent of a jail; if so, how far, in your judgment, has it been successful?

(b) Are you in favour of entrusting to medical men the superintendence of (a) central jails, (b) district jails? If so, what remarks have you to make regarding the recruitment of Medical Superintendents in the past? If not, what other method of recruitment of Superintendents would you recommend?

Jail Establishment.

IV. (a) Do you consider that the scale of remuneration for the several classes of jail officers in your province is adequate? Have you any suggestions to make on the subject?

(b) What is the scale of warder establishment in your province? Have you any suggestions to make regarding it?

(c) Do you consider that the rate of pay and other conditions of the warders' service are satisfactory and secure a suitable class of man? If not, what would you suggest?

Police.

V. Have the police any part in the guarding of the jails in your province? Have you any recommendations to make on the subject?

Medical arrangements in Jails.

VI. Are you satisfied with the arrangements for the medical care and nursing of sick prisoners in the jails in your province? Have you any suggestions to make on this question?

Jail Offences.

VII. Have you any views to express regarding restraint and punishment of prisoners for jail offences?

Convict Officers.

VIII. Do you approve of the system of employing convicts as convict officers? What are your recommendations?

Labour for Prisoners.

IX. (a) Do you approve of the present methods of providing labour for prisoners, and have you any criticisms or suggestions to offer on the subject?

(b) Do you consider that the employment of power-driven machinery in jails is justifiable; if so, under what conditions and with what limitations?

Remissions of Sentence.

X. What are your views upon the system by which remissions of sentence are granted? Do you consider that the system should be extended so as to cover shorter sentences than at present?

Letters and Visits.

XI. Have you any suggestions to make regarding the rules in your province regulating (a) the receipt and writing of letters by prisoners, (b) interviews with prisoners?

Cellular and Association Systems.

XII. Are you in favour of prisoners being separated at night in a separate cell for each individual, or would you retain the system of association wards?

Separate Confinement.

XIII. Are prisoners in your province subjected to a period of separate confinement as an ordinary incident of a sentence of imprisonment, in accordance with English practice? If so, for how long? Do you approve of the existing rules on this subject, and have you any suggestions to make either as regards those rules or as to the method of carrying out the period of separate confinement?

Special Class of Offenders.

XIV. Are you in favour of creating a division or class of offenderfs, which should be entitled to special treatment in jails? If so, specify as accurately as possible the offences or classes of offences that you would include in such a division, and the nature of the special treatment that you would advocate.

Classification of Prisoners.

XV. (a) Have you any views to express upon the classification of prisoners into habituals and non-habituals, as at present in force in the jails in your province? Do you think that this or any such classification should be made by the Courts or by the jail authorities?

(b) Would you advocate the collection of habitual offenders, as far as possible, in one or more jails to which casual offenders should not ordinarily be sent?

XVI. Have you any special remarks to offer in regard to the jail rules in force in your province for the treatment of—

(i) civil prisoners,
(ii) under-trial prisoners,
(iii) female prisoners,
(iv) juvenile prisoners,
(v) condemned prisoners?

Simple Imprisonment.

XVII. Do you consider it desirable that prisoners, sentenced to simple imprisonment, should be exempt from all labour, or should they be liable to labour, as in England?

Weak-minded Prisoners.

XVIII. Would you recommend any special measures with regard to weak-minded prisoners, and if so, what are your suggestions?

Transportation.

XIX. What is your opinion of transportation as a method of dealing with criminals, with reference to (a) its deterrent effect, (b) its reformative influence? Do you consider that the system of transportation to the Andamans should be retained, with or without modifications?

Fine.

XX. (a) Are the existing provisions of law and rules relating to the payment of fine in your opinion satisfactory? If not, what changes would you suggest?

(b) In the case of persons sentenced to imprisonment in default of payment of fine and with no substantive sentence of imprisonment, would you advocate that the Courts should be either required or allowed, before the offender is committed to jail, to grant time for payment of fine, and, if so, would you permit such payment to be made by instalments?

Solitary Confinement.

XXI. What is your view of the value, as a deterrent, of solitary confinement when imposed by a judicial sentence?

"Preventive Detention" and the Indeterminate Sentence.

XXII. (a) Are you in favour of the system of "preventive detention" for habitual offenders, as practised in the United Kingdom? If so, would you make the period of detention indeterminate or would you fix a maximum and minimum, and in the latter case what periods would you suggest?

(b) If you are in favour of the system of "preventive detention," do you think that it should be applied to all habitual offenders?

(c) Do you think that "preventive detention" (if adopted) should take the place of the system of notification of address under section 565 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, or should it be in addition to that system?

XXIII. Do you advocate the adoption in any other respect of the principle of the indeterminate sentence, and if so, in what respect and subject to what rules and conditions?

Release on Probation.

XXIV. Do you favour the release on probation of first offenders or of any particular class of first offender? If so, what would you suggest, and what machinery would you provide for the supervision of the offender during the period of probation? Or would you advocate the system of suspension of sentence after conviction?

Short Sentence.

XXV. Do you think that short sentences of imprisonment, i.e., for one month and under, are calculated (1) to deter, (2) to reform? If not, what substitutes would you suggest?

Imprisonment in General.

XXVI. (a) Do you consider that imprisonment, as at present carried out, is deterrent, and do you advocate its being made more or less severe? And if so, how?

(b) Have you any reason to think that jail conditions, as they at present exist, are such as to reform and reclaim a prisoner, or the contrary?

Reformatory Influences in Jails.

XXVII. (a) Have you any suggestions to offer regarding further reformatory influences that might be brought to bear upon prisoners in jail?

(b) Would you advocate more extended use of any of the following, namely, elementary general education, instruction in handicrafts, supply of books for reading, drill and gymnastics, moral and religious instruction? If your answer is affirmative, please explain the methods you would suggest.

Children.

XXVIII. Do you advocate the introduction in India of the system of Children's Courts, as worked in England and the United States, and of the methods of dealing with children brought before those Courts, e.g., binding over, probation, committal to industrial and reformatory schools, etc.? What should be the maximum age under which a young person should be regarded as a child?

Releasing of Juvenile (or other) prisoners.

XXIX. Have you any experience of the system of releasing juvenile (or other) prisoners on condition of undergoing the remainder of their sentences in an approved industrial home or other similar institution, or under the supervision of a society? Have you any suggestions to make regarding the working of this system?

Borstal Institutions.

XXX. Are you in favour of separate institutions on the Borstal plan for the detention of adolescent prisoners? If so, what minimum period of detention would you fix and within what age-limits should such prisoners be liable to detention in Borstal institutions?

After-care.

XXXI. Is there any organisation for the after-care of Borstal inmates in your province? If so, please describe fully its methods of working. Have you any recommendations to make on the subject?

Prisoners' Aid Societies.

XXXII. (a) Is there any society for aiding released prisoners generally in your province? If so, do you consider that its operations are adequate and successful, and have you any suggestions to make for its improvement?

(b) Do you think that such a society should be assisted financially by the Government and, if so, what conditions would you impose? How is the society (if any) in your province financed?

Visitors.

XXXIII Have you any suggestions to offer regarding the inspection of jails by visitors, official or non-official?

Criminal Tribes.

XXXIV. (a) Are there any settlements for criminal tribes in your province under the Criminal Tribes Act, 1911? If so, have you any suggestions to make regarding the working of those settlements? To what agency has the control of those settlements been entrusted, and has it been satisfactory?

(b) In the criminal settlements in your province what provision is made for the separation of juveniles from adults? Would you be in favour of the complete removal of children from their parents if the latter belong to a criminal tribe?

REGULATIONS RELATING TO THE EXAMINATION OF MASTERS AND MATES.

CHAPTER I.

GENERAL RULES.

1. Authority for Regulations.—These regulations are issued in pursuance of Act 1 of 1859, as amended by Act V of 1883.

By sections 9 and 10 of that Act provision is made for holding examinations for the grant of certificates of competency and power is given to the Local Government with the sanction of the Governor-General of India in Council to make rules for the conduct of such examinations and the qualifications of the applicants.

In accordance with section 13 of the same Act no foreign-going ship* or home-trade ship* of a burden exceeding 300 tons is allowed to go to sea from any port in India, unless the master and one officer besides the master have obtained and possess valid and appropriate certificates either of competency or service under that Act or under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and whoever, having been engaged to serve as Master or Mate, goes to sea as afore aid as such Master or Mate, without being at the time entitled to and possessed of such a certificate, and whoever employs any person as such Master or Mate without ascertaining that he is at the time entitled to and possessed of such certificate is, for each such offence, liable to a penalty of Rs. 500.

2. Time and place of examinations.—The times and places at which examinations are held are shown in Appendix A.

3. How to apply.—Candidates for examination must fill up a form of application (Form Exn. 2.) at the Port Office. The form, properly filled in, together with the candidate's testimonials and discharges, must be lodged with the Port Officer, Calcutta, not later than the day before the day of examination ; and the candidate must conform to any regulations in this respect which may be laid down by the Local Government. The discharges and testimonials should be handed in, together with the form of application, as many days as possible before the date of the examination which the candidate desires to attend. In the absence of the necessary verification the candidate cannot be examined.

The Examiner should be particularly careful to ascertain that there are no gaps in the candidate's service which are not properly accounted for, before he is allowed up for examination.

* "Foreign-going ship" includes every ship employed in trading between any port of the territories which are or may become vested in His Majesty by the Statute 21 and 22 Vic, C. 106, entitled "An Act for the Better Government of India," and any port or place not in the said territories, nor on the Continent of India, nor in the Straits Settlements, nor in the Island of Ceylon; and "Home Trade Ship" includes every ship employed in trading between any ports of the said territories, or between any port of the said territories and any port or place on the Continent of India or in the Straits Settlements or in the Island of Ceylon.

4. How to apply in special cases.—In cases where a candidate is in doubt whether his service complies with the Regulations, and wishes to submit his case for special consideration, all certificates, discharges, and testimonials, together with the form of application*, properly filled in, should be submitted to the Port Officer. If neces-ary the officer will, after seeing that all the required information is clearly set forth in the papers, forward them with his observations to the Local Government for decision.

5. Inquiries.—All other inquiries regarding examinations should be made and dealt with in the same way. The point on which information is sought should be clearly stated, and certificates, discharges, testimonials, etc., should be forwarded when they are material to the inquiry.

6. Nature of service determined by actual position on board ship.—Sea service, in the foreign or home trade, cannot be regarded as qualifying for examination for certificates of competency unless it can be verified by reference to the articles of the ship on which it was performed, e.g., service claimed by testimonial or otherwise to have been as Mate when the actual rating as shown by the articles was only that of boatswain or other petty officer will not be accepted where officer's service is required. Where service as First (or Second) Mate is required to qualify for examination the candidate must actually have held the executive position next (or next but one) to the Master.

Candidates who represent themselves as having served in a higher capacity than that actually held in the ship render themselves liable to prosecution.

In this connection examiners should remember that it has been a common practice for officers to be rated on ship's articles as "Second Mate," although in reality they were only Third or Fourth Mates and acted in one of those positions on board ship.

In every case where a candidate for a Master's certificate of competency claims service as Second Mate, he should be requested to make a declaration in Divn. H of the Form Exn. 2, to the effect that during his service as Second Mate he had only one officer over him, or if more than one, that a Third and Fourth Mate were also carried.

If the service claimed is as "auxiliary Second Mate" the candidate should be required to state the number of officers serving in a junior capacity.

A candidate with First Mate's service should make a declaration that he was the senior officer under the Master, or if not, he must comply with the requirements of rule 84, as it has been found that in some cases the second mate has been signed on the articles as First Mate, the proper First Mate being called chief officer simply for examination purposes.

It must be clearly understood that the amount of service laid down in the Regulations for each grade of certificate of competency is the absolute minimum that can be accepted, and unless a candidate can show the full amount he must in no case be allowed up for examination.

7. Age.—Should any doubt exist as to the age of a candidate he will be required to produce a certificate of birth.

8. Testimonials required.—Testimonials to character, including sobriety, and to experience and ability, on board ship for at least the last twelve months of sea service preceding the date of application to be examined, will be required of all candidates, and without producing them no person will be examined.

9. Penalty for misconduct.—Candidates who have neglected to join their vessels after having signed articles, or who have deserted their vessels after having joined, or who have been found guilty of gross misconduct on board, will be required to produce satisfactory proofs of two years' subsequent service and good conduct at sea, unless the Local Government, after having investigated the matter, should see fit to reduce the time.

10. Deafness and other physical and mental disabilities.—If during the progress of the examination the examiner finds that a candidate is afflicted with deafness, with an impediment in his speech, or with some other physical or mental infirmity, and he is satisfied upon further investigation that the degree of deafness or of the impediment or other infirmity is such as to render the candidate incompetent to discharge the ordinary duties of a Mate or Master at sea, he should not allow the candidate to complete his examination and should return his examination fee; but every case in which this action is taken must be reported to the Port Officer.

If the candidate subsequently produces a medical certificate to the effect that his hearing, speech, or physical or mental condition has improved, the Port Officer will take into consideration the question of allowing the candidate to sit again for examination.

11. Foreigners must know English.—Foreigners must prove to the satisfaction of the examiners that they can speak and write the English language sufficiently well to perform the duties required of them on board a British vessel. If a candidate fails for ignorance of the English language he will not be re-examined until after a lapse of six months. In the case of candidates for Home Trade certificates, the certificates of Asiatics who may not be able to speak English shall be endorsed to the effect that they are valid only for vessels manned and officered entirely by Asiatics.

* Form Exn 2, which can be obtained at Port Office

12. Issue of certificate.—If the candidate passes he will receive a form (Form Exn. 16) authorising the Port Officer to whom it is addressed to issue the certificate. It is, therefore, important that the port at which the certificate is to be issued should be the same on both the form Exn. 16 and the form Exn. 2. If circumstances should make any alteration necessary, the examiner should see that it is made in both forms, otherwise delay in the issue of the certificate may be caused.

13. Service found to be insufficient.—If after a candidate has passed the examination it is discovered on further investigation that his services are insufficient to entitle him to receive a certificate of the grade for which he has passed, the certificate will not be granted to him; but if the Local Government is satisfied that the error in the calculation of the candidate's services did not occur through any fault or wilful misrepresentation on his part, he may either have the fee returned to him or have it placed to his credit. Should his services entitle him to a certificate of a lower grade it may be granted to him, and the difference, if any, between the fee paid by him for the superior certificate and the fee payable for the inferior certificate will be returned to him or placed to his credit. The superior certificate will not be granted until the candidate has performed the amount of service in which he was deficient, and has been re-examined in all the subjects, unless the Local Government see fit to dispense with the re-examination.

14. Failure in Examination.—In all cases of failure the candidate must be examined anew. If a candidate fails in Seamanship he will not be re-examined until after a lapse of six months. Whether the whole or part of this period must be served at sea must depend upon the subjects in Seamanship in which the candidate failed, but the amount of further sea service to be required will be left to the discretion of the examiner.

15. Examiner's Report.—The examiner, in making his report on the form Exn. 14, should state what amount, if any, of further sea service the candidate must perform, and he should also insert this information in the form Exn. 2.

16. Failure in Navigation.—If a candidate fails three times in Navigation within three months, he will not be re-examined until after a lapse of three months from the date of the last failure.

17. Failure in Extra Examinations.—Candidates for Extra certificates will not be allowed to present themselves for examination more than three times within a period of twelve months.

18. Candidates failing may be examined for certificate of lower grade.—If a candidate fails in his examination for an Ordinary certificate, and the subjects in which he has failed are not included in the syllabus prescribed for a certificate of a lower grade, he may, if he so desires, be examined for the lower grade certificate without further formal application or payment of fee, but he will be required to complete the whole of the work prescribed for such lower grade.

If a candidate fails for the Extra certificate, he may also, without further formal application or payment of fee, proceed with the examination for the Ordinary certificate, but, in this case, the whole of the examination prescribed for the lower grade will have to be completed irrespective of any work which may have been done under examination for the Extra certificate. The subsequent examination for the lower grade may, if time permits, be taken during the current week, but in that case a special set of problems should be supplied to the candidate; should the time be insufficient, the candidate will be allowed to sit at the next following examination.

No part, however, of the fee he has paid will be returned to him, and on presenting himself, when qualified, for re-examination for the higher certificate, he will be required to pay again the full fee for the examinations.

19. Failure in Seamanship.—If a candidate fails in Seamanship so far as regards the management of square-rigged sailing vessels, in his examination for an Ordinary certificate, he may, if qualified as to service, without further formal application or further payment of fee, proceed with the examination for a certificate of competency for foreign-going steamships, or for fore and aft rigged vessels. And if a candidate fails in the same manner in his examination for an Extra Master's certificate, he may, under the same conditions as above, proceed with the examination for an Extra certificate for steamships.

20. Fee always paid first.—Candidates for examination, in making their application on form Exn. 2, will be required to pay the examination fee before any step is taken in the way of inquiring into their services or testing their qualifications. If the candidate is found not to be eligible the fee will either be returned to him or placed to his credit until he is eligible.

21. Where to pay fees.—The fee for examination must be paid to the Port Office. If a candidate offers a gratuity to any officer of the Department, he will be regarded as having committed an act of misconduct, and will be rejected, and not allowed to be again examined for twelve months either at the port where the offence was committed, or at any other port.

22. Fee not returned on failure.—If a candidate fails to pass the examination no part of the fee will be returned to him.

23. Table of fees.—The fees are as follows:—

FOR FOREIGN-GOING SHIPS.

	Rs.	A.	P.
Second Mate	15	0	0
First or Only Mate—
If previously possessing an inferior certificate, either granted by the Board of Trade, or by the Government of a British possession under Order in Council ...	7	8	0
Where a candidate is in possession of a certificate for fore and aft rigged vessels, and requires an Ordinary or a Steamship certificate of the same grade; or where a candidate is in possession of a Steamship certificate, and requires an Ordinary certificate of the same grade	Half the usual fee.
Where a candidate is in possession of a Colonial certificate for foreign-going ships, not granted under Order in Council; or of a provisional certificate of qualification obtained after examination on board one of His Majesty's ships; and requires a colonial certificate issued by the Government of Bengal of same grade; for first attempt ...	No fee.
Every subsequent attempt	Usual fee.

FOR HOME TRADE SHIPS.

Mate	7	8	0
Masters	15	0	0

VOLUNTARY EXAMINATIONS.

Voluntary examination in Steam	15	0	0
Voluntary examination in Compass Deviation	15	0	0
Voluntary examination in Signalling; if taken at the same time as the examination for a certificate of competency ...	No fee.
If taken at any other time	15	0	0

FOR YACHTS.

NOTE.—No abatement will be made in the fee charged to a candidate for a certificate for foreign-going ships in consequence of his possessing a Master's or Mate's certificate for home trade passenger ships.

24. Copy of Lost Certificate.—An applicant for a certified copy of a lost Certificate either of Competency or Service, must fill in a form of application, Exn. 23, giving the particulars required, and hand it to the Port Officer of Calcutta. A declaration as to the circumstances in which the certificate was lost must be made by the applicant before the Port Officer who will forward a certified copy of the lost certificate to the applicant.

25. First Aid to the Injured.—(a) Every candidate for a Certificate of Competency of any grade as Master or Mate will be required to produce a certificate issued by the St. John's Ambulance Association, the St. Andrew's Ambulance Association, the St. Patrick's Ambulance Association, the British Red Cross Society, the London County Council, the Glamorgan County Council, the Leith Technical College or other approved body or by a Medical Officer of one of His Majesty's ships, to the effect that he has passed examination in First Aid to the injured.

(b) The certificate must be an adult certificate, i.e., obtained by the candidate when sixteen years of age or more, and (except in the circumstances indicated in rule 130) the examination for it must have been passed not more than three years before the date of the examination for the certificate of competency. Certificates issued by the St. John's Ambulance Association more than three years before the examination for a certificate of competency will, however, be accepted, provided that, at the expiration of three years since its issue, the certificate has attached to it the "Voucher" or "Label" of the Association certifying that the holder has passed re-examination in First Aid.

(c) If a candidate does not possess such a certificate of proficiency in First Aid he should apply some time before he wishes to sit for examination for a certificate as Master or Mate to the local secretary of one of the approved Associations, who will inform him of the available facilities for the instruction and examination of candidates in First Aid. A list of the names and addresses of the local secretaries of the Associations is given in Appendix C.

(d) Besides the courses of instruction which are provided on shore at the ports in the United Kingdom, at which examinations for certificates as Master and Mate are held, courses of instruction given by qualified surgeons on board merchant vessels will be accepted by the St. John's Ambulance Association as qualifying the candidate for examination for their certificate of proficiency in First Aid, provided the surgeon certifies that he has followed the syllabus of instruction laid down by the Association.

(e) The St. Andrew's Ambulance Association will also accept instruction by a ship's surgeon on board ship as qualifying a candidate for examination for their certificate of proficiency in First Aid, provided their syllabus is followed. In this case the candidate must previously have enrolled and obtained an attendance card, by applying to the local secretary of the Association, or to the head office at 176, West Regent Street, Glasgow.

(f) It will not be necessary for the candidate for a certificate as Master or Mate in all cases to produce the formal certificate of proficiency in First Aid issued by the Associations. In order to prevent delay in proceeding with the examination for the certificate as Master or Mate and in the issue of the certificate to successful candidates, the special Mercantile Marine linen Certificate issued by the St. John's Ambulance Association and duly signed by the Lecturer, the Surgeon Examiner, and the Association's local representative, or, in Scotland, a certificate signed by the Local Examiner of the St. Andrew's Ambulance Association, to the effect that the candidate has passed the examination for a Certificate of proficiency, may be accepted as showing that the candidate possesses the required knowledge of First Aid.

26. Sight Tests.—(a) Every candidate for a certificate of competency must pass the prescribed sight tests before a certificate can be issued to him. If circumstances render it necessary for him to proceed with the examination in navigation and seamanship before undergoing the sight tests, he should be informed that the examination in navigation and seamanship will be cancelled in the event of his failure to pass either of the sight tests.

(b) Form vision test.—Every candidate for a certificate must pass the form vision test. If he obtained a certificate of competency before January 1st, 1914, he will only be required to possess half normal vision using both eyes together. Otherwise he must pass a higher standard, viz., normal vision using both eyes or either eye separately.

Any candidate who has obtained his first certificate under these conditions may obtain his higher certificates, provided that he has normal vision using both eyes or either eye separately.

Detailed information with regard to the conduct of the examination and the standards required is contained in Appendix I.

(c) Colour vision test.—Every candidate must undergo the colour vision test on every occasion on which he presents himself for examination for his first certificate of competency; but, if he then passes, he will not be required to undergo the colour vision tests on any subsequent occasion.

No person who holds a certificate of competency should be examined in colour vision.

(d) A candidate who fails to pass the prescribed form vision test may present himself for re-examination at intervals of three months. A candidate who fails to pass the colour vision test cannot be re-examined. In the case of a candidate who is referred for further examination the Port Officer will make arrangements for a special examination. It is also open to any candidate who is adjudged to have failed in the colour vision test to appeal to the Local Government, who may, if they think fit, remit the case to a special body of examiners for decision.

(e) The Local Government will repay, at a rate which will be notified to the candidate, the travelling expenses of any candidate who is referred for further examination, as well as the travelling expenses of any candidate who, having appealed against failure, is reported by the Special Examiners to have passed. No payment whatever will be made towards the expenses of candidates who, upon their own application, are examined by the Special Examiners, and are reported by them to have failed, unless the Local Government consider that the particular circumstances of the case justify such payment.

(f) When a candidate fails to pass the colour vision test, the Examiner will point out to him the conditions under which he can appeal. Appeals are to be made through the Port Officer, and forwarded to Local Government with the Examiner's remarks.

(g) Only Examiners who have themselves passed the colour vision tests are to undertake the local examinations.

(h) The fee paid for examination for a certificate of competency includes the fee of one rupee for examination in form and colour vision, and if the candidate fails to pass those tests, this fee will, with the exception of one rupee, be returned to him.

(i) No additional fee will be charged to any candidate referred for special examination, or for the special examination allowed to a candidate who appeals against failure. If, however, a candidate, who has been reported by the Special Examiners as having failed, is still dissatisfied, it will be open to him, if he so desires, to present himself for a second special examination on payment of a fee of rupees seventy-five, provided that he brings with him a friend to witness the examination.

This second examination will, however, be entirely voluntary, and will form no part of the examination for a certificate of competency. The Local Government will, however, give consideration to the result of such examination in determining whether a certificate shall be granted.

The sight tests are open to all persons serving or intending to serve in the Mercantile Marine or in fishing vessels, and all such persons recommended to take the earliest opportunity of ascertaining whether their vision is such as to qualify them for service in that profession. Any such person, if desirous of undergoing the tests, must make application to the Port Officer, on the form Exn. 2a, and must pay a fee of one rupee.

This fee will be payable on each occasion on which a candidate is examined.

CHAPTER II.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED FOR THE VARIOUS GRADES.*

[Certificates for Foreign-going Ships, or Ordinary Certificates.]

27. Square-rigged service required.—A candidate for an Ordinary certificate of any garde who has not previously held an Ordinary certificate of a lower grade must prove that he has served 12 months in the Foreign trade, or 18 months in the Home or Coasting trade, in a square-rigged sailing vessel.

28. Value of Ordinary Certificates.—Ordinary certificates will entitle the holders to go to sea as Mates or Masters of any vessel, sailing or steam.

29. Second Mate.—A candidate must be not less than eighteen years of age, and must have served four years at sea.

30. Second Mate, Ordinary Navigation.—A candidate for a Second Mate's certificate will be required :—

(a) To write a legible hand and spell correctly. For the purpose of testing his ability the candidate will be required to write a short essay on some suitable subject.

(b) To show a competent knowledge of the first five rules of arithmetic and the use of logarithms.

(c) To answer questions on elementary plane trigonometry.

(d) To work a day's work complete, correcting the courses for leeway, deviation and variation.

(e) To find the latitude by the meridian altitude of the sun.

(f) To work any practical problem in parallel sailing.

(g) To find the true course and distance from one given position to another by Mercator's method; also the compass course, the variation and deviation being given.

(h) To find the true amplitude of the sun and the error of the compass therefrom; also the deviation, the variation being given.

* These qualifications are shown in a tabular form in Appendix J.

(i) To find the longitude by chronometer from altitude of the sun by the usual methods, computing the daily rate of chronometer from errors observed, when required ; also to find the true azimuth of the sun, and the error of the compass ; and the deviation, the variation being given.

(j) To find the true azimuth of the sun by the "Time Azimuth" tables ; the error of the compass ; also the deviation, the variation being given.

NOTE.—The candidate will be required to give a figure and explanation for each problem worked, and give a written explanation of any of the terms used in navigation or nautical astronomy that may be asked.

(k) To find on a chart or plan the course or courses to steer and the distance or distances from one given position to another ; to find the ship's position together with the set and drift (if any) on the chart or plan from cross-bearings of two objects ; to find the ship's position from two bearings of the same object, the course and distance run between taking the bearings being given, making due allowance for a given tide or current ; also, the distance of the ship from the object or any given position at the time of taking the second bearing ; to find on a chart or plan the course to steer by compass in order to counteract the effect of a given tide or current, and find the distance the ship will make good towards a given point in a given time ; to fix a ship's position on a chart or plan by horizontal sextant angles, using a station pointer ; and to work out practically the correction to apply to soundings taken at a given time and place to compare with the depth marked on the chart ; and give a method of finding approximately the time of high water at any given place without the aid of the Admiralty or other Tide Tables.

He will be examined orally in the following subjects :—

(l) The Morse and British movable semaphore alphabets, the International Code of Signals, and the British Signal Manual. He will be required to attain a minimum speed of 8 words a minute in semaphore and 5 words a minute in Morse flashing and flag waving. (See Appendix D.)

(m) The use and adjustments of the sextant, read off and on the arc, and the mode of finding the index error by both horizon and sun.

(n) The construction, use and principle of the barometer, thermometer and hydrometer. Also the use and care of a chronometer.

(o) Weights and measures.

(p) The markings, signs and abbreviations on Admiralty charts or plans.

(q) The General Notices published in the Board of Trade Summary of Notices to Mariners.

(r) Elementary questions on the main parts of a ship's construction.

31. Second Mate, Ordinary : Seamanship.—He must understand and give satisfactory answers on the following subjects :—

(a) The standing and running rigging of ships.

(b) Bending, unbending, setting, reefing, taking in, and furling sail.

(c) Sending masts and yards up and down, etc.

(d) Management of a ship when under canvas.

(e) Management of ships' boats in heavy weather.

(f) Dunnaging and stowing cargo, etc.

(g) The Rule of the Road as regards both steamers and sailing vessels, their regulation lights and fog and sound signals.

(h) The signals of distress, and the signals to be made by ships wanting a pilot, and the liabilities and penalties incurred by the misuse of these signals.

(i) The marking and use of the lead and log lines. Also care and use of sounding machines and mechanical logs.

(j) The use and management of the rocket apparatus in the event of a vessel being stranded.

(k) Any questions appertaining to the duties of a Second Mate that the Examiner may think necessary to ask.

(l) Also questions on the additional subjects which are specified in the rules of examination for Second Mates' certificates of competency for foreign-going steamships. (See rule 44.)

32. Mate, Ordinary Only.—A candidate must be not less than nineteen years of age, and have served five years at sea.

33. First Mate, Ordinary.—A candidate must be not less than nineteen years of age, and have served five years at sea, of which—

(a) One year must have been in a capacity not lower than Fourth Mate of a foreign-going vessel whilst holding a Second Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels;

if his service was as Third or Fourth Mate proof will be required that he had during the whole year charge of a watch (see rule 83);

(b) or one year and a half must have been in a capacity not lower than Only Mate in a home trade or coasting vessel whilst holding a Second Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels, or a Mate's certificate for home trade passenger ships;

(c) or one year must have been as Pilot with a First Class Pilot's Certificate (see rule 80).

34. Mate, Ordinary: Navigation.—In addition to the work for the Second Mate's certificate, a candidate for the Only or First Mate's certificate will be required:—

(a) To answer questions on right-angled spherical trigonometry.

(b) To compute the time at which a given star will be on the observer's meridian. [Occasionally by inspection.]

(c) To determine what bright stars will be within a certain hour-angle from the observer's meridian, above the pole and above the horizon, at any given time; also the hour angle, east or west, of each of the stars, and whether they are to the north or south of the observer's zenith when passing the meridian.

(d) To compute the approximate meridian altitude of a star, for setting the sextant.

(e) To find the latitude from the meridian altitude of a star.

(f) To find the longitude by chronometer by altitude of a star.

(g) To find the true azimuth of a star by the "Time Azimuth" tables, and get the deviation therefrom.

(h) To find the latitude by ex-meridian altitude of the sun or a star.

(i) To find the line of position and the true bearing of the sun, and the ship's position, by Sumner's method by projection.

NOTE.—The candidate will be required to give a figure and explanation for each problem worked, and give a written explanation of any of the terms used in navigation or nautical astronomy that may be asked.

(j) To answer certain questions on meteorology.

He will be examined orally in the following subjects:—

(k) How to keep a ship's log book.

(l) How to calculate the capacity of a given bunker or hold.

(m) How to calculate a freight and its commissions.

(n) The measurement and equipment of ship's life-boats and number of persons allowed to be carried in each class of boat.

(o) Testing of life-buoys and life-belts.

(p) The screening of ship's side lights.

(q) More advanced questions on the main part of a ship's construction and general use.

35. Mate, Ordinary: Seamanship.—In addition to the qualifications required for a Second Mate's certificate, an Only or First Mate will be required to show a knowledge of the following subjects:—

(a) Shifting large spars, rigging sheers, taking lower masts in and out.

(b) How to moor and unmoor ship; to keep a clear anchor; and to carry out an anchor.

(c) How to manage a ship in stormy weather, and to cast a ship on a lee shore.

(d) How to secure the masts in the event of accident to the bowsprit.

(e) How to rig purchases for getting heavy weights, anchors, machinery, etc., in or out.

(f) How to dispose various kinds of cargo and weights in a stiff and in a tender vessel.

(g) The ventilation of holds, and the stowage of explosives.

(h) The stowage of grain cargoes.

(i) How to rig a sea anchor, and what means to employ to keep a vessel, disabled or unmanageable, out of the trough of the sea, and lessen her lee drift.

(j) How to get a cast of the deep sea lead in heavy weather.

(k) Accidents, and how to deal with them.

(l) any other questions appertaining to the duties of an Only or First Mate which the Examiner may think necessary to ask.

(m) Also questions on the additional subjects which are specified in the rules of examination for Only and First Mate's certificates of competency for foreign-going steamships. (See rule 48.)

* For convenience of calculation the service required is stated in a tabular form in Appendix J.

36. Master, Ordinary.†—A candidate must be not less than twenty-one years of age, and—

(a) he must have served six years at sea, of which one year must have been in a capacity not lower than Only Mate of a foreign-going vessel, whilst holding a certificate not lower than an Only Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels, provided that, if this service as officer was not performed whilst holding a First Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels, the candidate will also be required to prove the officer's service prescribed for that grade (rule 33);

(b) or, he must have served six years at sea, of which one year and a half must have been in a capacity not lower than Only Mate of a home trade or coasting vessel whilst holding a certificate not lower than an Only Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels, provided that, if this service as officer was not performed whilst holding a First Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels, the candidate will also be required to prove the officer's service prescribed for that grade (rule 33);

(c) or, he must have served six and a half years at sea, one year of which must have been in a capacity not lower than Second Mate of a foreign-going vessel whilst holding a First Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels, provided that, if this service as Second Mate was performed under an additional or auxiliary First Mate it will only be accepted if a Third or Fourth Mate were also carried, and one year and a half not lower than Third or Fourth Mate of a foreign-going vessel in charge of a watch whilst holding a Second Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels (see rule 6);

(d) or, he must have served nine years at sea in the Home or Coasting trade; of which three years must have been as Master, or one year as Master and three years in a capacity not lower than that of Mate, provided that, in either case, he has served in such capacity for not less than one year with a Second Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels or a Master's certificate for home trade passenger ships.

37. Master, Ordinary: Navigation.—A candidate for an Ordinary Master's certificate will, in addition to the work prescribed for the grades of Second and First Mate that may be given him by the Examiner, be required:—

(a) To write an essay on some technical subject

(b) To find the latitude by the altitude of the Polar star at any time.

(c) To find the latitude by the meridian altitude of the moon.

NOTE.—The candidate will be required to give a figure and explanation for each problem worked, and give a written explanation of any of the terms used in navigation or nautical astronomy that may be asked.

(d) To find the magnetic bearing of any fixed object when at sea or at anchor from bearings of the object taken with the ship's head on equidistant compass points, and to compute the deviation therefrom; to construct a deviation curve upon a Napier's diagram which will be furnished by the Examiner, and show that he understands its practical application, to give satisfactory written and oral answers to certain practical questions as to the effect of the ship's iron upon the compasses, and the method of determining the deviation, and show how to compensate the deviation by magnets and soft iron by the aid of Beall's Compass Deviascope.

(e) Questions on ship construction and naval architecture and a few elementary questions on stability.

He will be examined orally in the following subjects:—

(f) The law as to the engagement and discharge and management of the crew, and the entries to be made in the official log.

(g) How to prevent and check an outbreak of scurvy on board ship.

(h) The law as to load-line marks, and the entries and reports to be made respecting them.

(i) Invoices, charter party, bills of lading, Lloyd's agent, nature of bottomry, bills of exchange, surveys, averages, etc.

(j) The prevailing winds and currents of the globe.

(k) The trade routes.

38. Master, Ordinary: Seamanship.—In addition to the qualifications required for the grades of Second and First Mate, an Ordinary Master will be required to show a knowledge of the following subjects:—

(a) Construction of jury rudders for both wooden and iron vessels, also rafts.

(b) Resources for the preservation of the ship's crew in the event of wreck.

(c) Management of ship in heavy weather.

(d) Rescuing the crew of a disabled vessel.

* For convenience of calculation the service required is stated in a tabular form in Appendix J

† See also rule 129

(e) Steps to be taken when a ship is on her beam ends, or in any danger or difficulty, or disabled or unmanageable and on a lee shore.
(f) Heaving a keel out.
(g) How to proceed when placing a ship in dry dock, and directing repairs, and when putting into port in distress with damage to cargo and ship.
(h) Any other question appertaining to the management of a ship which the examiner may think it necessary to ask.
(i) Also questions on the additional subjects which are specified in the rules of Examination for Masters' certificates of competency for foreign-going steamships. (See rule 51.)

39. Special Regulations relating to the examination of Masters and Mates to apply only where the candidate has served an apprenticeship in an approved sea-going training ship, with a view to promotion in the service of the Company to which the training ship is attached.—(1) The training ship must be a sea-going cargo-carrying square-rigged sailing vessel, and the course of study and practical training which the cadets receive must be approved by the Local Government.

At the end of four years' service in the training ship the cadet will be qualified for examination for a certificate as Second Mate provided (a) he can produce a testimonial to the effect that both his conduct and his ability have given satisfaction during the whole period, and (b) that he has served at sea for not less than four-fifths of the time, that is to say, has not spent more than one-fifth of the time in home ports, cf. rule 100.

If the cadet has served previously for two years in either the "Conway" or the "Worcester" training ship, this time will be allowed to count as one year's qualifying service (cf. rule 97), and he will be required to serve for 3 years only in the Company's training ship before he can be allowed up for examination for a certificate as Second Mate (ordinary).

(2) A candidate who has served for four (or three) years on the training ship may be allowed up for examination for a certificate as First Mate (ordinary) when he has served, whilst holding a certificate as Second Mate, for two years as junior bridge-keeping officer of the watch upon vessels of the Company satisfying certain requirements [see sub-rule (4)]. The words "junior bridge-keeping officer" must be interpreted as meaning the junior of two bridge-keeping officers. Where three officers are on the bridge together, the service of the third does not fall within the scope of the Special Regulations, and his service cannot be accepted as qualifying. All cases where cadets, to whom these special regulations apply, subsequently present themselves for examination for First Mate or Master must be referred to the Registrar-General of Seamen, so that their real position on board vessels of the Company satisfying the requirements of this rule may be verified by reference to the official logs before they are accepted as eligible for examination.

(3) A candidate who has obtained a certificate as First Mate in the above way may be allowed up for examination for a certificate as Master (ordinary) when he has served for eighteen months whilst holding the Certificate as First Mate, as a senior watch-keeping officer upon vessels of the Company satisfying the same requirements [see sub-rule (4)].

If the candidate has served for eighteen months as senior of the junior officers, i.e., the officer next below the junior of the officers in full charge of the watch whilst holding the certificate as First Mate, he may be allowed up for examination for a certificate as Master (ordinary) on the understanding that the certificate as Master would not be issued to him until he had completed twelve months' service as a senior watch-keeping officer, the service in both cases to be performed on vessels satisfying the same requirements [see sub-rule (4)].

(4) The special regulations (sub-rules 2 and 3) in regard to the acceptance of service as qualifying for the examinations for certificates as First Mate and Master shall apply only when the service is performed in the specified capacities upon ocean-going steamers of not less than 8,000 tons gross, making an average speed of 15 knots or upwards and carrying a crew of not less than 130 men, including at least five deck officers besides the Master.

40. Fore and aft certificates.—Certificates for the grades of Second Mate, Only Mate, First Mate, and Master of fore and aft rigged vessels will be issued to candidates who have not complied with the regulation which requires them to have served at least one year in square rigged sailing vessels, or who prove in course of examination that they are ignorant of the management of square-rigged ships. In other respects the qualifications for examination for such certificates are the same as for Ordinary certificates.

The examinations for the grades of Second Mate, Only Mate, First Mate, and Master, of fore and aft rigged vessels, will be precisely the same as for the Ordinary certificates, excepting that in seamanship a knowlege of the management of square-rigged vessels is not required.

A certificate for fore and aft rigged vessels will not entitle the possessor to act in any case in which a certificate for square-rigged vessels is required. Amongst square-rigged vessels are classed full-rigged ships, barques, brigs, barquentines, brigantines, and steamships carrying square sails.

A candidate possessing a certificate for fore and aft rigged vessels, and desiring to be examined for an Ordinary certificate must prove that he has served at sea at least one year in a square-rigged sailing vessel, unless he has previously held an Ordinary certificate of a lower grade.

41. Steamship Certificates.—Certificates applying only to steamships are issued to candidates who are either unable to comply with the regulation which requires them to have passed one year in square-rigged sailing vessels or who prove in course of examination that they are ignorant of the management of square-rigged sailing vessels. All the qualifying service prescribed for these certificates may have been performed in steamships.

These certificates will entitle the holders to go to sea as Masters or Mates of foreign-going steamships, but will not entitle them to go to sea as Masters or Mates of foreign-going sailing ships.

There will be no distinction in these certificates between fore and aft rigged steamships and square-rigged steamships.

42. Second Mate, Steamships.—The qualifications as to age and service are the same as for an Ordinary Second Mate's certificate (see rule 29), excepting that the whole of the service may have been performed in steamships and that no service in square-rigged sailing vessels is required.

43. Second Mate, Steamships : Navigation.—The examination in navigation for a Second Mate's certificate for foreign-going steamships will be precisely the same as that prescribed for an Ordinary Second Mate's certificate.

44. Second Mate, Steamships : Seamanship.—The candidate must understand and be able to give satisfactory answers on the following subjects :—

(a) The standing and running rigging of steamships.

(b) Bending, unbending, setting, taking in, and furling sail.

(c) Sending masts and yards up and down, etc.

(d) Seeing everything in readiness and clear for getting under way, and the precautions to be then observed with regard to steering gear and connections, engines, propeller, etc.

(e) Care and usage of mechanical logs and sounding machines.

(f) Management of ships' boats in heavy weather.

(g) Dunnaging and stowing cargo, etc.

(h) The Rule of the Road as regards both steamers and sailing vessels, their regulation lights and fog and sound signals.

(i) Signals of distress, and signals to be made by ships wanting a pilot, and the liabilities and penalties incurred by the misuse of these signals.

(j) The marking and use of the ordinary lead and log lines.

(k) The construction, use, and action of the sluices, and of the water-ballast tanks.

(l) Engine-room and other telegraphs used on board ship, and deck appliances generally.

(m) Use and management of the rocket apparatus in the event of a vessel being stranded.

(n) Any other questions appertaining to the duties of the Second Mate of a steamship which the Examiner may think necessary to ask.

45. Only Mate, Steamships.—The qualifications as to age and service are the same as for an Only Mate's Ordinary certificate (see rule 32), excepting that the whole of the service may have been performed in steamships and no service in square-rigged vessels is required.

46. First Mate, Steamships.—The qualifications as to age and service are the same as for a First Mate's Ordinary certificate (see rule 33), excepting that the whole of the service may have been in steamships, and that no service in square-rigged vessels is required.

47. Mate, Steamships : Navigation.—The examination in navigation for an Only or First Mate's certificate for foreign-going steamships will be precisely the same as that prescribed for an Ordinary First Mate's certificate (see rule 34).

48. Mate, Steamships : Seamanship.—In addition to the qualifications required for a Second Mate's certificate, an Only or First Mate will be required to show a knowledge of the following subjects :—

(a) Shifting large spars; rigging shears; and taking lower masts in and out.

(b) How to moor and unmoor ship; keep a clear anchor; and carry out an anchor.

(c) Management of a steamship in stormy weather.

(d) How to rig purchases for getting heavy weights, anchors, machinery, etc., in and out

(e) How to dispose various kinds of cargo and weights in a stiff and in a tender vessel.

(f) Ventilation of holds, and the stowage of explosives.

(g) Stowage of grain cargoes.

(h) The effects of the screw race upon the rudder; and the effect produced on the direction of the head of the ship by going [ahead] [astern] with a [right] [left] handed screw when the rudder is [ported] [starboarded]; also, the effect of twin screws under the same conditions, and when going ahead with one and reversing the other, etc., etc.

(i) How to rig a sea anchor, and what means to employ to keep a steamer, with her machinery disabled, out of the trough of the sea, and to lessen her lee drift.

(j) How to turn a steamship short round.

(k) How to get a cast of the deep sea lead in heavy weather.

(l) Any other questions appertaining to the duties of a First Mate of a steamship which the Examiner may think necessary to put to him.

49. Master, Steamships.—The qualifications as to age and service are the same as for a Master's Ordinary certificate for a foreign-going ship (see rule 36), excepting that the whole of the service may have been performed in steamships, and that no service in square-rigged vessels is required (see also rule 129.)

50. Master, Steamships: Navigation.—The examination in navigation for a Master's certificate for foreign-going steamships will be precisely the same as that prescribed for an Ordinary Master's certificate (see rule 37).

51. Master, Steamships: Seamanship.—In addition to the qualifications required for the grades of Second and First Mate, a Master will be required to show a knowledge of the following subjects:—

(a) Construction of rafts and jury rudders suitable for screw steamships.
(b) The preservation of the ship's crew in the event of wreck.
(c) Management of steamships in heavy weather.
(d) Rescuing the crew of a disabled ship.
(e) Steps to be taken when a vessel is on her beam ends, or disabled and on a lee shore.
(f) How to use steam appliances in the event of fire.
(g) Economy in coal consumption.
(h) The best arrangement for towing vessels under different circumstances.
(i) Placing ship in dry dock; directing repairs; and the mode of procedure when putting into port in distress with damage to cargo and ship.
(j) Any other questions appertaining to the management of a steamship which the Examiner may think it necessary to put to him.

52. Steamship certificates, how changed.—A candidate possessing a certificate for foreign-going steamships, and desiring to be examined for an Ordinary certificate, must prove that he has served at sea at least one year in a squire-rigged sailing vessel, unless he has previously held an Ordinary certificate of a lower grade.

53. Mate, Home Trade.—A candidate must be not less than nineteen years of age, and have served four years at sea.

54. Mate, Home Trade Steamship: Navigation.—He must write a legible hand and spell correctly, and understand the first five rules of arithmetic, both simple and compound. He must be able to take a bearing by compass, be conversant with the use of a Mercator's Chart and be able to find, on a chart or plan, the course or courses to steer and the distance or distances from one given position to another; to find the ship's position, together with the set and drift (if any) on a chart or plan from cross bearings of two objects; to find the ship's position from two bearings of the same or different objects, the course and distance run between taking the bearings being given, making due allowance for a given tide or current; also the distance of the ship from the objects or any given position at the time of taking the second bearing; to find on a chart or plan the course to steer by compass in order to counteract the effect of a given tide or current and to find the distance the ship will make good towards a given point in a certain time, and to work out practically the correction to apply to soundings taken at a given time and place, to compare with the depth marked on the chart; also, to fix the ship's position by horizontal sextant angles, using a station pointer for plotting it on the chart or plan, etc., and give a method of finding approximately the time of high water at any given place without the aid of the Admiralty or other Tide Tables. He will also be required to explain orally the markings, signs and abbreviations on Admiralty charts and plans, the use of the sextant, to be able to observe with it, to read off and on the arc, and to find the index error by the horizon. He will also be required to attain a minimum speed of eight words a minute in semaphore and five words a minute in Morse flashing and flag waving, and to have a good working knowledge of the International Code of Signals and British Signal Manual.

55. Mate, Home Trade Steamship : Seamanship.—He must possess a thorough knowledge of the Rule of the Road as regards both steamers and sailing vessels, their regulation lights, and fog and sound signals. He must be able to describe the signals of distress, the signals to be made by ships wanting a pilot, and the liabilities and penalties incurred by the misuse of these signals : also the use and management of the rocket apparatus in the event of his vessel being stranded. He must be able to mark and use the lead log lines, to moor and unmoor a vessel, and to manage a ship's boat in heavy weather, etc., etc. He must also understand the construction, use and action of the bulkhead sluices, the engine-room telegraph, etc., and to answer any other questions appertaining to the duties of the Mate of a home trade passenger ship which the Examiner may think proper to put to him.

56. Master, Home Trade Steamship.†—A candidate must be not less than twenty-one years of age and have served five years at sea, of which—

(a) One year must have been in a capacity not lower than that of Only Mate of a home trade or coasting vessel, whilst holding a Mate's certificate for home trade passenger ships, or a Second Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels ;

(b) or, two and a half years must have been in a capacity not lower than Second Mate of a home trade or coasting vessel in charge of a watch, whilst holding a Mate's certificate for home trade passenger ships, or a Second Mate's certificate for foreign-going vessels (see rule 83) ;

(c) or, one year must have been as Pilot with a First Class pilot's certificate (see rule 80).

57. Master, Home Trade Steamship : Navigation.—In addition to the qualifications required of a Mate of a home trade passenger ship, a Master will be required to find the latitude by a meridian altitude of the sun, find compass corrections by Amplitude and Time Azimuth of the Sun, and to give written answers to certain practical questions on the subject of the deviation of the compass. (See also supplementary vivâ voce test, rule 126.)

58. Master, Home Trade Steamship : Seamanship.—In addition to the qualifications required of a Mate of a home trade passenger ship, a Master must understand how to a sea anchor, and what means to apply to keep a steamship with machinery disabled out of the trough of the sea ; also how to get a cast of the lead in heavy weather, etc. He will be examined as to his resources for the preservation of the crew and passengers in the event of wreck, and the steps to be taken if his vessel is disabled and drifting towards a lee shore, and will be required to answer any other questions appertaining to the management of a home trade passenger ship which the Examiner may think necessary to put to him.

59. Yacht Certificates.—The examination for these certificates is purely voluntary, and is confined to persons who command their own British sea-going pleasure yachts. A Master of a yacht who is not also the sole owner, or who is under 21 years of age, is not eligible for examination.

Only one description of certificate will be issued, whether the yacht is foreign-going or cruises within the home trade limits.

The certificate will not entitle the holder to command any vessel except the pleasure yacht or yachts, of which he is at the time the sole owner.

Candidates are not required to have served any specified time afloat, as it is believed that their sea knowledge will be sufficiently tested by the examination they will have to pass in seamanship.

Testimonials of service need not be shown, but a candidate for examination will be required to produce a statutory declaration to the effect (1) that he is sole owner of the yacht ; (2) that the yacht is sea-going ; (3) that it is not to be used for trading purposes. He will also be required to fill up the form of application (Form Exn. 2), and pay the fee of Rs. 2 at the Port Office, as prescribed in rule 3.

In all other respects, except that the candidate will not be required to produce a "First Aid" certificate, the regulations relating to examinations of Masters of foreign-going ships will apply in these cases.

60. Yacht Master : Navigation.—The examination in navigation for a Yacht Master's certificate will be precisely the same as that prescribed for an Ordinary Master's certificate, except that in the civil duties of a shipmaster the Master of a yacht will only be expected to possess a knowledge of what he is required to do by the Merchant Shipping Act.

61. Yacht Master : Seamanship.—He must give satisfactory answers as to his knowledge of making and taking in sail, and as to the management of a yacht under canvas in moderate and in stormy weather. He must have a thorough knowledge of the Rule of the Road at sea as regards both steamers and sailing vessels, their regulation, lights and fog and sound signals, and be able to describe the signals of distress, and the signals to be made by ships wanting a pilot, and the liabilities and penalties incurred by the misuse of these signals. He must also understand the use and management of the rocket apparatus in the event of his vessel being stranded. He must be able to mark and use the lead and log lines; to cast a vessel on a lee shore; to moor and unmoor a ship; to keep a clear anchor, and to carry out an anchor. He must know how to keep his vessel out of the trough of the sea in the event of accident; how to rig rafts and jury rudders, etc.; and what steps to take if his vessel is disabled or unmanageable and drifting towards a lee shore. He will also be examined as to his resources for the preservation of the crew in the event of wreck. He must also possess a knowledge of the measures he should adopt for preventing and checking an outbreak of scurvy on board; and be prepared to answer any other questions relating to the management of a yacht, either steam or sailing, which the Examiner may ask.

62. Provisional Certificates.—Provisional certificates for foreign-going ships or for foreign-going steamships, according to the candidate's qualifications, are granted on the conditions stated below to any officer of the Mercantile Marine who may require such a certificate to qualify him for appointment to or promotion in the Royal Naval Reserve. These Certificates are only issued for Royal Naval Reserve purposes, and do not authorise the holders to go to sea as First Mate or Master.

Candidates for these certificates must apply to the Port Officer, Calcutta, fill up the form of application (Exn. 2) and pay the usual fee. They must produce their First or Second Mate's certificates of competency, and an authority from the Local Government before they can be examined. This authority should be obtained through the Port Officer.

63. Provisional Certificates, First Mate.—Provisional certificates as First Mate are granted to candidates who can prove that they have served five years at sea, and that during one year of this period they have served in a capacity not lower than Fourth Mate while holding a Second Mate's certificate. They must pass the usual examination for First Mate and pay the usual fee. The provisional certificate is exchangeable for the full certificate as First Mate, without further payment or examination, on production to the Port Officer of satisfactory proofs that the holder has served at sea not less than 12 months in a foreign going vessel in a capacity not lower than Fourth Mate, and that during the whole of that period he has been in regular charge of a watch and in possession of a certificate of competency as Second Mate.

64. Provisional Certificates, Master.—Provisional certificates as Master are granted to candidates who can prove not less than six and a half years' service at sea, and who pass the usual examination for Master and pay the usual fee. Of this service two and a half years must have been served in a capacity not lower than Fourth Mate of an ocean-going steamship, during the last 12 months of which the candidate must have been in possession of a full certificate as First Mate. These certificates will be exchanged for the full certificate as Master without further payment or examination, on production to the Port Officer of satisfactory proofs that the holder has served at sea not less than two and a half years in a foreign-going vessel in charge of a watch in a capacity not lower than Fourth Mate, and that during 12 months of this period he has served as Second Mate while in possession of a full certificate of competency as First Mate.

65. Voluntary Examination in Compass Deviation—Any person holding a certificate of any grade in the foreign or home trade or as Master of his own pleasure yacht, who wishes to pass a voluntary examination in compass deviation, can at any time be examined upon filling up the usual form of application, and paying to the Port Officer the fee of Rs. 15. If the candidate passes the examination a note to that effect will be made upon his certificate.

66. Voluntary Examination in Signalling.—The examination in Signalling as prescribed for candidates for the Extra Master's certificate is open as a voluntary examination to all persons holding, or who have passed for, or who are candidates for, a certificate of competency of any grade.

If the candidate passes, the fact with the date and place of passing will be recorded upon his certificate of competency.

Candidates may be examined at any port where Ordinary examinations are held upon filling up the form of application (Exn. 2) and paying the fee of Rs. 15. (See Appendix D.)

No fee, however, will be charged for this examination if it is taken at the same time as that at which a candidate is examined for any certificate of competency.

67. Voluntary Examination in Steam.—These examinations are provided for the purpose of giving Masters and Mates who are possessed of certificates of competency an opportunity of undergoing a voluntary examination as to their practical knowledge of the use and working of the steam engine. They are conducted under the superintendence of the Port Officer at such times as he may appoint for the purpose.

The examination is open to any person who holds a Certificate of any grade in the foreign or home trade or as Master of his own pleasure yacht. Full particulars of the examination are given in Appendix H.

68. Examination in Steam: how to apply—Candidates should fill up the form of application (Form Exn. 2) at the Port Office, pay the fee of Rs. 15 and deposit their certificates and testimonials with the Port Officer, who will inform them when and where to attend to be examined. The usual testimonials for sobriety and good conduct for at least the last 18 months preceding the date of application to be examined must be produced.

69. Examination in Steam : endorsement of certificate.—If the candidate passes, form Exn. 15, together with a written report of the examination, should be sent to the Port Officer and the candidate's certificate, together with the form Exn. 2, will be sent to the Local Government ; the words "Certified to have passed in Steam," with the date and place of examination, will then be entered on the certificate and its duplicate, and the certificate will be sent to the Superintendent of the Mercantile Marine Office at the port named in the form Exn. 2, and will be delivered to the candidate in the usual manner.

The endorsement of a Master's or Mate's Certificate for "Steam" does not, however, imply that he is qualified to perform the duties of an Engineer.

70. Examination in Steam : failure.—If the candidate fails to pass his Certificate will be returned to him at once, but he may not present himself for re-examination until the expiration of three months from the date of failure.

71. Certificates of Service.—A person who has attained the rank of lieutenant, sub-lieutenant, navigating lieutenant, or navigating sub-lieutenant in His Majesty's Navy or of lieutenant in His Majesty's Royal Indian Marine Service, is entitled to a certificate of service as Master of a foreign-going ship without examination. This certificate will not entitle the holder to go to sea as Master or Mate of a home trade ship.

Certificate of service will be issued by the Board of Trade only. Applications for certificates of service of the Royal Indian Marine must be made on a printed form, Exn. 18, which will be supplied free of charge on application to the Director of the Royal Indian Marine.

Applicants on duty in India should submit their claims to the Director for transmission to the Government of India and the India office. Officers on leave in England should submit their claims to the India office on the printed form which may be obtained from that office.

Applications for certificates of service by officers of the Royal Navy on the active list must be made through their commanding officers, and applications from officers of the Royal Navy on half-pay must be made to the Secretary of the Admiralty, who in either case will forward the application to the Board of Trade.

72. Ambulance Certificates and Government Awards.—An officer in the Mercantile Marine who holds a certificate of proficiency in First Aid to the Injured from the St. John's or St. Andrew's Ambulance Association or some equivalent certificate, can have the fact endorsed on his certificate of competency provided the latter was issued before April 1st, 1908, if the two certificates are forwarded to the President of the Board of Examiners.

Recipients of Government awards can also have the fact stamped on their certificates of competency, if they submit evidence of the award together with their certificate in a similar manner.

CHAPTER III.

RULES FOR ESTIMATING SEA SERVICE.

73. Sea service.—In these Regulations sea service is reckoned from the commencement to the termination of the voyage. The certificates of discharge for service in the foreign trade will generally be accepted as proof of sea service, but certificates of discharge for service in the home or coasting trade must always be sent to the Port Officer for verification. Port Officer and Examiners will be careful to see that these discharges have not been in any way tampered with, and will report any suspicious case to the Local Government.

For all certificates of competency as Master or Mate in the Mercantile Marine, the qualifying service usually required is service performed in ordinary trading vessels. While the Regulations provide for the acceptance in part of certain kinds of non-trading service (e.g., that performed in fishing-boats, yachts, pilot vessels, etc.), non-trading service not specially provided for in the Regulations cannot be accepted as qualifying service unless it has been submitted to the Local Government and their sanction obtained.

74. Sea service for foreign-going certificates.—For foreign-going certificates the term "sea service" means, unless otherwise stated, service performed in foreign-going vessels. (But see rule 131.)

75. Officers' service : Home Trade.—Service in a lower grade than First or Only Mate in the home or coasting trade will not be recognized as officers' service towards qualifying a candidate for examination for a foreign-going certificate.

76. Service in Home Trade.—For Home Trade Passenger ship certificates service in the home or coasting trade is regarded as equivalent to service in the foreign trade ; but for Foreign-going certificates it is regarded as only equivalent to two-thirds of the time served in the foreign trade, except in the case of Indian coasting voyages extending beyond a distance of 500 miles from the port of departure in vessels commanded by Masters holding foreign-going certificates, when such service will count as foreign voyages, and will be reckoned as full time ; but the time spent in the port of departure or home port will not be allowed to count. In all cases the length of service is deemed to commence on the date of sailing from the port of departure or home port and to end on the date of arrival at the home port. Such service must be vouched for in the Form laid down in Appendix N.

77. Certificate, meaning of.—By the word "certificate" is meant a certificate of competency granted by the Board of Trade under the Merchant Shipping Acts, or by the Government of a British self-governing Dominion, Colony, or Possession, under an Order in Council issued in pursuance of the Merchant Shipping Acts.

A list of the Colonial certificates referred to will be found in Appendix M. They are of the same force as the corresponding certificates granted by the Board of Trade.

78. Colonial local certificates.—The holder of a Colonial certificate for foreign-going ships not granted under the Merchant Shipping Acts who desires to be examined for an Imperial certificate of the same grade, must prove that he has performed the amount of service required by these Regulations to entitle him to hold such a certificate. He must also produce satisfactory testimonials as to character for at least the last 12 months of such service preceding his application to be examined.

79. Foreign-going certificates.—Where a foreign-going certificate is required in order to qualify a candidate for examination, the certificate may be either an Ordinary certificate, or a certificate for fore-and-aft rigged vessels, or a certificate for foreign-going steamships.

80. Pilot defined.—The term "pilot" in these Regulations (see rules 33 and 56) means a pilot who is employed in general pilotage, and holds a first class pilot's certificate from some competent authority authorising him to pilot vessels outside harbour and partially smooth water limits. A Hooghly Master Pilot is for the purpose of this rule to be considered as a first class pilot.

81. Officer's service.—Officer's service to be recognised as qualifying for purposes of examination must be performed with the requisite certificate as specified in Appendix J. The officer's service performed by men who have been duly promoted during the course of a voyage (see rule 85) or who, in consequence of serving in vessels plying between ports abroad, have been unable to obtain the necessary certificates, may, however, be recognised, provided that it is in other respects satisfactory.

82. Foreign officers.—Foreign officers who wish to apply for a British certificate of competency must in all cases have performed their qualifying officer's service with the requisite British certificate. The service may have been performed in foreign vessels if the candidate can produce satisfactory testimonials as to conduct and character, and is able to prove that the service has been in the required capacities, and that during the period of service he has held a British certificate of competency of the grade required by the Regulations (see rule 86).

83. In charge of a watch.—When service in charge of a watch in either the foreign or home trade is specified in the Regulations, candidates for certificates of competency as First Mate must be able to prove that during eight months at least of their service they have kept full regular watch during the whole voyage, i.e., from port to port, which, if in the foreign trade, must amount to not less than 8 hours of each 24 hours' service. Where a candidate can prove eight months of such full service, service performed in cases where watches were doubled at any time during the voyage will be accepted as equivalent to half the same period of full watch-keeping service. No amount of occasional service will, by itself, be accepted as qualifying service. Candidates for certificates of competency as Master will be required to have served during the whole of the time specified by the Regulations, in full charge of a watch, and no service performed under the system of double watches, except as the senior officer, will be accepted as qualifying service for a certificate of this grade. Great care must be exercised by the Examiners and others in regard to such service, and unless the candidate produces a clear and satisfactory testimonial specially setting forth the above facts, from the Master or owner of the vessel in which the service was performed, it must not be accepted.

84. Additional Mates.—Service as additional or auxiliary First or Second Mates, in large foreign-going vessels, when, in both cases, Third and Fourth Mates are also carried, will count as First Mate's or Second Mate's service, as the case may be, provided that the candidate was entered on the articles in one of these capacities, and that he produces the necessary certificate (see rule 83) showing that he was in charge of a watch or watches during the whole time claimed. (See also rule 6.)

85. Promotion during voyage.—Whenever a man has, from any cause, been regularly promoted on the occurrence of a vacancy in the course of the voyage from the rank in which he first shipped, and such promotion, with the ground on which it has been made, is properly entered in the articles and in the Official Log Book, he will receive credit for his service in the higher grade for the period subsequent to his promotion.

86. Evidence as to service in foreign vessels.—The testimonials of service of foreigners and of British officers and seamen serving in foreign vessels, which cannot be verified by the Port Officer, must be confirmed either by the Consul of the country to which the ship in which the candidate served belonged or by some other recognised official authority of that country, or by the testimony of some credible person on the spot having personal knowledge of the facts required to be established. The production, however, of such proofs will not of necessity be deemed sufficient. Each case will be decided on its own merits, and if the sufficiency of the proofs given appears to be at all doubtful, it must be referred to the Government for decision.

87. Auxiliary screw ships.—Service in auxiliary screw whaling ships and in vessels with auxiliary steam power, which use their screws only in calms or during light winds, is considered as service performed in sailing vessels.

88. Excursion steamers.—In the case of excursion steamers only such service as can be proved to have been performed at sea will be accepted.

89. Service as carpenter, sailmaker, cook, steward, etc.—Candidates whose service has been performed in capacities other than apprentice, midshipman, cadet, ordinary seaman or able seaman—e.g., men who have served as carpenter, or sailmaker, or as cook in small vessels where cooking is only a part of a man's duty—will be required to satisfy the Port Officer that they have during the whole time claimed performed deck duties in addition to their own particular work, and that they have a good knowledge of seamanship. These facts may possibly be proved by the production of satisfactory certificates from the Masters with whom the candidate has served; but such service will only be accepted as equivalent to two-thirds of the time served as ordinary deck hand. Failing satisfactory evidence, the applicant will be required to perform additional service in the capacity of seaman. Service as cook (under other conditions than the above), or as steward, purser, or wireless operator will not be accepted.

90. Service as seaman or as wireless operator.—If a candidate has been engaged on articles of agreement as seaman or in any seamen rating and has served both as a seaman and as a wireless operator, the service may be counted as qualifying service in full.

If a candidate has been engaged on articles of agreement as a wireless operator and has served as such, one quarter of the service up to a maximum of twelve months may be counted as qualifying service.

91. Service in fishing or pilot vessels.—Service performed exclusively in trawlers and other deep sea-fishing vessels, or in pilot vessels, will not qualify a candidate for examination. He must in addition prove the following service:—

(a) For a Foreign-going certificate, service for at least 18 months in an ordinary trading vessel in the foreign trade, or the equivalent period, 27 months, in the home or coasting trade.

(b) For a Home Trade Passenger ship certificate, service for at least twelve months in an ordinary trading vessel in the foreign, home, or coasting trade.

92. Service in yachts.—Service in pleasure yachts will be accepted as qualifying service under the following conditions:—

(a) It must in all cases be verified by satisfactory proofs, which must set forth clearly and in detail the nature and duration of the service claimed; and it must be distinctly understood that only actual sea service will be accepted, and that service in harbour or port is inadmissible.

(b) Service in foreign-going yachts will be accepted in full; and service performed within home trade limits in sailing yachts of not less than 50 tons net register or in steam yachts of not less than 80 tons gross register will be accepted in the proportion stated in rule 76; but candidates must also show (1) for a Foreign-going certificate, service for at least 18 months in an ordinary trading vessel in the foreign trade, or for the equivalent period, 27 months, in an ordinary trading vessel in the home or coasting trade; (2) for a Home Trade Passenger-ship certificate, service for at least 12 months in an ordinary trading vessel in the foreign, home, or coasting trade.

(c) Service within home trade limits in sailing yachts of 20 tons net register, or in steam yachts of 40 tons gross register, will be accepted towards qualifying a candidate for a foreign-going certificate as equivalent to half the same time served in the foreign trade, but no amount of such service shall count as more than two years' service in the foreign trade and no such service shall count as officers' service to qualify candidates for foreign going certificates.

(d) Service within home trade limits in sailing yachts of not less than 20 tons net register, or in steam yachts of not less than 10 tons gross register, will be accepted at the ordinary rate as qualifying service for Home Trade Passenger Ship certificates, but candidates must prove that they have in addition served for at least 12 months in an ordinary trading vessel in the foreign, home, or coasting trade.

(e) Service within home trade limits in sailing yachts of less than 20 tons net register, or in steam yachts of less than 40 tons gross register, will not be accepted as qualifying service for any class of certificate.

93. Service in tugs, War Department vessels, etc.—Service performed in tugs employed in Channel service or outside partially smooth water limits (see Appendix L) may be accepted as sea service for the purpose of qualifying a candidate for a Mate's or Master's certificate for home trade passenger ships only.

Service performed in War Department vessels employed outside partially smooth water limits (see rule 96) may be accepted as sea-service to qualify a candidate for a Mate's or Master's certificate for home trade passenger ships only. This service cannot be accepted towards qualifying a candidate for a Foreign-going certificate, unless there should be some very exceptional circumstances, when the case, together with all the candidate's papers, should be submitted to the Port Officer for their consideration.

94. Service in dredgers.—Service in steam hopper barges may, subject to the provisions of rule 96, be allowed to count towards qualifying a candidate for a Mate's certificate of competency for home trade passenger ships, provided the candidate can prove at least two years' service in an ordinary trading vessel in either the home, coasting, or foreign trade. Service in these steam hoppers will not be accepted as officer's service towards qualifying a candidate for a Master's certificate.

95. Service in lightships or engine-room.—Service in lightships or in an engine-room will not be accepted as sea service.

96. Service on rivers.—Service performed on rivers, no matter of what size, and service performed within smooth or partially smooth water limits (see Appendix L), will not be accepted.

Where any doubt whatever exists on this point, the candidate will be required to produce a certificate from the Master or owner of the vessel in which the service was performed, before the service can be accepted.

97. Training ships.—Time served on board a training ship will be allowed to count as equivalent to one-half the same time spent in service at sea, up to a limit of two years (i.e., no length of service will be allowed to count as more than one year at sea), provided that the candidate can produce a certificate from the Committee or Captain Superintendent that he has conducted himself creditably and passed a good examination in seamanship so far as it is practised in the training ship, as well as in other matters down to the time of his leaving the ship. Training ship service will not be regarded as equivalent to service in square-rigged vessels.

98. School for nautical training.—Time spent at a school for Nautical Training conducted on premises ashore may be allowed to count in some proportion, not exceeding one-half, as service at sea provided that—

(a) the school is in receipt of a grant from the Board of Education under the Regulations for Schools of Nautical Training;

(b) after an inspection by one of their officers the Board of Trade are satisfied that the school gives a training that justifies time spent there being reckoned as part of the necessary qualifying time for a certificate of competency;

(c) the candidate produces a satisfactory certificate as regards conduct and proficiency from the authorities of the school on leaving it.

The proportion in which time spent at a school conducted on premises ashore will be accepted as qualifying under the above provisions will be decided after inspection by one of the Board's officers, but time spent at the school will never be counted as equivalent to more than one-half of the same time spent at sea, nor will it in any circumstances be taken as equivalent to more than one year at sea.

99. Apprentices.—The whole of the time claimed under indentures of apprenticeship will be accepted as actual sea service to qualify under rule 29 for a Second Mate's certificate, provided (a) that the indentures have not been cancelled through some fault of the candidate, but are endorsed by the owner or Master to whom he was bound to the effect that he has performed his service faithfully during the time he remained as apprentice; and (b) that the candidate has served at sea fourth-fifths of the time claimed, that is to say, has not spent more than one-fifth of the time in home ports.

In cases where an apprentice is qualified for examination before the expiration of his indentures, e.g., where he has had training ship or other sea service prior to being bound, which, together with his actual time as apprentice, makes up the required four years, or where his indentures are for a period of more than four years, a letter from the owner or Master will be accepted in place of the endorsement referred to above.

In the event of the candidate being short of the required four-fifths of the time claimed as apprentice out of the United Kingdom, he will be required to show sufficient additional sea service, either as seaman or junior officer, to make up the four-fifths of the time claimed.

100. Midshipmen and cadets.—The whole of the time served as midshipman or cadet under indentures will also be accepted subject to the same conditions as those laid down for apprentices; and the same will be the case even when not bound by indentures, provided that the service as midshipman or cadet has been continuous, and that on the date of the termination of the period of service claimed in this capacity the candidate was on articles of agreement, and that he is able to comply with the requirements laid down in the matter of serving or making up the four-fifths period at sea during the time claimed.

101. Lighthouse tenders.—Service performed in the sea-going steam vessels of the Trinity House, of the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, or of the Commissioners of Irish Lights, or in Irish and Scotch Fishery Cruisers, will be accepted as sea service for the purpose of qualifying a candidate for examination for a home trade passenger ship certificate; but for a foreign-going certificate a candidate must show in addition to this service calculated in accordance with rule 76 at least twelve months in an ordinary trading vessel. In order to qualify a candidate for an Ordinary certificate, this twelve months must have been performed in a square-rigged sailing vessel.

102. Service in Royal Navy.—Officers of the Royal Navy are at liberty to apply for certificates of service and to be examined for certificates of competency in the Mercantile Marine, but the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have directed that the applications of officers on the active list should be made through their commanding officers, and that the applications of officers on half-pay should be made to the Secretary of the Admiralty, who, in either case, will forward the application to the Board of Trade. In the case of Royal Indian Marine officers, applications for certificates of service should be made on a printed form Exn. 18, which will be supplied free of charge on application to the Director of the Royal Indian Marine. Applicants on duty in India should submit their claims to the Director for transmission to the Government of India and the India Office. Officers on leave in England should submit their claims to the India Office on the printed form which may be obtained from that office.

The conditions on which certificates of service are issued are stated in rule 71.

103. Qualifications required of Naval and Indian Marine Officers.—Officers of the Royal Navy or of the Royal Indian Marine who wish to be examined for certificates of competency in the Mercantile Marine will be required to prove the following service; and if an officer wishes to obtain the Ordinary certificate for foreign-going ships he must prove that at least twelve months of this required period was served under sail alone:—

(a) For second Mate. The officer must prove four years' service at sea, or that he has attained the rank of acting sub-lieutenant.

(b) For only Mate. Five years'-service at sea.

(c) For First Mate or Master. The officer must prove that he has attained the rank of sub-lieutenant in the Royal Navy, or of lieutenant in the Royal Indian Marine.

104. Service in Royal Naval Reserve.—Lieutenants sub-lieutenants, and acting sub-lieutenants of the Royal Naval Reserve who perform sea service on board His Majesty's ships will, if accompanied by a good report, be allowed to count such service as if it had been performed in foreign-going merchant ships, and the service will rank according to the certificate of competency held by the candidate at the time. (See also rule 132)

The time spent in Periodical Training in the Royal Naval Reserve on board sea-going vessels of the Royal Navy, if accompanied by a good report, will be accepted in full, but in the case of Midshipmen, will not count as Officer's service. In the case of service in Harbour ships of the Royal or Colonial Navies, only one half of the time will be accepted as sea service, and no such service must amount to more than one-fourth of the time required for the particular grade of Certificate applied for.

CHAPTER IV.

CONDUCT OF THE EXAMINATIONS.

105. The examinations will begin at 10 a.m. on each day. A regular luncheon interval will be given each day between 1 p. m. and 2 p. m., the viva voce and practical parts of the examination being taken at such times as may be convenient. The time allotted for each written part of the examination for each grade of certificate will be as follows:—

SECOND MATE.—Paper on Navigation and Nautical Astronomy, 3 hours; Nautical Astronomy and Trigonometry, 2 hours; Chart work, 3 hours; Essay, 1 hour.

FIRST OR ONLY MATE.—Paper on Navigation and Nautical Astronomy, 3 hours; Nautical Astronomy and Trigonometry, 2 hours; Chart work, 3 hours; Sumner problem, 2 hours; Meteorology paper, 1½ hours.

MASTER.—Paper on Navigation and Nautical Astronomy, 3 hours; Nautical Astronomy and Trigonometry, 2 hours; Chart work, 3 hours; Meteorology paper, 1½ hours; Compass Deviation, 1½ hours; Naval Architecture, 1½ hours; Essay, 2 hours.

HOME TRADE MATE.—Arithmetic paper, 2 hours; Chart work, 3 hours.

HOME TRADE MASTER.—Arithmetic paper, 2 hours; Chart work, 3 hours; Nautical Astronomy and Deviation questions, 3 hours.

106. Candidates to be punctual.—Candidates are required to appear at the examination room punctually at the time appointed.

107. Loose paper and books removed.—Before commencing the examination the tables or desks must be cleared of all scraps of paper or books that are not used in the examination.

108. No strangers admitted.—No person will be allowed in the room during the examination, other than those whose duties require them to be present.

No instructors will be allowed on the premises.

109. Books and papers strictly forbidden.—Candidates are prohibited from bringing into the examination room books or papers of any kind whatever. The slightest infringement of this rule will subject the offender to all the penalties of a failure, and he will not be allowed to present himself for re-examination for a period of three months.

110. All work to be shown.—No candidate will be allowed to work out his problems on waste paper, or to write on the blotting paper supplied for his use in the examination. Violation of this rule will subject the candidate to all the penalties of a failure.

A sheet of blotting paper should be issued to each candidate with the first examination paper, and it must be returned to the Examiner when the last paper is completed each day. The Examiner will be careful to see that the blotting paper has not been used by the candidate in solving his problems, or for conveying information to other candidates.

111. Instruments are provided.—All instruments necessary for use in the examinations are supplied by the Local Government.

112. Leaving room or building.—No candidate may leave the examination room without permission and without giving up the paper on which he is engaged. Under no circumstances will a candidate be allowed to leave the building while the examination is proceeding. Violation of this rule will subject the candidate to all the penalties of a failure.

113. Copying, &c., to be prevented.—Candidates should be so placed as to prevent one copying from the other, and no communication whatever between the candidates should be allowed.

114. Penalty for Copying, &c.—In the event of any candidate being discovered referring to any book or paper, or copying from another, or affording any assistance or giving any information to another, or communicating in any way with another, during the time of examination, or copying any part of the problems for the purpose of taking them out of the examination rooms he will subject himself to all the penalties of a failure, and will not be allowed to be examined for a period of six months.

A candidate guilty of a second offence will not be allowed to be examined until 12 months have elapsed.

115. Injury to books.—If a candidate defaces, blots, writes in, or otherwise injures any book or form belonging to the Local Government, the papers will be retained until he has replaced the damaged book or document. He will not be allowed to remove the damaged book or document, and will be subjected to all the penalties of a failure.

116. Silence.—Perfect silence is to be preserved in the examination room.

117. Penalty for breach of rules.—Any candidate violating any of the regulations, or being guilty of insolence to the Examiner, or of disorderly or improper conduct in or about the room, will render himself liable to the postponement of his examination, or, if he has passed, to the detention of his certificate for such period as the Local Government may direct.

118. Examination papers : how to be dealt with.—The examination papers of candidates must in all cases be sent to the Port Officer for his approval, together with the report of the examination on the Forms Exn. 14 and Exn. 34.

119. Examination in Navigation.—The whole of the written portion of the examination will be taken on the marks system. The candidate will be furnished with sheets of the blank ruled paper (Exn. 30) which is supplied for the purpose, with instructions that he is to work or write only on one side of the paper, and to answer in a clear and legible hand each of the questions on the paper, and to commence each answer by writing down the number of the question to which it relates in the margin. Marks will be allotted for each question, and candidates will be required to obtain 75 per cent. of the total marks in order to pass for an Ordinary Certificate, and 85 per cent. for an Extra Certificate. Papers will not be handed back to candidates for correction.

120. Compass deviation.—In answering questions on the tentative method of compass adjustment, the candidate will be tested by Beall's Compass Deviascope.

121. Barometer, tides, &c.—The examination on the barometer, thermometer, and hydrometer, prevailing winds and currents of the globe, trade routes, and tides, will be conducted orally, and the questions asked by the examiner, which will be constantly varied, will be confined to and based on the information given in the text-books mentioned in Appendix K; candidates will be required to have a fair and intelligent knowledge of the contents of those books.

122. Sextant.—Particular attention should be paid to the sextant, the examination in which will be conducted orally and practically. Every candidate will be required to measure both vertical and horizontal angles, and will be examined practically as to his knowledge of the adjustments and the use of the various screws; he must be able to read correctly on and off the arc, and must also be able to find the index error both by the horizon and by the sun.

123. Corrections by tables.—The corrections by inspection of tables given in some of the works on navigation, e.g., Tables IX, XI and XXI, in Norie's Epitome, will not be allowed; every correction must appear on the papers of the candidates.

124. Degree of precision required.—Degree of precision required in the solution of the problems:—

(a) Candidates are expected to work their problems to the nearest half-minute of arc and to the nearest second in time.

(b) In interpolating for the correct deviation to be applied in solving the chart questions, it will usually be sufficient if the candidate works throughout with the nearest degree of deviation taken from the deviation card; and even in cases where the deviations may vary but little, the nearest half degree used throughout will be sufficiently precise. It is not necessary that the candidate should waste his time in solving the course to odd minutes, as is sometimes done.

(c) In calculating the correction to apply to soundings the candidate is not required to work to the exact inch, as is sometimes done. It will be sufficient if he brings his answer within half a foot or so of a precise result.

125. Candidates may use own method.—Candidates will be allowed to work out the various problems according to any method they have been accustomed to use.

126. Supplementary viva voce.—Candidates will be examined orally as to their knowledge of all their written and worked papers.

127. No candidate to be examined twice in a week.—A candidate will not be allowed to undergo examination twice in the same week, unless, under very special and urgent circumstances, the Examiner should see fit to relax this rule. In that case a special set of problems should be supplied to the candidate.

CHAPTER V.

TEMPORARY MODIFICATIONS IN THE REGULATIONS DUE TO WAR CONDITIONS.

128. Examination of Enemy Aliens.—So long as the war lasts no subject of an Enemy State will be allowed to present himself for examination for a certificate of competency in the Mercantile Marine or the Sea-fishing Service.

129. Candidates for Masters' certificates to produce evidence of nationality.—During the war no man may be examined for a certificate of competency as Master, Extra Master or Master (Home Trade) unless (a) he is a British subject and (b) at the time of his birth each of his parents was a British subject by birth or by naturalisation.

In order to prove that he complies with these conditions every candidate for any of the certificates named must produce to the Examiner his own birth certificate and the birth certificate or certificate of naturalisation of each of his parents. These documents should be lodged with the Examiner at least a week before the day on which the candidate wishes to present himself for examination.

This requirement does not apply to any officer who has been granted a commission in the Royal Naval Reserve since March, 1911, or in the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve since February 1916.

If in any case there is any doubt whether the candidate complies with the above requirements, the local Examiner will refer the matter to the Principal Examiner.

130. First Aid Certificates.—A First Aid certificate which, though otherwise valid, is more than three years old will be accepted during the war if the holder has been prevented from renewing it by reason of the exigencies of the war service.

131. Service under the Admiralty.—All service afloat during the war in His Majesty's ships or in auxiliary supply ships or any other ships in attendance on the Fleet will be accepted in full (subject to the ordinary conditions as laid down in the Regulations) as qualifying sea service for the purposes of the Government's examinations of Masters and Mates.

The Local Government cannot undertake to accept the whole or any definite proportion of service in the Royal Naval Reserve, which is not qualifying service in accordance with the Regulations, but they will be prepared to consider sympathetically an application for examination from a candidate who has been prevented by his service in the Royal Naval Reserve from complying fully with the requirements. This may be taken as applying, i.e., to service with a First or Second Mate's certificate but in a rank below that of Acting Sub-Lieutenant.

132. Service in the Royal Naval Reserve : Antedating Certificates.—The Board of Trade have been in communication with the Admiralty with regard to the case of men serving in the Royal Naval Reserve during the war who are prevented by the exigencies of the Service from presenting themselves for examination on completion of the period of qualifying service required by the Regulations. Arrangements have been made whereby if such a person passes the examination for a certificate of competency at a time not remote from the conclusion of hostilities, he may have his certificate antedated to the date on which the period of qualifying service was completed ; and service performed after that date, if eligible, will be accepted as qualifying for a higher certificate. No certificate, however, will be antedated to a date prior to that on which the candidate was called out for Active Service.

133. Service in transports : Antedating Certificates.—The arrangements indicated in rule 132 may be extended on certain conditions to men serving in vessels under Admiralty orders who are not in the Royal Naval Reserve. Such persons on applying for their certificates to be antedated will be required to produce a certificate signed or countersigned by the proper authority, showing that they were prevented by the exigencies of the service from presenting themselves for examination on completion of the period of qualifying service required by the Regulations.

For the purposes of the Regulations the proper authority will be :—

(a) In the case of men serving in His Majesty's commissioned ships, the Commanding Officer.

(b) In the case of men serving on requisitioned ship or ships employed on Admiralty service, the Director of Transports and Shipping.

(c) In the case of men serving on ships employed in the service of the Government of India, the Director of the Royal Indian Marine in Bombay and the Captain Superintendent of the Government Dockyard, at Kidderpore, in Bengal.

134. Service in the Army.—The Local Government are anxious that, so far as it is reasonably possible, seamen or apprentices who are at the present time serving in the Army should not be hindered in their ordinary profession ; but the Local Government cannot, in the absence of any indication of the probable duration of the war, give a definite undertaking with regard to the extent to which such service could be accepted as part of the service required to qualify for certificates of competency in the Mercantile Marine. The Local Government must have regard to the essential condition that their certificates must testify to actual competency, but they will be prepared in due course to consider sympathetically any application to be examined by a candidate who has been prevented from complying fully with the Regulations owing to his service in the Army.

135. Service under an Auxiliary First Mate.—With reference to rule (c) of the Regulations, the Local Government will accept service as Second Mate while holding a First Mate's foreign-going certificate and performed during the war under an additional or auxiliary First Mate as qualifying service for a Maser's certificate, provided that a Third Mate is also carried, and the requirement that there shall be a Fourth Mate will, for the time being, not be insisted upon.

136. Officers and Seamen Interned Abroad.—Time spent by officers and seamen interned abroad in attending organised lectures or classes of instruction will be accepted, subject to the following conditions, in lieu of a portion of the qualifying sea service required to qualify them for examination of a certificate of competency :—

(a) If nine hours a week are spent in attending lectures or classes, five weeks spent in this way will be accepted in lieu of one week's sea service. If eleven hours a week are spent in this way, four weeks will be accepted as one week's sea service. In no circumstances can a remission of more than three months' sea service be made.

(b) The lectures must form part of a definite course of study bearing on the candidate's profession.

(c) The candidate must produce a certificate, signed by the Lecturer or by some other recognised officer of the camp, that he has attended regularly and has profited by the instruction given. If possible the candidate should also produce his note books. It is suggested that the extent to which a student has profited should be ascertained by periodical examinations.

The subjects of study which are likely to be of value may be inferred from the syllabus for each grade of certificate given in the Regulations. The course of study need not, however, be confined to the actual subjects or questions specified in the syllabus and should embrace work more advanced and thorough than that necessary to meet the bare requirements of the examinations.

APPENDIX A.

(See Rule 30 and 66.)

EXAMINATION IN SIGNALLING.

The examination in Signalling should in all cases and for all grades commence with an examination in the International Code and be followed by an examination in the British Signal Manual, including Morse Flashing, Flag-waving and Semaphore.

International Code.—Examiners are recommended to frame the examination in the International Code of Signals, upon the instructions and illustrations given at the commencement of Parts I and II of the Signal Book. The information there given will be found sufficient to indicate all the characteristics of the Code.

By the form of the hoist, an observer can at sight understand the nature of any signal he sees flying; the examination should, therefore, tend to elicit a clear knowledge of all the distinctive features of the Code.

With this object in view, the Examiners should question the candidates as to the distinguishing forms of the respective hoists, which will be indicated according as a burgee, a pennant, or a square flag is uppermost, and also with regard to the number of flags, and the position of the Code flag when used in the hoist; making the 1, 2, 3 and 4 flag signals with the flags supplied for the purpose, and varying the signals made, showing 2 and 3 flag signals, with and without the Code flag included, or a Geographical or a Vocabulary signal, the name of a merchant ship or of a ship of war.

As the two latter signals would not be found in the Signal Book, the candidate should know where to find them and how to look them out.

The candidate should :—(a Be able to read a signal at sight, so far as to name the flags composing the hoist. (b) Know the use of the Code pennant and of the pennants C and D, "Yes" and "No," also of the two burgees A and B, and the square flags S and P, and the flags used to indicate cholera, plague, etc., on board, and the quarantine flag. (c) Be required to signal some word or words not included in the vocabulary of the Code either by letters or by the Spelling Table (page 516) or both. (d) Have a knowledge of the Distant Signals, and of their object, and the different modes of signalling therewith. (e) Know the special Morse signals indicated by certain letters as given on page 550. (f) Have a good knowledge of the Distress Signals and understand the penalty which may be incurred by their improper use.

The International Code is used on board His Majesty's ships, and it has been adopted by all the principal Maritime Powers for their public as well as merchant ships.

British Signal Manual.—Candidates will be expected to know the meaning of any or all of the single flag signals given therein, and the significations of the Pilot Jack when incorporated in a hoist. They should also be required to make or read from the Pilot Jack table a hoist given by the Examiner. Candidates need not be expected to commit the Pilot Jack table to memory, but there should be no hesitation whatever in making or reading a signal. They should also know how to recognise any of the Special Signals given at the end of the British Signal Manual.

Morse Flashing Flagwaving and Semaphore.—Candidates for the Extra Master's certificate and for the voluntary examination in signalling will be required to attain a minimum speed of 12 words a minute in semaphore, 10 words a minute in Morse flashing and 6 words a minute in Morse flagwaving (the average length of a word being taken as 5 letters).

Candidates for other certificates will only be required to attain a speed of 5 words a minute in Morse flashing and flagwaving and 8-words a minute in Semaphore.

In the ordinary examination, it will be sufficient if in Morse flashing a candidate is given a test card and a spelling message of 10 words, in Morse flagwaving a spelling message of 10 words, and in Semaphore a spelling message of 25 words.

In the Extra Master's examination, and in the voluntary examination in signalling, the Semaphore test will be a spelling message of 50 words.

The Morse flashing and flagwaving test will be a test message (see British Signal Manual), followed by a spelling message of 25 words.

The candidate must attain a degree of accuracy of at least 90 per cent. both in making and reading in each method, i .e, Flashing, Flagwaving and Semaphore.

In the examination in Morse flashing and flagwaving the candidate should be first required to make a test message, followed by a spelling message of 25 words. The Examiner should then make a test message, followed by a spelling message of 25 words to be read by the candidate.

The same procedure must be observed in the Semaphore examination, except that, as a test message is not given, the candidate will be required to make a spelling message of 50 words and then to read a message of 50 words made by the Examiner. The Semaphore messages may be made either by hand flags or mechanical Semaphore, or both at the discretion of the Examiner.

In the Morse flashing and flagwaving examination, marks will be allotted for the test message in the proportion of 50-78 of a mark for each correct letter (see table at back of test cards), and for the spelling message 2 marks for each correct word or group of figures. The candidate must for a pass gain an aggregate of at least 90 per cent. of the maximum marks in both spelling and test messages.

In the Semaphore examination 2 marks will be allotted for each correct word and 90 per cent of the maximum must be obtained for a pass.

The spelling message is left to the discretion of the Examiner, and may be a passage from any book or newspaper in English. When the passage contains figures and the candidate does not choose to spell them out, the Examiner should see that the proper signs are made before and after the figures.

The message as read by the candidate should be taken down by another candidate where possible, otherwise by a clerk, or other person according as the Examiner may deem expedient.

Candidates should be thoroughly tested in the various signs and the procedure of calling up, sending and answering a signal, as laid down in the British Signal Manual, and this course should always be strictly adhered to.

Particular attention should be paid by Examiners to the accurate spacing of the Morse signs, and to the intervals between letters and words, both in flashing and flagwaving, and also to the correct making of the Semaphore signs Any attempted increase of speed at the expense of accuracy should be discouraged.

The block letter test and spelling message as read by the candidate should be forwarded on the Form Exn. 19*a*, together with the percentage of marks allotted and report on the Form Exn. 19*b* to the Principal Examiner, with any remarks the Examiner may have to add with respect to the examination.

Note.—The International Code of Signals with the Signal Letters of British Ships, is prepared by the Registrar-General of Shipping and Seamen, and may be obtained of the publishers, Messrs. Spottiswoode, Ballantyne & Co., 1. New Street Square, London, E.C.4, and the principal booksellers at the various ports, price 5*s*.

The Official Mercantile Navy List and Maritime Directory may be obtained in like manner, price 12*s*.

The British Signal Manual may be obtained through any book-seller, or directly from His Majesty's Stationery Office at any of the addresses given on the title page of these Regulations, price 6*d*.

APPENDIX E.

REGULATIONS FOR PREVENTING COLLISIONS AT SEA.

1. ORDER IN COUNCIL OF OCTOBER 13, 1910.

SCHEDULE I.

Preliminary.

These Rules shall be followed by all vessels upon the high seas and in all waters connected therewith, navigable by sea-going vessels.

In the following Rules every steam vessel which is under sail and not under steam is to be considered a sailing vessel, and every vessel under steam, whether under sail or not, is to be considered a steam vessel.

The word "steam vessel" shall include any vessel propelled by machinery.

A vessel is "under way" within the meaning of these Rules, when she is not at anchor, or made fast to the shore or aground.

Rules concerning lights, etc

The word "visible" in these Rules, when applied to lights, shall mean visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere.

Article 1. The rules concerning lights shall be complied with in all weathers from sunset to sunrise, and during such time no other lights which may be mistaken for the prescribed lights shall be exhibited.

Article 2. A steam vessel when under way shall carry :—

(a) On or in front of the foremast, or if a vessel without a foremast, then in the fore part of the vessel, at a height above the hull, of not less than 20 feet, and if the breadth of the vessel exceeds 20 feet, then at a height above the hull not less than such breadth, so, however, that the light need not be carried at a greater height above the hull than 40 feet, a bright white light, so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 20 points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light 10 points on each side of the vessel, viz., from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on either side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least 5 miles.

(b) On the starboard side a green light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to two points abaft the beam on the starboard side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least 2 miles.

(c) On the port side a red light so constructed as to show an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 10 points of the compass, so fixed as to throw the light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on the port side, and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least 2 miles.

(d) The said green and red side-lights shall be fitted with in-board screens projecting at least 3 feet forward from the light, so as to prevent these lights from being seen across the bow.

(e) A steam vessel when under way may carry an additional white light similar in construction to the light mentioned in subdivision (a). These two lights shall be so placed in line with the keel that one shall be at least 15 feet higher than the other, and in such a position with reference to each other that the lower light shall be forward of the upper one. The vertical distance between these lights shall be less than the horizontal distance.

Article 3. A steam vessel when towing another vessel shall, in addition to her side-lights, carry two bright white lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than 6 feet apart, and when towing more than one vessel shall carry an additional bright white light 6 feet above or below such lights, if the length of the tow, measuring from the stern of the towing vessel to the stern of the last vessel towed, exceeds 600 feet. Each of these lights shall be of the same construction and character, and shall be carried in the same position as the white light mentioned in Article 2 (a), except the additional light, which may be carried at a height of not less than 14 feet above the hull

Such steam vessel may carry a small white light abaft the funnel or aftermast for the vessel towed to steer by, but such light shall not be visible forward of the beam.

Article 4. (a) A vessel which from any accident is not under command shall carry at the same height as the white light mentioned in Article 2 (a), where they can be seen, and, if a steam vessel, in lieu of that light, two red lights, in a vertical line one over the other, not less than 6 feet apart, and of such a character as to be visible all round the horizon at a distance of at least 2 miles ; and shall by day carry in a vertical line one over the other not less than 6 feet apart, where they can best be seen, two black balls or shapes each 2 feet in diameter.

(b) A vessel employed in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable shall carry in the same position as the white light mentioned in Article 2 (a), and if a steam vessel, in lieu of that light, three lights in a vertical line one over the other, not less than 6 feet apart. The highest and lowest of these lights shall be red, and the middle light shall be white, and they shall be of such a character as to be visible all round the horizon, at a distance of at least 2 miles. By day she shall carry in a vertical line one over the other, not less than 6 feet apart, where they can best be seen, three shapes not less than 2 feet in diameter, of which the highest and lowest shall be globular in shape and red in colour, and the middle one diamond in shape and white.

(c) The vessel referred to in this Article when not making way through the water, shall not carry the side lights, but when making way shall carry them.

(d) The lights and shapes required to be shown by this Article are to be taken by other vessels as signals that the vessel showing them is not under command and cannot therefore get out of the way.

These signals are not signals of vessels in distress and requiring assistance. Such signals are contained in Article 31.

Article 5. A sailing vessel under way, and any vessel being towed, shall carry the same lights as are prescribed by Article 2 for a steam vessel under way, with the exception of the white lights mentioned therein, which they shall never carry.

Article 6. Whenever, as in the case of small vessels under way during bad weather, the green and red side-lights cannot be fixed, these lights shall be kept at hand lighted and ready for use; and shall, on the approach of or to other vessels, be exhibited on their respective sides in sufficient time to prevent collision, in such manner as to make them most visible, and so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side, nor, if practicable, more than 2 points abaft the beam on their respective sides.

To make the use of these portable lights more certain and easy, the lanterns containing them shall each be painted outside with the colour of the light they respectively contain, and shall be provided with proper screens.

Article 7. Steam vessels of less than 40, and vessels under oars or sails of less than 20 tons gross tonnage, respectively, and rowing boats, when under way, shall not be obliged to carry the lights mentioned in Article 2 (a), (b) and (c), but if they do not carry them they shall be provided with the following lights :—

1. Steam vessels of less than 40 tons shall carry :—

(a) In the forepart of the vessel, or on or in front of the funnel, where it can best be seen, and at a height above the gunwale of not less than 9 feet, a bright white light constructed and fixed as prescribed in Article 2 (a), and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least 2 miles.

(b) Green and red side-lights constructed and fixed as prescribed in Article 2 (b) and (c) and of such a character as to be visible at a distance of at least 1 mile, or a combined lantern showing a green light and a red light from right ahead to 2 points abaft the beam on their respective sides. Such lantern shall be carried not less than 3 feet below the white light.

2. Small steamboats, such as are carried by sea-going vessels, may carry the white light at a less height than 9 feet above the gunwale, but it shall be carried above the combined lantern, mentioned in subdivision 1 (b).

3. Vessels under oars or sails, of less than 20 tons, shall have ready at hand a lantern with a green glass on one side and a red glass on the other, which, on the approach of or to other vessels, shall be exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision, so that the green light shall not be seen on the port side nor the red light on the starboard side.

4. Rowing boats, whether under oars or sail, shall have ready at hand a lantern showing a white light, which shall be temporarily exhibited in sufficient time to prevent collision.

The vessels referred to in this Article shall not be obliged to carry the lights prescribed by Article 4 (a), and Article 11, last paragraph.

Article 8. Pilot-vessels, when engaged on their station on pilotage duty, shall not show the lights required for other vessels, but shall carry a white light at the masthead, visible all round the horizon, and shall also exhibit a flare-up light or flare-up lights at short intervals, which shall never exceed fifteen minutes.

On the near approach of or to other vessels they shall have their side-lights lighted, ready for use, and shall flash or show them at short intervals, to indicate the direction in which they are heading, but the green light shall not be shown on the port side, nor the red light on the starboard side.

A pilot-vessel of such a class as to be obliged to go alongside of a vessel to put a pilot on board, may show the white light instead of carrying it at the masthead, and may, instead of the coloured lights above mentioned, have at hand ready for use a lantern with a green glass on the one side and a red glass on the other, to be used as prescribed above.

A steam pilot-vessel exclusively employed for the service of pilots licensed or certified by any pilotage authority or the Committee of any pilotage district, when engaged on her station on pilotage duty and not at anchor, shall, in addition to the lights required for all pilot boats, carry at a distance of eight feet below her white masthead light a red light visible all round the horizon and of such a character as to be visible on a dark night with a clear atmosphere at a distance of at least two miles, and also the coloured side-lights required to be carried by vessels when under way.

When engaged on her station on pilotage duty and at anchor she shall carry, in addition to the lights required for all pilot boats, the red light above mentioned, but not the coloured side-lights.

Pilot-vessels, when not engaged on their station on pilotage duty, shall carry lights similar to those of other vessels of their tonnage.

Article 9.*† Fishing-vessels and fishing-boats, when under way and when not required by this Article to carry or show the lights hereinafter specified, shall carry or show the lights prescribed for vessels of their tonnage under way.

(a) Open boats, by which it is to be understood boats not protected from the entry of sea water by means of a continuous deck, when engaged in any fishing at night with outlying tackle extending not more than 150 feet horizontally from the boat into the seaway, shall carry one all-round white light.

Open boats, when fishing at night, with outlying tackle extending more than 150 feet horizontally from the boat into the seaway, shall carry one all round white light, and in addition, on approaching or being approached by other vessels, shall show a second white light at least 3 feet below the first light and at a horizontal distance of at least 5 feet away from it in the direction in which the outlying tackle is attached.

(b)‡Vessels and boats, except open boats as defined in subdivision (a), when fishing with drift-nets, shall, so long as the nets are wholly or partly in the water, carry two white lights where they can best be seen. Such lights shall be placed so that the vertical distance between them shall be not less than 6 feet, and not more than 15 feet, and so that the horizontal distance between them, measured in a line with the keel, shall be not less than 5 feet and not more than 10 feet. The lower of these two lights shall be in the direction of the nets, and both of them shall be of such a character as to show all round the horizon, and to be visible at a distance of not less than 3 miles.

* This article does not apply to Chinese or Siamese vessels.

† The expression "Mediterranean Sea" contained in sub-sections (b) and (c) of this Article includes the Black Sea and the other adjacent inland seas in communication with it.

‡ Dutch vessels and boats when engaged in the "kol" or handline, fishing will carry the lights prescribed for vessels fishing with drift-nets.

Within the Mediterranean Sea and in the seas bordering the coasts of Japan and Korea* sailing fishing vessels of less than 20 tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to carry the lower of these two lights; should they, however, not carry it, they shall show in the same position (in the direction of the net or gear) a white light, visible at a distance of not less than one sea mile, on the approach of or to other vessels.

(c) Vessels and boats, except open boats as defined in subdivision (a), when line-fishing with their lines out and attached to or hauling their lines, and when not at anchor or stationary within the meaning of subdivision (h), shall carry the same lights as vessels fishing with drift-nets. When shooting lines, or fishing with towing lines, they shall carry the lights prescribed for a steam or sailing vessel under way, respectively.

Within the Mediterranean Sea and in the seas bordering the coasts of Japan and Korea* sailing fishing vessels of less than 20 tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to carry the lower of these two lights; should they, however, not carry it, they shall show in the same position (in the direction of the lines) a white light, visible at a distance of not less than one sea mile, on the approach of or to other vessels.

(d) Vessels, when engaged in trawling, by which is meant the dragging of an apparatus along the bottom of the sea—

1. If steam vessels, shall carry, in the same position as the white light mentioned in Article 2 (a) a tricoloured lantern so constructed and fixed as to show a white light from right ahead to two points on each bow, and a green light and a red light over an arc of the horizon from two points on each bow to two points abaft the beam on the starboard and port sides, respectively; and not less than 6 nor more than 12 feet below the tricoloured lantern a white light in a lantern, so constructed as to show a clear, uniform and unbroken light all round the horizon.
2. If sailing vessels, shall carry a white light in a lantern, so constructed as to show a clear, uniform and unbroken light all round the horizon, and shall also, on the approach of or to other vessels, show where it can best be seen a white flare-up light or torch in sufficient time to prevent collision.

All lights mentioned in subdivision (d) 1 and 2 shall be visible at a distance of at least 2 miles.

(e) Oyster dredgers and other vessels fishing with dredge-nets shall carry and show the same lights as trawlers.

(f) Fishing-vessels and fishing-boats may at any time use a flare-up light in addition to the lights which they are by this Article required to carry and show, and they may also use working lights.

(g) Every fishing-vessel and every fishing-boat under 150 feet in length, when at anchor, shall exhibit a white light visible all round the horizon at a distance of at least one mile.

Every fishing-vessel of 150 feet in length or upwards, when at anchor, shall exhibit a white light visible all round the horizon at a distance of at least one mile, and shall exhibit a second light as provided for vessels of such length by Article 11.

Should any such vessel, whether under 150 feet in length, or of 150 feet in length or upwards, be attached to a net or other fishing gear, she shall on the approach of other vessels show an additional white light at least 3 feet below the anchor light, and at a horizontal distance of at least 5 feet away from it in the direction of the net or gear.

(h) If a vessel or boat when fishing becomes stationary in consequence of her gear getting fast to a rock or other obstruction, she shall in daytime haul down the day-signal required by subdivision (k); at night show the light or lights prescribed for a vessel at anchor; and during fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain-storms make the signal prescribed for a vessel at anchor. [See subdivision (d), and the last paragraph of Article 15.]

(i) In fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain-storms, drift-net vessels attached to their nets, and vessels when trawling, dredging, or fishing with any kind of dredge-net, and vessels line-fishing with their lines out, shall, if of 20 tons gross tonnage or upwards, respectively, at intervals of not more than one minute make a blast; if steam vessels, with the whistle or siren, and if sailing vessels, with the fog-horn; each blast to be followed by ringing the bell. Fishing vessels and boats of less than 20 tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to give the abovementioned signals; but if they do not, they shall make some other efficient sound signal at intervals of not more than one minute.

(k) All vessels or boats fishing with nets or lines or trawls, when under way, shall in daytime indicate their occupation, to an approaching vessel by displaying a basket or other efficient signal where it can best be seen. If vessels or boats at anchor have their gear out, they shall, on the approach of other vessels, show the same signal on the side on which those vessels can pass.

The vessels required by this Article to carry or show the lights hereinbefore specified shall not be obliged to carry the lights prescribed by Article 4(a), and the last paragraph of Article 11.

Article 10. A vessel which is being overtaken by another shall show from her stern to such last-mentioned vessel a white light or a flare-up light.

The white light required to be shown by this Article may be fixed and carried in a lantern, but in such case the lantern shall be so constructed, fitted, and screened that it shall throw an unbroken light over an arc of the horizon of 12 points of the compass, viz., for 6 points from right aft on each side of the vessel, so as to be visible at a distance of at least 1 mile. Such light shall be carried as nearly as practicable on the same level as the side-lights.

Article 11. A vessel under 150 feet in length, when at anchor, shall carry forward, where it can best be seen, but at a height not exceeding 20 feet above the hull, a white light in a lantern so constructed as to show a clear, uniform and unbroken light visible all round the horizon at a distance of at least 1 mile.

A vessel of 150 feet or upwards in length, when at anchor, shall carry in the forward part of the vessel, at a height of not less than 20, and not exceeding 40, feet above the hull, one such light, and at or near the stern of the vessel, and at such a height that it shall be not less than 15 feet lower than the forward light, another such light.

The length of the vessel shall be deemed to be the length appearing in her certificate of registry.

A vessel aground in or near a fairway shall carry the above light or lights and the two red lights prescribed by Article 4 (a).

Article 12. Every vessel may, if necessary in order to attract attention, in addition to the lights which she is by these Rules required to carry, show a flare-up light or use any detonating signal that cannot be mistaken for a distress signal.

* Also, as regards Russian vessels, in the seas (excluding the Baltic) bordering the coasts of Russia.

Article 13. Nothing in these Rules shall interfere with the operation of any special rules made by the Government of any nation with respect to additional station and signal lights for two or more ships of war or for vessels sailing under convoy, or with the exhibition of recognition signals adopted by shipowners, which have been authorized by their respective Governments and duly registered and published.

Article 14 A steam vessel proceeding under sail only, but having her funnel up, shall carry in daytime, forward, where it can best be seen, one black ball or shape 2 feet in diameter.

Sound-signals for Fog, etc.

Article 15. All signals prescribed by this Article for vessels under way shall be given:

1. By "steam vessels" on the whistle or siren.
2. By "sailing vessels and vessels towed" on the fog-horn.

The words "prolonged blast" used in this Article shall mean a blast of from 4 to 6 seconds' duration.

A steam vessel shall be provided with an efficient whistle or siren, sounded by steam or some substitute for steam, so placed that the sound may not be intercepted by any obstruction, and with an efficient fog-horn, to be sounded by mechanical means, and also with an efficient bell.* A sailing vessel of 20 tons gross tonnage or upwards shall be provided with a similar fog-horn and bell.

In fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain-storms, whether by day or night, the signals described in this Article shall be used as follows, viz. :—

(a) A steam vessel having way upon her, shall sound, at intervals of not more than 2 minutes, a prolonged blast.

(b) A steam vessel under way, but stopped and having no way upon her, shall sound, at intervals of not more than 2 minutes, two prolonged blasts, with an interval of about 1 second between them.

(c) A sailing vessel under way shall sound, at intervals of not more than 1 minute, when on the starboard tack one blast, when on the port tack two blasts in succession, and when with the wind abaft the beam three blasts in succession.

(d) A vessel, when at anchor, shall, at intervals of not more than 1 minute, ring the bell rapidly for about 5 seconds.

(e) A vessel, when towing a vessel employed in laying or in picking up a telegraph cable, and a vessel under way, which is unable to get out of the way of an approaching vessel through being not under command, or unable to manœuvre as required by these Rules, shall, instead of the signals prescribed in subdivisions (a) and (c) of this Article, at intervals of not more than 2 minutes, sound three blasts in succession, viz. : one prolonged blast followed by two short blasts. A vessel towed may give this signal and she shall not give any other.

Sailing vessels and boats of less than 20 tons gross tonnage shall not be obliged to give the above-mentioned signals, but if they do not, they shall make some other efficient sound-signal at intervals of not more than 1 minute.†

Speed of ships to be Moderate in Fog, etc.

Article 16. Every vessel shall, in a fog, mist, falling snow or heavy rain-storms, go at a moderate speed, having careful regard to the existing circumstances and conditions.

A steam vessel hearing, apparently forward of her beam, the fog-signal of a vessel the position of which is not ascertained, shall, so far as the circumstances of the case admit, stop her engines, and then navigate with caution until danger of collision is over.

STEERING AND SAILING RULES.

Preliminary—Risk of Collision.

Risk of collision can, when circumstances permit, be ascertained by carefully watching the compass bearing of an approaching vessel. If the bearing does not appreciably change, such risk should be deemed to exist.

Article 17. When two sailing vessels are approaching one another, so as to involve risk of collision, one of them shall keep out of the way of the other, as follows, viz. :—

(a) A vessel which is running free shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled.
(b) A vessel which is close-hauled on the port tack shall keep out of the way of a vessel which is close-hauled on the starboard tack.
(c) When both are running free, with the wind on different sides, the vessel which has the wind on the port side shall keep out of the way of the other
(d) When both are running free, with the wind on the same side, the vessel which is to windward shall keep out of the way of the vessel which is to leeward
(e) A vessel which has the wind aft shall keep out of the way of the other vessel.

Article 18 When two steam vessels are meeting end on, or nearly end on, so as to involve risk of collision, each shall alter her course to starboard, so that each may pass on the port side of the other.

This Article only applies to cases where vessels are meeting end on, or nearly end on, in such a manner as to involve risk of collision, and does not apply to two vessels which must, if not keep on their respective courses, pass clear of each other.

* In all cases where the rules require a bell to be used a drum may be substituted on board Turkish vessels, or a gong where such articles are used on board small sea-going vessels.

† Dutch steam pilot-vessels, when engaged on their station on pilotage duty in fog, mist, falling snow, or heavy rain storms are required to make at intervals of 2 minutes at most one long blast with the siren, followed after 1 second by a long blast with the steam whistle and again after 1 second by a long blast on the siren. When not engaged on their station on pilotage duty, they make the same signals as other steamships

The only cases to which it does apply are when each of the two vessels is end on, or nearly end on, to the other; in other words, to cases in which, by day, each vessel sees the masts of the other in a line, or nearly in a line, with her own; and, by night, to cases to which each vessel is in such a position as to see both the side-lights of the other.

It does not apply, by day, to cases in which a vessel sees another ahead crossing her own course; or by night, to cases where the red light of one vessel is opposed to the red light of the other, or where the green light of one vessel is opposed to the green light of the other, or where a red light without a green light, or a green light without a red light, is seen ahead, or where both green and red lights are seen anywhere but ahead.

Article 19. When two steam vessels are crossing, so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way of the other.

Article 20. When a steam vessel and a sailing vessel are proceeding in such directions as to involve risk of collision, the steam vessel shall keep out of the way of the sailing vessel.

Article 21. Where by any of these Rules one of two vessels is to keep out of the way, the other shall keep her course and speed.

Note.—When, in consequence of thick weather or other causes, such vessel finds herself so close that collision cannot be avoided by the action of the giving-way vessel alone, she also shall take such action as will best aid to avert collision. (See Articles 27 and 29.)

Article 22. Every vessel which is directed by these Rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, if the circumstances of the case admit, avoid crossing ahead of the other.

Article 23. Every steam vessel which is directed by these Rules to keep out of the way of another vessel shall, on approaching her, if necessary, slacken her speed or stop or reverse.

Article 24. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Rules, every vessel, overtaking any other, shall keep out of the way of the overtaken vessel.

Every vessel coming up with another vessel from any direction more than two points abaft her beam, i.e., in such a position, with reference to the vessel which she is overtaking that at night she would be unable to see either of that vessel's side-lights, shall be deemed to be an overtaking vessel; and no subsequent alteration of the bearing between the two vessels shall make the overtaking vessel a crossing vessel within the meaning of these Rules, or relieve her of the duty of keeping clear of the overtaken vessel until she is finally past and clear.

As by day the overtaking vessel cannot always know with certainty whether she is forward or abaft this direction from the other vessel, she should, if in doubt, assume that she is an overtaking vessel and keep out of the way.

Article 25. In narrow channels every steam vessel shall, when it is safe and practicable, keep to that side of the fairway or mid-channel which lies on the starboard side of such vessel.

Article 26. Sailing vessels under way shall keep out of the way of sailing vessels or boats fishing with nets, or lines, or trawls. This Rule shall not give to any vessel or boat engaged in fishing the right of obstructing a fairway used by vessels other than fishing vessels or boats.

Article 27. In obeying and construing these Rules, due regard shall be had to all dangers of navigation and collision, and to any special circumstances which may render a departure from the above Rules necessary in order to avoid immediate danger.

Sound Signals for Vessels in Sight of one Another.

Article 28. The words "short blast" used in this Article shall mean a blast of about one second's duration.

When vessels are in sight of one another, a steam vessel under way, in taking any course authorised or required by these Rules, shall indicate that course by the following signals on her whistle or siren, viz. :—

One short blast to mean, "I am directing my course to-starboard."
Two short blasts to mean, "I am directing my course to port."
Three short blasts to mean, "My engines are going full speed astern."

No Vessels under any circumstances to neglect proper Precautions.

Article 29. Nothing in these Rules shall exonerate any vessel, or the owner, or master, or crew thereof, from the consequences of any neglect to carry lights or signals, or of any neglect to keep a proper look-out, or of the neglect of any precaution which may be required by the ordinary practice of seamen, or by the special circumstances of the case.

Reservation of Rules for Harbours and Inland Navigation.

Article 30. Nothing in these Rules shall interfere with the operation of a special rule, duly made by local authority, relative to the navigation of any harbour, river, or inland waters.

*Distress Signals.

Article 31. When a vessel is in distress and requires assistance from other vessels or from the shore, the following shall be the signals to be used or displayed by her, either together or separately, viz. :—

In the daytime—

1. A gun or other explosive signal fired at intervals of about a minute.
2. The International Code signal of distress indicated by NC.
3. †The distant signal, consisting of a square flag, having either above or below it a ball or any thing resembling a ball.
4. A continuous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus.

*If a master of a vessel uses or displays, or causes or permits any person under his authority to use or display, any of those signals of distress, except in the case of a vessel being in distress, he shall be liable to pay compensation for any labour undertaken, risk incurred, or loss sustained in consequence of that signal having been supposed to be a signal of distress, and that compensation may, without prejudice to any other remedy, be recovered in the same manner in which salvage is recoverable [Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, section 434 (2).]

†A further distress signal is provided in the International Code of Signals. It is a distant signal consisting of a cone point upwards, having either above it or below it a ball, or anything resembling a ball. This signal has not been sanctioned by Order in Council under the provisions of section 435 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894.

At night—

1. A gun or other explosive signal fired at intervals of about a minute.
2. Flames on the vessel (as from a burning tar-barrel, oil-barrel, etc.).
3. Rockets or shells, throwing stars of any colour or description, fired one at a time, at short intervals.
4. A continuous sounding with any fog-signal apparatus.

AIDS TO MEMORY in four verses, by the late MR. THOMAS GRAY, C.B.

1. Two Steam Ships meeting.

When both side lights you see ahead—
Port your helm and show your RED.

2. Two Steam Ships passing.

GREEN to GREEN—or, RED to RED—
Perfect safety—Go ahead!

3. Two Steam Ships crossing

Note.—This is the position of greatest danger: there is nothing for it but good look-out, caution and judgment.

If to your starboard RED appear,
It is your duty to keep clear;
To act as judgment says is proper:—
To Port—or Starboard—Back,—or, Stop her.

But when upon your Port is seen
A Steamer's Starboard Light of GREEN
There's not so much for you to do,
For GREEN to Port keeps clear of you.

4. All Ships must keep a good look-out, and Steam Ships must stop and go astern, if necessary.

Both in safety and in doubt
Always keep a good look-out;
In danger, with no room to turn,
Ease her, stop her, go astern.

APPENDIX F.

SIGNALS TO BE MADE BY SHIP WANTING A PILOT.

In the daytime.—The following signals, numbered 1, 2, 3 and 4, when used or displayed together or separately, shall be deemed to be signals for a pilot in the daytime, viz.:—

1. To be hoisted at the fore, the Union Jack, having round it a white border, one-fifth of the breadth of the flag; or
2. The International Code pilotage signal indicated by PT.
3. The International Code Flag S, with or without the Code Pennant over it.
4. The distant signal, consisting of a cone point upwards, having above it two balls or shapes resembling balls.

At night.—The following signals, numbered 1 and 2, when used or displayed together or separately, shall be deemed to be signals for a pilot at night viz.:—

1. The pyrotechnic light, commonly known as a blue light, every fifteen minutes; or
2. A bright white light, flashed or shown at short or frequent intervals just above the bulwarks, for about a minute at a time.

If a master of a vessel uses or displays, or causes or permits any person under his authority to use or display, any of the pilot signals for any other purpose than that of summoning a pilot, or uses or causes or permits any person under his authority to use any other signal for a pilot, he shall for each offence be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds. [Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, section 615 (3).]

APPENDIX G.

DEVIATION OF THE COMPASS.

FOR MASTERS' CERTIFICATES FOR HOME TRADE PASSENGER SHIPS.

The candidate must answer in writing, on paper given him by the Examiner, all the following questions, numbering his answers to correspond with the numbers of the questions:—

1. When taking a Meridian Altitude, how do you know when the sun is on the Meridian; or in other words, when it is noon?
2. How does the sun bear (true and magnetic) when on the meridian of an observer in these latitudes (Home Trade Limits)?
3. What do you mean by deviation of the Compass, and how is it caused?

4. Having determined the deviation, how do you know when it is easterly and when westerly ?
5. Supposing the sun when on the meridian bore by your Compass _____ ___what would be the deviation of that Compass for the direction of the ship's head at the time, the variation given on the Chart being _____ ?
6. How could you find the deviation of your Compass when in port, or when sailing along a coast ?
7. Name some suitable terrestrial objects by which you could readily obtain the deviation of your Compass.
8. The bearing of two objects when in a line with each other was found on the Chart to be_____ _____ _____magnetic ; but when brought in a line on board they bore _____ by your Compass ; required the deviation of your Compass for the direction of the ship's head at the time ?
9. What means are there for checking the deviation of your Compass by night ?
10. Supposing the North Star (Polaris) bore ___ _____ by your Compass, what would be the deviation (approximately) of that Compass for the direction of the ship's head at the time, supposing the variation given on the Chart to be_____ ?
11. Do you expect the deviation to change ? If so, state under what circumstances.
12. What is meant by the variation of the Compass, and what is the cause of it ?

APPENDIX H.

(See Rule 67.)

EXAMINATION OF A MASTER OR MATE IN STEAM.

The examination is for the most part viva voce, and extends to a general knowledge of the practical use and working of steam engines and boilers, and of the various valves, fittings, and pieces of machinery connected with them and of the way in which electric lighting is carried out on board ship.

Candidates must :—

(a) Know the names and understand the uses of the various parts of engines and boilers, and their connecting pipes, valves cocks, etc.

(b) Have a thorough grasp of the construction of the steam engine and boiler, to enable them to understand the nature and importance of any defect which may be reported to them by the Chief Engineer.

(c) Have a looking-on knowledge of what the principal repairs about engines, boilers and pipes are, and how these repairs are accomplished.

(d) Be able to form an independent opinion as to a breakdown, and the consequent propriety or impropriety of proceeding under steam with temporarily repaired or defective machinery.

(e) Understand how to estimate approximately the reduction of fuel required for reduced speed, and be able to satisfy themselves as to the sufficiency of the coal on board for the voyage.

(f) Have an intelligent grasp of the general run of pipes and connections in the engine-room, the working of cocks, the opening and closing of cocks and valves, and know how mistakes of importance may be made and how best to guard against such mistakes.

(g) Be capable of being left in charge of the feeding of a set of boilers, understand the working of the water gauge, and be able to guard against being misled by false indications of the gauge glass.

(h) Understand the operations of blowing down and surfacing, the reasons for such practices and the danger which may result from the neglect of them in certain circumstances.

A Master or Mate presenting himself for examination in Steam must be understood to have made up for his want of practical experience by reading about the steam engine. He ought, therefore, to show that he intelligently understands the rationale of its action. Under this head he should be able to state approximately the quantity of heat required in the formation of steam, the relation of "latent" heat to "sensible" heat, how much steam can be raised by the combustion of one pound of coal, what horse-power measure is, what indicated horse-power is, what is the action of the slide valve, the course of the steam through the engine, the advantage of working expansively, and how the expansive action is shown by the indicator diagram.

He should know the uses of the various parts of the engines and dynamos used for electric lighting, and how they and the cables are fitted in the hull ; how wires are jointed, insulated and cased ; why it is desirable that they should be led along places which are dry and accessible ; what "short circuiting" is and what are the causes which produce it ; what is its danger in coal bunkers and petroleum-carrying steamers ; what are the uses of switches and cut-outs, and why it is so important to prevent short circuiting taking place.

Candidates will be required to give written answers to sixteen out of twenty questions taken from the Elementary Questions (printed in Appendix C of the Regulations relating to the Examination of Engineers : Exn. 1*a*) given on the sheets marked "Steam," or questions similar to these. These questions will be altered from time to time without notice. The twenty questions will not be difficult, theoretical, or book questions, but such as any man of ordinary capacity who has a fair amount of practical knowledge of the use of working of the steam-engine ought to answer.

Examiners will require all candidates to fill up a form, Exn. 15*b* and they will forward it to the Chief Examiner of Engineers with the report of the examination.

Masters and Mates may cancel questions A, B and C, but they should fill up the form for questions D, E, F and G, as evidence of their practical knowledge.

If a candidate refers to any book, paper or memorandum, or obtains information from another candidate or any other person during the examination, he will be treated as having failed, will forfeit his fee, and will not be allowed to be re-examined for a period of six months.

The Examiners will report, in the case of failure, the nature of the question or questions that decided the failure, or the point in the management of the engines or boilers in which the candidate was deficient.

Applicants for the voluntary examination need not necessarily have served on board steamships : all that is required is that they shall have a practical knowledge of the use and working of the steam engine.

Practical knowledge is best gained in the engine-room ; and the examination of an officer who does not produce official evidence of service in steamships, and of experience of engines, must necessarily be more searching than in the case of one who produces evidence of such service and experience.

The answers to the Elementary Questions are frequently given by candidates as learned by rote from a book. Candidates should, therefore, be asked such viva voce questions as will necessitate answers in different words, so as to discover whether they have the root of the matter in them.

A large part of the viva voce examination should be conducted on board a steamer, preferably one with which the candidate is unacquainted. He should be told to look about and try to find out the arrangement of the machinery without assistance, and the Examiner should be in the engine-room to see that this independent examination is properly carried out. When the candidate reports that he thinks he knows the arrangement, the Examiner will question him on the uses of the parts, get him to point out the different cylinders, pumps, valves, condenser, etc, ; also the dynamo, its field magnets, armature, commutators, brushes cables, etc. The candidate must show that he understands the run of the pipes in the bilges, not necessarily that he has gone over every one of them, but he ought to be directed to trace, at least, one important range of pipes, and to thoroughly satisfy the Examiner that he could be safely trusted to manipulate the valves or cocks in connection therewith It will not often be practicable for the candidate actually to work engines under steam, but he must satisfy the Examiner that he knows how to do so, and that he is aware of the precautions to be taken in regard to water in the cylinders, etc. It is most important that a candidate should show that, in the event of an accident depriving him of the assistance of Engineers, he knows what to do to safely take his vessel to an anchorage, or to stop the engines and proceed under sail alone.

The examination of a Mate in steam is the same as that of a Master. The knowledge required has no reference to the Mate's position.

The Mate may be examined, but such examination implies that the Mate may one day be a Master, when the possession of the knowledge will be an advantage to him in the discharge of his duties.

APPENDIX I.

(See Rule 26.)

SIGHT TESTS.

Details as to the conduct of the tests.

These tests must be conducted under the strict personal supervision of the Examiner. A careful record must be kept of all mistakes made by the candidate both in the form vision test and in the colour vision test.

Examiner must keep a record of all candidates passed by him for reference when required.

I.—FORM VISION TEST.

1. Form vision test to be passed first.—The first test which the candidate is required to undergo is the test for form vision, and until he has passed this test he must not be allowed to proceed further with the examination

2 Apparatus used.—The form vision test to be used for all candidates is that conducted on Snellen's principle by means of sheets of letters.

3. Object of the test.—The object of the form vision test is to determine whether the candidate can reach a sufficient standard of visual acuteness, or, in other words, to find out whether his eyesight is good or bad.

4. Standard of vision required.—Every candidate for a first certificate of competency will be required to possess normal vision With the exceptions indicated below (see paragraph 8), every candidate for a second or higher certificate will be required to possess normal vision.

"Normal vision" is defined, for the purpose of these Regulations, as ability to read correctly nine of the twelve letters in the sixth line and eight of the fifteen letters in the seventh line of a test sheet placed in a good light at a distance of 16 feet from the eye.

The candidate will have the option of using either eye separately or both eyes together.

5. Spectacles not allowed.—During the examination for form vision candidates must not be allowed to use spectacles or glasses of any kind, or any other artificial aid to vision.

6. Method of testing.—The test sheets should be hung on the wall, in a good light, but not in direct sunlight, at a height of five or six feet from the ground. The candidate should be placed at a distance of exactly 16 feet from the sheets, and exactly opposite them. This distance should be carefully measured, and should never in any circumstances be varied.

One of the sheets should then be exposed, and the candidate should be asked to read the letters on each sheet, beginning at the top and going downwards. Any mistakes which he makes should be carefully noted. If then it is found that he has read correctly at least nine letters in the sixth line and eight letters in the seventh line of a sheet, the candidate may be considered to have normal vision, and should be marked "passed" in the appropriate column of the form of application (Exn. 2 or Exn. 2A, as the case may be).

7. Passing or failure.—If at the conclusion of the test the candidate is found to reach the required standard, he may be considered to have passed, and the Examiner should proceed to test him for colour vision. If the candidate fails to reach the standard required for the certificate entered for, he should be tested with at least four sheets, and the Examiner should fill in a Form, Exn. 17b, and should forward it, with any remarks he may wish to make, to the Principal Examiner for his instructions as to whether the candidate is to be regarded as passing or as failing in form vision.

8. Lower standard required in certain cases.—Candidates who are in possession of certificates obtained before January 1st, 1914, may be regarded as passing in form vision if they can read correctly with both eyes at least five of the eight letters in the fifth line of a test sheet.

9. Tests to be varied.—The Examiner should take care, by varying the order of the test sheets and by every other means in his power, to guard against the possibility of any deception on the part of the candidate.

10. Result of examination to be reported.—The result of every examination in form vision should be reported, in the case of a candidate for a certificate of competency, to Government on Form Exn. 2, and to the Port Officer on Form Exn. 14; and, in the case of a candidate for the sight tests only, to Government on Form Exn. 2 A.

II.—COLOUR VISION TEST.

11. Apparatus.—A special lantern and a mirror have been provided for this test. The lantern should be placed directly in front of the mirror, so that the front part of the lantern is exactly ten feet from the mirror. Care should be taken that the lantern is properly placed, that is to say, the lights reflected in the mirror must show clearly when viewed through the rectangular aperture on the left of the lantern. The Examiner should always satisfy himself that these conditions are fulfilled before commencing the examination.

12. Darkness adaptation.—It is essential that a candidate should be kept in a room which is either completely or partially darkened for at least a quarter of an hour before he is requested to undergo this test.

Before the examination commences the Examiner must satisfy himself that the room in which it is conducted is so darkened as to exclude all daylight.

13. Method of testing.—The lantern supplied for the examination is so constructed as to allow one large or two small lights to be visible, and is fitted with 12 glasses of three colours—red, white and green. At the commencement of the examination the Examiner should show to the candidate a series of lights through the large aperture, and should require him to name the colours as they appear to him. Care should be taken in showing the white light to emphasise the fact that the light is not a pure white. If a candidate makes a mistake of calling this light "red" a proper red light should be shown immediately after and the candidate's attention directed to the difference between the two.

After a series of lights through the large aperture has been shown, the Examiner should make a complete circuit with the two small apertures, requiring the candidate to name the colours of each set of two lights from left to right. To prevent any possibility of the order in which the lights are arranged from being learnt, the Examiner should at least twice in each circuit go back a varying number of colours.

A record of any mistakes made with either the large aperture or the two smaller apertures should be kept on Form Exn. 17c in accordance with the instructions therein.

14. Passing or failure.—If a candidate with either the large aperture or the two smaller apertures of the lantern mistakes red for green or green for red, he should be considered to have "failed" in Colour Vision.

If the only mistake made by the candidate with the lantern, is to call the white light "red," and if after his attention has been specially directed to the difference between the two he makes no further mistake of this nature, he should be considered to have passed in Colour Vision.

If a candidate makes any other mistake with the lantern, i.e., if he calls white "red" repeatedly or red "white" at all, or confuses green and white, his case should be reported to the Port Officer and he should be told that the decision as to whether he is passed or failed, or a further examination is necessary will be communicated to him in due course. Pending the receipt of the Port Officer's instructions such a candidate should only be allowed to proceed with the remainder of the examination for a certificate of competency on the express understanding that the latter examination will be cancelled in the event of failure in the Sight Tests.

15. Further examination and appeals.—If in the cases covered by the preceding paragraph the Port Officer decides that a further examination is necessary, arrangements will be made for a special examination to be held and the third class travelling expenses necessarily incurred by a candidate in attending such an examination will be paid by the Government together with a subsistence allowance at a rate which will be notified to the candidate, but which will not in any circumstances exceed Rs. 5 for each day necessarily occupied in attending the examination. In these cases the above expenses will be paid whatever may be the result of the final examination.

If, however, on the report of the Examiner the Port Officer decides that the nature of the mistakes made shows conclusively that a candidate is so colour blind as to be unfit to hold a certificate, the candidate shall be considered to have failed.

In cases where, upon the report of the Examiner, a candidate is failed by the Port Officer, as well as in the cases covered by paragraph 14, Government will be prepared to allow a candidate who is dissatisfied with this decision to appeal for a special examination, but Government will not pay the travelling expenses of any such candidate unless he is reported by the Special Examiners conducting the appeal examination to have passed.

III.—REPORTS.

16. The result of every test in form or colour vision should be reported to the Government on the Form Exn. 2, and to the Port Officer on the Form Exn. 14, when the candidate is up for examination for a certificate of competency; and to the Government on the Form, Exn. 2A, when the candidate is up for examination in vision only.

All cases of failure should also be reported to the Port Officer on Form Exn. 17B, to which should be attached Form Exn. 17C, containing the record of any mistakes made with the lantern.

Every report relating to such an examination must be signed by the Examiner who conducted the examination.

APPENDIX J.

TABLE SHOWING THE REQUIREMENTS AS TO SEA SERVICE NECESSARY TO QUALIFY FOR EXAMINATION FOR CERTIFICATES OF COMPETENCY.

Note.

A candidate for an Ordinary certificate of any grade who has not previously held an Ordinary certificate of a lower grade must prove that he has served twelve months in the foreign trade or eighteen months in the home or coasting trade in a square-rigged sailing vessel.

Where foreign-going certificates are required to be held to qualify candidates for examination, they may be o ther the Ordinary certificates, or those for fore and aft rigged vessels, or for foreign-going steamships.

It must be clearly understood that the amount of service laid down in the Regulations for each grade of certificate of competency is the absolute minimum that can be accepted, and unless a candidate can show the full amount he must in no case be allowed up for examination.

Rank.	Minimum Age.	Total Sea Service (Years).	Officer's Service in Merchant Vessels.
			Years.	Lowest capacity.	Lowest certificate required.
ORDINARY CERTIFICATES FOR FOREIGN-GOING SHIPS.
2nd Mate ...	18	4	.....	No officer's service required ...	None.
Only Mate ...	19	5	.....	No officer's service required ...	None
1st Mate ...	19	5	1	3rd or 4th Mate in foreign trade in charge of watch.	2nd Mate foreign-going.

APPENDIX K.

(See Rule 121.)

TEXT-BOOKS TO BE USED IN THE EXAMINATIONS.

For Naval Architecture.—"The Modern Practice of Shipbuilding in Iron and Steel," by Samuel J. P. Thearle. Published by William Collins, Sons & Co. Price Eleven Shillings and Threepence nett.

"Ship Construction and Calculations," by George Nicol. Published by James Brown & Sons, 52-56, Darnley Street, Pollokshields, E. Price Ten Shillings and Sixpence.

For stability.—"Ship Stability and Trim," by Percy Hillhouse. Published by Gieve's Publishing Co. (John Hogg), 13, Paternoster Row, London, E.C. Price Ten Shillings and Sixpence.

For Deviation of the Compass.—The "Admiralty Manual for the Deviations of the Compass," to be obtained through any bookseller, or directly from His Majesty's Stationery Office at any of the addresses given on the title page of these Regulations; or Edward Ponsonby, 116, Grafton Street, Dublin. Price Three Shillings. "The Elementary Manual for the Deviations of the Compass in Iron Ships," by E. W. Creak, published by J. D. Potter, 145, Minories, London, E. 1. Price Six Shillings and Sixpence.

For Meteorology, including Barometer, Thermometer and Hydrometer—"A Barometer Manual for the use of Seamen; with an Appendix on the Thermometer, Hygrometer and Hydrometer" (issued by the authority of the Meteorological Council). Price One Shilling. And "The Seaman's Handbook on Meteorology." Price Two Shillings. To be purchased through any bookseller, or directly from His Majesty's Stationery Office at any of the addresses given on the title page of these Regulations; or Edward Ponsonby, 116, Garfton Street, Dublin.

For Prevailing Winds and Currents of the Globe.—"The Principal Winds and Currents of the Globe, etc.," compiled from the various Admiralty Sailing Directions, Weather Charts, etc., by Captain Robert Jackson, R.N., and to be purchased, either directly or through any bookseller, from Simpkin, Marshall and Company, Paternoster Row, London; or Henry Lewis, 114, High Street, Portsmouth. Price One Shilling.

For Trade Routes.—"Ocean Passages," compiled from the various Admiralty Sailing Directions by Captain Robert Jackson, R.N., and to be purchased, either directly or through any bookseller, from Simpkin, Marshall and Company, Paternoster Row, London; or Henry Lewis, 114, High Street, Portsmouth. Price One Shilling.

For Tides.—"Tide Tables for the British and Irish Ports," published annually by the Admiralty, and to be purchased, either directly or through any bookseller, from J. D. Potter, 145, Minories, E., and 11, King Street, Tower Hill, E. Price Two Shillings.

For Signalling.—The "British Signal Manual" may be obtained through any bookseller, or directly from H.M. Stationery Office at any of the addresses given on the title page of these Regulations; or Edward Ponsonby, 116, Grafton Street, Dublin. Price Sixpence.

For Elementary Science.—"General Elementary Science," by W. Briggs. Published by the University Tutorial Press. Price Three Shillings and Sixpence.

Intending candidates are advised to procure these books to take to sea with them, so that they may study them during their leisure hours.

Instruments.—The Barometer (Kew pattern Marine Barometer), Thermometer and Hydrometer used in the examinations will be precisely similar to those supplied to shipmasters by the Meteorological Office for making observations on board ship.

The 21st August 1919.

No. 104Marine.—Following the procedure of the Board of Trade, the Government have decided to discontinue the issue of temporary certificates of competency as Second Mate of foreign-going and Home-Trade ships, which was authorized during the war, under notification No. 68Marine, dated the 29th May 1916. That notification is now hereby cancelled.

2. After the 20th September 1919 temporary certificates issued under that notification will cease to be valid, and will not entitle holders to act in the capacity of Second Mate of a merchant ship. Every such temporary certificate granted by the Government of Bengal should be forwarded on or before 20th September 1919 to the Port Officer, Calcutta, for cancellation.

Holders of temporary certificates will, however, be entitled, when they can produce evidence of the necessary four years' sea service, to apply for full certificates without further examination.

SAMPLES.

An open general license has been issued which permits the free export of all bonâ fide samples of prohibited goods to all non-enemy destinations, and to enemy territory with which trade is now permitted. Samples exported under this licence may be used only for genuine sample purposes, i.e., for obtaining orders from foreign buyers, and may not be sold except with the written consent of the Export Licence Department, but such consent may be dispensed with when it is desired to sell the articles in the country of destination after they have fulfilled their purpose as samples. Exporters will be required to satisfy the Customs Authorities that the goods presented for export under this licence are bonâ fide samples, and to make a declaration to that effect on the relative shipping documents.

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A, B and D. Licences will not, as a rule, be granted for goods on List D [except as indicated in note (v)].

*Goods to Austria—German and Austria-Hungary may be exported vid Adriatic ports; or they may be sent vid Switzerland, provided at no stage of the route do they proceed through unoccupied Germany, and provided they proceed through Switzerland in sealed wagons. If they proceed to Switzerland vid any port in Holland, the documents must be passed through the Standard Bank of South Africa, Rotterdam. If they proceed vid Belgium, France or Italy, no official consignee is necessary.

There is no parcel post service at present, except to the Trentino, Istria and Dalmatia.

Belgium—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B.

Bulgaria—

Licences are required for goods on Lists A, B, D and E. Licences will not, as a rule, be granted for goods on Lists D and E [except as provided in note (v)].

Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

Czecho-Slovakia—

This territory consists, broadly speaking, of the former Austrian provinces of Bohemia and Moravia.

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B.

Goods may be exported vid Hamburg and the Elbe, provided they are consigned to the Commission Commerciale Tchcho-Slovaque, Hamburg, for account of the actual consignee in Czecho-Slovakia. A duplicate set of shipping documents should be forwarded in advance to that Commission. Goods may also be exported vid Switzerland, provided that at no stage of the route do they proceed through unoccupied Germany, and provided they proceed through Switzerland in sealed waggons. If they proceed to Switzerland vid any port in Holland, the documents must be passed through the Standard Bank of South Africa, Rotterdam. If they proceed vid Belgium, France or Italy, no official consignee is necessary.

There is no parcel post service at present.

Denmark—

List C goods (including those shown in Appendix 1, page 642, and including free goods (see Appendix 2, page 643) may now be exported without licence, whether by freight or by parcel post, and without the production of certificates from the Danish Associations.

Applications for licences to export goods on Lists A or B should continue to be made to the Export Licence Department, but no certificates from the Danish Associations need be produced.

Exporters should satisfy themselves in all cases that the goods are not subject to any Danish import prohibition.

Esthonia (principal port—Reval)—

Licences are required for all goods, except free goods [see Appendix 2, page 643, and except foodstuffs (see note (i)] on List C. Licences for other goods are not granted unless the applications are supported by the Esthonian Legation—45, Markham Square, London, S.W. 3; but the following classes of goods need not be supported by that Legation :—

(a) Goods intended for the personal use of the recipient, and

(b) Isolated trade transactions not exceeding £ 10 in value to any one consignee in any one fortnight.

There is no parcel post service at present.

Finland—

Licences are required for all goods except free goods [see Appendix 2, page 643, and except foodstuffs on List C (see note (i)]. Licences are not, as a rule, issued except on receipt of a telegraphic intimation from the Inter-Allied Trade Committee at Helsingfors that an import licence into Finland has been granted. Exporters should instruct their consignees to approach the British Consul at Helsingfors with a view to the issue of the necessary import licence.

Application for the following classes of goods will be considered without the production of evidence of the issue of import licences, on the understanding that the Export Licence Department will not be responsible should difficulties arise with the Finnish Government on the arrival of the goods :—

(a) Goods intended for the personal use of the recipient,

(b) Isolated trade transactions not exceeding £ 10 in value to any one consignee in any one fortnight,

(c) Foodstuffs on Lists A or B [see note (i) page 651.]

Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

France—

Licences for exports are only required for goods on Lists A and B. Exporters are warned that French import licences are required for many classes of goods. Full information may be obtained from the French Customs Office, Bank Buildings, Kingsway. London, W. C. 2.

Germany—occupied Territory in the Rhineland [see note (ii), page 651]—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B.

Goods may be exported by any available route at the option of the exporter. If exported via any port in Holland all goods, export free goods [see Appendix 2, page 643) and export foodstuffs on List C [see note (i), page 651], must be consigned to the Standard Bank of South Africa, Rotterdam. If the goods proceed via Belgium or France, on official consignee is necessary.

Germany—unoccupied—

No goods are allowed to be exported except foodstuffs [see note (i), page 651]. Foodstuffs on Lists A or B require licences before they can be exported. Other foodstuffs may be exported without licence.

Greece—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A or B. Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

Holland—

List C goods (including those shown in Appendix 1, page 642, but not including goods on List D, page 642), may now be exported freely by freight without individual licences, provided (except as regards foodstuffs) [see note (i), page 651], the goods are consigned to the Netherlands Oversea Trust for account of the actual consignees. The prior production of an N. O. T. certificate to the Customs will not be necessary, even in respect of licences already issued which may stipulate for the production of N. O. T. certificates, but exporters who actually hold certificates should hand them to the Customs at the time of shipment.

Licences are still required for goods on Lists A, B or D. N. O. T. certificates need not be produced with the applications except for goods on List D.

Foodstuffs on List C and free goods (see Appendix 2, page 643) may be exported without licence and without consignment to the Netherlands Oversea Trust.

Applications for licences should be made in respect of the following classes of goods on List C—

(a) Goods to be despatched by parcel post [see note (iii), page 651] ;
(b) Goods intended for the personal use of the recipient [see note (iv), page 652) ; and
(c) Isolated trade transactions not exceeding £10 in value to any one consignee in any one fortnight [see note (iv), page 652).

Italy—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B. Exporters are warned that Italian import licences are required for many classes of goods ; full information may be obtained from the Italian Government Commission, West Africa House, Kingsway, W.C. 2.

Any available route to Italy may be adopted at the option of the exporter, subject to the following stipulation as to certain routes :—

(1) If the goods pass through Switzerland, they must proceed through that country in locked wagons (except for " free goods " and " foodstuffs " on List C.).
(2) If the goods are exported to a Dutch port—thence overland—they must (except for " free goods " [see Appendix 2] and foodstuffs on List C) be consigned to the Standard Bank of South Africa, Rotterdam, and must not thence pass through any portion of unoccupied Germany.

Jugo-Slavia—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A, B and D. Licences will not, as a rule, be granted for goods on List D [except as indicated in note (v), page 652].

Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

There is no parcel post service at present, except to Dalmatia.

Licences are required for all goods except free goods (see Appendix 2, page 643) and except foodstuffs on List C [see note (i, page 651]. Applications to export foodstuffs on Lists A and B will be considered ; but licences for other goods are not granted.

There is no parcel post service at present.

Lithuania (principal port—Riga)—

Licences are required for all goods except free goods (see Appendix 2, page 643) and except foodstuffs on List C. [see note (i), page 651]. Applications to export foodstuffs on Lists A and B will be considered, but licences for other goods are not granted.

There is no parcel post service at present.

Luxembourg—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B.

Goods may be exported by any available route at the option of the exporter. If exported vid any port in Holland all goods, except "free" goods (see Appendix 2, page 643) and except foodstuffs on List C, must be consigned to the Standard Bank of South Africa, Rotterdam. If the goods proceed vid Belgium or France, no official consignee is necessary.

Montenegro (see Jugo-Slavia)—

Norway—

List C goods (including those shown in Appendix 1, page 642, and including "free" goods (see Appendix 2, page 643) may now be exported without licence, whether by freight or by parcel post.

Applications for licences to export goods on Lists A or B should continue to be made to the Export Licence Department, but no certificates from the Norwegian Associations or other form of guarantee need be produced.

Exporters should satisfy themselves in all cases that the goods are not subject to any Norwegian import prohibition

Palestine—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

Poland—

Licences are required for all goods, except "free" goods (see Appendix 2, page 643) and except foodstuffs on List C (see Note (i), page 651)

All goods should be consigned to the Inter-Allied Relief Administration, Dantzig, for account of the actual Polish consignee. A duplicate set of shipping documents should be forwarded in advance to the Relief Administration.

There is no parcel post service at present.

Portugal—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B. Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

Roumania—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B. Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

Russia (Asiatic)—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B. Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

Russia (European)—

(a) Northern District—approached vid Archangel or the Murman Coast.

Licences are required for all goods, except "free" goods (see Appendix 2, page 643) and except "foodstuffs" on List C. All goods imported into Northern Russia must be for consumption in the districts of Archangel and Murmansk, and they must be consigned to the British Supply Mission at Archangel or Murmansk for account of a sub-consignee. Import licences must be obtained by consignees from the Archangel Government.

(b) Southern District—approached vid Batoum and Novorossisk on the Black Sea and Taganrog on the Sea of Azov.

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A, B and D.
There is no parcel post service at present.

(c) Other districts.

No licences are being granted at present.

Serbia—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B. Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.
There is no parcel post service at present.

Spain—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B. Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

Sweden—

List C goods (including those shown in Appendix I, page 642, and including free goods (see Appendix 2. page 643) may now be exported without licence, whether by freight or by parcel post.

Applications for licences to export goods on Lists A or B should continue to be made to the Export Licence Department but no certificates from the Swedish Handels Kommission or other forms of guarantee need be produced.

Exporters should satisfy themselves in all cases that the goods are not subject to any Swedish import prohibition.

Switzerland—

List C goods on the S.S.S. consignment list (a copy of which can be had on application to the Stationery Clerk, Export Licence Department), including goods shown in Appendix No. 1, page 642, but not including goods in List D, page 642 may now be exported freely by freight without individual licences, provided (except as regards foodstuffs) the goods are consigned to the Société Suisse de Surveillance Economique, for account of the actual consignees. The prior production of an S.S.S. certificate, to the British Customs will not be necessary, even in respect of licences already issued which may stipulate for the production of S.S.S. certificates, but exporters who actually hold certificates should hand them to the British Customs at the time of shipment. It is, however, still necessary for the actual consignee in Switzerland to obtain an S.S.S. certificate before the goods can be handed over by the Swiss Customs. It is important, therefore, that exporters should, immediately on receipt of an order for the despatch of consignable goods to Switzerland, advise the Swiss purchaser to take the necessary steps to obtain a certificate from the S.S.S.

Where the S.S.S. have refused, generally or specifically, to accept consignment for any customer, an application for a specific licence should be made to the Export Licence Department. The fact that the S.S.S. have refused to accept consignment should be clearly mentioned on the application form.

Goods on List C not consignable to the S.S.S., foodstuffs on List C (see note (i), page 651), and free goods (see Appendix 2, page 643) may be exported without licence and without consignment to the S.S.S.

Licences are still required for goods on List A, B or D. S.S.S. certificates need not be produced with the applications except for goods on List D, but the Swiss purchaser should, as indicated above, take steps to produce a certificate for the use of the Swiss Customs on the arrival of the goods at the Swiss frontier.

Applications for licences should be made in respect of the following classes of goods on List C—

(a) Goods to be despatched by parcel post [see note (iii), page 651.]
(b) Goods intended for the personal use of the recipient [see note (iv) page 652.]
(c) Isolated trade transactions not exceeding £10 in value to any one consignee in any one fortnight [see note (iv), page 652].

Syria (as far north as a line from Alexandretta to Aleppo inclusive, and as far east as the Hedjaz Railway inclusive)—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A and B. Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

A parcel post service is in operation as far north as Alexandretta but not east of Aleppo.

Turkey (including Asia Minor)—

Licences are only required for goods on Lists A, B and D. Licences will not, as a rule, be granted for goods on List D except as provided in note (v), page 652).

Any available route may be adopted at the option of the exporter.

Parcels for civilians in European Turkey (Constantinople) are accepted if they are addressed "Post Restante, British Army Post Office, Constantinople."

NOTES.

EXPORTS BY PARCEL POST.

(iii) Exports by parcel post are, as a rule, allowed without consignment to the usual Importing Associations, provided the value of the parcel does not exceed £5. It should, however, be distinctly understood that this procedure is intended to apply to isolated transactions only, and that exporters cannot be allowed to despatch large numbers of parcels to the same consignee without consignment to the appropriate Import Associations; it will not, however, be necessary for certificates from those Associations to be produced.

In each case exporters should state whether the appropriate importing Association is willing to accept consignment of the goods ; and if the Association has refused to accept consignment, generally or specifically, that fact should be stated.

(iv) Licences will, as a rule, be granted for these goods without consignment to official Importing Associations.

GOODS ON LIST D.

(v) Consideration will be given to applications in respect of the following goods on List D, if there is clear evidence that the shipments are destined for commercial purposes :—

Barbed wire and implements for fixing and cutting same.
Camp equipment, articles of, and their component parts.
Clothing and equipment of a distinctly military character.
Electrical appliances, adapted for use in war, and their component parts.
Military wagons of all descriptions.
Harness or horse equipment of a military character.

URGENT ORDERS

The Board of Trade, Export Licence Department, announces that, in collaboration with the Department of Overseas Trade, an arrangement has been made whereby firms receiving orders which require immediate acceptance may telegraph details of any such orders to the Department of Overseas Trade in order to ascertain whether a licence will be granted for the export of the goods if the order is accepted.

In the event of an applicant being promised a licence he will be enable to deal with the order straightaway with the knowledge that upon application being made in the proper form to the Export Licence Department the licence will be granted.

The telegrams should be addressed to " Orders, c/o Advantage, Stock, London ". They should give in each case in addition to the name and postal or telegraphic address of the applicant, the quantity and description of the goods comprised in the order and the name and address of the ultimate consignee if the goods are destined for a neutral country. In the case of orders from Allied or British Territory in the occupation of troops of the Associated Governments, the consignee need not be stated : and it will be sufficient merely to give the country of destination. A reply of 24 words (1s. 3d.) must be prepaid.

Applicants are requested in their own interests to confine their enquiries to orders needing a very urgent decision, since the fewer the enquiries the more promptly can answers be given.

Any subsequent correspondence that is necessary in connection with with the telegraphic enquiries should be addressed to the Comptroller General, Department of Overseas Trade (Export Facilities Section), 73, Basinghall Street, E. C. 3

Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Concessions granted in the matter of securing civil appointments under Government to those persons who have rendered service in connection with the prosecution of the war.

No. 1099, dated Simla, the 8th August 1919.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Home Department (Establishments).

THE Governor-General in Council has had under consideration the question of granting concessions in the matter of securing civil appointments under Government to those persons who have rendered service in connection with the prosecution of the war. With the approval of the Secretary of State, His Excellency in Council is pleased to make the following announcements :—

First, no person shall be in any way prejudiced either in securing a civil appointment or in respect of seniority in such appointment by the fact that he has rendered service in the prosecution of the war, or by the fact that his entry into civil employment has been delayed by such service;

Secondly, applications from persons who have rendered such service shall, ceteris paribus, receive preferential treatment in the matter of civil appointments under Government.

2. The following kinds of service shall be deemed to be service in the prosecution of the war :—

(a) Service in the combatant ranks of the Army ;
(b) All other service involving subjection to military law under the Army Act, or the India Army Act, and service in the Indian Branch of the Indian Defence Force ;
(c) Clerical and other service under military and munitions authorities (i) overseas and (ii) in India.

Preferential treatment shall be given to the various kinds of service in the order indicated above, and persons who have rendered active service shall be given preference over those who have not. In order to make good a claim to preferential treatment an applicant must satisfy the authority making the appointment that the service rendered was whole-time service and was also approved service.

3. In pursuance of these decisions every person who has rendered service of the character described above shall be permitted to deduct from his age for the purposes of article 51, Civil Service Regulations, the period of such service rendered up to the date of his release from military or other duties and, if invalided from such service, he shall be permitted to include for the purposes of deduction the period from the time when he was invalided up to the date on which the war may be declared to have ended, under the provisions of the Termination of the Present War (Definition) Act, 1918, 8 and 9 George V, Chapter 59.

4. Notwithstanding any rules or executive orders prescribing educational, professional or technical qualifications, any person who has rendered service of the nature already described and has been prevented thereby from acquiring such qualifications may, at the discretion of the authority competent to make an appointment for which such qualifications are required, be admitted to such appointment, provided that the educational, professional and technical attainments which he possesses are deemed sufficient for the adequate performance of the duties of the appointment.

5. The principles herein laid down are subject to the following general reservations, which local Governments and, under their instructions, officers subordinate to them, will apply at their discretion :—

(a) The application of these principles must be consistent with the public interest.

(b) There must be no injustice to the claims of persons already in Government service who had no opportunity of rendering military service.

(c) No person may be appointed to a post the duties of which he is not competent to perform.

The principles are also subject to such other reservations as any local Government, or in the case of posts under themselves, the Government of India, may deem proper to adopt.

6. The Governor-General in Council is also authorized to announce that the question of the application of similar principles to the services recruited in England is under the consideration of the Secretary of State.

ORDER.—Ordered that a copy of this Resolution be forwarded to all local Governments and Administrations, the several Departments of the Government of India (including the Financial Adviser, Military Finance), and the offices subordinate to this Department, for information and guidance.

Ordered also that it be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India for general information.

W. S. MARRIS,
Secretary to the Govt. of India.

PART IB.

Orders by the Governor of Bengal in Council.

MUNICIPAL AND LOCAL.

NOTIFICATIONS.

No. 3316M.—The 23rd August 1919.—The Governor in Council is pleased to declare his intention, in exercise of the power conferred by section 640 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899 (Bengal Act III of 1899), to extend to the town of Howrah the following sections of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899, subject to the modifications and restrictions therein, which are shown, as far as possible, in antique type :—

Howrah.

"26. (1) The Local Government may, if it appears to it to be expedient so to do, appoint a proper person to be Deputy Chairman of the Commissioners.

(2) The Deputy Chairman shall receive such salary as may from time to time be fixed by the Local Government.

27. (1) No person shall be eligible for the office of Deputy Chairman if he has, directly or indirectly, by himself or his partner or employer or employé, any share or pecuniary interest in any contract or employment with, by, or on behalf of, the Commissioners.

(2) If the Deputy Chairman acquires, directly or indirectly as aforesaid, any share or interest as aforesaid, otherwise than as Deputy Chairman, he shall cease to be Deputy Chairman, and his office shall become vacant.

(3) But a person shall not be disqualified as aforesaid, or be deemed to have any share or interest in such a contract or employment as aforesaid, by reason only of his having a share or interest in—

(i) any agreement for the loan of money or any security for the payment of money only ; or

(ii) any incorporated company which contracts with or is employed by the Commissioners.

28. (1) No person shall be eligible for the office of Deputy Chairman if he is seriously indebted to any person.

(2) If any person holding the office of Deputy Chairman becomes so indebted, the authority which appointed him shall declare his office to be vacant.

29. When a servant of the Government is appointed to be Deputy Chairman the Commissioners may pay, in addition to his salary and house allowance (if any), any contribution which may for the time being be levied by the Government in respect of his pension or leave allowances.

31. The Deputy Chairman shall devote his whole time to the duties of his office, and shall not engage in any other profession, trade or business whatsoever:

Provided that—

(a) any civil or military officer in the service of the Government may hold the office of Deputy Chairman so long as he fills no office other than one of those specified in this section;

(b) the Deputy Chairman may—

(i) hold the office of Commissioner under the Calcutta Port Act, 1890;

(ii) be a Member of the Council of the Governor of Bengal for making Laws and Regulations; or (iii) with the sanction of the Commissioners hold the office of Chairman to any public institution or any other honorary office.

33. The Deputy Chairman shall, except upon such holidays as are allowed by the Commissioners, and unless prevented by sickness or other reasonable cause, attend daily at the municipal office for the transaction of business.

34. (1) The Deputy Chairman shall be subordinate to the Chairman, and, subject to his general direction and control, shall have the same authority as the Chairman, and shall exercise such of the powers and perform such of the duties of the Chairman as the Chairman may from time to time delegate to him.

(2) The Chairman shall inform the Commissioners of the powers and duties which he from time to time delegates to the Deputy Chairman.

(3) The Deputy Chairman shall be subject to the same liabilities, restrictions and conditions as the Chairman.

(4) All acts and things performed and done by the Deputy Chairman during his tenure of his office and in virtue thereof shall for all purposes be deemed to have been performed and done by the Chairman.

35. (1) With the sanction of the Local Government, the Commissioners may grant to the Deputy Chairman such leave of absence as they think fit.

(2) The allowance to be paid to the Deputy Chairman while absent on leave shall be of such amount, not exceeding his salary, as may be fixed by the Local Government:

Provided that, if the Deputy Chairman is a Government Officer, the amount of such allowance shall be regulated by the rules for the time being in force relating to the leave allowances of officers of his class.

(3) Whenever leave of absence is granted to the Deputy Chairman, the Local Government may appoint a person to act as Deputy Chairman.

(4) The salary of any person acting as Deputy Chairman under this section shall be fixed by the Local Government.

(6) Any person appointed to act as Deputy Chairman shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred under section 34 of the Calcutta Municipal Act, 1899, as extended to Howrah and shall be subject to the same liabilities, restrictions and conditions as the Deputy Chairman."

2. Any objection to such extension on the part of the Commissioners of the Municipality of Howrah or any inhabitant thereof should be submitted in writing, through the District Magistrate, Howrah, to the undersigned before the 15th September 1919.

No. 3282M.—The 22nd August 1919.—The following draft of by-laws, which the Governor in Council proposes to make in exercise of the power conferred by section 71 of the Calcutta Hackney Carriage Act, 1919 (Bengal Act I of 1919), and in supersession of the by-laws published with notification No. 1911M., dated the 14th July 1919, at pages 141-144 of Part IB of the Calcutta Gazette of the 16th idem, is published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby Calcutta.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration on the 27th September 1919 and any objection or suggestion received by the undersigned before that date, through the Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, will be duly considered.

Rajshahi.

No. 3280M.—The 22nd August 1919.—The following draft order, which the Governor in Council proposes to make in exercise of the power conferred by section 221 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), is published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration on the 27th September 1919, and any objection or suggestion which may be received by the undersigned, through the District Magistrate, before that date will be duly considered.

Draft Order.

In exercise of the power conferred by section 222 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), and upon the application of the Commissioners of the Nator Municipality, in the district of Rajshahi, made in pursuance of a resolution passed at a meeting specially convened to consider the question, the Governor in Council is pleased to extend all the provisions of Part VII of that Act to the said Municipality.

Burdwan.

No. 3360Munpl.—The 26th August 1919.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 66 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), the Governor in Council is pleased to direct that the Burdwan Municipality, in the district of Burdwan, shall be placed in Schedule I of the Act, with effect from the 2nd October 1919.

No 3279L.S.-G.—The 22nd August 1919.—The following draft of rules, which the Governor in Council proposes to make under clause (e) of subsection (2) of section 101 of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919 (Bengal Act V of 1919), is published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft will be taken into consideration on the 30th September 1919, and any objection or suggestion received by the undersigned through district officers before that date will be duly considered.

Draft Rules under the Village Self-Government Act, 1919, regulating the conduct of meetings of Union Boards and the method of forming a quorum.

MEETINGS.

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 1 and District Board Model Rule 7

1. Meetings shall be held at the office of the Union Board or at such other place as the President may from time to time determine.

Cf. District Board Model Rule 2

2. Meetings shall be either ordinary or special.

Cf. District Board Model Rule 1.

3. An ordinary meeting of the Union Board shall be held either on the first Monday, or on the last Saturday, of every month as the President may decide: Provided that if for any reason it is deemed inconvenient to hold any such meeting on the day thus selected, the President may fix another day for that particular meeting.

Cf. District Board Model Rule 4

4. A special meeting of the Union Board may be called at any time by the President.

Cf. District Board Model Rule 4 and section 39, Municipal Act.

5. The President shall call a special meeting on a requisition signed by not less than three of the members. If he fails to do so within thirty days after any such requisition has been made, the meeting may be called by the members who signed the requisition, in the manner laid down in rules 8 and 10.

Cf. District Board Model Rule 5.

6. The following subjects shall be dealt with at special meetings only:—

(a) Scale of establishment and salaries (section 36).
(b) Imposition of union rate (section 37).
(c) Annual budget estimate.

(d) Election of President and Vice-President (sections 8, 9 and 17).
(e) Removal of Vice-President (section 16).
(f) Salaries, appointment and dismissal of chaukidars and dafadars (sections 20 and 21).
(g) Loans.

7. All other subjects which come within the province of the Union Board may be dealt with at either ordinary or special meetings.

Cf. District Board Model Rule 6.

NOTICES OF MEETINGS AND MOTIONS.

8. At least ten days' notice of all meetings shall be given to every member: Provided that the annual budget estimate shall be circulated to all the members of the Board at least a fortnight before the date fixed for its consideration.

Cf. District Board General Rule 67 and Municipal Model Rule 5.

9. Accidental failure of service of notice on any member shall not invalidate the proceedings of any meeting.

Cf. District Board General Rule 67.

10. The notice shall set forth clearly and fully the business to be transacted at the meeting.

Cf. District Board General Rule 68, and Municipal Model Rule 6

11. Notices of motions, accompanied by verbatim drafts, must be sent to the President in time to be included in the list of business for the next meeting. Notices received too late shall be inserted in the list of business of the next succeeding meeting.

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 8 and District Board Model Rule 9.

12. A notice book shall be kept by the President, in which all notices of motions shall be entered. All such notices shall be dated and numbered as received.

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 4 and District Board Model Rule 10.

QUORUM AND CONDUCT OF PROCEEDINGS AT MEETINGS.

13. Three of the members of the Union Board shall form a quorum. If at the time appointed for the meeting or within one hour thereafter, a quorum is not present, the meeting shall stand adjourned and shall be called again on a future day to be appointed by the President. The members present at such adjourned meeting shall form a quorum, whatever their number may be.

Cf. District Board General Rule 65 and section 42, Municipal Act.

14. The President or, in his absence, the Vice-President (if any) shall preside at every meeting, and in the absence of both the President and the Vice-President, the members shall choose some one of their number to preside.

Cf. Section 40, Municipal Act.

15. At ordinary meetings the business shall be conducted in the following order:—

(a) The minutes of the last ordinary meeting and of any special meeting held since shall be read and, if approved as correctly entered, shall be signed by the President of such meeting.
(b) Business postponed from the last ordinary meeting shall be considered.
(c) A progress report of works shall be laid before the members.
(d) Accounts and statements shall be considered and passed.
(e) Motions of which due notice has been given shall be discussed.

Cf. District Board Model Rule 13 and Municipal Model Rule 8.

16. At a special meeting, only the business for which the meeting was called shall be considered.

Cf. District Board Model Rule 14 and Municipal Model Rule 9.

17. Notwithstanding anything contained in rules 15 and 16, it shall be competent for the Union Board at a meeting to transact any business other than that set forth in the notice under rule 8, if the majority of the members present agree to do so.

Cf. District Board General Rule 68, District Board Model Rule 14, and Municipal Model Rules 6 and 9.

18. Every motion and amendment duly moved must be seconded, and until seconded, no debate thereon shall take place.

Cf. Municipal Rule 12 and District Board Model Rule 17.

19. Every motion or amendment duly made and seconded and pressed to a division shall be reduced to writing and signed by the proposer and seconder before being put to the vote. Every such resolution or amendment shall be recorded in full in the proceedings, together with the number and names of voters for and against it.

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 18, District Board General Rule 74, and District Board Model Rule 18.

20. The President of the meeting may, for reasons to be recorded in writing and entered in the minutes of the proceedings,—

Cf Municipal Model Rule 15 and District Board Model Rule 20.

(a) rule that a motion or amendment is illegal or out of order, and

(b) make such alterations in a motion or amendment as shall in his opinion render it legal and in order; and may in case (a) refuse to put the motion or amendment to the meeting, and in case (b) refuse to put the motion or amendment to the meeting unless and until the proposer and seconder accept and sign the alterations made; and the decision of the President shall be final.

21. After a motion has been moved and seconded an amendment may be moved at any stage of the debate thereon.

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 16 and District Board Model Rule 21

22. On the discussion being concluded, in the event of several amendments having been proposed, the President of the meeting shall put the last amendment to the vote first; if it is negatived he shall put the last preceding amendment; and lastly, the first amendment; and if all the amendments are lost the original proposition shall be put to the vote.

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 17 and District Board Model Rule 22.

23. All questions which may come before the meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of equality of votes, the President of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

Cf. Section 41, Municipal Act, and District Board General Rule 71.

24. Voting by proxy is prohibited; and no member shall vote upon any motion or amendment unless he be present in person at the time when it is put to the vote.

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 37.

25. When any business of which notice has not been given is considered at a meeting, the decision recorded or resolution adopted at such meeting shall be of no effect unless and until it is confirmed at the next succeeding ordinary meeting, or at a special meeting called expressly for the purpose

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 34 and District Board Model Rule 31.

26. It shall be competent to any member to move the adjournment of the debate or of the meeting. When such motion is seconded it shall be put to the vote. No motion for adjournment shall be admissible which proposes an adjournment beyond the next ordinary meeting.

Cf. Municipal Model Rules 28 and 29 and District Board Model Rules 39, 40 and 41.

27. An adjourned meeting being merely a continuation of the original meeting does not require a fresh notice.

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 32.

28. An adjourned meeting is not competent to transact any business save that which the original meeting left unfinished.

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 31.

MISCELLANEOUS.

29. Unless not less than two-thirds of the members consent by signing a requisition, no subject once finally disposed of can be reconsidered within six months.

Cf. Municipal Model Rule 33 and District Board Model Rule 30.

30. The minutes of proceedings shall be recorded in the vernacular and shall contain a brief abstract of the discussion preceding each resolution.

Cf. District Board General Rule 73 and Municipal Model Rule 38.

31. The minutes of proceedings shall be entered in a book to be kept for the purpose, and shall be signed by the President of the meeting and such book shall be open to the inspection of the public.

Cf. Section 43, Municipal Act, and District Board General Rule 75.

32. A copy of the minutes of proceedings shall be supplied to every member who may apply for it.

Cf. District Board General Rule 75 and Municipal Model Rule 39.

Stipendiary Studentships for the Ranger class, 1920-22.

APPLICATIONS for six stipendiary studentships for the Ranger class will be received by the Conservator of Forests, Darjeeling, up to the 6th September 1919.

2. Applicants must be not less than 18 and not more than 25 years of age on the 1st April 1920.

3. Applications should be made in the applicant's own handwriting and sent to the undersigned through a Divisional Forest Officer of rank not below that of a Deputy Conservator or through a Collector or officer in charge of a district; they must be accompanied by the following certificates (in original) :—

(a) A certificate that the candidate is a "Native of India" within the meaning assigned those words by section 6 of 33 Vict., Cap. 3.

(b) A certificate of age.

(c) A health certificate in the form prescribed by article 49 of the Civil Service Regulations 5th edition, signed by the Civil Surgeon of the district in which the said Divisional Forest or District Officer's duties lie and testifying to the candidate's sound constitution, good vision and hearing, and general physical fitness for a rough outdoor life in the Forest Department, and to the fact that he bears on his body marks of successful vaccination or of small-pox.

(d) A certificate of respectability and good moral character from two or more persons whose social or official position can be accepted as a guarantee of reliability.

NOTE.—The certificates (c) and (d) must bear date not further back than the 1st April 1919. The former should also contain the left hand thumb impression of the candidate.

(e) A certificate of having passed one of the following examinations, viz :—

The B.A., F.A., B.Sc. or Licentiate of Agriculture.

The Matriculation, where no school final examination or school-leaving certificate exists.

The school final examination, provided the candidate can show that he has qualified in English and Mathematics up to the Matriculation standard, or, for European candidates, a certificate of having passed the high school examination, with a similar proviso.

The school-leaving certificate as prescribed in the United Provinces, Central Provinces and Bombay.

(f) A certificate that each candidate has a sufficient knowledge of colloquial English to assimilate lectures delivered in that language without the aid of dictation.

NOTE.—Applications which are not accompanied by complete certificates as above will not be considered.

4. From the applications received the Conservator will make a preliminary selection of not more than four candidates, and these candidates will be required to undergo a course of preliminary training for not less than three and-a-half months, commencing 1st November 1919, during which the candidates will receive a monthly allowance of Rs. 25.

5. The final selection of candidates for deputation to the Forest College will be made by the Conservator in accordance with the results of the preliminary training, preference being given to the men who are considered likely to make the best Forest Officers. Selected candidates will be obliged to execute the agreement and security bond prescribed by Government.

6. While at the Forest College, the selected candidates will be granted a monthly stipend of Rs. 35 (which will be supplemented by a bonus of Rs. 360 at the end of the course to those candidates only who pass the course with "Honours").

RESOLUTION ON THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE PUBLIC SERVICES COMMISSION, REGARDING THE SANITARY DEPARTMENT.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT.

Sanitation Branch.

CALCUTTA, THE 22ND AUGUST 1919.

RESOLUTION No. 594San.

READ—

The Report of the Royal Commission on the Public Services in India.

THE recommendations of the Public Services Commission made in Chapter XI of Annexure XII, regarding the Sanitary Department, are under the consideration of the Governor in Council, and this Resolution is published in order to give the public an opportunity of expressing their views on the formation and conditions of service of a public health service and on the question of recruitment for the higher administrative posts of that service.

2. The creation of a well-organized public health service is recognized as being a matter of the first importance. It is for the Imperial Government on the one hand to provide facilities for research into the epidemiology of disease and to place trained scientists who have made a special study of the causation and prevention of particular maladies at the service of the provincial Governments at times of unusual epidemics.

The organization of a public health-staff is, on the other hand, a duty which devolves upon the local Governments. It has been pointed out that medical research in its relation to public health has outstripped the means for applying it and that what is required is to strengthen and, above all, to direct and organise the small band of sanitary officers in whose hands the improvement of the public health is placed. The municipal boards of this presidency have already appointed qualified medical officers of health or sanitary inspectors to advise them on the highly specialised problems of public health; a medical officer of health will shortly be added to the staff of each district board.

There will then exist in this Presidency the nucleus of a trained public health service. The appointment and recruitment of this staff on which the future sanitary progress of Bengal will so largely depend, raise three important questions on which the Governor in Council desires to ascertain the views of those interested in problems of public health :—

(a) the manner of selection and appointment of public health officers ;

(b) their status and conditions of service ; and

(c) the sources of recruitment for the higher administrative posts of the department.

In reference to (a), the Governor in Council has in contemplation the formation of a Bengal Advisory Board of Health, composed entirely of experts and containing a strong Indian element. It is suggested that the selection of candidates for the Department of Public Health might suitably form part of their functions. The question of the status and the conditions of service (b) of public health officers raises an important issue It has been proposed that there should be in each province a general cadre from which local bodies should, through the medium of the Advisory Board of Public Health, obtain their medical officers of health. It is urged that the best means of securing an efficient public health department is the provincialization of the service. The officers employed by municipalities or district boards would be under the complete executive control of these bodies ; their appointment, promotion suspension or dismissal would rest finally with the Advisory Board of Public Health. The preferences and dislike of local bodies, their award of praise or blame would receive the fullest consideration from the Advisory Board, but the fixity of tenure in his office which is necessary to ensure the independence and activity of a medical officer of health or sanitary inspector can, it is suggested, be only secured by the creation of a provincial cadre, the officers of which will be lent to local bodies, as assistant and sub-assistant surgeons are now deputed to work under dispensary committees.

It is recognized that such a proposal is not in accord with the accepted policy of relaxing outside control over local establishments and (subject to certain safeguards) of allowing local bodies, who pay for a staff, to appoint and dismiss it, but it is urged that in the case of the public health service this policy must yield to the necessity of enabling these officers to discharge their often unpopular duties in a fearless and impartial manner. In the United Kingdom it has been sought to achieve this end by requiring the sanction of the Local Government Board to the dismissal of medical officers of health employed by local bodies, but this control has not proved effective, and in view of the likelihood of a wide extension of a public health organisation throughout the presidency at an early date, the Governor in Council is led to consider whether it would not be wise to anticipate evils which have already arisen in England and which, under a similar system, will no doubt arise in India.

3. The higher administrative posts, which the service will possess, will be those of the Sanitary and Deputy Sanitary Commissioners whose designations, it is proposed, might suitably be changed to "Director" and "Assistant Director", Public Health. These posts are at present filled by recruiting (1) members of the Indian Medical Service and (2) qualified private persons who do not belong to that service. The Commission desired that the employment of an Indian agency for the development of the sanitary administration in this country should be encouraged as much as possible. They recommended that facilities should be provided to enable statutory natives of India to obtain a diploma in public health and instruction on tropical hygiene without going to Europe, and the Governor in Council is in complete accord with the Commission in this matter. Courses in public health have already been established which will enable local bodies to obtain trained sanitarians as medical officers of health. It is, however, to be determined what qualifications the Assistant Directors of Public Health should be required to possess, and whether all such posts should be open to men recruited in India, or whether any fixed proportions should be laid down for Indians and non-Indians, or for members of the Indian Medical Service, or persons not belonging to that service.

It is pointed out that the large war reserve, which must be maintained for such a service as the Indian Medical Service, must, for reasons of economy, be largely utilized in civil appointments during times of peace, and it is contended that the administrative experience and training in sanitary work which the officers of this service acquire must form the backbone of the higher administration of public health. On the other hand, it is urged that the Sanitary Department is by no means popular with the Indian Medical Service and that there is no reason why the public health service should not be Indianized from top to bottom, if proper facilities for the study of tropical medicine and of tropical hygiene are provided in India. Some general principle must be enunciated, but it may be convenient to state that principle with such elasticity as to allow the Advisory Board ample latitude in its application.

4. The question of the pay of Indian Medical Service officers in the department of Public Health will depend in the main upon the rates fixed for officers of that service generally.

Whether the present rate of pay for non-Indian Medical Service members, accompanying high administrative posts, is inadequate to attract and retain men of the right stamp is a matter for consideration. It is suggested that in any case the engagement of such officers or at least a five-year agreement, with provident fund benefits, is desirable.

5. It is requested that any suggestions or criticisms which any person or body of persons interested may desire to offer on the above questions may be forwarded to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Municipal Department, not later than the 7th September 1919.

By order of the Governor in Council,

S. W. GOODE,

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

RESOLUTION ON THE BUDGET ESTIMATE OF THE HOWRAH BRIDGE, 1919-20.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Marine Branch.

CALCUTTA, THE 25TH AUGUST 1919.

RESOLUTION.—No. 2678Marine.

READ—

* Letter from the Vice-Chairman, Port Commissioners, Calcutta, No. 11846, dated the 20th February 1919, submitting the Budget Estimate of income and expenditure of the Howrah Bridge for the year 1919-20.

Receipts.—The total receipts during the year are estimated at Rs. 3,70,000 as compared with Rs. 3,35,000 the revised estimate for 1918-19. In view of the actual earnings, viz., Rs. 1,00,646 from August to November 1918, from the East Indian Railway traffic to and from Howrah, which is the main source of revenue of the Bridge, the receipts under this head during the year have been placed at Rs. 3 00,000 as against Rs. 2,65,000 during 1918-19.

Expenditure.—The total expenditure is estimated at Rs. 3,27,226 as against Rs. 2,64,217 the estimate, and Rs. 2,78,790 the revised estimate, for 1918-19. The increase in expenditure is due to the provision of Rs. 49,000 on account of heavy repairs to the two Bridge steamers Howrah and Buckland.

The anticipated surplus of Rs. 42,774 will be utilised in reducing the debt of the Bridge to the Port Commissioners, which it is estimated will stand at Rs. 5,29,419 on the 31st March 1920, as against Rs. 5,59,379, on the 31st March 1919.

2. The Governor in Council approves the Budget Estimate under section 21 of the Howrah Bridge Act, 1871.

By order of the Governor in Council,

F. A. A. COWLEY,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The Commissioners of Divisions in Bengal.
The Executive Engineer, 2nd Calcutta Division, Public Works Department.
The Sanitary Commissioner, Bengal.
The President of the Asiatic Society of Bengal.
The Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.
The Natural History Secretary of the Asiatic Society of Bengal.
The Director of Land Records, Bengal.

The Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Bengal.
The Professor of Comparative Anatomy and Zoology, Medical College, Bengal.
The Superintendent of the Royal Botanic Garden, Sibpur.
The Chairman of the Calcutta Corporation.
The Principal of the Bengal Veterinary College.

PRINCIPAL EVENTS.

The transfer by the Government of Bengal to the Zoological Gardens of a plot of land including a portion of the road known as Duel Avenue and a piece of the compound of the Meteorological office was effected during the year under review. This plot formed an acute-angled wedge between the former area of the Zoological Gardens and the extension. The inclusion has rounded off the boundary and improved the appearance of the Gardens.

Work on the new extension was steadily carried on. The western portion was enclosed with iron-fencing to form a big paddock for the ruminants. On the south a new enclosure was made for the markhors. Within a high fence a crag-like cement structure was built up round the old survey mark, reproducing a mountain peak in miniature and furnishing the inmates with a colourable imitation of their natural habitat.

The boundary wall of the new extension as well as of the Hermitage along the Alipore Road was reconstructed in connection with the realignment of the Alipore Road which was sanctioned by Government.

* * * * *

IMPROVEMENTS.

Various improvements were carried out during the year. The brick wall round the Hippopotamus enclosure was further raised as the male hippo tried several times to scale it and seemed likely to succeed.

The Tapir enclosure was found insufficient to accommodate the growing number of these animals, and it was thought expedient to make additions to the existing building. New shelters were therefore constructed on the western side of the building facing the lake and the animals have now ample accommodation.

A new segregation shed was built in the Begnubari compound for the accommodation of sick animals.

ANNUAL REPAIRS.

The annual repairs to the buildings of the Garden were carried out departmentally as usual, and a good deal of painting was done during the year to the fences and iron-work.

* * * * * *

STAFF AND ESTABLISHMENT.

There was no change in the superior staff except in the case of gate clerk, Babu Panchanan Mukherji, who died on 22nd October 1918. Babu Doyal Chandra Dass, retired gate clerk of the Garden, was appointed in his place as a temporary measure. On 1st January 1919 the services of the Superintendent were recognised by Government by the conferment of the title of Rai Bahadur upon him. The personnel consists of—

SUPERIOR STAFF.

Superintendent.
Mr. Bijay Krishna Basu, G.B.V.C., C.M.Z.S.

Assistant Superintendent.
Babu Somadev Ganguli.

Store-keeper.
Babu Jugal Kishore Roy.

Overseer.
Babu Niranjan Mukerji.

Clerk.

VISITORS.

The attendance of paying visitors during the year was satisfactory, the turnstile records indicating a total for the year of 635,497, an increase of 52,154 as compared with the figures for 1917-18.

The following is a comparative table of visitors and gate receipts for the last three years :—

Year.	Visitors	Rec'p'ts Rs. A. P.
1916-17	671,495	50,024 11 0
1917-18	583,343	44,564 0 0
1918-19	635,497	48,490 0 0

A large number of children under four years of age and school children in charge of their teachers were admitted free. On the day of the Fancy Fair when no individual charge is levied, it is estimated that about 16,000 visitors entered the Garden. In addition 32,203 persons visited the Garden on free days, of which a list with the number of visitors on each will be found in Appendix C.

Special arrangements were made for the admission without payment of soldiers on leave and convalescent.

FINANCE.

The financial condition of the Garden has been on the whole satisfactory, and in spite of the fact that the cost of food-grains has considerably increased the expenditure has been kept down by rigid economy.

GARDEN.

The Garden was kept in excellent condition throughout the year. The lawns and paths were in good order and the show of flowers was a special attraction to the visitors.

CONCLUSION.

The Committee desire to express their thanks to the Corporation of Calcutta for their continued generosity in remitting the consolidated rates in respect of the Gardens.

The thanks of the Committee are also due to those ladies and gentlemen who have added to the Zoological collection by donations, a list of which is given in Appendix D, as well as to those who kindly offered to present animals to the Garden, but whose offers could not be accepted, either because the particular species of animals was already sufficiently well represented, or owing to want of accommodation.

The Committee in conclusion desire to express their thanks to the Railways and Steamer Companies for the conveyance of animals belonging to the Gardens free of charge.

WILLIAM DODS,
Honorary Secretary.

C. J. STEVENSON-MOORE,
President.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

I HAVE the honour to submit the following report on the existing condition and the progress of the zoological collection.

The following comparative table shows how the various collections of specimens in the Gardens have stood during the last four years :—

REPORT ON FAMINE IN THE DISTRICT OF BANKURA FOR THE WEEK ENDING 16TH AUGUST 1919.

THE rainfall during the week was general and sufficient. Transplantation is still going on. The distress is decreasing owing to improvement of the agricultural prospects. Fifty-seven relief works were open during the week. The number of persons relieved on works was 3,830. The number of persons in receipt of gratuitous relief was 18,402, viz., 13,254 on cash doles in 128 unions, 3,683 on paddy-husking advances, 885 weavers and 580 better class poor. The grand total of persons relieved was 22,232. The decrease in the number of persons in receipt of cash doles was due to better agricultural prospects and the harvesting of the early bhadoi crops. The number of persons relieved on private works was 300. The charitable societies also relieved 950 persons on weekly rice doles and 1,150 on daily rice doles and by cooked food. The position in regard to crime relating to food-grains was unchanged. Public health is generally good. Sporadic cases of cholera and malaria are reported Cloth is being distributed to destitutes. The relief measures are adequate. The price of common rice varies from 5½ to 5⅝ seers per rupee. Burma rice is being sold.

M. C. MCALPIN,

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

RAMNA (DACCA), the 20th August 1919.

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 21st August 1919.

Summary.—During the week rainfall was generally light to moderate throughout the province. Harvesting of autumn paddy and jute are progressing. Transplanting of winter paddy and steeping and washing of jute are hampered in North and East Bengal for want of sufficient rainfall. Weeding of winter paddy has commenced in West Bengal. Slight damage to jute by insect pests continues to be reported from some West Bengal districts. The prospects of standing crops are generally satisfactory. The price of common rice for the province has risen by about 3½ per cent. as compared with that of previous week. The average number of persons engaged daily in test works in Brahmanbaria subdivision of Tippera district was 452.

REPORT ON THE STATE OF THE SALT MARKET FOR THE FIRST QUARTER OF THE YEAR 1919-20.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

Separate Revenue Branch (Salt).

No. 2475S.R.

Dated Calcutta, the 26th August 1919.

THE following report on the state of the salt market for the first quarter of the year 1919-20, comprising the months of April, May and June 1919, in the Presidency of Bengal, is published for general information.

2. The quantity of salt of every description cleared during the quarter amounted to 2,071,412 maunds (including 1,506,424 maunds issued under the credit system), as compared with 3,476,150 maunds (including 2,816,033 maunds issued under the credit system) in the previous quarter and 2,395,338 maunds (including 1,817,387 maunds issued under the credit system) in the corresponding quarter of the previous year. The net amount of duty levied was Rs. 24,72,946 (including Rs. 17,71,330 adjusted under the credit system), as against Rs. 33,64,657 (including Rs. 25,81,104 adjusted under the credit system) in the previous quarter, and Rs. 28,71,234 (including Rs. 21,82,127 adjusted under the credit system) in the corresponding quarter of the previous year.

3. The subjoined Table I shows in detail the importations into the Port of Calcutta and the total clearances of sea-imported salt during the quarter, compared with the figures of the corresponding quarters of the two previous years :—

NOTIFICATION.

No. 4735A.—The 27th August 1919.—The following Regulations respecting the examination of candidates for the Civil Service of India to be held in August 1920 are published for general information :—

[Copies of this form may be obtained on application to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal.]

NOTICE.

An open Competitive Examination for the Indian Civil Service will be held in London, commencing on the 2nd August, 1920, under the Regulations, a copy of which is sent herewith

The number of vacancies to be filled will be announced hereafter.

No concurrent Examination will be held either for Clerkships (Class I) in the Home Civil Service or for Eastern Cadetships in the Colonial Service.

No person will be admitted to examination from whom the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, has not received, on or before the 1st June, an application in the handwriting of the candidate on the prescribed form, a copy of which is sent herewith. No allegation that an Application Form or a letter respecting such Form has been lost or delayed in the post will be considered by the Commissioners unless the person making such allegation produces a Post Office certificate of posting. Candidates who delay their applications until the last days will do so at their own risk

Acknowledgments of such Application Forms are sent, and any Candidate who has filled up and returned the printed Application Form but has not received an acknowledgment of it within four complete days should at once write to the Secretary, Civil Service Commission, Burlington Gardens, London, W.1. Failure to comply with this provision will deprive the Candidate of any claim to consideration.

The Order for Admission to the Examination will be posted early in July to the address given on the Form of Application. It will contain instructions as to the time and place at which the Candidate will be required to attend, and as to the manner in which the prescribed fee (£6) is to be paid.

MEMORANDUM.

For Probationers selected at the Open Competition of 1919 and 1920, the amount (£150) of the allowance referred to in paragraph (ii) of the announcements on page 1406 will be increased to £200.

CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION.
June, 1919.

EXAMINATIONS FOR THE INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE.

REGULATIONS.

The following Regulations, made by the Secretary of State for India in Council, are liable to alteration from year to year

1 An examination for admission to the Indian Civil Service open to all qualified persons will be held in London in August of each year, for such number of appointments to that Service as the Secretary of State may on each occasion determine. The date of the Examination and the number of appointments to be made for each Province will be announced beforehand by the Civil Service Commissioners

2 No person will be deemed qualified who shall not satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners :—

(i)(A) That save as hereinafter provided he is a British subject

(B) That if he (being a British subject) or his father or his mother was not born within His Majesty's Dominions and allegiance then at the time of his birth his father was a British subject or the subject of a State in India and that such father still is or continued to be until his death a British subject or the subject of such State in India :

Provided that a ruler or subject of any State in India in respect of whom the Governor-General in Council has made a declaration under section 96-A of the Government of India Act, 1915, as amended by section 3 of the Government of India (Amendment) Act. 1916, may be considered eligible.

(ii) That he had attained the age of twenty-two, and had not attained the age of twenty-four on the first day of August of the year in which the Examination is held, or that he is in a position to claim such a concession under the provisions of the Appendix to these Regulations as will render him eligible.*

[N.B.—In the case of Natives of India it will be necessary for a Candidate to obtain a certificate of age and qualification under Regulation 2 (i) issued under Notification of the Government of India, No. 1114, dated 12th September, 1918, and signed, should he be a resident in British India, by the Secretary to the Government of the Province, or the Commissioner of the Division wit in which his family resides, or, should he reside in a Native State, by the highest Political Officer accredited to the State in which his family resides.]

(iii) That he has no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity, unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for the Indian Civil Service†.

(iv) That he is of good moral character.

2. (A) No person will be eligible for admission to the Indian Civil Service who has made before any Tribunal established under the Military Service Acts, 1916, an application for the issue to him of a certificate of exemption from the provisions of those Acts on the ground of a conscientious objection to the undertaking of combatant service.

3. No person who, in a previous year, accepted the offer of a nomination as a selected candidate for the Indian Civil Service and subsequently resigned his position as a Selected Candidate, will be admitted to the examination.

4. Should the evidence upon the above points be primâ facie satisfactory to the Civil Service Commissioners, the candidate, on payme of the prescribed fe, will be admitted to the Examination. The Commissioners may, however, in their discretion, at any time prior to the grant of the Certificate of Qualification hereinafter referred to, institute such further inquiries as they may deem necessary; and if the result of such inquiries in the case of any candidate should be unsatisfactory to them in any of the above respects he will be ineligible for admission to the Indian Civil Service, and if already selected, will be removed from the position of a Probationer.

5. The Open Competitive Examination will take place only in the following 38 subjects (a) :—

From the marks assigned to Candidates in each subject such deduction will be made as the Civil Service Commissioners may deem necessary in order to secure that no credit be allowed for merely superficial knowledge.

Consistently with the limitations specified above Candidates are at liberty to name any of the foregoing subjects, provided that the maximum number of marks that can be obtained from the subjects chosen is limited to 6,000. If this maximum is exceeded by a Candidate's selection he will be required to indicate one of his subjects, the marks for which should, in his case, be reduced so as to bring his maximum marks within the prescribed limit. The marks so reduced will be subject to a correspondingly reduced deduction.

Moreover, if a Candidate's handwriting is not easily legible a further deduction will, on that account, be made from the total marks otherwise accruing to him.*

6. A list of the competitors shall be made out in order of their proficiency as disclosed by the aggregate marks finally awarded to each competitor, and in that order so many competitors, up to the determined number of appointments, as are found by the Civil Service Commissioners to be qualified by examination, shall be designated to be Selected Candidates for the Indian Civil Service, provided that they appear to be duly qualified in other respects. Should any Selected Candidate become disqualified, the Secretary of State for

* It is notified for general information that the number of marks deducted for bad handwriting may be considerable.

India will determine whether the vacancy thus created shall be filled or not. In the former case the Candidate next in order of merit, and in other respects duly qualified, shall be deemed to be a Selected Candidate.

7. Selected Candidates, before proceeding to India, will be on probation for one year at the end of which time they will undergo an examination, called the Final Examination, in the following compulsory subjects (b):—

		Marks.
1.	Indian Penal Code	400
2.	Code of Criminal Procedure	200
3.	The Indian Evidence Act	200
4.	Indian History	400
5	The principal vernacular language of the province to which the Candidate is assigned ...	400

The principal vernacular language prescribed for each province to which Candidates are assigned is as follows :—

For the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, the Punjab or the Central Provinces ...	Hindustani.
For Bengal or Assam	Bengali.
(unless it is the candidate's mother tongue.)
For Bihar and Orissa	Hindustani.
For Burma	Burmese.
For Bombay	Marathi.
(unless it is the candidate's mother tongue.)
For Madras	Tamil or Telugu.
(at the option of the candidate.)

In Hindustani the Candidate will be required to be acquainted with both the Persian and the Nagari character.

A Candidate assigned to Bengal or Assam, whose mother tongue is Bengali, must offer for examination Hindustani; a Candidate assigned to Bombay, whose mother tongue is Marathi, must offer for examination Hindustani; and a Candidate assigned to Madras, whose mother tongue is either of the languages shown against his province, must offer the other for examination.

8. Selected Candidates may, in addition, offer in the Final Examination one of the following optional subjects :—

		Marks.
1.	Hindu and Muhammadan Law	450
2.	Sanskrit	400
3.	Arabic	400
4.	Persian	400
5.	Hindustani	400

No Candidate who offered Sanskrit or Arabic at the open competition may offer the same language at the Final Examination; and only Candidates assigned to the Province of Burma may offer Hindustani as an optional subject.

9. In the Final Examination, as in the Open Competition, the merit of the Candidates examined will be estimated by marks (which will be subject to deductions in the same way as the marks assigned at the open competition), and the number set opposite to each subject denotes the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it. The examination will be conducted on paper and viva voce, as may be deemed necessary.

If any Candidate is prevented by sickness or any other adequate cause from attending such examination, the Commissioners may, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State for India in Council, allow him to appear at the Final Examination to be held in the following year, or at a special examination.

10. The selected candidates will also be tested during their probation as to their proficiency in riding.

(b) Instructions, showing the extent of the examination, will be issued to Selected Candidates as soon as possible after the result of the Open Competition is declared.

The examinations in riding will be held as follows :—

(1) Shortly after the result of the Open Competitive Examination has been declared, or at such time or times as the Commissioners may appoint during the course of the probationary year.

(2) Again, at the time of the Final Examination. Candidates who may then satisfy the Commissioners that they are sufficiently at home in the saddle for the efficient performance of all the duties of the Indian Civil Service will be awarded marks ranging between 101 and 200 according to the degree of proficiency displayed, to be added to their marks in the Final Examination. Candidates who fall short of this adequate proficiency but show such minimum proficiency as is evidence that with a moderate amount of practice they can attain full proficiency, will receive marks ranging between 1 and 100; they will be allowed to proceed to India and will on their arrival there be subjected to such further tests in riding as may be prescribed by their Government, and shall receive no increase to their initial salary until they have passed such tests to the satisfaction of the Government

A Candidate who fails at the end of the year of probation to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that he has reached the minimum standard of proficiency in riding, will be liable to have his name removed from the list of Selected Candidates.

11. The Selected Candidates who, on examination, shall be found to have a competent knowledge of the subjects specified in Regulation 7, and who shall have satisfied the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of nationality, age, health, character, conduct during the period of probation, and ability to ride, shall be certified by the said Commissioners to be entitled to be appointed to the Indian Civil Service, provided they shall comply with the regulations in force, at the time, for that service.

12. Persons desirous to be admitted as Candidates must apply on forms which may be obtained from "The Secretary to the Civil Service Commissioners, London," at any time after the 1st December, in the year previous to that in which the examination is to be held. No person will be admitted to the examination from whom the Secretary to the Civil Service Commissioners has not received on or before the 1st June (or if that date should fall on a Sunday or public holiday, then, on or before the first day thereafter on which their office is open), in the year in which the examination is to be held, an application, in the handwriting of the Candidate, on the prescribed form.

APPENDIX.

1. Any person who has joined since the 4th August 1914, the Army or Navy or Royal Marines or the Royal Air Force, or has rendered since that date actual military service in the Special Reserve or Territorial Force, Royal Naval Reserve or Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, may, if eligible in point of age under the Regulations as they now stand for admission to the open competitive examination held in 1919, but over age in 1920, deduct from his actual age at the time of the open competitive examination held in 1920 :—

(a) The actual period of such service, if it has not exceeded three months.

(b) One year, if the actual period of service has exceeded three months. No candidate will be allowed to deduct more than one year from his actual age.

2. The same concession may also be granted to those who have been employed during the same period in connection with the armed forces of the Crown at home or abroad giving their whole time and under obligation to serve for the duration of the war or until their discharge, or for any period not terminable at their own option, provided that their employment be not on ordinary commercial terms, such as that of assistant paymasters, clerks, artisans, and the like.

3. The grant of the concession described in paragraph (2) will be at the discretion of the Civil Service Commissioners, whose decision in each case will be final. Candidates who contemplate applying for an age deduction under (2) will do well to apply to the Civil Service Commission for a ruling on their case.

4. Candidates to be eligible for the concessions in (1) or (2) must furnish an official certificate of the period and satisfactory character of their service, and if any doubt arise whether the service of any candidate is of the kind contemplated, the Secretary of State for India in Council reserves to the Civil Service Commissioners the right to decide the case upon its merits.

The Civil Service Commissioners are authorized by the Secretary of State for India in Council to make the following announcements :—

(i) Selected candidates will be allotted to the various provinces upon a consideration of all the circumstances, including their own wishes; but the requirements of the Public Service will rank before every other consideration.

(ii) Except in the case of persons continuing to receive scholarship allowances of equal or greater amounts from the Government of India an allowance amounting to £150 will be given to any candidate who passes his probation at one of the Universities or Colleges which have been approved by the Secretary of State, viz., the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Dublin, Glasgow, Edinburgh, St. Andrews, and Aberdeen ; the School of Oriental Studies, London Institution, Finsbury Circus ; Victoria University, Manchester.

This allowance will be paid to the selected candidate in four instalments on the following dates respectively :—December 24th, after his selection, March 25th, June 24th, and the date of his signing his covenant on being finally appointed to the service

An allowance on account of passage to India will be paid to each newly appointed Civilian to the amount of £40, for passage to Calcutta, Madras or Bombay, and £50 for passage to Rangoon. These allowances will only be paid after production of evidence that the officer has engaged a First Class passage. An officer who prefers it can have a First Class passage taken for him by the India Office in lieu of receiving a passage allowance. Applications giving proposed dates of sailing should be made to the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, India Office, London, S. W. 1.

The payment of each of the first three instalments will be conditional on the receipt, by the Secretary of State, through the Civil Service Commissioners, of a certificate that the candidate has fulfilled up to date the requirements of the authorities, and shown satisfactory conduct at the authorized University or College ; the fouth and final instalment will be paid as soon as the selected candidate has signed his covenant, and for its payment no certificate from college authorities will be required.

The whole probation must ordinarily be passed at the same institution. Migration will not be permitted except for special reasons approved by the Secretary of State.

(iii) Each candidate will be required before receiving the first instalment of his allowance to execute an agreement binding himself and one surety, jointly and severally, to refund all moneys he may have received from the Secretary of State for India in the event of—

(1) his failure to pass the Final Examination within the time prescribed by the Regulations, and to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners of his fitness for admission to the Indian Civil Service, or

(2) his subsequent failure to execute the usual covenant, and to proceed to India, as and when he shall be directed by the Secretary of State for India.

(iv) All candidates obtaining certificates will be also required to enter into covenants, by which, amongst other things, they will bind themselves to make such payments as under the rules and regulations for the time being in force, they may be required to make towards their own pensions or for the pensions of their families. The stamps payable on these covenants amount to £1.

(v) The seniority in the Indian Civil Service of the candidates obtaining certificates will be determined according to the order in which they stand on the list resulting from the combined marks of the open competition and Final Examinations, but may ultimately be affected by appointments made by the Secretary of State under the Temporary Provisions Act, 1915.

(vi) Candidates obtaining certificates will be required to report their arrival in India within such period after the grant of their certificates of qualification as the Secretary of State may in each case direct.

(vii) Candidates who fail to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners at the Final Examination held in any year will be definitely rejected, and will not be allowed to present themselves for re-examination, unless it shall appear to the Secretary of State in Council, after reference to the Civil Service Commissioners, that such failure is due to circumstances wholly exceptional and beyond the control of the candidate.

INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE.

Syllabus of an Open Competitive Examination for the Indian Civil Service to be held in the year 1920, and of any other competition that may be held in combination therewith.

In view of the importance of legible handwriting in the public service, candidates are warned that the provision as to deductions for bad handwriting in these competitions will be strictly enforced.

Candidates are warned that full marks cannot be obtained on any paper unless the whole of it is answered, or, in cases where the number of questions to be answered is specified, unless the full number specified is answered.

English Composition.—An Essay to be written on one of several specified subjects.

Sanskrit Language and Literature.—Translation from Sanskrit; composition in Sanskrit; Sanskrit Literature, including the life, thought, and antiquities of Ancient India, together with such knowledge of history as bears upon the subject; questions on the Sanskrit Language (including questions on Philology).

Composition will be required in Classical Sanskrit alone; elsewhere Vedic Sanskrit is also included.

Candidates are expected to make a special study of the Seventh Mandala of the Rig-veda, but other Vedic hymns may also be set in the examination.

Arabic Language and Literature.—Translation from Arabic; set composition and free composition in Arabic; Arabic Literature, including the life and thought of the Arabs as shown in the literature, together with such knowledge of history as bears upon the subject; questions on the Arabic Language (including questions on Philology).

Greek Literature.—Questions on the Greek Language (including questions on Philology), Literature, and Antiquities.

Latin Literature.—Questions on the Latin Language (including questions on Philology) and on Roman Literature and Antiquities.

English Language and Literature.—The examination will be in two parts. In the one candidates will be expected to show a general acquaintance with the course of English Literature, as represented in the chief writers in verse and prose, between the reign of Edward III and the death of Queen Victoria.

A minute and detailed knowledge will not be looked for in this part of the Examination; but its aim will be to test how far the candidates have studied at first hand the chief productions of the greatest English writers, and are acquainted with the leading characteristics of their thought and style, and with the place which each of them occupies in the history of English Literature.

The other part of the examination will relate to one of the following periods, which will follow each other year by year in rotation.

Period I: 1360 to 1600, Chaucer to Spenser.
Period II: 1600 to 1660, The later Elizabethans.
Period III: 1660 to 1744, The age of Dryden and Pope.
Period IV: 1744 to 1800. From the death of Pope to the death of Cowper.
Period V: 1800 to 1832, Nineteenth Century writers to the death of Scott.
Period VI: 1832 to 1892, From the death of Scott to the death of Tennyson.

The examination in this part will require from the candidates a more minute acquaintance with the history of the English Language and Literature, as illustrated in the chief works produced in each period, and will be based to a considerable extent, but by no means exclusively, on certain books specified each year by the Commissioners. The names and other indications placed beside the dates are intended to suggest the general character of the literary development of the period, and, consequently, the natural limits of the examination. All the works of Shakespeare and Milton, for example, will be regarded as falling within the period 1600 to 1660; all the works of Wordsworth and Coleridge within the period 1800 to 1832; all the works of Carlyle, Landor, and Macaulay within the period 1832 to 1892.

For the year 1920, Period III (1660-1744) is prescribed, and the following are the specified books:—

Butler—Hudibras.
Cowley—Essays.
Bunyan—Pilgrim's Progress.
Temple—Essays.
Dryden—Absalom and Achitophel, Part I; MacFlecknoe; Preface to the Fables; Essay of Dramatic Poesy.
Defoe—The Fortunes and Misfortunes of Moll Flanders.
Prior—Poems.
Swift—Tale of a Tub; Battle of the Books; Gulliver's Travels.
Congreve—The Way of the World; Love for Love.
Addison—Essays from the "Spectator" (Arnold's Edition).
Farquhar—The Beaux Stratagem.
Pope—Essay on Criticism: The Rape of the Lock; Epistle to Dr. Arbuthnot.
Thomson—The Seasons.
Oxford Book of English Verse, Nos. 398—448.

Italian Translation Composition and Conversation.—In the conversation test importance is attached to pronunciation. The study of phonetics is an important aid to correctness of pronunciation.

Italian, History of the Language and Literature.—Italian Literature, including the life and thought as shown in the literature, together with such knowledge of history as bears upon the subject. Questions will be asked which demand a knowledge of the language in its early stages (i.e., before the time of Dante), but such questions will not be obligatory. Candidates will not be required to write their answers in Italian.

French Translation Composition and Conversation.—In the conversation test importance is attached to pronunciation. The study of phonetics is an important aid to correctness of pronunciation.

French, History of the Language and Literature.—French Literature, including the life and thought as shown in the literature, together with such knowledge of history as bears upon the subject. Questions will be asked which demand a knowledge of the language in its early stages (i.e., before 1500), but such questions will not be obligatory. Candidates will not be required to write their answers in French.

German Translation, Composition and Conversation.—In the conversation test importance is attached to pronunciation. The study of phonetics is an important aid to correctness of pronunciation.

German, History of the Language and Literature.—German Literature, including the life and thought as shown in the literature, together with such knowledge of history as bears upon the subject. Questions will be asked which demand a knowledge of the language in its early stages (i.e., before 1500), but such questions will not be obligatory. Candidates will not be required to write their answers in German.

Lower Mathematics.—Plane Geometry including conic sections; Solid Geometry including the method of orthogonal projection; Algebra and Plane Trigonometry; Elementary Plane Co-ordinate Geometry; Elementary Mechanics of solids and fluids; Geometrical Optics; Elements of Differential and Integral Calculus with simple illustrations from other branches of the subject. The questions may involve the use of drawing instruments. The use of the slide rule is allowed.

Higher Mathematics.—Higher Algebra (including Theory of Equations), Plane and Spherical Trigonometry, Differential Calculus, Integral Calculus, Differential Equations, Analytical Geometry (Plane and Solid), Statics including Attractions, Dynamics of a Particle, Rigid Dynamics, Hydrodynamics, the Mathematical Theory of Electricity and Magnetism. The questions may involve the use of drawing instruments. The use of the slide rule is allowed.

Chemistry, Physics, Geology, Botany, Zoology, Animal Physiology.—Candidates are warned that the practical Examinations carry a large proportion of the marks.

Geography.—Geography as understood in the universities, not excluding topics which concern geography jointly with other subjects such as economics, history, physics, botany, and geology. There will be a practical test which will necessitate a knowledge of cartographical methods and notations, and for this test drawing instruments may be required.

Greek History.—Questions (a) on the General and (b) on the Constitutional History of Greece to the death of Alexander. Candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of the original authorities. They must also be prepared to answer questions on historical geography and to draw sketch maps.

Roman History.—Questions (a) on the General and (b) on the Constitutional History of Rome to the death of Trajan. Candidates will be expected to show a knowledge of the original authorities. They must also be prepared to answer questions on historical geography, and to draw sketch maps.

English History.—The subject will include (a) the Political History of the British Isles and the Colonies, (b) the Constitutional History of England. Candidates should be acquainted with the following authorities:—

Period I. to 1485: Stubbs, Select Charters, ninth edition [Clarendon Press].

Period II, 1485 to 1848; Prothero, Statutes, and Constitutional Documents [Clarendon Press]; Gardiner, Documents of the Puritan Revolution [Clarendon Press].

In each period the number of marks assigned to the question or questions dealing with the text of the prescribed books will be about one-sixth of that assigned to the whole period. Candidates must be prepared to answer questions on historical geography, and to draw sketch maps.

General Modern History.—Candidates may, at their choice, be examined in any one of the following periods. Periods III, IV and V will include Indian History. Candidates are warned that high marks will not be awarded in this subject unless the text of the prescribed books has been carefully studied by them. Candidates must be prepared to answer questions on historical geography, and to draw sketch maps.

I. From the accession of Charlemagne to the Third Crusade. [A.D. 800 to A.D. 1193.]

POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

JAILS.

NOTICE.

No. 3109 P.J.—The 22nd August 1919.—The Committee appointed to investigate the system of prison administration in India have prepared a paper of interrogatories, printed copies of which are available in the office of the undersigned. Anybody who wishes to furnish written answers to the questions and other cognate matters not contained in the paper of interrogatories should do so before the 15th October 1919. The interrogatories are reproduced below:—

PAPER OF INTERROGATORIES.

Classification of Jails.

I.—(a) Do you approve of the system of classifying jails in India on the basis of prison population or accommodation and of basing the pay of Superintendents on such classification?

(b) What maximum would you fix to the accommodation to be provided for in—

(i) a central jail,
(ii) a district jail?

Jail Construction.

II. Have you any recommendations to make on the subject of jail construction in India?

Superintendence of Jails.

III. (a) Have you any experience of the plan of promoting officers of the jailor grade to the post of Superintendent of a jail; if so, how far, in your judgment, has it been successful?

(b) Are you in favour of entrusting to medical men the superintendence of (a) central jails, (b) district jails? If so, what remarks have you to make regarding the recruitment of Medical Superintendents in the past? If not, what other method of recruitment of Superintendents would you recommend?

Jail Establishment.

IV. (a) Do you consider that the scale of remuneration for the several classes of jail officers in your province is adequate? Have you any suggestions to make on the subject?

(b) What is the scale of warder establishment in your province? Have you any suggestions to make regarding it?

(c) Do you consider that the rate of pay and other conditions of the warders' service are satisfactory and secure a suitable class of man? If not, what would you suggest?

Police.

V. Have the police any part in the guarding of the jails in your province? Have you any recommendations to make on the subject?

Medical arrangements in Jails.

VI. Are you satisfied with the arrangements for the medical care and nursing of sick prisoners in the jails in your province? Have you any suggestions to make on this question?

Jail Offences.

VII. Have you any views to express regarding restraint and punishment of prisoners for jail offences?

Convict Officers.

VIII. Do you approve of the system of employing convicts as convict officers? What are your recommendations?

Labour for Prisoners.

IX. (a) Do you approve of the present methods of providing labour for prisoners, and have you any criticisms or suggestions to offer on the subject?

(b) Do you consider that the employment of power-driven machinery in jails is justifiable; if so, under what conditions and with what limitations?

Remissions of Sentence.

X. What are your views upon the system by which remissions of sentence are granted? Do you consider that the system should be extended so as to cover shorter sentences than at present?

Letters and Visits.

XI. Have you any suggestions to make regarding the rules in your province regulating (a) the receipt and writing of letters by prisoners, (b) interviews with prisoners?

Cellular and Association Systems.

XII. Are you in favour of prisoners being separated at night in a separate cell for each individual, or would you retain the system of association wards?

Separate Confinement.

XIII. Are prisoners in your province subjected to a period of separate confinement as an ordinary incident of a sentence of imprisonment, in accordance with English practice? If so, for how long? Do you approve of the existing rules on this subject, and have you any suggestions to make either as regards those rules or as to the method of carrying out the period of separate confinement?

Special Class of Offenders.

XIV. Are you in favour of creating a division or class of offenders, which should be entitled to special treatment in jails? If so, specify as accurately as possible the offences or classes of offences that you would include in such a division, and the nature of the special treatment that you would advocate.

Classification of Prisoners.

XV. (a) Have you any views to express upon the classification of prisoners into habituals and non-habituals, as at present in force in the jails in your province? Do you think that this or any such classification should be made by the Courts or by the jail authorities?

(b) Would you advocate the collection of habitual offenders, as far as possible, in one or more jails to which casual offenders should not ordinarily be sent?

XVI. Have you any special remarks to offer in regard to the jail rules in force in your province for the treatment of—

(i) civil prisoners,
(ii) under-trial prisoners,
(iii) female prisoners,
(iv) juvenile prisoners,
(v) condemned prisoners?

Simple Imprisonment.

XVII. Do you consider it desirable that prisoners, sentenced to simple imprisonment, should be exempt from all labour, or should they be liable to labour, as in England?

Weak-minded Prisoners.

XVIII. Would you recommend any special measures with regard to weak-minded prisoners, and if so, what are your suggestions?

Transportation.

XIX. What is your opinion of transportation as a method of dealing with criminals, with reference to (a) its deterrent effect, (b) its reformative influence? Do you consider that the system of transportation to the Andamans should be retained, with or without modifications?

Fine.

XX. (a) Are the existing provisions of law and rules relating to the payment of fine in your opinion satisfactory? If not, what changes would you suggest?

(b) In the case of persons sentenced to imprisonment in default of payment of fine and with no substantive sentence of imprisonment, would you advocate that the Courts should be either required or allowed, before the offender is committed to jail, to grant time for payment of fine, and, if so, would you permit such payment to be made by instalments?

Solitary Confinement.

XXI. What is your view of the value, as a deterrent, of solitary confinement when imposed by a judicial sentence?

"Preventive Detention" and the Indeterminate Sentence.

XXII. (a) Are you in favour of the system of "preventive detention" for habitual offenders, as practised in the United Kingdom? If so, would you make the period of detention indeterminate or would you fix a maximum and minimum, and in the latter case what periods would you suggest?

(b) If you are in favour of the system of "preventive detention," do you think that it should be applied to all habitual offenders?

(c) Do you think that "preventive detention" (if adopted) should take the place of the system of notification of address under section 565 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, or should it be in addition to that system?

XXIII. Do you advocate the adoption in any other respect of the principle of the indeterminate sentence, and if so, in what respect and subject to what rules and conditions?

Release on Probation.

XXIV. Do you favour the release on probation of first offenders or of any particular class of first offender? If so, what would you suggest, and what machinery would you provide for the supervision of the offender during the period of probation? Or would you advocate the system of suspension of sentence after conviction?

Short Sentence.

XXV. Do you think that short sentences of imprisonment, i.e., for one month and under, are calculated (1) to deter, (2) to reform? If not, what substitutes would you suggest?

Imprisonment in General.

XXVI. (a) Do you consider that imprisonment, as at present carried out, is deterrent, and do you advocate its being made more or less severe? And if so, how?

(b) Have you any reason to think that jail conditions, as they at present exist, are such as to reform and reclaim a prisoner, or the contrary?

Reformatory Influences in Jails.

XXVII. (a) Have you any suggestions to offer regarding further reformatory influences that might be brought to bear upon prisoners in jail?

(b) Would you advocate more extended use of any of the following, namely, elementary general education, instruction in handicrafts, supply of books for reading, drill and gymnastics, moral and religious instruction? If your answer is affirmative, please explain the methods you would suggest.

Children.

XXVIII. Do you advocate the introduction in India of the system of Children's Courts, as worked in England and the United States, and of the methods of dealing with children brought before those Courts, e.g., binding over, probation, committal to industrial and reformatory schools, etc.? What should be the maximum age under which a young person should be regarded as a child?

Releasing of Juvenile (or other) prisoners.

XXIX. Have you any experience of the system of releasing juvenile (or other) prisoners on condition of undergoing the remainder of their sentences in an approved industrial home or other similar institution, or under the supervision of a society? Have you any suggestions to make regarding the working of this system?

Borstal Institutions.

XXX. Are you in favour of separate institutions on the Borstal plan for the detention of adolescent prisoners? If so, what minimum period of detention would you fix and within what age-limits should such prisoners be liable to detention in Borstal institutions?

After-care.

XXXI. Is there any organisation for the after-care of Borstal inmates in your province? If so, please describe fully its methods of working. Have you any recommendations to make on the subject?

Prisoners' Aid Societies.

XXXII. (a) Is there any society for aiding released prisoners generally in your province? If so, do you consider that its operations are adequate and successful, and have you any suggestions to make for its improvement?

(b) Do you think that such a society should be assisted financially by the Government and, if so, what conditions would you impose? How is the society (if any) in your province financed?

Visitors.

XXXIII Have you any suggestions to offer regarding the inspection of jails by visitors, official or non-official?

Criminal Tribes.

XXXIV. (a) Are there any settlements for criminal tribes in your province under the Criminal Tribes Act, 1911? If so, have you any suggestions to make regarding the working of those settlements? To what agency has the control of those settlements been entrusted, and has it been satisfactory?

(b) In the criminal settlements in your province what provision is made for the separation of juveniles from adults? Would you be in favour of the complete removal of children from their parents if the latter belong to a criminal tribe?

By order of the High Court,

J. H. HECHLE
Registrar.

NOTIFICATION.

The 28th August 1919.

No. 5043J.—The following addenda and corrigenda to the "Rules of the High Court, Calcutta, Appellate Side, 1914," are published for general information.

By order of the High Court,

N. G. A. EDGLEY,

Registrar.

It is ordered that "The Rules of the High Court, Calcutta, Appellate Side, 1914," be, and the same are, hereby amended as follows :—

Chapter I.

I. Cancel Rule IV, page 2.

II. Cancel Rule X, page 4.

III. Cancel Rule XVII, page 6.

IV. Renumber Rules V, VI, VII, VIII and IX as IV, V, VI, VII and VIII ; Rules XI, XII, XIII, XIV, XV and XVI as IX, X, XI, XII, XIII and XIV ; and Rules XVIII, XIX and XX as XV, XVI and XVII.

Chapter II.

V. Cancel the heading of this Chapter at page 7, and substitute therefor the heading "Constitution of the Benches and powers of the Benches and of the Registrar."

VI. Cancel proviso (3) to Rule I, page 7.

VII. Cancel Clauses (1) and (2) of the Schedule referred to in proviso (1), Rule 1, page 7.

VIII. Renumber Clauses (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) of the Schedule as (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5).

IX. Add the following supplementary Clauses to the Schedule, page 8 :—

(6) An application against the order of the Registrar when performing a judicial or quasi-judicial act.

(7) Any other application which under these rules is not expressly required to be made to a Bench of two or more Judges or to the Registrar.

X. Insert the following Rule after the supplementary Clauses to the Schedule :—

I-(A). In addition to the powers conferred upon him by other rules the Registrar shall have the following duties and powers :—

(1) To receive an appeal under Section 15 of the Letters Patent from the judgment of a Division Court, and to issue notices as soon as the appeal is registered.

(2) To receive an appeal under Section 15 of the Letters Patent from the judgment of a Judge sitting singly and to post it for preliminary hearing under the proviso to Rule II (a) of this Chapter.

(3) To receive an appeal from the decree or order of a subordinate Civil Court, and in the case of Second Appeals and Appeals from Orders, if in order, to post them for hearing under Order XLI, Rule 11, and in the case of Regular Appeals to issue notices as soon as the appeal is registered.

(4) To dispose of all matters relating to Court-fees (other than appeals, the subject-matter of which is the amount of Court-fee payable) and to the service of notices or other processes.

(5) To dispose of all matters relating to the substitution of parties except in cases under appeal to His Majesty in Council, in which the records have been despatched to England.

(6) To dispose of all matters relating to the appointment or discharge of next friends or guardians ad litem of minors or persons of unsound mind, except in cases under appeal to His Majesty in Council, in which the records have been despatched to England, and to amend the record accordingly.

(7) To require any memorandum of appeal, petition, application or other proceeding, presented to the Court or to the Registrar, to be amended in accordance with the procedure or practice of the Court.

(8) To call for records from subordinate courts.

(9) To dispose of requisitions by subordinate courts for records and documents.

(10) To receive and dispose of an application for the return of a document.

(11) To require any person or party to file an affidavit with respect to any application or matter in respect of which he has power to exercise any discretion or to make any order.

(12) To stop at his discretion the issue of all or any papers to any person who has failed to pay any fee or charges due to the Court.

(13) To dispose of all applications for copies of records, whether presented by parties or persons who are not parties to the the proceedings to which such records relate.

(14) To decide the question of the necessity for transcribing and printing any accounts, not specifically applied for by the parties to an appeal to His Majesty in Council.

(15) To call for a further deposit when the deposit already made by the appellant in an appeal to His Majesty in Council is not sufficient to defray the cost of preparing the record, and to fix the time within which such further deposit shall be made.

(16) To order payment of the interest accruing on Government Promissory Notes, deposited under Order XLV, Rule 7, and to order the refund of any unexpended balance, under Order XLV, Rule 12.

(17) To dispose of all Lawazima reports relating to the preparation of paper-books and to hear all applications in any of the above matters.

(18) To deal with and hear applications to dispense with the copy of the judgment, under Order XLI, Rule 1 of the Civil Procedure Code, and Chapter VIII, Rule 3 of the Rules of Court.

(19) To deal with and hear applications in Appeals from Appellate Decrees, to receive copies of judgments and decrees of the first Court, after the expiry of the time prescribed for the institution of the appeal.

Nothing in these rules will be deemed to authorise the Registrar to make an order of dismissal of an appeal for default or to entertain applications for revival or abatement of appeals (after the expiry of the period of limitation prescribed therefor), or to determine disputed questions of representation under Order 22, Rule 5, Civil Procedure Code, or to pass final orders on contested applications for the appointment or removal of next friends and guardians ad litem.

Provided the Registrar may refer any matter under this rule to the Court for orders.

The Registrar may delegate his functions, under Clauses 1, 2, 3, 4, 8, 9 12 and 13, to the Deputy Registrar or other officer of the Court, and he may also delegate to any such officer any other function with which he is vested under Chapters VI—XIV of the Appellate Side Rules, except those of a judicial or quasi-judicial character.

XI. Add as Rule I (B) to Chapter II :—

Applications entertainable by the Registrar shall be presented to him, and not to the Bench.

Add as Rule I (C) :—

In item 6(2), column 4. of the said table, add the following as a sub-paragraph :—

"The Port Commissioners are, however, allowed to load foreign wagons on special holidays on payment of the fees for customs officers and peons, as specified in column 5 in case of Sunday work."

F. D. ASCOLI,
Secretary, Board of Revenue, Bengal.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 3429Bat.—The 2nd September 1919.—The following draft rules which, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 121 of the Estates Partition Act (Bengal Act V of 1897), the Board of Revenue intends to substitute for the rules made under that section and published with notification No. 1899L.R., dated the 2nd May 1899 (vide Part II of the Batwara Manual, 1902), are published for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby.

2. The draft rules will be taken into consideration on or after the 15th October 1919, and any objection or suggestion with regard thereto which may be received by the undersigned before that date will be duly considered.

"1. In addition to the particulars required to be entered in the application under section 18, the Collector shall require the applicant to furnish, as far as possible, the names and addresses of the proprietors of the estate or estates surrounding the estate which is to be partitioned, the name of the post office of the area within which each of the said proprietors resides, the names and numbers of the estates owned by them, and the date of final publication of a record-of-rights (if any) of the estate to be partitioned.

Particulars to be entered in the application under section 18.

2. The costs of partition may include the following:—

Costs of partition.

(a) The salary, travelling allowance and contributions, if any, to pension and leave of establishments appointed under sections 35 and 36.

(b) The salary, travelling allowance and contribution to pension and leave of the Deputy Collector appointed under section 41, including any additional remuneration, on account of employment in partition work, subject to the conditions and limitations imposed by sub-sections (2) and (3) of the said section.

(c) Contingent expenditure, including—

(i) the cost of service of notices and of the publication of notifications under the Act;

(ii) the cost of stationery and forms and survey instruments;

(iii) the cost of making any copies of maps and records that may be required under this Act for the purposes of the partition;

(iv) any other charges necessary for the completion of the partition;

(v) the cost of boundary marks under section 96.

3.* (a) The cost of making a partition, as estimated under section 37(1), shall ordinarily be paid in not less than three instalments, of which the first shall consist of one-half of the total amount estimated:

Payment of costs of partition by instalments

Provided that, when the total demand from a shareholder is less than ten rupees, it shall be realised in one instalment only as soon as the estimate has been sanctioned by the Collector.

(b) The first instalment shall be leviable by the Collector as soon as he has sanctioned the estimate under section 37 (1). and the remaining instalments at such times as the Collector may think fit, the dates being entered in the ledger of partition fees and in the proprietors' ledger, provided that the entire cost of a partition shall be realised before the partition is confirmed.

ACCOUNTS AND FINANCE.
MINT.

The 22nd August 1919.

No. 2157F.—It is hereby notified for general information that the Government of India have decided to offer for sale fornightly and until further notice gold bullion for delivery at either of the Mints at Calcutta and Bombay. Particulars of the bullion offered for sale on each occasion, together with the conditions of the sale and the rules under which tenders will be accepted, will be notified in advance. The amount of bullion offered for sale during each of the first three months of the sales will be not less than the equivalent of the fine gold contents of one million sovereigns.

No. 2158F.—In pursuance of notification No. 2157-F., dated the 22nd August 1919, the Government of India hereby offer for sale gold bullion of a minimum quantity of 325,000 tolas fine gold. Delivery will be made of gold of fineness of 990 or over or, at the option of the purchaser, of standard gold of fineness between 916 and 917, in the form of bars of an approximate weight of 50 tolas or of bars of greater weight if acceptable to the purchaser. Tenders for the whole or any part of the said quantity of bullion will be received up to noon, Standard time, of Wednesday, the 3rd of September 1919, by the Controller of Currency at Calcutta or by the Accountants-General, Bombay, Madras, United Provinces, Punjab, Burma, and Bihar and Orissa, or by the Comptrollers, Central Provinces and Assam. Every tender must be enclosed in a closed cover superscribed "Tender for gold bullion" and must state—

(1) the quantity of bullion tendered for in tolas of fine gold,
(2) the rate at which the tender is made (which must be specified in rupees, annas and pies, per tola of fine gold),
(3) the form in which delivery is desired, that is, gold of a fineness of 990 or over or standard gold,
(4) the place (i. e., Calcutta or Bombay) at which delivery will be taken, and
(5) the name and address of the tenderer and that of the authorised agent (if any) through whom delivery will be taken.

No tender will be accepted for any quantity of bullion in excess of 325,000 tolas, or less than 500 tolas.

2. Each tender must be accompanied by a deposit of not less than one-tenth part of the tender. This deposit must be in one of the following forms :—

(a) Cash.
(b) A receipt for the amount from the head office of the Bank of Bengal, Madras, or Bombay, or one of their branches, or from an officer in charge of some public treasury; or
(c) A cheque, drawn in favour of the Controller of Currency, the Accountant-General or the Comptroller to whom the tender is addressed, on a bank situated at the headquarters of that officer.

No tender will be accepted which is at a rate below the equivalent of Rupees fifteen for the gold par of the sovereign, that is, below a minimum rate of Rs. 23-14-1 per tola of fine gold.

3. Tenders at rates not below the minimum rate will be accepted in the order of the rates tendered, beginning with the highest. The quantity of bullion allotted at the lowest rate at which tenders are accepted will be divided amongst those who have tendered at this rate in proportion, as nearly as it will be found convenient, of the amount of their tenders, provided that no allotment will be made if the amount distributable on any tender is less than 500 tolas. Preference will, however, be given to small tenders, that is, tenders for amounts not exceeding 1,000 tolas, at the lowest accepted rate, such tenders receiving allotment in full as far as possible.

4. In the case of an accepted tender the deposit accompanying the tender will be credited in part payment of the bullion issued in respect of the tender. As soon as possible after acceptance of the tender, the tenderer will be informed of the quantity of bullion allotted in respect of his tender and the purchase price payable therefor. Within a week of the receipt of this intimation the tenderer will be required (either in person or through a duly authorised agent) to pay in at the office at which the deposit was made the balance of the purchase money (for which a receipt should be obtained). Delivery of the bullion will be given on presentation of the receipt at the Mint. Failure to complete payment of the purchase money within the prescribed time will render the sale liable to be cancelled, involving forfeiture of the deposit money. Deposit money in respect of a tender which has not been accepted will be refunded to the tenderer in full.

5. The purchase price payable will be calculated on the weight and fineness of the gold actually delivered at the rate specified in the tender. Tenderers must understand that even where a tender has been accepted in full the amount of bullion to be delivered may, in order to facilitate delivery, vary slightly from the amount tendered for The necessary adjustment will in that case be made in the amount payable.

IMPORT LICENCES ISSUED.

In the notice published under the above heading of the Journal of 3rd July, the word "pyrites" should read "barytes."

EXPORTS TO THE OCCUPIED RHINELAND TERRITORY VIA BELGIUM OR FRANCE.

The Board of Trade Export Licence Department announce that exporters are at liberty, should they so desire, to despatch goods to the occupied territory in the Rhineland (including Luxembourg) viâ Belgian or French ports. In such cases, it is not necessary for the goods to be consigned to an official consignee at the sea port. It is only when exporters prefer to despatch their goods viâ any port in Holland that it is necessary, except in the case of free goods and foodstuffs on List C, that the goods should be consigned to the Standard Bank of South Africa , Rotterdam, for account of the actual consignee.

DECLARATIONS OF ULTIMATE DESTINATION AND NAMES OF CONSIGNEES.

The Board of Trade announce that declarations of ultimate destination will no longer be required to be made in respect of exports from the United Kingdom, and that disclosure of the name of the consignee on Bills of Lading or Shipping Manifests is unnecessary, except in the case of goods shipped against an export licence on which the name of the consignee is specified.

APPENDIX No. 2	669
General Information with regard to Export Regulations to certain countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean	671
Transhipment in the United Kingdom	676

This consolidated "List of Export Prohibited Goods" is amended and issued fortnightly, together with supplements, on alternate weeks. Exporters who desire to have copies of each list and supplement posted to them during the current year can do so on payment of a registration fee of 2*s.* 6*d.* for one copy of each issue. Should more than one copy of each issue be required an additional payment of 1*d.* is made for each copy, for which payment should be made at the rate of 2*d.* per month for each additional copy.

Exporters who desire to have their names placed on the register should make application to the Stationery Clerk, Export Licence Department, enclosing Money Orders payable to the Export Licence Department, Board of Trade.

This List cancels all similar lists and supplements issued by the Export Licence Department prior to 18th July 1919.

° Owing to considerable amendments having been made to the information contained in the List of the 11th July, this List has been reprinted and issued in place of the usual supplement.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Application Form A for Licence to Export.

The Export Licence Department, having regard to the circumstances now existing, and subject to any further notification which it may hereafter become necessary to make, notifies Exporters that answers need only be given to the undermentioned questions, which are set forth in the above-mentioned form of application.

(a) Full name and address of consignor.
(b) Name and address of person or company to whom the licence is to be sent.
(c)—1. Proposed date of despatch of goods.
2. Port of intended shipment in this country or post office of despatch.
(d) Prospective port and country to which the goods are to be exported.
(e) Route by which the goods are to be forwarded to ultimate destination.
(f) Full name and address of consignee abroad.
(k) State whether previous application has been made for all or part of the consignment, etc.
(l) Full description of goods—quantity, weight, value, number and description of packages and the shipping marks.
(t) Any special reasons in support of your request for a licence to export these goods. Instructions Nos. 1, 6, 7, 9 and 12 on page 4 of Application Form A are now cancelled.

P.S.—Should it be desired that in any exceptional case an answer should be given to any questions set forth in the Application Form but not appearing above, a notification will be addressed to the applicant concerned after the receipt of the relative appplication.

APPLICATION FORM B FOR GENERAL LICENCES.

The use of application Form B for making application for licence to export goods in several consignments over a certain period is no longer necessary. Form A can now be used when making application for either specific or general licence, provided that if a general licence is required a statement to that effect is endorsed on the application Form A.

Applications for licences and all correspondence should be addressed to :—

The Controller, Export Licence Department,
1, Queen Anne's Gate Buildings,
Westminster, S. W. 1.

URGENT ORDERS.

The Board of Trade, Export Licence Department, announces that, in collaboration with the Department of Overseas Trade, an arrangement has been made whereby firms receiving orders which require immediate acceptance may telegraph details of any such order to the Department of Overseas Trade in order to ascertain whether a licence will be granted for the export of the goods if the order is accepted.

In the event of an applicant being promised a licence he will be enabled to deal with the order straightaway with the knowledge that upon application being made in the proper form to the Export Licence Department the licence will be granted.

The telegrams should be addressed to "Orders, c-o Advantage, Stock, London." They should give in each case in addition to the name and postal or telegraphic address of the applicant the quantity and description of the goods comprised in the order and the name and address of the ultimate consignee if the goods are destined for a neutral country. In the case of orders from Allied or British Territory or from territory in the occupation of troops of the Associated Governments, the consignee need not be stated; and it will be sufficient merely to give the country of destination. A reply of 24 words (1-3) must be prepaid.

Applicants are requested in their own interest to confine their enquiries to orders needing a very urgent decision, since the fewer the enquiries the more promptly can answers be given.

Any subsequent correspondence that is necessary in connection with the telegraphic enquiries should be addressed to the Comptroller General, Department of Overseas Trade (Export Facilities Section), 4, Queen Anne's Gate Buildings, Westminster, S.W. 1.

POST OFFICE.

No. 616.

The 16th August 1919.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Department of Commerce and Industry.

The following rules prescribing the terms and conditions of issue of Post Office 5-year Cash Certificates and the procedure relating thereto, having been made by the Governor-General in Council, are published for general information :—

Post Office 5-year cash certificates.

	RULES.		RULES.
Purchase of cash certificates ...	1	Payment of cash certificates belonging to deceased holders	8
Minors' holdings	2	Payment of cash certificates in the United Kingdom ...	9
Purchase of cash certificates by educational authorities on behalf of students ...	3	Loss or destruction of a cash certificate or of an acknowledgment for the same ...	10
Transfer of cash certificates ...	4	Exchange of cash certificates for acknowledgment and vice versa	11
Cash certificates as security ...	8
Discharge of cash certificates ...	6
Partial discharge and exchange of cash certificates ...	7

Purchase of cash certificates.

1. (1) Post Office 5-year cash certificates for Rs. 10, 20, 50, 100 and 500 are obtainable at any post office doing savings bank work, at an issue price of Rs. 7-12, Rs. 15-8, Rs, 38-12, Rs. 77-8, and Rs. 387-8, respectively. Their purchase must be made by presenting a form of application which is prescribed for the purpose and which may be obtained at any post office doing savings bank business. The application may be made by a single person or in the joint names of two persons only, and may be tendered either personally or by a messenger.

NOTE.—Cash certificates purchased by joint holders are issued on a special form.

(2) Cash certificates can be purchased either wholly with sums withdrawn from money already deposited in the investor's Post Office Savings Bank account, or with cash or a cheque on a recognised bank separately tendered for the purpose, or partly with sums withdrawn from savings bank deposit and partly with cash or cheque or both. The full issue price must be paid at the time of purchase.

(3) When an application is presented at a head or sub post office, a cash certificate signed by the head or sub-postmaster, as the case may be, will be handed to the investor across the counter of the post office. When an application is presented at a branch office a cash certificate will be obtained for the investor from the head office or the sub-office to which the branch office is subordinate. The investor has the option of taking delivery of the certificate or of leaving it in the custody of the Accountant-General, Posts and Telegraphs. The method preferred should be stated in filling up the application. In the former case, the certificates will be handed across the counter at the time of purchase. In the latter case, an acknowledgment from the Deputy Accountant-General, Posts and Telegraphs, concerned, that certificates of the specified value in each of the several denominations applied for are held in Post Office custody on the investor's behalf will be obtained and delivered to him. Receipts will be given for all sums paid when a certificate is not issued immediately and investors should be careful to obtain and preserve these. The provisional receipts must be surrendered in all cases in exchange for certificates or acknowledgments. Holders of cash certificates who do not elect to keep them with the Post Office may, if they so desire, deposit them in district treasuries for custody. A receipt will be granted by the treasury officer, which should be returned by the investor when he desires to take back his certificates.

(4) The maximum holding of cash certificates at any time by any one person or by two persons jointly and severally is limited to Rs. 10,000. A declaration that the total holding is not in excess of this limit must be made by the purchaser or purchasers on the occasion of each purchase.

Exception.—The limit of Rs. 10,000 referred to above does not apply to the case of—

(i) school authorities who purchase certificatas on behalf of students from savings made over to them,

(ii) local bodies, universities incorporated by an Act of the Indian legislature, and Government educational institutions approved of by the Local Government purchasing certificates for investment on behalf of or as awards to students,

(iii) the transferees of certificates—

(a) pledged as security,

(b) offered as donations to the Red Cross funds, the Imperial Indian Relief Fund, or the St. John Ambulance Association.

Minors' holdings.

2. (1) A cash certificate cannot be purchased by a minor. It may, however, be purchased in the name of a minor by an adult relative or guardian. The applicant for the purchase of a cash certificate on behalf of a minor must give the date of the minor's birth in the application for purchase.

(2) A cash certificate purchased in the name of a minor cannot be discharged during the minority except by the minor's legally-constituted guardian. The Postmaster-General and the Director-General have, however, discretionary power to allow the natural guardian to discharge cash certificates during the minority up to the face value of Rs. 500 and Rs. 1,000, respectively, without the execution of an indemnity bond by the party concerned.

Purchase of cash certificates by educational authorities on behalf of students.

3. An educational authority (such as a local or a municipal board, a university or the governing body of an institution), or an individual member of it, or the headmaster of an educational institution, may purchase cash certificates on behalf of students out of their savings or prize money. The certificates will remain in the custody of the Accountant-General, Posts and Telegraphs, and the educational authority will draw the amount due on discharge for distribution among the students.

Transfer of cash certificates.

4. The holder of a cash certificate may not transfer it to another person except with the previous permission of the Postmaster-General. The transferee must furnish a declaration that his total holding of these certificates (including the amount to be transferred) does not exceed the permissible maximum of Rs. 10,000. A new certificate, bearing the same serial number and dates of issue and maturity as the original certificate, will be issued to the transferee on the surrender of the original certificate duly endorsed by the transferor.

The similar transfer of a certificate represented by an Accountant-General's acknowledgment for a certificate in Post-Office custody is also permissible.

Cash certificates as security.

5 The holders of cash certificates may tender them as security to any department of Government for the amount at which the certificates were purchased, and not for their face value, provided that the certificates are formally transferred to the pledgee with the sanction of the Postmaster-General. The certificates may, with the permission of the Postmaster-General, be re-transferred by the pledgee to the original holder on the removal of the pledge.

In order to avoid frequent transfers which would be involved in consequence of the change of incumbents, Government officers may hold cash certificates as security in their official capacity, whether they are kept in the custody of the Accountant-General, Posts and Telegraphs, or not.

Discharge of cash certificates.

6. (1) The amount shown on a cash certificate will be payable five years after the date of issue on presentation of the certificate. If the holder of a certificate desire to surrender it before the completion of five years, he will be entitled to payment as shown in the table below, the appropriate portion of which appears on the reverse of the certificate. The holder of a cash certificate kept in the custody of the Accountant-General, Posts and Telegraphs, must apply by letter for its discharge at the post-office of issue, and payment will be made by the post-office on receipt of authority for payment from the Deputy Accountant-General, Posts and Telegraphs, concerned. A receipt for payment will be taken on the reverse of the certificate or the Deputy Accountant-General's acknowledgment, as the case may be. No income-tax will be levied on the yield from these certificates and their payment will be made in all cases free of stamp duty :—

(2) Payment of the amount due on a cash certificate will ordinarily be made only at the post office at which the certificate was purchased. The holder may, however, apply for payment at any post office doing savings bank business. In the latter case payment will be made at the post office at which application is made after the certificate has been verified by the office of issue.

(3) Payment of a cash certificate issued in joint names can be made only on the signatures of the joint holders. Payment will, however, be made to one of the joint holders on a letter of consent from the other holders addressed to the postmaster concerned.

Partial discharge and exchange of cash certificates.

7. The holder of cash certificates whether in the custody of the Post Office or not may discharge a part of his holding by making application to the postmaster of the office of issue mentioning the amount he desires to be repaid to him and the numbers and denominations of the certificates which will form the balance to be retained by him in his own possession or in the custody of the Accountant-General, Posts and Telegraphs.

Several cash certificates of lower denominations may be exchanged for one or more certificates of a higher value on application to the postmaster of the office of issue.

Payment of cash certificates belonging to deceased holders.

8. (1) If a holder of cash certificates should die leaving certificates not exceeding three thousand rupees in value, and if probate of his will, or letters of administration of his estate, or a certificate granted under Act VII of 1889, be not produced to the Postmaster-General within three months of the death of the said holder, the Postmaster-General may pay the value of the certificates to any person appearing to him to be entitled to receive it or to administer the estate of the deceased.

(2) The amount of cash certificates in excess of the value of three thousand rupees due to the estate of a deceased holder may only be paid on production of probate, letters of administration, or a certificate under Act VII of 1889, unless otherwise ordered by the Director-General who has discretionary power to dispense with such evidence in cases where he is of opinion that to require it would cause hardship and that to dispense with it would involve no appreciable risk.

(3) Certificates purchased in joint names are ordinarily payable under the orders of the Postmaster-General (i) in the case of the death of one of the joint holders to the surviving joint holder, (ii) when both the joint holders are dead to the representative of the last surviving joint holder.

Payment of cash certificates in the United Kingdom.

9. Holders of cash certificates, who subsequently leave India, may obtain payment for their certificates in the United Kingdom, provided that the certificates have been held for the full term of five years. Purchasers who wish to avail themselves of the concession must apply in the prescribed form to the post office from which their certificates were issued for their enfacement by the Postmaster-General concerned for payment at the India Office, London. Payment will be made at the rate of exchange current at the time of encashment.

Loss or destruction of a cash certificate or of an acknowledgment for the same.

10. If a cash certificate or an acknowledgment for the same is lost, destroyed or spoilt the investor will be entitled to a certificate in lieu of it from the Deputy Accountant-General, Posts and Telegraphs, on his furnishing a statement to the post office of issue in writing, giving particulars of the cash certificate or the acknowledgment and explaining the circumstances in which it was lost, destroyed or spoilt. In the last case, he will be required to attach the spoilt certificate or acknowledgment to his statement.

Exchange of cash certificates for acknowledgments and vice versa.

11. Should the holder of a cash certificate or an acknowledgment for the same desire at any subsequent date to keep the cash certificate in the custody of the Post Office or to take delivery of it in exchange for the acknowledgment, he may do so on his furnishing a written application with the cash certificate or the acknowledgment to the post office of issue. He will be granted a provisional receipt by the postmaster for the cash certificate or the acknowledgment he hands over, pending receipt of the document he has applied for.

Ordered that this Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information and that it be communicated to the Finance Department, the Director-General of Posts and Telegraphs, and the Accountant-General of Posts and Telegraphs.

TRADING BY FOREIGNERS.

LICENCE.

The 23rd August 1919.

No. 6403.—Whereas by paragraph 5 of the Trading with the Enemy Proclamation No. 2, dated the 9th day of September 1914, trade and financial or commercial transactions between British subjects and persons or bodies of persons resident in the Dual Monarchy of Austria-Hungary or in the Colonies and dependencies thereof, in this licence or in the said Proclamation referred to as "enemy country" are prohibited; and

Whereas by paragraph 8 of the said Proclamation it is provided that nothing in the Proclamation shall be taken to prohibit anything which may be expressly permitted by licence whether such licence be granted to individuals or be announced as applying to persons; and

Whereas by paragraph 3 of Proclamation, dated the 8th October 1914, power to grant such licences on behalf of the Crown may be exercised in India by the Governor General;

Now, therefore, I, Frederic John Napier Thesiger, Baron Chelmsford, hereby authorise all persons and bodies of persons residing, being, or carrying on business in British India to trade and have commercial and financial transactions with persons or bodies of persons resident or carrying on business in Hungary:

Provided always that any licence which may be necessary in respect of any transaction under any prohibition of export or prohibition of import for the time being in force in British India is first obtained;

Provided also that nothing in this licence shall be taken as permitting the payment or delivery to persons resident or carrying on business within the said territory of the following moneys and classes of property:—

(a) any sum payable to or paid for an enemy by way of dividend, interest or share of profits;

(b) any sum which has been paid into any account with a Bank or to any other person in trust for an enemy;

(c) interest on securities issued by or on behalf of Government or the Government of any of His Majesty's Dominions or any foreign Government or by or on behalf of any corporation or any municipal or other authority whether within or without British India;

(d) securities which have become repayable on maturity or by being drawn for payment or otherwise;

(e) any money or property which is or but for the war would have been payable to an enemy in respect of any transaction entered into before the outbreak of war.

OFFICE MEMORANDUM BY THE INSPECTOR OF SCHOOLS, BURDWAN DIVISION.

University Matriculation Examination, 1920.

PRIVATE STUDENTS.

1. Private students are those who have not attended any recognized or unrecognized High English school for at least one year previous to the examination. The term "private students" includes schoolmasters.

2. Private students must appear at the Test Examination to be held on Monday, the 15th December 1919, and the following days at the Howrah zilla school.

Each private student will have to pay a fee of Rs. 6, which should be remitted to the Inspector of Schools, Burdwan Division, Chinsura, along with his application for admission to the Test Examination, by the 10th November 1919, after which date a fine of Rs. 2 will have to be paid for each week's delay. Under no circumstances will the admission fee be refunded. No private student will be admitted to the Test Examination unless he is accompanied, for the purpose of identification, by some person known in the office of the Inspector of Schools, Burdwan Division, or to the staff of the Howrah zilla school.

3. Applications must be submitted through the headmaster of the school in which the applicant last read or in which he is serving. The headmaster, in forwarding the application to this office, should note whether he recommends the application or not. If he does not, his reasons should be stated. The application of no candidate is to be forwarded who did not leave school from the first class, or who had not been declared fit for promotion to that class. The information to be given and the documents to be appended (in original) are the following :—

(a) The name of the school in which the candidate last studied.

(b) The transfer certificate (in original) granted to the candidate by the headmaster of the school in which he last read; or

(c) In the case of a candidate who previously appeared at the Entrance Examination, the Registrar's receipt (in original) for the fee paid.

(d) The age of the candidate is not required in cases (b) and (c). No candidate who has not completed the age of sixteen years on the first day of the Matriculation Examination is eligible.

(e) In the case of schoolmasters, a certificate of good conduct from the secretary or proprietor of the school in which the candidate is serving.

(f) A certificate from a respectable gentleman to the effect that the candidate has prosecuted a regular course of study and has been subject to proper discipline, and that he has not read in any school since the last Matriculation Examination held in March 1919. Detailed information is needed under this head. The person granting the certificate should state his social or professional position.

(g) The names of subjects in which the candidate wishes to be examined.

4. None but bonâ fide residents of the Burdwan Division need apply.

5. The fee for the Matriculation Examination has NOT to be sent to this office. It should be sent to the Registrar by the candidates themselves, together with the countersigned applications.

6. The address of each private student should be supplied to this office.

7. The date of the Matriculation Examination in 1920 will be communicated later to the intending candidates.

Intermediate and B. A. Examinations.

1. Deputy Inspectors of Schools, Sub-Inspectors of Schools and bonâ fide masters of English schools, who have served as such for the full period of three academical years preceding the examination, will be admitted to the above mentioned examinations.

2. Candidates for the Intermediate and B. A Examinations must produce certificates of character and length of service, with dates, from the secretaries of their respective schools. Candidates for the B. A. Examination must forward with their applications their F. A. certificates, and those for the Intermediate Examination their Entrance or Matriculation certificates. Those candidates who were admitted to a former examination must produce the Registrar's receipt in addition.

3. Under section 19 of the Indian Universities Act, candidates for the Intermediate and B. A. Examinations are informed that their applications for admission to these examinations will not be considered unless they enclose with their applications to this office the sanction of the Senate to appear at the said examinations. Candidates who have applied for or have Notice.

THE Bengal and Madras Service Family Pension Fund which is provisionally managed and assisted by Government has for its object the provision of monthly pensions for the maintenance of the widows and children of subscribers and is open, with certain exceptions, to all active and pensioned members of the Uncovenanted Service of Government (except those serving under the Government of Bombay), and to Local Fund servants earning pensions from Government. Some of the special features of the Fund are—(1) that widowed daughters incapable of remarriage or children labouring under such mental or bodily infirmities as incapacitate them from earning their livelihood or preclude the possibility of marriage (in case of a daughter) are admitted to its benefits; and (2) that subscribers to the Widows' and Daughters' branches are entitled to a refund of 30 per cent. of the premia paid, should the nominees predecease them after five years of admission. The Fund is now of ten years' standing and has a balance of over three and-a-half lakhs with Government on four per cent. interest. For forms of applications and rules of the Fund apply to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, Imperial Secretariat Buildings, Calcutta.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

The following questions, which were starred, were put and answered —

By the Hon'ble Babu Kishori Mohan Chaudhuri:—

*1.

Method of filling up the posts of Principals and Circle Inspectors of colleges.

(a) Is it a fact that some years ago the late Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam and the then Government of Bengal proposed that all administrative posts of Principalships and Circle Inspectorships should be held by members of the Indian Educational Service?

(b) Is it a fact that it was proposed to remove Rai Kumudinikanta Banerji Bahadur, M.A., from the Principalship of the Rajshahi College as he was the only member of the Provincial Educational Service holding an administrative post, namely, that of the Principal of a first grade Government college?

(c) Is it also a fact that though Lord Morley, the then Secretary of State for India, approved of the general principle that the administrative posts should be held by officers of the Indian Educational Service, he did not accept the proposal of removing Rai Kumudinikanta Banerji Bahadur from the Principalship of the Rajshahi College?

(d) Will the Government be pleased to state why an exception was made in the case of Rai Kumudinikanta Banerji Bahadur, the Principal of the Rajshahi College?

(e) Will the Government be pleased to state why the Principalship of the Rajshahi College, which is a large first grade college, has not been made an Indian Educational Service post, while the Principalships of small colleges, such as those at Krishnagar, Hooghly and Chittagong, have been made Indian Educational Service posts?

(f) Will the Government be also pleased to state the number and description of the new Indian Educational Service posts sanctioned since the adoption of the principle referred to in clause (a) of the question?

(g) Are the Government aware of the fact that if Rai Kumudinikanta Banerji Bahadur, M.A., had been removed from the Principalship of the Rajshahi College and transferred to any other place, either as Professor or Additional Inspector, he would have been a considerable gainer pecuniarily, as he could then have officiated in the Indian Educational Service, in which a large number of vacancies occur every year?

(h) Is it a fact that he was on the same pay (Rs. 600, class II of the Provincial Educational Service) for about eleven years from 1908 to 1918?

(i) Are the Government aware that before the present post-graduate scheme was in operation, he used to teach M A. students of Physics and many of them passed with high degrees and some of them are now professors in Government colleges?

Questions and Answers.

(j) Are the Government also aware that he is an outside examiner in M. Sc. Physics in the post-graduate scheme of the University; and that though he has been the Principal of a large Government college since 1897, he has, all the time he has been Principal, been doing the work of a full-time professor owing to the fact that Government did not sanction any additional posts?

(k) Has the attention of the Government been drawn to the reply of the Hon'ble Mr. H. Sharp in the Imperial Legislative Council to the Hon'ble Mr Suba Rao Pantalu's resolution on the Public Services Commission on the 17th March, 1911, in which he stated that an Indian officer held the administrative post of a Principal of a first grade Government college and he mentioned Rai Kumudinikanta Banerji Bahadur as that officer?

(l) Is it also a fact that he was the only Indian at that time holding an administrative post in the Education Department in the whole of British India?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"(a) This is not correct There never was any proposal for including all posts of Principals in the Indian Educational Service, but in 1907, the Government of Bengal, as it was then constituted, proposed that the Principals of the Hooghly, Krishnagar and Ravenshaw Colleges should be Indian Educational Service officers. As regards Inspectorships, in 1904 the then Government of Bengal proposed that all Commissioners' divisions should be in charge of well trained European Inspectors in the Indian Educational Service

(b) In 1912, in connection with some breaches of discipline which occurred among the students of the Rajshahi College, it was proposed that the Rai Bahadur should be transferred to the Krishnagar College, but as the post of Principal of the Rajshahi College was in the Provincial Educational Service cadre while that of the Krishnagar College was in the Indian Educational Service, it was suggested that the two posts should be interchanged. Government did not accept the proposal.

(c) In 1908, in sanctioning certain proposals in connection with the educational services in Eastern Bengal and Assam, Lord Morley 'entirely agreed with Sir Lancelot Hare's recommendation that the Rajshahi College should be wholly manned with highly-qualified Indian officers recruited in India' Lord Morley did not accept any such general principle as suggested in the question

(d) Owing to the successful administration of the College.

(e) The question of including the post of Principal of the Rajshahi College in the Indian Educational Service never arose, because the College was well administered. At Hooghly and Krishnagar the old arrangement under which the Principal was a Provincial Educational Service officer did not work well, and at Chittagong the post was so included in connection with the raising of the status of the College.

(f) A statement is laid on the table

(g) Yes

(h) Yes

(i) The Rai Bahadur used to teach M A students of Physics, but Government have no definite information on the other points

(j) Government believe it is true that he is an outside examiner in M.Sc Physics in the post-graduate scheme of the University and that he has practically been doing the same amount of work as is usually done by a professor in a college. In 1917, however, the Presidency College Committee recommended that Principals should take an active part in the instruction of the students, and an inquiry was accordingly made into the question of relieving the Principals of the larger Government colleges outside Calcutta of a portion of their administrative duties Bursars were appointed in some colleges The Rai Bahadur did not think a Bursar was necessary for Rajshahi College, but proposed that a steward and assistant librarian should be appointed Government did not approve this proposal It was found that the Rai Bahadur was doing 13 hours' teaching work a week, but he was opposed to the idea of the Principal being relieved of any of this work.

(k) Yes

Statement referred to in the answer by the Hon'ble MR. GOODE to question No. I (starred) asked by the Hon'ble BABU KISHORI MOHAN CHAUDHURI at the Council Meeting of the 12th August, 1919, showing the number and description of the new Indian Educational Service posts sanctioned since 1910.

* Created temporarily for five years The posts of the Principal and one Assistant Master have been filled

By the Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur:—

11.

(a) Is it a fact that the Hastings House property, Alipore, has been placed by the Government of India at the temporary disposal of the Government of Bengal as a residential school for the sons of Indian gentlemen? Hastings School, Alipore.

(b) If so, for how many years and on what conditions?

(c) Is it a fact that the said school has been founded to meet the wishes of the leaders of Indian society?

(d) If so, are the Government in a position to state the names and occupation or profession of these leaders?

(e) Is the Hastings School recognized by the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Dublin or Edinburgh?

(f) Is the said school recognized by the University of Calcutta?

(g) Will the Government be pleased to state whether the curriculum of studies in the Hastings School differs materially from that of the Oxford and Cambridge joint-board higher certificate examination or the Cambridge senior local certificate examination, or the matriculation examination of the Calcutta University?

Questions and Answers.

(h) Has any highly qualified mathematical master been engaged for the said school as recommended by the assistant master in charge of the school?

(i) If not, what steps are the Government taking in this connection?

(j) Are the Government aware that the establishment of a Science Laboratory under the charge of a well-qualified science teacher is one of the greatest needs of the said school?

(k) If so, will the Government be pleased to state what steps (if any) they are taking in this matter?

(l) Will the Government be pleased to state whether any steps are being taken by the school authorities to teach scientific agriculture to sons of zamindars, who are reading in the said school?

(m) If not, are the Government considering the advisability of requiring the school authorities to make the necessary arrangements in this connection?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

" (a) and (b) The Hastings House property has been placed at the disposal of the Government of Bengal for the accommodation of the experimental public school for a period of 5 years from July 1915 on the following conditions:—

(1) The building shall be kept in repair by the Public Works Department at the expense of the school authorities.

(2) The school authorities shall pay all municipal taxes leviable in respect of the property

(3) No permanent structure shall be erected on the estate without the previous consent of the Government of India.

(4) At the end of the 5 years the property shall be returned to the Government of India in the state in which it was when it was made over.

The Government of Bengal have recently asked for sanction to the continuance of these arrangements up till 1922

(c) and (d) In 1913, a memorial was received praying for the establishment of a residential school for Indian boys on the lines of an English public school A list of the names of some of the most prominent supporters of this proposal is laid on the table.

(e) The system of recognition of schools by Universities does not obtain in Great Britain and Ireland.

(f) Steps are in contemplation for affording facilities to pupils of the school for appearing at the examinations of the Calcutta University.

(g) The curriculum is based upon the requirements of the Cambridge Senior Examination and when necessary boys are prepared for the Cambridge Higher Certificate Examinations. Boys whose parents or guardians desire it are sent up for the Calcutta Matriculation examination

(h) and (i) It is proposed to recruit a European assistant master in the Indian Educational Service to teach science and mathematics but his recruitment has been delayed owing to the war, and owing to the fact that the Secretary of State's sanction to the continuance of the school up to 1922 is still awaited.

(j) Yes

(k) Two grants amounting to Rs. 4,080 have been sanctioned for science teaching. It is further proposed to equip the laboratory at a cost of Rs. 3.000.

(l) and (m) No "

The Provincial Judicial Service.

(a) Is it a fact that all, or nearly all, the munsifs in the first grade are now officiating as sub-judges and that since the creation of that grade a very large proportion of the officers of that grade has always officiated as 'sub-judges?

(b) Is it also a fact that few members of the first grade of munsifs get the benefit of the grade owing to the paucity of officers in that grade?

(c) Are the Government considering the desirability of increasing the strength of that grade from 25 to 50?

(d) With reference to the Hon'ble Sir Henry Wheeler's announcement on behalf of the Government in the course of the last budget debate that the first instalment of a scheme for the reorganization of the Provincial Judicial Service, costing over five lakhs of rupees, had been forwarded to the Government of India for sanction and that Rs. 1,25,000 had been set apart in this year's budget for giving effect to the scheme after sanction was received, will the Government be pleased to state whether the sanction of the Government of India has since been received?

(e) If not, are the Government in a position to state approximately when it may be expected?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Graham:—

" (a) Nearly all the munsifs of the first grade are now officiating as subordinate judges and since the creation of that grade some of the officers of that grade have always officiated as subordinate judges.

(b) This portion of the question is not understood.

(c) In view of the possibility of the adoption of a time scale, Government do not propose to alter the grading of the service at present

(d) The proposals of the Local Government for the reorganisation of the service are still under the consideration of the Government of India, but they have recently sanctioned as a temporary measure an increase in the pay of the lower grade of munsifs from Rs. 200 to Rs. 250 a month.

(e) Government are unable to make any forecast on this point "

The Bengal Juvenile Smoking Act.

(a) Will the Government be pleased to state what steps (if any) have been taken to give effect to the provisions of the Bengal Juvenile Smoking Act, 1919, and when such steps were taken?

(b) What further steps are possible to be taken and when are they proposed to be taken?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"(a) and (b) The Act came into force on the 1st February, 1919. Since then, after carefully considering the whole matter, Government have authorised Head Masters of high or middle schools and Madrassahs in Calcutta, under section 4 of the Act to seize or destroy any tobacco, pipes or cigarette papers found in the possession of boys under 16 years of age attending their respective schools whom they find smoking in any street or public place. Government do not contemplate taking any further action at present."

By the Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari:—

V.

The Bengal Village Self-Government Act.

(a) Will the Government be pleased to state what steps (if any) have been taken under section 5 of the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, (Bengal Act V of 1919)?

(b) What other steps are proposed to be taken under the Act and when?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"(a) and (b) Commissioners of Divisions have been asked to report after consultation with district officers and district boards in what districts or parts of districts the Act should be extended and from what date, and what local areas should be declared unions. They have also been asked to make some definite proposals regarding the formation of circles. Meanwhile rules are being framed under section 101 of the Act so that they may be put into force when union boards are created."

Death of a student in a crush at Howrah station.

(a) Has the attention of Government been drawn to the case of a student, who was going to Puri in the last week of June, and who was crushed to death as a result of the overcrowding in the Bengal-Nagpur Railway train at the Howrah railway station?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to state what steps were taken by the railway authority or by the police to cope with the situation caused by the rush of passengers for Puri during the last Rathajatra festival?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Kerr:—

"(a) It is reported that a young Bengali collapsed from heat stroke on No. 9 platform at the Howrah station on the 26th June The platform police inspector procured ice and rendered all assistance in his power The man was then sent in an ambulance to the hospital, but died from heart failure before he arrived there He was not crushed to death. There was not an unusually large number of passengers on the day in question, and the rush to Puri did not set in till two days later.

(b) Additional police were deputed for platform work at Howrah, Rishra, Serampore and Guptipara railway stations from the 28th June till the 7th July to deal with the rush of traffic in connection with the Rath Jatra festival."

Alleged dereliction of duty on the part of the Doctor in charge of the Mayo Hospital

(a) Is it a fact that about the first or second week of July last, a man was found inside the out-door ward of the Mayo Hospital who desired admission to the hospital, and that the Doctor informed him that he could not be admitted as no bed was available?

(b) Is it also a fact that though the man could not move and was lying on the floor, the Doctor in charge asked the man to go out of the hospital?

(c) Is it also a fact that he was then carried bodily and placed on the footpath in front of the Mayo Hospital?

(d) Is it a fact that the deceased lay there till the next morning when a passer-by phoned for an ambulance and that he was removed to the Campbell Hospital. where he died?

(e) Whose duty was it to arrange for the removal of the deceased to the Campbell Hospital. or any other hospital, when it was found that there was no accommodation in the Mayo Hospital?

(f) Are the Government aware of the opinion that has been expressed that it was a dereliction of duty on the part of the Doctor in charge of the Mayo Hospital in having the deceased who could not move and was lying on the floor, removed bodily to the footpath?

(g) Has the conduct of the Doctor the approval of Government? If not. what steps are the Government taking in the matter?

(h) Are the Government considering the desirability of issuing instructions to all Doctors in charge of hospitals, like that of the Mayo Hospital, that when there is no bed vacant in the hospital, proper steps be taken for sending such patients as are incapable of moving or are very unwell, to the Campbell Hospital or any other hospital?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Payne:—

"Owing to the serious illness of Dr. C. H. Banerjee, House Surgeon on duty, the exact facts of the case are not yet known, but a full inquiry will be made and a reply given at a later date."

Filling up of the posts of Assessors and Accountants, in connection with the assessment of the Excess Profits Tax.

(a) Will the Government please state how many posts of Assessors and Accountants have recently been created in Calcutta in connection with the assessment of the Excess Profits Tax?

(b) What is the pay of these posts?

(c) What are the names and educational qualifications of the persons who have been appointed to these posts and the previous services rendered by them in the Income-Tax Department? Have they had any training as Accountants?

(d) Have these posts been filled by the Income-Tax Collector, Calcutta, or by the Government?

(e) Before filling up these posts, were applications invited by advertisement? If not, why not?

(f) Has any Indian been appointed? If not, why not?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Payne:—

" (a) and (b) No posts of assessors or accountants have recently been created in Calcutta in connection with assessment of Excess Profits Duty. Four examiners were appointed in that connection two on Rs. 400 per mensem and two on Rs. 300 per mensem.

(c) The examiners appointed and their qualifications are given below :—

1. Mr. O. K. Martin, F.A., Calcutta University, with 17 years' service in the Calcutta Collectorate.—Has been through a course of accounts.
2. Mr. C. E Smith—24 years' service in the Custom House, Calcutta.—Has had experience in accounts in the Salt section.
3. Mr Frank Robertson, B.A. (Cantab.).—Higher Mathematics certificate, Glasgow University. Late accountant in the firm of Messrs. Phillipe Perrone & Co.
4. Mr. W Phillipe, High School Examination, with 15 years' service in the Custom House, Calcutta, most of his service being in the Accounts section.

(d) By the Income-tax Collector.

(e) No. Men of special qualifications were required and it will be observed that in three out of four instances they were taken from those already in Government service. The appointments were for one year only.

(f) No. The men selected were those who were thought most suitable for the work to be done. It is estimated that 95 per cent. of the Excess Profits Duty in Calcutta will be collected from European assessees, and there is already an Indian examiner under the Collector of Income-tax who deals with the accounts of Marwari firms."

Revised scale of pay and prospects of Civil Assistant Surgeons.

(a) Will the Government be pleased to state what steps have been taken to give effect to the recommendations of the Public Services Commission regarding the revised scale of pay and prospects of the Civil Assistant Surgeons?

(b) Is it a fact that a large number of Civil Assistant Surgeons have petitioned the Government praying for an early consideration of these recommendations and, if so, what orders have been passed on their petition?

(c) Is it a fact that Indian Medical Service officers and also Military Assistant Surgeons have been granted a substantial increment of salary?

(d) At the time of granting these increases, was any proposal before the Government to increase the salaries of Assistant Surgeons?

(e) If not, are the Government contemplating taking up the question now?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Payne:—

"(a) The question of the pay and prospects of civil assistant surgeons has recently been examined by the Medical Services Committee appointed by the Government of India. The report of that Committee has recently been received by this Government and is under consideration.

(b) No such petitions have been received by Government, but the Surgeon-General is considering certain petitions from civil assistant surgeons which have been submitted to him.

(c) The pay of officers of the Indian Medical Service on military duty and of military assistant surgeons has been increased, and orders have just been issued regarding an increase of pay to officers of the Indian Medical Service in civil employment.

(d) and (e) As already stated, the question is under the consideration of Government in connection with the report of the Medical Services Committee."

Revision of the scale of pay of Head Constables of the Bengal

(a) Will the Government be pleased to state what orders have been passed in regard to the revision of the scale of pay of the Head Constables of the Bengal Police, and from what date the orders have taken or will take effect?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to state how the revised scale of pay compares with the present scale? What is the percentage of increase, and what is the total yearly additional expenditure which the new scale involves?

(c) What is the maximum pay which a Head Constable may, in the ordinary course, expect to reach, according to the new scale?

(d) Have the salaries of the Sergeants of the Provincial Police Force been raised; if so, what is the percentage of increase and what is the total yearly additional expenditure involved?

(e) Is it proposed to utilize any portion of the amount provided in the Provincial Police Budget for 1919-20 for raising the pay of the Head Constables towards meeting the expenditure on account of raising the pay of the Sergeants? If so, how much and why?

Questions and Answers.

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Kerr.—

" (a), (b) and (c) A scheme for the revision of the pay of Head Constables of the Bengal Police is under the consideration of the Secretary of State Pending receipt of his orders, Government are not prepared to publish the details of the scheme.

(d) The salaries of Sergeants in the Bengal Police have been raised with effect from the 1st June 1919 from Rs 100 —$\frac{1}{2}$—125 to Rs. 125—$\frac{1}{2}$—150. The increase is 21 per cent, and the annual expenditure involved is Rs 15,600, of which Rs. 2,100 will be borne by the East Indian Railway Company.

(e) As stated in the communiqué recently issued on this subject, a provision of Rs 2,17,260 was made in the budget for 1919-20 on account of the cost of the scheme for the revision of the pay of Head Constables, on the assumption that the scheme would be brought into force on the 1st April. As the scheme has not yet been sanctioned, there will be considerable savings under this head, and it has been decided to meet from the savings the cost during the current year of the increase of the Sergeants' pay, which will not exceed Rs 10,000."

Increase of cases of theft and petty dacoities in the district of Bankura

(a) Is it a fact that the theft of food grains and petty dacoities are increasing in the district of Bankura?

(b) Is it a fact that these are attributable to distress or famine in the above district?

(c) If so, will the Government be pleased to state why some portion of the relief works are being closed there?

(d) How much cloth has been distributed to the destitutes, males and females, respectively, up to June, 1919, in each of the villages in the said district?

(e) Are the Resolutions No. 3—99—2, dated Calcutta, the 25th March, 1905, and No 13—356—10, dated Simla, the 21st August, 1906, respectively, by the Government of India, Department of Revenue and Agriculture, Land Revenue, on the subject of the suspension and remission of land revenue and cess, in force in the Presidency of Bengal?

(f) If so, are the Government considering the desirability of urging on the Collector of Bankura, to give effect to the resolutions referred to above without further delay?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. McAlpin:—

" (a) Yes The Hon'ble Member is referred to the reports on the famine in Bankura published weekly in the Calcutta Gazette.

(b) Yes.

(c) On account of the resumption of agricultural operations, the numbers of relief works, consisting in the excavation of tanks or reservoirs and the construction or repair of roads, rose from 51 in the beginning of June to 76 in the second week of July: the number has fallen to 62 in the beginning of August.

The question, however, indicates some misunderstanding of the measures adopted for relief in Bankura. By far the majority of the population relieved are not on relief works, but receive gratuitous relief.

Questions and Answers.

(d) Since the beginning of the relief operations and up to the end of June last, 8,182 pieces of cloth were distributed. It is not possible to give the figures village by village.

(e) Yes.

(f) The Collector cannot give effect to the resolutions unless the proprietors and tenure holders of Bankura make them really effective by suspending the collection of, or remitting, the rents of the actual cultivators. Moreover, the Collector is aware of the policy enunciated in the resolutions The answer to the particular question is, therefore, in the negative, but the Collector's attention will be again drawn to the matter."

UNSTARRED QUESTIONS.

The answers to the following questions, which were unstarred, were laid on the table :—

Survey schools at Dacca and Mainamati.

(a) Is it a fact that many of the passed students of the Dacca survey class have found it impossible to join the second year class at Mainamati?

(b) How many students have passed from the first year class at Dacca, and how many of them have joined the Mainamati School for further studies?

(c) Is it a fact that the course of study at Dacca does not strictly correspond and lead up to the second year course at Mainamati, the two being based on different systems of grouping of subjects and different standards?

(d) What are the reasons for not opening the second year survey class at Dacca?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

" (a) Yes. The reason is that the 2nd year class at Mainamati is recruited from students from Dacca and three other schools as well as the passed students of the 1st year class. It is expected that there will be more vacancies from next year owing to the closing of the 1st year class there.

(b) Eighteen students passed from the 1st year class at Dacca; 9 students were admitted from Dacca.

(c) No the course at Dacca leads up to the 2nd year course at Mainamati, being almost the same as the 1st year course at the latter school, but with some minor additions, viz., a little engineering and estimating

(d) Government decided that it was desirable in the interests of survey education to centralise the higher training at Mainamati, where the terrain is much more suitable than at Dacca for a thorough training in practical surveying."

Weaving schools of Bengal.

Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a statement showing the progress made and results obtained by the weaving schools at Malda, Cox's Bazar, Bankura, Pabna and Tangail and note in each instance the number of pupils coming from the local weaving classes and the cost of maintenance of the schools up to date?

Questions and Answers.

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"Two statements are laid on the table—

(i) showing the number of pupils attending weaving schools and the numbers passed out during the last three years; and (ii) expenditure on the upkeep of the schools since their establishment.

Practically all the pupils attending these schools are drawn from the weaving community."

Industrial and technical schools for females independent of missionary control.

(a) How many industrial and technical schools for girls and women are there in the Presidency which are not under the control of missionaries?

(b) In view of the difficulties of the mission workers to reach the Hindu and Moslem zenana ladies, are the Government considering the desirability of devising a scheme of industrial and technical education for zenana women, independent of missionary influence?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"(a) There are, strictly speaking, no technical classes or schools for girls in the Presidency which are not under missionary control There are, however, industrial classes which make and sell plain needlework attached to the following:—

(1) Mahila Silpa Samiti, Calcutta;

(2) Hari Silpa Samiti, Calcutta,

(3) Hindu Orphanage, Calcutta; and

(4) Widows' Home at Wari, Dacca

These are privately managed samities and institutions, of which the last two receive grants from Government amounting to Rs 42 a month in the case of the Hindu Orphanage, Calcutta, and Rs. 77 a month in the case of the Widows' Home at Wari The Mahila Silpa Samiti was at one time aided by the Department but in 1915 the grant was withdrawn as it was badly managed and its work was unsatisfactory.

(b) It is reported that there is no real demand for technical instruction amongst zenana ladies and in any case it is a kind of undertaking which must depend largely upon local workers and missionaries. It is not proposed therefore to devise any scheme such as that referred to. But Government would be prepared to consider favourably the question of making grants to institutions such as those mentioned above, provided they are based upon local support and do satisfactory work."

Raising of the pay of typists serving under heads of departments attached to the Bengal Secretariat.

(a) Will the Government be pleased to state whether it is in contemplation to raise the grade pay of the typists serving under heads of departments attached to the Secretariat (e.g., the offices of the Director of Public Instruction, the Inspector General of Police and the Bengali Translator to Government and others)?

(b) Are the Government aware that the typists in these departments feel that they have a just grievance in being deprived of the increment which was sanctioned for Secretariat typists last year?

Questions and Answers.

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Payne:—

" (a) No.

(b) The typists in the office of the Director of Public Instruction submitted a memorial on the subject recently which was rejected.

There has always been some differentiation between the Secretariat and the offices of Heads of Departments in the matter of pay."

By the Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur:—

5.

Hastings School, Alipore.

(a) Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a statement showing the income and expenditure of the Hastings School, Alipore, from 1915 to the period ending 31st March, 1919?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table a statement containing the number of boarders, day-boys and day-boarders in each of the forms of the Hastings School, Alipore, according to their religion, nationality and caste during each of the years from 1915 to the period ending 31st March, 1919, and also the occupation or profession of their guardians?

(c) Is it a fact that the Hastings School is under the immediate supervision of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal?

(d) If so, will the Government be pleased to state whether the general rule No. 13, regarding corporal punishment, framed by the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, with special reference to high schools, as published on page 168 of the Rules and Orders of the Education Department of Bengal, 4th edition, is in force in the Hastings School?

(e) If not, what is the general practice regarding the infliction of corporal punishment to the boys of the said school?

(f) Is it a fact that a boy in Form V is authorised by the school authorities to inflict corporal punishment to other boys of the said school in the case of any breach of discipline, especially during the hours of games?

(g) Will the Government be pleased to state whether there is any ground for apprehension as regards the abolition or amalgamation of this school with some other institution?

(h) Is this school meant for the sons of rich men only?

(i) If so, will the Government be pleased to state the reason why a considerable amount of provincial revenue is applied to make up the financial deficiency of the said school?

(j) Will the Government be pleased to state what steps they are taking to improve the financial condition of the said school?

(k) Will the Government be pleased to state what steps the members of the Advisory Committee are taking to make the institution self-supporting as far as possible?

(l) Will the Government be also pleased to state whether the members of the Advisory Committee ever attempted to raise sufficient funds from among the leaders of Indian society, whose sons are benefited, with a view to the creation of endowments for the said school?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

" (a) A statement showing the income and expenditure on the school is laid on the table.

(b) Statements giving the required information so far as is possible are laid on the table.

(c) and (d) The reply is in the affirmative.

Questions and Answers.

(e) The question does not arise.

(f) The school prefect is made responsible for the general discipline but is not permitted to inflict corporal punishment.

(g) This Government has recommended that the school should be kept on an experimental basis until the end of 1922. Whether it will be made permanent or not will depend on the amount of public support it receives.

(h) and (i) It is true that there has been an impression that the school is meant for the sons of rich men only, but that is not correct, although fees must necessarily be high in a school of this kind In the opinion of the Director of Public Instruction the education imparted in this school is " immeasurably superior " to that given in any other school in the Presidency, and though Government recognises that such a school must ultimately be either self-supporting or liberally aided by private benefactions, it believes that the expenditure at present incurred while the school is in the experimental stage, is amply justified.

(j) It is proposed to make the school more popular by the adoption of the following measures :—

(1) The development of the day side of the school

(2) Improvement of the facilities for science teaching

(3) Appointment of two more European masters.

(4) Provision, if it is found practicable, of separate messing arrangements for sons of orthodox Hindus.

(5) The offer of concessionary rates of fees for sons of Government servants.

No final decision has been reached on the last point. A proposal to introduce separate messing arrangements for the orthodox is under discussion

(k) The members of the Advisory Committee and others have offered five scholarships for competition Government are consulting them as to the measures necessary to make the school more popular.

(l) The reply is in the negative. The school is still being continued on an experimental basis, but the question of a permanent endowment is one which will have to be considered."

Pollution of Tolly's Nullah from discharges of Russa Distillery

(a) Are the Government aware of the fact that the water of the Adi Ganga (Tolly's Nullah) is considered sacred by the Hindus, and that pilgrims who visit the temple in Kalighat from various parts of India drink this water?

(b) Are the Government considering the desirability of urging on the Sanitary Commissioner, Bengal, and the local authorities, the necessity for the prevention of the pollution of the said water with foul and objectionable discharges from the Russa Distillery in the district of the 24-Parganas?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"(a) and (b) The reply is in the affirmative. The Sanitary Commissioner recently inspected the distillery and his proposals are now under consideration."

With reference to the answer to unstarred question No. IX of the 3rd July, 1918, will the Government be pleased to state whether they are at present considering the desirability of introducing the boy-scout movement in selected high schools?

Introduction of boy-scout movement in selected high schools.

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

" The chief difficulty in introducing the boy-scout movement into schools arises from the lack of trained scout-masters. A Governing Body entirely independent of Government has been constituted to guide and control the movement. The boy-scout movement at Home is inspired by the idea of spontaneity in which the value of individual effort and initiative is recognized and the idea of discipline to which the boy-scout voluntarily submits. State control clashes with these ideas, and Government, while anxious that the movement shall be encouraged under the competent guidance and control which now exist, are not prepared to take any active part in its expansion unless concrete proposals are made by the Governing Body. Government are now, in consultation with that body, considering how far it can assist in the training of scout-masters. At present two school troops have been formed in Calcutta in addition to troops drawn from territorial areas in the city."

(iii) the details of works executed by the district boards during the last three years out of the amounts of the public works cess surrendered to them?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

" (i) Copies of the Circular orders are laid on the Library table

(ii) A statement is laid on the table, but it is not possible to say what percentage of the public works cess receipts was spent on these works as district boards do not keep a separate account of expenditure out of these receipts.

9. The Subordinate Educational Service.

Is it a fact that on account of the stringency imposed by the War a number of posts in the higher grades of the Subordinate Educational Service have been abolished and replaced by the same number of posts in lower grades causing a depreciation in the average pay of the service and reduction in the number of promotions from lower grades? If so, how long do the Government intend to continue this arrangement?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"It is a fact that owing to the financial stringency caused by the war, appointments in the Subordinate Educational Service were not (until the middle of 1918) made strictly in accordance with the approved actuarial scale. The grading of the service is somewhat uneven, but the whole question will be looked into in connection with the reorganisation of the Subordinate Service."

By the Hon'ble Babu Brojendra Kishor Ray Chaudhuri:—

The Subordinate Educational Service.

Is it a fact that the average age of officers in clauses I to IV of the Subordinate Educational Service is at present much lower than what it was before the partition of Bengal owing to the first appointment of young men (mostly lecturers and demonstrators) in the higher grades, and the number of retiring officers in the higher grades, in proportion to the total strength of the service, becoming gradually less and less, and that as a result of this the promotion of officers in the lower grades remains blocked for a long time?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"As entries of age in the Subordinate Educational Service list were not made till 1915 it is not possible to state whether the average age is now much lower than what it was before the partition, but it is true that first appointments of young men to higher grades have been made in many cases. This is due to the fact that it has been necessary to recruit men with adequate qualifications from outside the grades to fill the posts of lecturers in colleges owing to extended affiliation. The whole question of grading and promotion will be looked into when the service is reorganised."

Improvement of the staff and increase of pay of teachers in Government High Schools.

Are the Government aware that there is a widespread feeling of discontent among the teachers of Government high schools on account of the delay in the utilization of the grant of Rs 3,09,876 for improving the staff and increasing the pay of teachers of Government high schools, and particularly for the deflection of nearly two years' grant for other purposes?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"The reply to the first part of the question is in the affirmative. There was no deflection of the amount earmarked for improving the staff and increasing the pay of Government high school teachers."

By the Hon'ble Babu Brojendra Kishor Ray Chaudhuri:—

12.

Reorganisation of the Subordinate and Lower Subordinate Educational Service.

(a) Will the Government be pleased to state what progress, if any, has been made towards the reorganization of the Subordinate Educational Service and Lower Subordinate Educational Service, about which assurances were given by Sir S. P Sinha (now Lord Sinha), in the Bengal Council of the 20th November, 1917?

Questions and Answers.

(b) Is it a fact that a large number of officers in the Lower Subordinate Educational Service, and also outside the graded service, have submitted petitions for the increment of their pay and improvement of their prospects? If so, will the Government be pleased to state what action has been taken thereon? Can these officers expect any relief before the coming Pujas?

(c) Are the Government considering the desirability of granting bonuses to low-paid educational officers from the unutilized amount of the Rs. 9 lakhs Imperial grant for two years?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

" (a) As explained by Lord Sinha in the speech referred to, the pay and grades of the Subordinate Educational Service and Lower Subordinate Educational Service cannot be fixed until the pay of the Provincial Educational Service and the grades thereof are fixed The question of the reorganisation of the higher services of the Education Department is now under the consideration of the Secretary of State in connection with the recommendations of the Public Services Commission. Till orders on this question are passed no scheme for the improvement of the Subordinate Educational Service and Lower Subordinate Educational Service can be elaborated.

(b) Petitions from the clerks in the office of the Librarian, Bengal Library, and in that of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, praying for the grant of increments or allowances in view of the high prices at present prevailing, were submitted to Government. In view of the recent orders of Government passed by the Financial Department sanctioning war allowance to officers of Government drawing salaries of over Rs. 12 but not more than Rs. 50, no further concession is at present practicable."

By the Hon'ble Babu Brojendra Kishor Ray Chaudhuri:—

13. With reference to the following extract from the West Quinquennial Report on education in India, namely :—

> " Except for the grant of local allowances to Head Masters and Head Mistresses and to Assistant Head Masters and Assistant Head Mistresses mentioned in paragraph 21 above, the quinquennium has seen no improvement in the lot of the teachers in Government schools. A revised scheme for the improvement of secondary education in the Presidency of Bengal was submitted to the Government of India in August, 1916. This was merely an amalgamation and adaptation of the proposals which were submitted in 1908 to the Government of India at their request by the Government of Bengal and the Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam."

Will the Government be pleased to lay on the table the papers containing the " proposals " referred to above, and to state how far they have materialized?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

" Government regret they are unable to lay on the table the papers containing their latest proposals for the improvement of pay and prospects of secondary school teachers as the receipt of the Government of India's sanction is still awaited. This Government have asked that sanction should be given to these proposals with effect from the 1st April, 1919."

Admission of students into the Calcutta Medical College

(a) Will the Government be pleased to state—

(1) how many students applied for admission into the Calcutta Medical College this year and how many of them have been actually admitted?

(2) among the applicants admitted and those rejected how many were—

(i) B.Sc.'s with Honours;

(ii) B.Sc.'s;

(iii) I.Sc.'s, 1st Division;

(iv) I.Sc.'s, 2nd Division,

(v) I.Sc.'s, 3rd Division; and (vi) I.A.'s?

(b) Is it a fact that a notice was hung up at the Calcutta Medical College this year that students appearing at the I.Sc. Examination held in 1919 would not be admitted and a post-card notice was actually issued to this effect to applicants who had appeared at the I.Sc. Examination, 1919?

(c) Is it a fact that notwithstanding such notice many of the applicants who have passed the I.Sc. Examination, even in the 3rd Division, have been admitted?

(d) Is it a fact that students of very inferior merit have been preferred to those possessing far superior educational qualifications?

(e) Is there any principle on which the selection of applicants for admission into the Medical College is based?

(f) What weight is given to educational qualifications?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Payne:—

"(a)—

	Applied	Admitted
(i)	947	145
(ii)	Admitted	Rejected.
(i)	14	12

(At the time of selection no Honours list was available).

(ii)	38	58
(iii)	75	204
(iv)	17	166
(v)	1	19

(vi) I.A.'s, B.A.'s and I.Sc.'s of other provinces are not eligible for admission. Their number was 156.

(b) No. Such candidates were informed, as a matter of courtesy, that they had little chance of admission this session, as the results of the I.Sc. examination were not expected to be published before the first week of July.

(c) No. Only one candidate in the third division, who had passed with the triple combination of Physics, Chemistry and Botany was admitted.

(d), (e) and (f) The Hon'ble Member is referred to the statement which will be made in reply to the resolution dealing with the same subject to be moved by the Hon'ble Babu Bhabendra Chandra Ray."

Questions and Answers.

(b) Is it the case that the Director of Civil Supplies has practically no function to discharge, even as an agent of the Food-stuffs Commissioner, in regard to the export of rice from Bengal?

(c) If not, what are his duties and powers in this behalf?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. McAlpin:—

"(a) The Director of Civil Supplies, Bengal, is under the direct orders of the Foodstuffs Commissioner in all that concerns (1) the working of the system for the control of the inter-provincial movements of foodstuffs and (2) the licensing of imports of rice from Burma, its wholesale prices in Calcutta, and its distribution among the various provinces. He is responsible to the Local Government as regards the control of movements of foodstuffs and other commodities within the province.

(b) and (c) It is not the case. His general duties as agent of the Foodstuffs Commissioner for the control over the export of rice from Bengal are—

(1) to hold up certificates issued by the Director of Civil Supplies of any other province for quantities of rice in excess of the allotment made to that province;

(2) to inform other Directors from what districts it is advisable or otherwise for them to draw supplies and watch that excessive demands are not concentrated upon any particular district at any one time;

(3) to collect statistics as to the movements of rice within and from the province and investigate any cases in which it appears that uncertificated export has taken place; and

(4) to watch the general position and report to the Foodstuffs Commissioner when any new restriction on export appears necessary.

On behalf of this Government—

(a) to take steps to prevent competitive purchase by certificate-holders;

(b) to discourage movements of rice within the province which appear to be intended to facilitate export to other provinces and which threaten to result in denuding particular areas; and

(c) to watch the position on behalf of the Local Government and to keep the Local Government fully informed regarding the situation."

By the Hon'ble Babu Bhabendra Chandra Ray:—

20.

With reference to the statement made in answer to my unstarred question No. 46 (a) of the 3rd July last, to the effect that exports are controlled by the Food stuffs Commissioner, will the Government be pleased to state—

(i) what local agency, if any, is there in Bengal through which the Commissioner exercises such control,

(ii) on what advice, if at all, of the Local Government or other authorities is such control exercised,

(iii) the exact nature of such control, and

(iv) the practical effect of the same during the period of the last six months in Bengal?

Questions and Answers.

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. McAlpin:—

" (i) Exports by rail to other provinces are controlled by the Foodstuffs Commissioner through the Director of Civil Supplies [vide the reply to the Hon'ble Member's question No. 19 (c)]. Exports by sea to other provinces or to foreign countries are, it is understood, controlled through the Collector of Customs.

(ii) and (iii) The Hon'ble Member is referred to the replies to his questions No. 18 and No. 19 (c).

(iv) The practical effect of the control has been to restrict exports materially and to steady prices within the province."

By the Hon'ble Babu Bhabendra Chandra Ray:—

21.

(a) What are the formalities which an exporter in Bengal has to observe before he can be allowed to actually export rice either to any foreign country, or to any province in India?

(b) At what stage, if at all, are the Local Government or any other local authority consulted before such export is permitted?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. McAlpin:—

" (a) As regards export by sea, it is understood that no person is allowed to export unless he obtains a license from the Collector of Customs.

As regards the export by rail of Bengal rice or uncontrolled Burma rice, his proper course is to arrange with some person in a province to which an allotment of rice has been made by the Foodstuffs Commissioner to obtain a priority certificate in which his name is entered as the consignor.

(b) This Government do not intervene at any stage in such cases. The Director of Civil Supplies is in a position to express an opinion when certificates issued by other Directors are received by him for countersignature."

By the Hon'ble Babu Bhabendra Chandra Ray:—

22.

(a) In the matter of inter-provincial movement of rice, what precise functions has the local Director of Civil Supplies to perform in regard to a priority certificate granted by an importing province?

(b) Has such certificate to be countersigned by the local Director?

(c) If so, is such countersignature given as a matter of course? If not, in what manner, and to what extent, is the local Director permitted to vary the certificate; and upon what considerations and facts generally is such variation made?

(d) On how many occasions and to what extent on each such occasion has the local Director exercised his powers of such variation, if any?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. McAlpin:—

" (a) and (b) The countersignature of the Director of Civil Supplies, Bengal is required to every such certificate issued by the Director of Civil Supplies in any other province.

(c) No; countersignature is not given as a matter of course. Certificates have never been altered by the Director of Civil Supplies in order to facilitate countersignature which would otherwise be refused: they are sometimes altered for other reasons at the request of, or by agreement with, the issuing

23.

(a) Is the carrying capacity of the railways taken into consideration before exports of rice are permitted?

(b) Is it a fact that, within the province of Bengal, rice has remained accumulated at certain railway stations in large quantities for a considerable time, for want of adequate facilities of transport, and has thus been wasted to a great extent?

(c) Have the Government received any reports to this effect from any quarter at any time?

(d) If not, are the Government considering the desirability of making inquiries from all railway stations regarding this matter?

(e) Is there any truth in the statement that export has often been allowed under military permits for really non-military purposes and to destinations without any military stations.

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. McAlpin:—

"(a) It is understood that the Foodstuffs Commissioner takes the carrying capacity of railways into account when he fixes the monthly allotment of rice to be exported from this province.

(b) It is a fact that rice has accumulated at certain stations as suggested for want of adequate facilities for uncontrolled transport; the whole of it could have been moved with ease under control if it had been considered advisable to allow certain areas to be drained of their stocks of rice by speculators. The risk that some of it might be spoilt was deliberately accepted.

(c) Yes.

(d) No.

(e) Government are aware that such allegations have been made; but are not in a position to state whether they are correct."

24.

(a) Who are the licensed importers of Burma rice in Bengal?

(b) Is it a fact that only nominees of the district officers are permitted to import Burma rice from Calcutta and Chittagong into the mufassal?

(c) If so, will the Government be pleased to publish the names of all such nominees?

(d) How can such nomination be secured?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. McAlpin:—

"(a) The Bengal Government are not prepared to publish the names of the licensed importers.

(b) Uncontrolled Burma rice may be moved freely from Calcutta and Chittagong into districts in Bengal. Controlled Burma rice from Calcutta can only be obtained by nominees of district officers

Questions and Answers.

(c) Government are not prepared to publish the names of such nominees: they are of interest only in the districts concerned where the information is readily available to persons interested.

(d) Persons desiring nomination should apply to the local district or sub-divisional officer stating the amount required, and the general arrangements which they propose to make: they must be prepared to give adequate guarantees that they will sell at a price fixed by the district officer."

By the Hon'ble Babu Bhabendra Chandra Ray:—

26.

Will the Government be pleased to make a statement showing how the recent census of rice-stock in Bengal was carried out, together with the results thereof? Census of rice-stock in Bengal.

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. McAlpin:—

"A copy of the instructions of Government contained in their circular No. 1-T. R. of the 28th May, 1919, is laid on the table. The general result is that there need be little apprehension of any deficiency of stocks of rice in Bengal."

By the Hon'ble Babu Bhabendra Chandra Ray:—

27.

(a) With reference to the statement in a recent Press Communiqué denying that rice exported to foreign countries is utilized for non-food purposes, such as wine and starch, will the Government be pleased to state upon what materials has the said statement been made, so far as the case of export to Europe is concerned? Alleged export of rice for non-food purposes.

(b) Are the Government aware of the statement made in Mr. K. L. Dutt's report on the prices inquiry, that distillation and manufacture of starch are among the uses to which rice exported to Europe is put?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. McAlpin:—

"(a) The facts were verified by a reference to the Director of Statistics.

(b) Yes. The statement in Mr. K. L. Dutt's report, which refers to normal pre-war days and not to the present abnormal situation, runs as follows:—

> 'A considerable portion of the surplus of India, as a whole, is usually exported to Europe, where it is used for food and for the manufacture of spirits and starch, and has to compete with rice of other countries and with a number of other grains, namely, oats, rye and maize, and even with beet and potatoes'."

Establishment of a waterways division for the Eastern Bengal areas.

(a) Are the Government considering the desirability of establishing a waterways division for the Eastern Bengal areas, making Dacca the head-quarters?

(b) If that is not immediately possible, are the Government considering the desirability of posting at least a Sub-Engineer at Dacca to continue the work of the improvement of rivers and khals, commenced by Rai S. N. Banerjee Bahadur

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Cowley:—

"(a) and (b) The question has already been receiving the attention of the Local Government. Should any of the projects investigated by Rai Sailendra Nath Banerjee Bahadur mature, then the execution of the same will be entrusted either to the existing permanent staff of the Public Works Department or, should it be found necessary, to the staff of a special division created for the purpose. The maintenance of such projects will, it is hoped, form the nucleus of a permanent waterways division. In the circumstances the desirability of posting a Sub-Engineer, as is suggested, does not arise."

30.

Enhancement of the parcel rates of the India General Navigation and River Steam Navigation Companies.

(a) Are the Government aware that of late the Steamer Companies viz., India General Steam Navigation and River Steam-Navigation, have greatly enhanced the parcel rates over their portion of the journey and that in consequence the charge between Calcutta and Dacca is Rs 3-5 now in place of Rs. 2 formerly?

(b) Are the Government considering the desirability of taking such steps as may be necessary to relieve the hardships caused by the rise in rates?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Cowley:—

"(a) The subjoined table compares the rates at present in force as compared with the previous rates:—

Trouble caused to the public by the constant closing to traffic of the level crossing on the Nawabpur road Dacca.

(a) Are the Government aware that the people at Dacca are put to great inconvenience by the level crossing on the Nawabpur road being constantly closed due to shunting and passing of trains?

(b) Are the Government considering the desirability of removing this inconvenience either by constructing an overbridge or by any other way that the Government may think fit and proper?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Cowley:—

"(a) It is recognised that road traffic must be inconvenienced to some extent by the level crossing on the Nawabpur Road at Dacca and it has been ascertained that the Eastern Bengal Railway authorities are considering schemes for substituting an overbridge crossing.

(b) The site and design of an overbridge must, however, necessarily depend on the design adopted for the general remodelling of the station yard which the Railway authorities also have under consideration."

32.

Inadequacy of the waiting-room for female passengers at Dacca railway station.

(a) Are the Government aware—

(i) that the waiting-room for females of the third and intermediate class passengers at the Dacca railway station is very small;

(ii) that the female passengers are put to great inconvenience for want of proper accommodation and often are obliged to remain outside the room exposing themselves to the inclemency of the weather?

(b) Are the Government considering the desirability of remedying this evil either by constructing two separate rooms or by extending the existing one?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Cowley:—

"(a) It is understood that the Eastern Bengal Railway authorities recognise that the present waiting-room accommodation provided for intermediate and third class female passengers in Dacca railway station is insufficient.

(b) A proposal is under consideration to convert the existing third class female waiting-room into a room for intermediate class female passengers and to construct a new room having double the accommodation for the use of third class females."

Removal of the Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt to Chetla.

(a) Will the Government be pleased to state whether it has been definitely settled to remove the Bengal Secretariat Press from its present situation in Writers' Buildings?

Questions and Answers.

(b) If so, will the Government be pleased to state whether it is in contemplation to remove the Bengal Secretariat Book Depôt to Chetla along with the press?

(c) If the answer be in the affirmative, have the Government considered the serious inconvenience likely to be caused to the public by the removal of the Book Depôt from the heart of the metropolis to an out-of the-way place in a suburb?

(d) Are the Government aware of the adverse effect on the cash sale of Government publications on account of such removal?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Payne:—

"(a) Yes.

(b) Yes

(c) and (d) It is not anticipated that any serious inconvenience will be caused to the public by the removal of the Book Depôt to Chetla. The cash sales amount on an average to Rs. 72 per day, and the average number of purchasers is about 17 a day. Government will, however, consider whether some arrangement is feasible under which no ground of complaint will be given."

Sale of certain publications of the Education Department.

(a) Will the Government be pleased to state when the "Rules and Orders of the Bengal Education Department" will be available for sale to the public?

(b) Will the Government be pleased to state why the Annual Reports of the following institutions, printed at the Bengal Secretariat Press, are not available for sale to the public: -

(1) Hastings School, Alipore,
(2) Medical College, Calcutta,
(3) Presidency College and the attached schools, Calcutta,
(4) Bethune College, Calcutta,
(5) Sanskrit College, Calcutta, and
(6) Hooghly College, Hooghly.

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"(a) The 'rules and orders' will be available for sale to the public by the end of this month

(b) A limited number of copies of these reports have hitherto been printed partly because there is no demand for them and party from motives of economy. In future a sufficient number will be printed and some copies will be kept in the Book Depôt for sale."

Practice of laying statements on the library table of the Bengal Legislative Council.

(a) Are the Government aware of the fact that the complete answers containing statements to unstarred questions, Nos. 35, 36 and 37, asked at the last meeting of the Council have not as yet been supplied to the questioner in spite of several reminders duly sent on the subject?

(b) If so, will the Government be pleased to state what steps they are taking in the matter?

Questions and Answers.

(c) Are the Government considering the advisability of—

(i) laying such statements on the Council table in future and not placing them on the library table,

(ii) publishing them in the Proceedings of the Council and

(iii) furnishing a printed or typed copy of the complete answer to an unstarred question, containing the statements, to the questioner on the very day of the Council meeting in accordance with the Council Rules?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Kerr:—

(a) and (b) The Hon'ble Member was supplied with copies of these statements on the 30th July, 1919 The reason for the delay was that the statements were very lengthy and took some time in printing

(c) (i), (ii) and (iii) In view of the extra expense involved in printing lengthy and voluminous statements, it has been the settled practice of the Council for some time past ordinarily to lay on the table, and to print in the Proceedings of the Council, only such statements as are of reasonable length.

When the answer to a question refers to lengthy reports or communiqués which have already been published in some form or other, the Hon'ble Member is usually furnished with a copy thereof, and copies are also placed on the library table and in the Press Room in Writers' Buildings.

In the case of lengthy reports, which are only of interest to a limited number of persons, the practice is to show the Hon'ble Member concerned the statement in original, and to place a copy on the library table This was done in the present case on the day of the Council meeting.

There is precedent in other Councils for the practice set out above, and His Excellency the President sees no reason for making a change "

(f) With reference to the recent Press Communiqué on the subject of such alleged deaths, will the Government be pleased to lay on the table all papers regarding the inquiries made in each individual case?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. McAlpin:—

" (a) and (b) It is not possible to give the information required by the Hon'ble Member in the manner asked for by him. The following information is placed before the Council regarding certain of the cases noticed by Government in the press :—

(1) RANGPUR DISTRICT—Alleged death by suicide on account of starvation of one Okimon Mai, wife of one Barika Sheikh of Hitampur, police-station Mithapukur.—Barika Sheikh is a labourer. On the 14th June 1919 he brought home a jack fruit and gave it to his wife to serve him with at the time of breaking his roja. The fruit was carried away by a jackal. On account of this her husband, who it appears, was unkind to her, abused her. She took the abuse to heart and committed suicide by hanging herself with a rope.

(2) BAKARGANJ DISTRICT—(i) Alleged suicide from hunger by one Anaraddi of Salia, police-station Banaripara.—This man committed suicide to escape disgrace and a criminal prosecution for misappropriating the proceeds obtained from the sale of a bullock.

(ii) Alleged death from starvation of a son of one Mafezuddi of Dosatina, police-station Jhalakati.—This child, aged 4 years, died of fever attended with diarrhœa.

(iii) Alleged death by suicide by hanging of a Moslem couple of Darpara owing to hunger.—No one in the village has committed suicide for many months past. The panchayat of the village denies the allegation in toto.

(3) DACCA DISTRICT—Alleged death from starvation of one Lal Mohan Rishi, of Pangaon, at Wari, Dacca.—The man was a beggar. It is reported that he died of diarrhœa contracted through eating jack fruit.

(4) MYMENSINGH DISTRICT—Alleged deaths from starvation in Astagram.—Four such deaths were reported by chaukidars. The subdivisional officer of Kishoreganj made personal inquiries and found that three died from fever and the fourth from small-pox.

(5) BIRBHUM DISTRICT—Alleged deaths from starvation.—Inquiries have been made throughout the district, and so far as can be ascertained there have been no deaths from starvation in the district.

(6) NADIA DISTRICT—(i) Alleged death from starvation of one Bidhu Muchini of village Ghurni.—She was an old leper, aged about 60 years. She had been suffering for several years past She died of leprosy. It is reported that her death could not be due to starvation as she was the recipient of public charity till the end

(a) Is it a fact that a security of Rs. 2,000 has been demanded under the Press Act by the District Magistrate of Dacca from the present printer and publisher of the East newspaper and keeper of the East Bengal Press where the said newspaper is printed? Demand of security from the newspaper, the East.

(b) If so, will the Government be pleased to state the circumstances in which the above demand has been made?

(c) When was the East established, what is the present number of its subscribers, what is approximately the value of the assets of the paper and the printing press, and were these particulars taken into consideration before the aforesaid order was made? Were the conductors heard by the District Magistrate before he issued the said order?

(d) Has any application been made to the authorities against the said order; if so, with what result?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Kerr:

" (a) and (b) The paper has recently changed hands, and it consequently became necessary for the new keeper of the press and the new publisher to make declarations under sections 4 and 5 of the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867. The keeper of the press and the publisher thereupon became liable to deposit security under sections 3 (1) and 8 (1) of the Indian Press Act, 1910, and the District Magistrate of Dacca, seeing no reason for exemption, fixed the amount at Rs 1,000 in the case of each.

(c) The date of the establishment of the paper is not known, but it was before the passing of the Press Act. It is reported that there are at present 62 subscribers. The District Magistrate, before passing orders granted an interview to the person chiefly associated with the new management of the paper. No information is available regarding the other particulars mentioned in the question.

Steamers running without lights at night on certain routes.

(a) Are the Government aware that the steamers of the following lines are often run in the night without proper lights in the rooms allotted to the different classes of passengers, namely: -

(i) the line of steamers running from Dacca to Manikganj and from there to Elashin; and

(ii) the line of steamers running from Tarpasa to Madaripur and from there in various directions, including Barisal.

(b) Are the Government considering the desirability of holding an inquiry into the matter and, if necessary, of issuing instructions to the Steamer Company to make the necessary improvement?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Cowley:—

" (a) Only sufficient deck lights are provided for passengers to see their way about the after-decks, companion ways and alley ways. Passengers occupying cabins are entitled to a light and any failure to provide such a light would be taken up at once, if reported to any of the Companies' officers. While vessels are under-way no lights are allowed on the forward-deck as this would be prejudicial to safe navigation.

Prosecution of two employes of the Indian Station Hospital at Alipore.

(b) If so, will the Government be pleased to state the facts and circumstances of the case?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Kerr:—

"(a) and (b) The two persons referred to were arrested in Bow Bazar Street at midnight on the 4th March on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, and quarrelling with a woman of the town They were released on their own recognisances and were eventually acquitted by the Magistrate. They subsequently represented that they had gone to the Mochipara police section to telephone for an ambulance to remove a cholera case, and that they had been abused and ill-treated by the sub-inspector and compelled by threats to sign a blank paper. An article relating to the case also appeared in a vernacular newspaper, in which it was alleged that the sub-inspector was in the habit of drinking An inquiry has been held by the Deputy Commissioner of Police in charge of the South District, who found that there was no reason to believe that the sub-inspector was drunk, and that the evidence regarding ill-treatment was discrepant and unreliable. He thought it was probable that one or both of the men was under the influence of liquor, but that the arrest was unnecessary as they were not incapable of taking care of themselves The Deputy Commissioner also found that one of the two men had actually used the telephone before his arrest. The sub-inspector has been censured for making an unnecessary arrest in a petty case and for having submitted an inaccurate report regarding the arrest."

What special precautions, and special steps for extending medical relief, have been or are contemplated to be taken in rural areas in view of the recrudescence of influenza?

"The Government of India have recently addressed the Local Government on the subject of preparing to cope as far as possible with this disease, should there be any recrudescence of the epidemic upon a large scale this year The following precautionary measures have been taken :—

(1) A communiqué has been published in the press, regarding nasal douching as a personal prophylactic.

(2) Civil Surgeons have been requested to furnish prompt information of any outbreak.

(3) A memorandum suggesting preventive measures against the disease has been sent to all local bodies, who have also been asked to take immediate steps to organise a plan of campaign.

(g) Will the Government be pleased to state whether this year and last year many combinations have been abolished, in spite of the fact that there has been no reduction in the staff of Professors on those subjects?

(h) If so, will the Government be pleased to state the reasons for their abolition?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

" (a) The maximum number of students admitted to the first year class in the time of Mr. Archbold was 233 This was in 1917, which was an exceptional year. In the previous year only 204 were admitted and in 1914 only 202

(b) and (c) The numbers admitted in 1918 and 1919 were 196 and 191, respectively.

(d) and (e) There has been no reduction in staff.

(f) By the abolition of the Arts courses with Chemistry the first year class has fallen into two distinct divisions of Arts and Science students The latter all study Physics, for which there is laboratory accommodation for only 60 students The maximum number of students in the first year class has, therefore, been fixed at 180, 100 reading for the Intermediate Examination in Arts and 80 reading for the Intermediate Examination in Science

(g) In 1918 certain courses were removed from the list of those admissible to students at Dacca College

(h) On general educational grounds it was considered by the Principal, with the advice of the staff, to be inexpedient to allow students who had no interest in Science to take up Chemistry for the Intermediate Examination without any other Science subject and with the sole object of securing a higher aggregate of marks in the Examination. The discontinuance of the courses has also had the very desirable effect of simplifying the time-table and thus reducing the time spent in the College by students in waiting between lectures.

In regard to the question of the spread of education among women, will the Government be pleased to state whether any attempt was made to recruit female teachers for girls and women from the orthodox Hindu community? If so, when were these steps taken, and with what result?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

" In 1908 a training school for Hindu widows was started in Calcutta. Sixteen stipends of Rs. 10 each are awarded annually at this school and there is a proposal for increasing the number. Orthodox Hindus were at first very reluctant to enter this school, but it is reported that this reluctance is rapidly disappearing. There is also a training class attached to the Eden High School for girls, which is at present attended by 6 students of the orthodox Hindu community. Since 1910, 19 orthodox Hindu teachers have passed out of this class and 15 others had partial training. The difficulty has been that such orthodox Hindu teachers as come for training are generally not qualified for admission into the class If young enough they are admitted into high school classes until they have reached the requisite standard for training

(b) How many first-aid classes are there in the high schools of the Presidency?

Answer by the Hon'ble Mr. Goode:—

"(a) The Government of India have been addressed for the creation of a post of Deputy Sanitary Commissioner as an experimental measure for five years to inspect school buildings and hostels from the sanitary and hygienic point of view. He will also be in charge of the medical inspection of school children, make special studies of the diseases to which children are particularly liable and suggest suitable measures for their prevention.

The Calcutta Cruelty to Animals Bill, 1919.

Sir Henry Wheeler.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 3.

THE CALCUTTA CRUELTY TO ANIMALS BILL, 1919.

The Hon'ble Sir Henry Wheeler moved for leave to introduce a Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to cruelty to animals in Calcutta.

He said :—

"My Lord, the object of this Bill will probably command the approval of all of us and I, therefore, merely propose to indicate briefly how it was that this legislation has come to be undertaken, and to draw attention to the more important changes which the measure will effect.

Legislation on the subject of cruelty to animals is, of course, not a new thing. In fact, it is of sufficient age to have got into somewhat of a tangle, and at the present moment in Bengal the matter is regulated by five Acts, three of the Bengal Council and two of the Government of India Council, the oldest of which dates back to 1869. In consequence, there is a certain amount of over-lapping, there is the difficulty of reference to more than one measure, and there are possible difficulties of interpretation owing to the different wordings of the different Acts. That reason alone would have justified us in attempting the consolidation which the present Bill seeks to achieve, but it was not wholly or, in fact, primarily, on that account that this legislation was initiated. Its origin is to be sought about the year 1915, and it will be seen, therefore, that it has taken some time to elaborate it. About 1915 various remarks in reports, etc., gave rise to the impression that the administration of the Acts possibly left something to be desired, and that the effective control of cruelty might perhaps be improved. The Government of that date remitted the consideration of the matter to a small conference, over which the Hon'ble Mr. Justice Beacheroft presided, and on which there were several gentlemen interested in the subject, among them, I think, the Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq. That conference held various meetings, and submitted a report, which dealt with some matters of administration, with which we are not now concerned, but also contained some definite recommendations for the amendment of the law. The principal of these were as follows. The committee thought that the law might be made more effective on the subject of overloading—the driving of animals with excessive loads—and they contemplated a system of weigh-bridge stations at various places to which carts could be taken, if suspected to be overloaded, and weighed ; in the event of the load proving to be excessive it was suggested that the excess burden should be taken off the cart and kept until the owner came and took it away. The justification of the proposal is obvious ; it is no relief to a wretched weary animal to send it along the rest of its journey with an excessive load.

Another recommendation had reference to the working of unfit animals, and the appointment was proposed of veterinary inspectors with power to send such animals to an infirmary to be detained there until the veterinary officer in charge was satisfied that the animal was fit to be discharged. For this, I think, the justification is equally clear ; if an animal is to derive any good from being sent to an infirmary, it should be detained there until it is cured.

In the next proposal it was sought to make the liability of owners and contractors wider in respect of the driving of unfit animals and the working of overloaded animals, the implication being that these were the people who were, in fact, deriving pecuniary benefit from the act of cruelty.

Lastly, they desired to see the law on the subject of the objectionable practice of phuka made more stringent.

The Calcutta Cruelty to Animals Bill, 1919.

Sir Henry Wheeler.

These were their proposals, and after they had been discussed with the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and various other authorities a Bill was drawn up. That Bill was again referred to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, to the Calcutta Corporation and to the European Association, which had taken an interest in the subject, and after their replies had been received and considered, the Bill was put into final form and ultimately went through the different stages of sanction by the Government of India and reference to the Secretary of State prior to its introduction to-day. That, Sir, is the history of the measure and although I have already mentioned its principal clauses I will run shortly through the detailed clauses themselves drawing attention to one or two points of interest.

In the first place, the Act will only apply immediately to Calcutta, although, hereafter, if need be, it may be extended to other areas.

In clause 5 which defines various kinds of cruelty, we propose two small changes, viz., to make it an offence to keep an animal in a position involving unnecessary pain or suffering, and, again, to declare the infliction of the suffering of thirst to be a form of cruelty.

Clause 6, as regards overloading, and clause 11, as regards the working of unfit animals, deal with the matter to which I have already referred, viz., the extended liability of traders, carriers and contractors, or those employed by them, for acts of cruelty done to animals belonging to them or in their use.

Clause 7 deals with the phuka process.

Then we come to a series of clauses—14, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21, in particular—which have reference to the system of weigh-bridges which I have outlined, and the taking of over-loaded carts to them; also the unloading of excess loads and the keeping of them at the weigh-bridge station until the owners remove them; while, incidentally, provision is made for the power to dispose of excess loads as unclaimed property under certain conditions. Clause 25 has reference to infirmaries and allows an animal to be kept there until it is declared fit for work.

Clause 26 is of importance, and gives power to direct the destruction of animals whose sufferings are so great as to justify that step, or if unfit for work owing to old age or incurable disease, while sub-clause (3) gives power to a police officer to kill an injured or a diseased animal on a certificate of a veterinary inspector. That follows an English statute, and it is a power which is both merciful and humane.

In clause 30 we have the usual rule making authority conferred, and in clause 31 a power of delegation is given to any person or local authority. Incidental to that, in clause 36, the right is given to local authorities of expending their funds on matters connected with the administration of the Act.

These, Sir, are the main clauses of the Bill, and I think the justification for most of them is fairly clear on their face. The Bill I now seek permission to introduce will be circulated in the ordinary course, and we hope to get in opinions at the beginning of the cold weather when it will be referred to a Select Committee.

The motion was put and agreed to.

RESOLUTIONS

(under the rules for the discussion of matters of general public interest).

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 4.

The Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a qualified Indian be appointed as the Director of Agriculture for Bengal at an early opportunity.

He said :—

"My Lord, I have carefully gone through the resolution No. 631 T.—R., dated the 7th June, 1919, by Your Excellency's Government on the subject of 'certain aspects of the Organization and Policy of the Agricultural Department in Bengal', as published in the Calcutta Gazette, dated the 11th June last. I was present at the University Institute, Calcutta, on the 28th March, 1919, when Mr. G. S. Dutt, I.C.S., Collector of the District of Birbhum, delivered an instructive lecture based on practical experience on the subject of a 'Practical Scheme of Agricultural Organization and Rural Reconstruction in Bengal'. The object of my moving this resolution is for the successful administration of the Agricultural Department. The question as to the selection of the proper man to fill up the post of the Director of Agriculture for Bengal, therefore, requires a very careful consideration of Your Excellency's Council. It has been rightly held by some eminent members of the Royal Commission on the Public Services in India that 'Agricultural education in India cannot reach the highest stage of development until Indian agriculture has been thoroughly studied and surveyed by competent scientific experts'. As the Indian Civil Service does not connote any special training in Indian agriculture, a very large majority of the members of this service, excepting in the case of one or two Indians, are not trained experts in agriculture; but it is a matter of surprise that the Directorship of Agriculture was for a long time reserved for the European members of the Indian Civil Service. It is, however, a matter of satisfaction to note that the Indian Civil Service supplied a most useful body of public servants. The Indian Civil Service was mainly organized to supply higher officers in the executive and judicial departments of the State and the schedule to the Statute of 1861 clearly indicates the classes of posts to be specially reserved for the Indian Civil Service. It was in 1866, that is to say, just after the conclusion of the labours in connection with the Bengal and Orissa Famine Commission, that the policy of having a special department to watch over the interests of agriculture was first mooted. In 1870 Lord Mayo took up this matter chiefly in relation to the improvement of the supply of cotton from India and in 1871 the first Agricultural Department was created. In Lord Mayo's opinion the work of the new department was 'to take cognizance of all matters affecting the practical improvement and development of the agricultural resources of the country'.

The Provincial Government that took early steps in the matter and rendered valuable assistance to the raiyats was that of the North-Western Provinces, where in 1875, Sir John Strachey, the then Lieutenant-Governor, strongly advocated the utilization of Court of Wards' Estates and Government khas mahals for purposes of investigatoin and the employment of them as 'Model Farms', and for finding out the real condition of the cultivating classes. His Honour took a keen personal interest in redressing the grievances of the raiyats and succeeded in improving their financial position and made them happier during his successful administration of the province. Under His Honour's careful supervision, the Director of Agriculture made local investigations in every district, personally collected accurate information as to the liability of each district to famine, made thorough inquiry into agricultural practices of raiyats in the different districts of the province as a preliminary to agricultural improvement, and thus, in every way he made agriculture the business of his life, and he considered its practical improvement the chief duty of his office.

Resolutions.

Maulvi Abul Kasem.

The Department of Agriculture in a province like Bengal is one of the public services in which the unique advantages of employing indigenous agency, to the fullest possible extent, in preference to foreign elements, are now freely admitted. With the facilities for technical training at Pusa, it should be possible to meet all the requirements of the Department of Agriculture. The time has now come when Your Excellency's Government should carefully consider the question of appointing a qualified Indian as the Director of Agriculture for Bengal for the following amongst other reasons :—

The Director of Agriculture for Bengal will have to effect agricultural improvements in Indian soil, and, therefore, he must be a man who has devoted the best portion of his life to learn Indian, and not English agriculture, and this can never be taught at an institution like Cirencester, Dowton or elsewhere. Merely going through an agricultural course of training, such as is provided at any of the institutions referred to above, with practical experience for a year or so in a European farm, does not constitute a man a practical agriculturist suitable for Bengal. Again, there are further difficulties regarding language as spoken by the raiyats and also in the matter of furlough and the consequent changes in tenure of the Director's office.

The arguments hitherto advanced in favour of the employment of European experts for the scientific development of Indian agriculture are not convincing and the experiment has conspicuously failed to meet the desired effect. He may have a knowledge of English agriculture which, if he desires to apply in the case of illiterate raiyats of Bengal, without carefully studying the existing practices and actual conditions of Indian agriculture in the various districts of the province, and also having regard to the market value of the agricultural produce and the economic condition of the raiyats, he will but repeat some of the gravest blunders which have made the people of Bengal doubt the possibility of improving Indian agriculture at all through European agency at the head of the administration where the Director's opinion is considered as the guiding principle of the Department.

With these few remarks, I move this resolution for the consideration of Your Excellency's Council."

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem said :—

"My Lord, I yield to none either in my anxiety or my desire to see my countrymen occupying places of trust and honour and responsibility under the Government and being an agriculturist myself I, at any rate, take a good deal of interest in the agriculture of the country, but I regret to say that I cannot agree with the Hon'ble Mover of this resolution that an Indian, a qualified Indian, be appointed as Director of Agriculture at an early date. My reasons are, in the first place, we, the Indians of the liberal school, have always claimed a place of honour as a matter of right on the grounds of equality and we have always pleaded that there should be no distinction of race or colour, class or creed, when the question of the appointment of Indians

Resolutions.

Mr. Cumming.

comes up, and it will be inconsistent on our part to demand that the question of race or colour should be one of the items of qualification for any post under the Government. This is a minor matter. The real question is that the Department of Agriculture forms one of the most important departments of Government. Agriculture is primarily the chief mainstay of the people, and it should be fostered, developed and improved as much as possible. I am afraid that at the present moment agricultural education is practically nil in this country. The education of my countrymen in that branch has not been sufficient enough to make us demand that an Indian be appointed as a Director of Agriculture. My friend has said that English experts with their experience of foreign lands, as for instance, England, come and try to introduce scientific agriculture into this country and have failed. I do not know what experiments were made, but this much I can say, that it is generally wondered how European and American agriculturists can produce a larger quantity of crops from an area of land than we can do. We believe this system of scientific training and scientific agriculture which is in practice and in vogue in other countries is being looked into, and we are anxiously waiting for the day when such systems will be introduced in this country. Our education on these lines has not been sufficient, and as a consequence we are faced with famine every year. Of course, there are other causes for famine and scarcity in this country than the growth of agriculture, but if we can introduce scientific agricultural methods and improve upon them, then we shall be able to a great extent to remove distress and make famines rare in spite of the disadvantages under which the country is suffering. I, therefore, think, my Lord, that the question of the appointment of the Director of Agriculture should be left entirely to experienced experts who would be able to introduce what has been termed a 'scientific system of agriculture' in this country. But at the same time I hope and trust that Your Excellency's Government will devote much greater attention to this department than has been done in the past."

The Hon'ble Mr. Cumming said :—

"Your Excellency, the Hon'ble mover has given a general account of the history of the Agricultural Department ; but I am sorry to say that in enunciating the principles which have governed our policy in that department, I do not think that he has stated them in their proper light, and indeed, much of what he has said in favour of his resolution is quite irrelevant to the immediate point at issue, viz., that an Indian should be appointed at an early date in place of a European. Now, what are the general principles which should apply to the appointment of a Director of Agriculture in any province, and in the second place, what are the considerations which exist with reference to the present incumbent in Bengal? As regards the general principles, the Secretary of State, about 13 years ago, in 1906, at the time when the Agricultural Department was in an inchoate state, laid down that members of the Indian Civil Service should be appointed for the initial organization of the department ; but the Secretary of State looked forward to the time when the agricultural service would be able, like other services, to provide its own chief. A year later, in 1911, the dictum that officers of the Agricultural Department should receive a full opportunity of proving their fitness for the post was enunciated by the Government of India, and this dictum was emphasized by the Local Government in 1916 when Mr. Milligan, a member of the Imperial Agricultural Department, who had special experience, both in the Punjab and at Pusa, apart from his personal qualifications, was appointed to the post of Director of Agriculture in Bengal. Finally, in the report of the Public Services Commission to which the Hon'ble Mover has alluded, published in 1916, it was further stated that the object to be kept steadily in view was to reduce to a minimum the number of experts appointed in England and to train indigenous talent so as to enable the department to depend on its own resources for the recruitment of the agricultural staff in the higher branches.

Resolutions.

Mr. Cumming.

Now, Sir, from what I have stated, two principles emerge: (1) that indigenous talent should be used to the utmost extent possible for the Imperial Agricultural Department, and (2) that that department should ultimately supply its own chief. The complete application of these two principles would obviously in time produce an Indian Director of Agriculture, which is the object which the Hon'ble Member himself has in view.

Now, as regards the particular circumstances relating to the appointment in Bengal, what are the facts? The facts are that Mr. Milligan, who, as I have said, was appointed first in 1916, after a series of officers of the Indian Civil Service, as Director, was compelled to take leave on account of ill health. At the time of the budget debate in April last I expressed the regret of Government that they were temporarily losing the services of this officer by reason of his ill health. Now, Mr. Milligan is still the permanent Director; and there is no intention at present of removing him from that post. It is hoped that he may return reinvigorated after a period of rest. I can scarcely think the Hon'ble Member desires that this officer should be ejected from the appointment. He has urged that European experts fail on account of their ignorance of the language, of the soil and of the conditions of agriculture in this country. I do not think that this attack can be made on the present incumbent. It is further alleged that the appointment of an expert has conspicuously failed. The other Hon'ble member who addressed the Council did not support him on that particular point, but I think I am justified in putting the following very brief statement before the Council in this connection. By the distribution of improved varieties of rice and jute, which are particularly due to the energies and administrative ability of Mr. Milligan, the province has already benefited to the extent of 40 lakhs of rupees owing to the improved value of the crops produced; and, if the present system which is in vogue is continued for a reasonably further period, it is anticipated that the net income of the cultivators of rice and jute in Bengal from this source alone will be increased by no less than 12 crores of rupees. Moreover, when it was suggested, or rather, when it was rumoured, that Mr. Milligan was likely to return from this province to the Imperial Department at Pusa, towards the end of 1917, several of the Indian non-official members of this Council inquired as to the truth of this rumour and as to the cause of Mr. Milligan's relinquishment of the post; and they at the same time expressed great disappointment at the prospect of losing an officer who had, in a short space of time, made himself fully acquainted with the agricultural needs of this Presidency. I put that fact against the allegation made by the Hon'ble member that the appointment of European experts has conspicuously failed. This view appeared in the shape of a resolution which was tabled for the meeting of the Council in January 1918 that measures be taken to place the services of this officer permanently at the disposal of this Government. The Hon'ble Mover who desired to move that resolution did not, however, proceed with it, as he said there was a difference of opinion on the subject. I take it that the difference of opinion is that which is represented to-day by the views of the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem and the Hon'ble mover. In the Budget debate of April last it will be remembered that I said that Mr. Milligan's appointment had been hailed with acclamation when it was made, and that I had heard golden opinions about his work from many quarters. I am in a position to say that the Agricultural Department in this Presidency has taken a large step forward within the last two years; and this is in a high degree due to the technical advice and administrative ability of the present permanent incumbent. These are the facts

Resolutions.

Rai M. C. Mitra Bahadur.

regarding the present incumbent. Then what of the future, regarding which I have stated that the result of the complete application of the several principles would be the appointment of an Indian Director of Agriculture? Regarding the future, when ultimately the question of a successor to Mr. Milligan becomes a live issue, it will—I doubt not, and I advise the Council that it should—be made by the selection of the best man available for the post irrespective of racial considerations. The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem has also stated that that is the principle which should govern at the present time an appointment of this nature. In this view, my Lord, I am not prepared to recommend to the Council to accept the Hon'ble Mover's resolution."

The Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur said :—

"My Lord, I have listened to the statements which have been made by the Hon'ble Mr. Cumming. The reason which persuaded me to come to the Council for the appointment of an Indian expert is simply this and nothing more than this—that an Indian being a native of the soil can understand agricultural business better than a foreigner. I am fully aware of the fact that Government are spending large sums of money for the improvement of agriculture and I am also aware of the fact that efforts are being made for the purpose of making the raiyats of this country happier, but. my Lord, we join issues here. Is the department so very successful as it ought to be under European agency? That is a matter for the consideration of the members of the Council. I am an Indian and, therefore, I have a partiality for Indians. I come forward simply on the ground that an Indian is expected to do something in this agricultural country. The principles which have been enunciated by the Hon'ble Mr. Cumming are principles which admit no doubt of consideration. On one side, it may be argued that here is an European agency who have got full scientific education and consequently such agency may be employed for the purpose of utilizing the principles of agriculture. On the other hand, it may be argued that the Indians who have been in the land since their birth know more of Indian agriculture than a foreigner is expected to do. In such circumstances, my Lord, it is for consideration whether those principles which have been enunciated by the Hon'ble Mr. Cumming can be engrafted now. I submit for the consideration of the Council that the arguments which I have put forward before the Council may not be lost sight of.

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abdul Kasem has said that he does not appreciate the arguments which I put forward. I respectfully differ from him. But the simple issue is whether a qualified Indian or in other words a qualified expert is expected to manage agricultural business in a better way than an European. I am grateful to the Hon'ble Mr. Cumming for telling me that in future this matter will be considered by Government. But I have put forward this resolution in the hope that it would be accepted by Government and that early steps may be taken for the appointment of an Indian as Director of Agriculture. If Your Excellency's Government consider that Indians are not fit to manage the agricultural business, and if they say that they are incompetent men by whose appointment agricultural business would suffer, I would respectfully ask, my Lord, who is practically managing the agricultural business now? If an inquiry is to be made—and the Hon'ble Mr. Cumming is fully aware of the fact—it will be found that it is Indian officers who are managing the agricultural business in this Presidency. and I, therefore, propose that the Head of the Department should be a practical Indian agriculturist.

With these submissions I press the resolution for the consideration of the Council."

The motion was then put and lost.

Resolutions.

Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 5.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a fully equipped Agricultural College, to be finally incorporated with the proposed Dacca University, be established at Dacca at once.

He said :—

" My Lord, the questions raised by this recommendation are of such an important character that I do not think I need say more than a very few words in commending this resolution to the acceptance of Your Excellency's Government and this Council. This is the second occasion on which I have ventured to draw the attention of Your Excellency's Government to the fact that although there happens to be in the vicinity of Dacca an agricultural farm which has admittedly being carrying on experiments quite satisfactorily from the point of view even of an expert, no attempt has yet been made to co-ordinate the results of these experiments and to give the students who resort to this experimental farm for purposes of study and learning the art of agriculture, any further lectures or courses of study so far as that branch of the education is concerned. On the former occasion when this question was discussed in this Council I was told in so many words that the question of the establishment of an agricultural college at Dacca must be kept in abeyance till the whole question of the reform of the University of Calcutta had been threshed out by the University Commission and the recommendations of that Commission had been considered by Government. The report of the Commission is now out and I would venture to submit that the recommendations of this Commission themselves support very strongly the case for the establishment of an agrirultural college at Dacca.

To begin with, I take the liberty to read a few sentences from the report of the Calcutta University Commission, Vol. III, Part I, Chapter XXV. I am reading from page 119 :—

' The supreme economic importance of agriculture in Bengal may be realized from the fact that out of a total population of 46 millions, 35 millions are dependent on it as a means of livelihood.

Yet at present there is not a single institution in the province giving agricultural education ; the term does not even figure in the last Quinquennial Review of Education in Bengal.'

The report goes on to say :—

' An agricultural conference was held in 1888 which urged the necessity of educating teachers of the required kind, and a Government resolution of the same year placed on the Agricultural and Educational Departments in every province the obligation to work out a practical scheme of agricultural education. * * * Among the conclusions of the resolution of 1897 were the following :—

The agricultural degrees, diplomas, or certificates should be placed upon the same footing as corresponding literary or science degrees, etc., in qualifying for admission to Government appointments, and more particularly those connected with land revenue administration.

That the diploma should eventually be compulsory in the case of certain appointments, e.g., of agricultural teachers in training schools, assistants to the Director of Agriculture, etc.'

Resolutions.

Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq.

In paragraph 6 at page 121 of the same report we read as follows :—

'The Universities Commission of 1902 expressed the view that in a country like India, which is mainly agricultural, it would appear that agricultural teaching, both ordinary and superior, should be considered as essential. They considered that a higher course in agriculture should consist of practical and theoretical teaching in the sciences underlying or connected with scientific agriculture, accompanied by practical training on experimental farms, and that students who had completed a course of this kind in the colleges and passed an appropriate examination for a diploma at the end of their theoretical instruction should then be drafted on to a farm controlled by experts, and undergo subsequent training for a year or more in actual farm work.'

Then following on that resolution—there was a resolution of 1901—the Government of India in a despatch to the Secretary of State at the end of 1905 defined in greater detail their general policy of which the salient points have been summed up as follows :—

'There was to be established in each important province an agricultural college and a research station, adequately equipped with laboratories and class rooms to which was to be attached a farm of suitable size.'

Then, my Lord, the Calcutta University Commission remarks :—

'The policy sketched out in the preceding paragraphs has, for various reasons, not been carried out fully either in regard to the Imperial Institute at Pusa, or in any province, least of all in Bengal.'

The result has been that the new developments left Bengal entirely without any agricultural college. I take the liberty of reading a few more passages from the University Commission's report. I read from page 127 :—

'The classes at Sibpur were closed in 1909 in view of the decision to establish an agricultural college at Sabour in Bihar, then forming part of the province of Bengal. The Sabour College was not opened till 1910. But under the territorial readjustment of 1912 Sabour ceased to be within the limits of Bengal and the college is now under the control of the Department of Agriculture of Bihar and Orissa, although it continues to admit students from Bengal and is under the same management as when it was the agricultural college of Bengal. The proportion of the students admissible into the Sabour College annually from the provinces of Bengal, Bihar and Orissa, and Assam are 20, 17, and 3, respectively. The number of students from Bengal actually admitted in recent years have been as follows :—

1912-13	...	...	...	...	9
1913-14	...	...	...	...	2
1914-15	...	...	...	...	4
1915-16	...	...	...	...	9
1916-17	...	...	...	...	11
1917-18	...	...	...	...	4

A considerable proportion of the Bengal Sabour students are stated in recent years of the Bengal Department of Agriculture to have obtained Government appointments.'

Under the Patna University Act (1917), section 11, no Indian University other than Patna can admit any educational institution in the province of Bihar and Orissa to any privilege whatever, and under this provision, therefore, Universities of Bengal would be presumably debarred from recognizing any courses at Sabour as forming part of a course in agriculture.

Resolutions.

Rai Sri Nath Ray Bahadur.

My Lord, these quotations from the report of the Calcutta University Commission themselves make it manifest that so far as agricultural education is concerned we have not got within the limits of this Presidency any agricultural college or univresity, and supposing we are going to have a University at Dacca, it cannot claim the privilege of recognizing or conferring degrees on the students of Bengal who may resort to Sabour for purposes of study. So far as higher agricultural education is concerned, the students of Bengal find one of the avenues of education absolutely shut to themselves. In these circumstances it is only natural that the people of Bengal should insist that so far as this province is concerned, suitable arrangements for agricultural education should be made at an early date. The question then arises, if there is to be an agricultural college, where can that be most suitably located? We can think of Sibpur and its surroundings and we can think of Rangpur with its agricultural farms and we can also think of Dacca with an experimental farm at Manipur. So far as Sibpur is concerned I would say that for the western districts of the Presidency, i.e., for the students who belong to the west of the Ganges there ought to be some sort of arrangement for giving higher agricultural education ; but for the students coming from the eastern districts an agricultural college at Dacca should, I think, be of immense advantage to them. I have already submitted that the experimental farm at Manipur possesses natural advantages for the purpose of agricultural education and that there are thousands of acres of land around where experiments can be carried on with the utmost efficiency and utmost regard to the requirements of higher agricultural teaching. In these circumstances and with all these natural advantages at hand I submit to Your Excellency that it is high time that an agricultural college should at once be started at Dacca and in the near future when we hope to have the Dacca University the agricultural college can be incorporated with that University, which will give the Dacca University a high status among the Universities. With these few observations I would strongly commend this resolution to the acceptance of Your Excellency's Government."

The Hon'ble Rai Sri Nath Ray Bahadur said :—

" My Lord, I beg to support the resolution moved by my Hon'ble friend Maulvi Fazl-ul Haq. In the year 1917, I urged upon this Council the necessity of establishing an agricultural college and a medical college at Dacca, eventually to form part of the Dacca University. The then Member in charge said in reply that there was hardly any demand for an agricultural college here, as no zamindar responded to the call made upon them on this behalf. Since then I have consulted many zamindars, specially of the Mymensingh district. Though they agreed as to the usefulness of agricultural education, they did not like to avail themselves of such training. Their reluctance is due to want of any future prospect in the Government services, besides the zamindar have little or no land in their khas possession upon which to fall back for agricultural experiment. But the case is different with the jotedars and middle class men. The former will be directly benefited by agricultural training and for the latter it will open a new avenue. Owing to overcrowding of all learned professions the middle class people are in sore need of new departments in which they may try to earn their livelihood.

The Government have already started agricultural stores in every district and agricultural officers have been appointed. The time is not distant when every subdivision will require such an officer. Every district, nay, every subdivision, will welcome an experimental farm at its headquarters. An institution in Dacca will remove a great want for training qualified men to take up such works. The nearest agricultural institution is at Sabour in Bihar, a long way off, and also the separation of Bihar from Bengal has made it imperatively necessary to establish an agricultural institution in this province which is pre eminently an agricultural province; and Dacca already possessing the headquarters of the Agricultural Department with its excellent farm is the fit place for such an institution.

Resolutions.

Maulvi Khan Sahib Aman Ali; Sir D. P. Sarbadhikari.

Even in western civilized countries the agriculturists are loathe to adopt scientific methods, and for this reason the Governments there adopt all sorts of means to try experiments as near as possible to the agriculturists' fields. In India, where agriculture is thousands and thousands of years old, it is the more difficult to induce the cultivators to adopt modern scientific methods. It is, therefore, not to be surprised at if people from Bengal, specially from Eastern Bengal, do not go to an institution at Sabour far away from their homes. With the existing staff at Dacca, with a few additions, a less ambitious institution can be started without making any heavy outlay.

It is proposed to introduce agricultural subjects in the primary courses too. The demand for teachers with agricultural training will grow day by day. So, both for the recruitment of agricultural officers as well as teachers such an institution is required. But if, in view of immediate establishment of the proposed Medical College first in the Dacca University, which is no doubt a greater necessity, the idea of starting an agricultural institution be put off for some time, I would beg to suggest that a number of stipends be established to enable young men to avail themselves of the same for prosecuting their studies at Sabour or any other agricultural institution. If a few appointments are guaranteed in the beginning it is hoped that competent students will be forthcoming to go up for this purpose."

The Hon'ble Khan Sahib Maulvi Aman Ali said :—

"My Lord, though Eastern Bengal is an agricultural country, its present production is not equal to the requirements of the people and so some sort of scientific education in agriculture is very essential and the establishment of an agricultural college at Dacca which is the central place is most desirable. The Hon'ble Mover of the resolution has dealt with the matter in its various aspects and so I do not like to waste the time of the Council in any other way than merely giving my full support to the resolution."

The Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari said :—

"My Lord, although I anticipate some practical difficulties I desire to give the principles of this resolution my whole-hearted support. There is commendable impetuosity of my Hon'ble friend, the mover, on the part to get everything done at once. But a serious difficulty—is that the recommendations of the Commission which in detail are awaiting the consideration of the Government and the educational authorities,—must take some time to digest. There would also be the difficulty of having the teaching recognized by degrees so long as Dacca has not its own University and Faculty of Commerce. The Government of India is not immediately giving its assent to the suggestions of the Calcutta University for the creation of an Industrial Faculty and it may be a question whether on the whole there may not be a Central Industrial Teaching organization with affiliated colleges in the different provinces. And then there is the paramount question of finance. My Lord, these are aspects of the case which no doubt the Hon'ble Member-in-charge will deal with and I need not labour them. For present purposes and for giving the support that I desire to give to the principles of this resolution, I desire to call attention to the recognition by the Universities Commission of the absolute and supreme need of adding importance to the agricultural side of University education. With regard to the principle of those recommendations there can be no difference of opinion, though in attempting to give effect to them, Your Excellency's Government will have to consider in detail the administrative side of the question. I congratulate Your Excellency on the prospects of your being the Chancellor of two Universities—an honour which no ruler of an Indian province is likely to have soon, though the United Provinces have two Universities and may soon have a third. Though it may not be Your Excellency's fortune to be the Chancellor of more than two Universities, I hope the time is not distant when, with the pronouncement of the Universities Commission pursued to its legetimate conclusion, this province will have more than two Universities at no distant a date, for the country fully needs them. My Lord, even in the earlier days, when feeling ran high, I was always for Dacca having a University of its own and working out its own educational salvation. The educational enthusiam of Dacca, of which I have abundant never ceasing evidence every time I am here, fully justifies its having the prominence that this resolution desires to give it pending the adoption of the Dacca University scheme. Even, I hope my friend from the West will not quarrel with me if, for the moment, I take upon myself to say that the Western districts will be content to let Dacca have the first place with regard to a proposal of this kind. We have our Medical College, we have the biggest Law College of the province, we have the Engineering College and I do not think the West will be so grasping as to want the agricultural college also when Dacca so badly wants developing.

Resolutions.

Sir D. P. Sarbadhikari.

The Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq has referred us to the deliberation of 1888 and 1902. Ever since then we have been awaiting for our agricultural advancement, I can quite realize what the difficulties have been in the way of those who had the handling of that proposition. At Government expense, promising scholars were sent to England and came out fully equipped as agricultural experts, and, with their agricultural training, they enter the High Court and Arts Colleges or fill various posts in various branches of Your Excellency's Government, Judicial and Executive. This was an encouraging experiment, although not followed by encouraging results, for the field of practical work appeared to be limited. Government cannot, therefore, be blamed in making its pace too slow. But there have been later developments and impelled by force of public opinion it was my good fortune to bring forward before the University a comprehensive scheme for Agricultural, Industrial and Technological training. Although there was considerable initial opposition it finally died away and the Senate of the University whole-heartedly accepted my proposal and submitted them to the Government of India. The University Commission had been appointed, in the meantime, and the Government of India naturally said that, before dealing with the recommendations that have been sent up as a whole by the University, they will have to wait for the recommendation of the Commission. Those recommendations are, what I always anticipated, they could not help to be, and the views of the University have been supported by the Commission. There is nothing now in our way to give early effect to those recommendations, and when the time for that comes, I do hope that Dacca shall be the first choice. Its resources have been indicated—resources that may, to a certain extent, be present in the Western districts—but resources which are certainly not inferior to those of the Western districts. I hope, my Lord, some day the facilities for travelling to Dacca will be expedited—a resolution appears in the agenda paper on the table to-day for that purpose. When that comes the Western districts will not have much to complain of. Everybody cannot have an agricultural college or a medical college brought to the front door of his house and Western Bengal will gladly come to the East for a time for its agricultural training. In connection with this question and the proposals of the University for an agricultural scheme, although hardly arising out of this question, I desire to associate myself fully with what has fallen from the Hon'ble Mr. Cumming

Resolutions.

Maulvi Abul Kasem.

in reply to the Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur. At one time we viewed with dismay the likelihood of Mr. Milligan being transferred from the Province; and I was one of those who did not hesitate to give vent to that feeling. I hope Mr. Milligan will return soon with renewed vigour and take charge of his department and Your Excellency's Government will have at their disposal assistance which will be of the utmost importance in giving effect to this scheme. References have been made to Sabour and Pusa. I myself have not been able to realize why the number of students from Bengal has been so small there—the difficulty of having a suitable career may be one of the reasons. The difficulty of curriculum may be another. The Pusa Institute is essentially a Research Institute. In the college what we are thinking of, it ought to be something different, something more suited to the requirements of the province, something more suited to the openings and the careers at the end of the college training. We have to decide whether we want to train up agricultural experts or practical agriculturists or merely land stewards and Zamindari managers or potential members of the Agricultural Department. These are questions of more than detail which will have to be thought out very carefully. I am afraid therefore some time must elapse before the scheme can be materialized; but whenever that may be, I hope Dacca will have the preference. Some of our friends are good enough to show their partiality for Dacca by sending in resolutions without taking care to attend the Dacca Session of the Council for "luscious fields" elsewhere detain them. I do not doubt that Western Bengal representatives who have come will support this resolution in the proper spirit."

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem said :—

"My Lord, after all that has been said in regard to this resolution, I do not think I should be justified in detaining the Council by any lengthy remarks of my own. I would only like to say that we, the people of Western Bengal, desire it as much as my hon'ble friend, the mover, that an agricultural college should be established at Dacca. The conveniences for an agricultural college at Dacca are many and we will only be too glad to avail ourselves of the opportunity which would be afforded by that college for an agricultural training. I may say, Sir, that the Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari anticipated difficulties in carrying out the scheme, but I anticipate a sympathetic reply from the Government. What I hope and trust is that Your Excellency's Government will take the matter up in earnest and try to expedite it and give a sympathetic consideration. As I have said before, the question of agriculture is a very important one. It has been remarked that the prospect of the students of the agricultural college does not seem to be very bright and attractive so that students would not come. I think that is not entirely correct, though not much wrong. The Collector of Birbhum, of whom reference has been made by the Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur has started a network of agricultural societies in his district and those societies are now trying to obtain expert opinion, paying fees, and if an agricultural college is established, the passed students from that college may, in addition to their being employed by the Government of the territorial magnet, also earn a decent livelihood by private practice. Formerly mining students used to appear though there could be no private practice for them so far as mining was concerned, but I know that two at least of our Indian Mining Engineers are commanding a good practice by giving expert opinion to Indian mine owners in my part of the province. So I do not think that there will be any difficulty in providing occupation for graduates of the agricultural college if it is formed. My Lord, notice has been given of two other resolutions for to-day's meeting—I understand they will not be taken up to-day—about removing the difficulties in the way of our students who have failed to gain admission into the colleges. Much of this difficulty will be removed

Resolutions.

Mr. Cumming.

if agricultural colleges are established in larger numbers. I think it is more important to have a larger number of agricultural, industrial and medical colleges than to have additional classes in our arts and science colleges, whether Government or private. No less an authority than Sir Profullya Chandra Roy has said that it is desirable that avenues of employment should be opened out for our young men through more professional and technical colleges. Before I sit down, I have only one remark to make. The Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari has said that Western Bengal will be content if an agricultural college is established at Dacca, because it has its medical college and engineering college. I only wish to say that Western Bengal people hope and trust that in the near future Dacca will have a medical college of its own because the Calcutta Medical College cannot provide sufficient accommodation for the growing number of students and that Dacca will have its own engineering college too."

The Hon'ble Mr. Cumming said :—

"My Lord, the object of the Hon'ble Mover's resolution is to obtain facilities for higher agricultural education at Dacca. Government, I may say at once, are prepared to meet him in this respect; but, as I shall explain presently, on different lines from those advocated by him. The Hon'ble Maulvi has correctly said that the Bengal Government are now awaiting the report of the Calcutta University Commission. This report is in the hands of the public, and he has read out various extracts from the same. But I doubt if the Council have gathered from these extracts what are the salient principles underlying this subject.

The proposal of the Hon'ble Mover is the establishment of an agricultural college at Dacca to be finally incorporated with the proposed Dacca University. In connection with a proposal of this nature two sets of considerations have to be examined; first, the principles underlying the imparting of agricultural education of a University character in any province and, secondly, the particular considerations affecting Bengal.

First of all, as regards the principles underlying the institution of an agricultural college, the discussion has been, as the University Commission has pointed out, protracted and voluminous; but we need only consider the recommendations of general application which have been made within recent years. At the conference on agricultural education at Pusa in 1916 the issue was whether agricultural colleges should provide merely suitable candidates for service in the agricultural department or whether they should aim at providing a liberal and scientific education in agriculture which should be as complete as possible. The conference resolved that, while as an absolute proposition they were in favour of providing in agricultural colleges such a liberal education, they were not convinced that in the case of all the provincial colleges this was a practical ideal or one which local conditions rendered desirable. At a similar conference held in the succeeding year, 1917, at Simla, this view was modified to this extent that the local Governments should be left to work out their collegiate courses with reference to local conditions; and they considered that each of the principal provinces of India should have its own agricultural college so soon as the agricultural development of the province justified that step. Later on in the same year, 1917, the Board of Agriculture in India, held at Poona, accepted this last statement and added that the question of affiliation of such colleges should be left to the decision of the Government concerned.

Resolutions.

Mr. Cumming.

Now, the object of an agricultural college has been considered on more than one occasion by the Government of India and the Provincial Department. An agricultural college may be held to have the following purposes :—

(a) firstly, to prepare qualified officers for the different branches of the Agricultural Department ;

(b) secondly, to give instruction in agricultural practice to those of the landed classes who wish to improve their own property, and to provide the landed classes with land agents or managers ; and

(c) thirdly, to give opportunities for research.

The Public Services Commission were informed that certain existing agricultural colleges had failed in their purpose ; and the Commission recommended in 1916 that the staff should be adequate for the instruction up to the standard required for the Provincial Agricultural Services and also for the effective prosecution of research.

The latest advice on the subject is that contained in the report of the Calcutta University Commission, which has quite recently been placed in the hands of the public. From the chapters on agricultural education Hon'ble Members will learn that many counter-balancing factors have to be considered, and that the subject is fraught with many and grave difficulties —difficulties which are quite unsuspected by those who merely take as a premise that agriculture is the fundamental industry in the province. One of the chief difficulties is that, notwithstanding the demand for higher agricultural education in the abstract, there is, apart from the limited demand for higher appointments in the Government Agricultural Department, hardly any effective demand by members of the public for the employment of those who have already taken diplomas in agriculture. The Commission have made recommendations through which I trust it will be possible to supply not only high theoretical instruction but also real practical training, which is so much to be desiderated. The link between these two kinds of instruction is essential. I have had instances within the last year of the failure of that link, in cases from England and from America. One youth had received theoretical instruction in an English college, but admitted that he had evaded the practical training and that he knew nothing practical. Again, from America, I have learnt how the authorities of certain American institutions, with mistaken kindness for the Indian student, have let the student off all practical training. Such students return to India full of the love of text-books ; but unsuited for either public or private employment in India. In any new development in India we should not neglect this warning.

I now turn in the second place to those considerations which are specially applicable to Bengal. While, on the one hand, there is a legitimate demand from the educated classes for higher agricultural education, yet it is a fact that in practice the zamindars of Bengal have so far not insisted on a specialized knowledge of agriculture as a qualification for managerships in their estates, nor is it the general habit to employ agricultural experts to improve the methods of agriculture practised by their tenants. If, as the Hon'ble Abul Kasem indicates, there is a change in this respect, no one will be more pleased than the members of Government. For practical purposes at present young men from Bengal join agricultural colleges for the purpose of obtaining Government employment. The college at Sabour in Bhagalpur district was created in 1910 when Bihar and Bengal were under one administration, and the site was selected, as I have personal reason to know, in order to cater for the wants of the two areas and at a site where land, typical of both the Western districts and the Eastern districts, was available. In view of these facts I do not think the criticism which says that there is no provision for agricultural education in Bengal is quite fair. Up till quite recently Sabour has been more than sufficient to meet the wants of the two provinces. In the five years from 1914 to 1919 the number of Bengali students at Sabour has varied from 13 to 32, and in the present year there are 26 Bengal students in the first year class. A certain stimulus has been given by the recent creation of certain appointments in Bengal under the name of district agricultural officers. But all the districts in Bengal have now been provided with such officers; while the power of the Imperial Department and the Provincial Department to absorb new recruits is limited. The Bengal Government have hitherto been unwilling to create a supply that was apparently greater than the demand and add to the total of what the University Commission style 'disappointed unemployables'. The Bengal Government, however, recognize two main facts,—that provincial patriotism desires a college of its own after the separation of the Bihar territory and that Bengal has felt that some effort should be made to get the educated classes to take up agriculture as an occupation. Government were also aware that the matter was being examined very fully by the Calcutta University Commission. The conditions of the problem imply, as I have already indicated, that the instruction must be practical. Government, therefore, in anticipation of the report of the Commission tentatively considered the establishment of an institution which would be devoted to the technical and practical training of persons who have already received a good general education; the main object being to turn out thoroughly practical agriculturists. In so doing not only would recruits be provided for the Agricultural Department, but a training would be offered to those desirous of taking up work on the land or of acquiring a knowledge of agricultural practice as well as to those desirous of following up agricultural research in a scientific fashion. If such an institution were created, it was proposed to style it an 'agricultural institute'. The more important of the subjects to be taught would be tillage, plant selection, agricultural engineering, use of labour—saving equipment, the care of animals, and so on.

Resolutions.

Mr. Cumming.

Now, it has to be considered in connection with such an institute what relation it should have with the University; and it will be seen from the report of the University Commission that such an institution will meet the proposals which have been made by that body. The main proposal of the Commission in connection with agricultural education is that after a student has taken the degree of Bachelor of Science with a revised curriculum he should proceed for a period of training to an agricultural institute, at which he would receive an adequate diploma indicating that he had received the special training proposed to be given at such an institute; and finally, that such a student who takes the degree of Bachelor of Science plus the diploma of the institute should be qualified for the degree of Bachelor of Agriculture under the University. This, then, is the general idea,—theoretical training under the University, combined with specialized practical training under the Department of Agriculture, the combination of the two being considered a qualification for the degree of Bachelor of Agriculture. This proposal, however, naturally depends, as the Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari has correctly pointed out, upon a detailed examination of the proposals of the University Commission by Government; and it will be clear to Hon'ble Members that if the general lines are followed such an agricultural institute, though not actually incorporated with the University as the Hon'ble Mover requests, will at any rate be practically related to it. In view, then, of these recommendations, Government are prepared to accept the resolution of the Hon'ble member with certain modifications, both in view of the recommendations of the University Commission and of the interests of Bengal. The word 'institute' in the resolution should be substituted for the word 'college',; and, in view of the fact that the Calcutta University Commission's Report has still to be considered in detail, the words 'to be finally incorporated with the proposed Dacca University' might be omitted. The resolution might possibly be expressed in the following form :—

Resolutions.

Maulvi Faz-ul-Haq; Mr Cumming.

'This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a fully equipped agricultural institute be established at Dacca.'

If the Hon'ble Member would modify the terms of the resolution to this effect Government would be prepared to accept it. I should like to add that plans for such an institution at Dacca are under preparation and that the first steps have already been taken towards the financing of the acquisition of the site required."

The Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

"My Lord, in view of what has fallen from the Hon'ble Member in charge, I rise to say a few words, not so much with the intention of adding to what I have already said in support of this resolution, but to take this opportunity of offering my heartfelt thanks to the Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari and to the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem for all the good things that they have been pleased to say about Dacca. Most unfortunately, and by an irony of fate, the district of Dacca seems to be practically unrepresented in this Council. The four members of the Dacca Division come from districts outside Dacca and I, therefore, take this opportunity of offering to my friends who have been good enough to recognize the claims of Dacca as the Eastern capital of this Presidency the thanks of the people of this town as well as the district, and for the ready recognition which they have shown to the claims of this city and this district.

As regards the resolution itself, may I ask the Hon'ble Member to consider if the words 'at an early date' could be added to the resolution? I can quite understand, my Lord, that with the preparations that have already been made for the establishment of an agricultural institute in Dacca things would progress soon enough, but at the same time we cannot forget, and I say it with the utmost deference, that the wheels of Government move very slowly and that sometimes hope deferred makes the heart very sick. Things have taken place, as far as the Dacca University is concerned, which make it absolutely necessary that some encouraging words at any rate should be added to the resolution in order to show that all possible steps will be taken for establishing the proposed agricultural institute in this town. I suggest the words 'at an early date' in place of the words 'at once'. 'At once' may be too precipitate as pointed out by the Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari, but 'at an early date' is vague enough to include anything between lethargy and actual action. My Lord, in these circumstances may I ask the Hon'ble Member to consider whether these words should be added. At the same time I may say that I am not very particular about the phrase so long as the principle of the resolution is accepted."

The Hon'ble Mr. Cumming said :—

"My Lord, I have pleasure in saying that the Government will be prepared to accept the resolution in the following form as suggested by me and as further amended by the Hon'ble Mover, viz.,—

'That this Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a fully equipped agricultural institute be established at Dacca at an early date.'

I need hardly repeat, my Lord, that an earnest of this has already been given.

Plans for such an institution are already in preparation, and steps have already been taken for the financing of the acquisition of the site required."

The motion was then put in the altered form and agreed to.

Resolutions.

Rai M. C. Mitra Bahadur.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 6.

The Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur to move the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a Committee be appointed, consisting of officials and non-officials, with instructions to make an inquiry into the working of the Hastings School, Alipore, with a view—

(i) to determine the syllabus of studies for the different classes or "Forms", in accordance with the regulations of a recognized University ;

(ii) to satisfy other requirements for its immediate affiliation to a recognized University ;

(iii) to consider the question of the reduction of its school-fees in the case of day-scholars, from Rs. 28 per month to a lower figure ; and

(iv) to recommend such steps as may be deemed advisable to place the school on a more satisfactory basis.

He said :—

"My Lord, the Hastings School has been in existence for full four years. I have carefully gone through the printed reports of this institution up to 1917-18 ; further report is not available at present. From these reports, I quote the following lines for the information of Your Excellency's Council :—

'* * * There lies the important question of how best the school may fulfil its task of giving to India men who, by reason of their established social position, may be fit to direct the aspirations of their own community, or to play a useful part in the control and development of the natural resources of their country.'

'* * * It cannot be said that the school attracts a really representative body of pupils, and this fact must be carefully borne in mind in examining the statement showing the numbers of boys in the school * * * ; nor can these numbers be reckoned as indicative of the possible growth of the school, for until the school can cater for the needs of the orthodox communities it will fail to draw from a very large and important section of Indian society'.

* * There is at present no provision for science, but it is hoped that the experimental work which is to be done in Physiology and in Physical Geography, may be a useful preliminary training in scientific method. Until systematic science teaching is established here the school course will always be incomplete, and for this reason no effort should be spared to equip and maintain a school laboratory. Art teaching required to be put on a better footing, which might best be acomplished if a well-qualified man from the Government School of Art could be spared as a special visiting master for this branch of work.'

'* * * It is difficult to find the real reason for the deficiency of the numbers below the estimated level * * * it may partly be due to some measure of disinclination on the part of the Indian parent to sever himself from the usual

Resolutions.

Mr. Altaf Ali.

courses of education which have been established longer in the Presidency, and finally, it may be that the number of those who desire this form of education has been somewhat overestimated.'

'* * * The want of a first class mathematician is at present very greatly felt.'

'* * * So long as this (i.e., provision for science laboratories) remains unprovided for the school course must necessarily be incomplete, and further, this may always be adduced as an excuse for the deficiency in number * * * There should be more boys in the lower school, for until we can rely upon these forms being filled there is no adequate guarantee for the future success of the school.'

'* * * In the absence of any trust funds, the school must always be supported, in part, by Provincial revenues.'

'* * * The need, however, of a definite provision throughout the school for systematic science teaching, still remains a matter of some urgency; for had this training been available at the school, it is very probable that some of those boys who left during the year under report (i.e. in 1917-18) would have remained in the school. In all cases these boys left in order to obtain facilities for the study of science. I will, therefore, again record my opinion that there is the greatest need for the establishment in the school of a science laboratory under the charge of a well qualified science graduate.'

The school is not affiliated to the University of Calcutta or to any of the Universities of Oxford or Cambridge.

The tuition-fee in the Presidency College is Rs. 12 per month and the school-fee in the upper classes of the Hare and Hindu Schools, the premier schools of Bengal, are Rs. 5 per month. There is a surplus annual income of some thousands of rupees from these collegiate schools. In order to make the Hastings School a self-supporting one, the question of the reduction of its fees in the case of day-scholars from Rs. 28 per month to a lower figure should be carefully considered.

The appointment of a committee on the lines suggested in the resolution is urgently needed to examine facts up-to-date and find ways and means for the proper solution of the intricate problems connected with the management of the Hastings School.

With these few remarks, I move this resolution for the careful consideration of Your Excellency's Council."

The Hon'ble Mr. Altaf Ali said :—

My Lord, as a member of the Advisory Committee of the Hastings House School, I feel it my duty to oppose this resolution. In doing so, I must first of all assure my Hon'ble friend that I have no intention of withholding any information regarding the internal management of the school. Let us see what my friend really wants. First of all, he wants a committee consisting of officials and non-officials to be appointed to inquire into the working of the school. I am not quite sure if my friend really wants a committee consisting of officials and non-officials, or if he has said so because whenever a committee is asked to be appointed, a similar request is made. I am not quite sure if my friend knows that a small Advisory Committee to govern the school exists at the present time, and this committee consists entirely of non-officials. My Lord, the points regarding the syllabus and affiliation that my friend, the mover of this resolution, has raised, are such that the Advisory Committee is required to deal with in the usual course and which the committee after due and careful deliberation fixed. If my friend, whether he has any personal interest in the school by way of relations reading at the school or whether he takes only a general interest in an institution of this kind, has any suggestion to make at any time to the members of the committee they will be very gratefully accepted and they will do their best to apply them for the future administration of the school. As a matter of fact, they are always open to any suggestions from the public which will lead to the better administration of the school. The purport of my friend's resolution is the determination of facts that legitimately belong to the Advisory Committee and to the Department of Education in Bengal. If my friend thinks that the committee is not doing their work properly, or that they are incapable of doing so, I, for one, will be prepared to withdraw, in favour of men who take more interest in the school than we have hitherto done, and I am sure my colleagues will do the same. With these few words, I oppose this resolution."

Resolutions.

Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan.

The Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan said :—

"My Lord, it is not possible for me on behalf of Government to accept this resolution. I am glad, however, that an opportunity has been given to enable Government to explain the position of the Hastings House School, and also to mention to the Hon'ble mover of this resolution the present position there, and it is possible that after hearing what I have to say on the subject, the Hon'ble gentleman may decide to withdraw his resolution. What I could gather from what the Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur has said in connection with the resolution, that, apart from the fact that he is not satisfied with the syllabus and the general management of the school, he wants that the teaching of science should be properly and at an early date introduced in this school, and for this purpose he would advocate the cumbrous procedure of an unwieldy committee to go into the question. I should have thought, my Lord, that that would have been the last thing to suggest in a matter of this kind. But, Sir, it is not my business to discuss as to whether or not a committee is the most suitable form for an inquiry of this nature. What I have got to convince the mover of this resolution is that an inquiry is not necessary. With regard to the first portion of the resolution in which he deals with the syllabus of studies and the question of affiliation of the school, I am glad to inform the Hon'ble Member that the Government have recently, on the advice of the Director of Public Instruction, come practically to the same conclusion at which he himself has evidently arrived. Let me briefly state the purpose and objects with which this school was established. A deputation of influential gentlemen approached the Government of India in 1913 with a scheme for the establishment of a residential school for Indian boys to be run on the lines of an English public school. Among the members of this deputation were gentlemen who could well afford to send their boys to English public schools, and who had no scruples about sending their boys to England, therefore these gentlemen, it must be clearly understood and it must be clear to the Hon'ble mover himself, were actuated by the best of motives in approaching Government, viz., to see whether it was possible to establish in Calcutta a school in the nature of an English public school for the benefit of those Indian gentlemen who are not prepared or are not able to send their boys for such an education

Resolutions.

Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan.

to England. The Government of India had previously outlined some such proposal and the Local Government naturally, therefore welcomed the deputation's proposal to found a well-equipped and well-supported school which breaking away from many traditional ideas by which Indian schools have been hampered and circumscribed should seek to mould these boys upon the English public school pattern, to turn out boys with good academic qualifications, and to develop character and promote that valuable espirit de corps which is too often lamentably deficient in many of our Indian schools. It was recognized that such an ideal would cost money and that such a school must necessarily be restricted to those parents who could afford to pay reasonably high fees. My Lord, I do not think that we can be blind to the fact that even to-day education of this kind in Bengal is ridiculously cheap, but on the other hand one recognizes that the heavy outlay the middle classes in England incur for the education of their sons, would often be beyond the means of the bhadralog in Bengal. I think the Hon'ble mover will probably agree that many Bengali gentlemen would be willing to incur a larger outlay on the education of their children if they were satisfied that the education provided were worth the money. Many of us, moreover, do still desire to see if a school of this nature could possibly thrive in Bengal, and it was really because a number of such influential men wanted that such an experiment should be made, that the Local Government of the time thought it worthy of consideration and worth experiment. That was how the Hastings House School came to be started in 1915, the sanction of the Secretary of State being granted to pursue the experiment for a period of five years. I may at once admit that those who moved Government for the establishment of this school,—and among them I myself was one,—and the Government are somewhat disappointed at the support which the institution has so far received. The Hastings House School will accommodate about 100 pupils, i.e., 50 boarders and 50 day-scholars. The school opened as I said in 1915 with only 10 boys on the rolls and towards the end of the year the number had risen to 20 and for the last two or three years there have been about 30 pupils among whom some 12 to 14 have been day-scholars. It was recognized at the time that the fees must be high, and they were fixed at Rs. 100 per mensem for boarders plus Rs. 5 for sports, stationery, medical attendance, etc., and in the case of day-scholars at Rs. 25 per mensem with an additional Rs. 2-8 per month for sports, and stationery. I may say that there were some who thought that the fees should be still higher, had it been so they would still have been considerably less than those paid by English parents for their boys at some of the English schools. The present expenditure of the school amounts to Rs. 55,000 and the sum recovered from fees comes to Rs. 38,000, leaving a deficit of Rs. 17,000 which is borne by the Local Government. The deficit in 1915 was over Rs. 20,000 and in 1916-17 little over Rs. 17,000 and the same for 1917-18. Now, of course, one may ask whether Government are justified in expending this amount out of their revenues from public funds for the education of the sons of gentlemen who can in most cases afford to pay higher fees or in some cases could afford to send their sons to England. The whole question has received the very anxious consideration of Government from this point of view and I am glad to have the opportunity of explaining the Government's position to the Hon'ble Member. I think no one will deny that the high school education at present provided in Bengal suffers from many limitations and many defects. It would be superfluous for me to attempt to enlarge upon a matter of such common knowledge, especially as many of the members of this Council have probably read extracts from the University Commission's report which deals exhaustively with this subject and which is now before the public. I may, therefore, at once say that the Government are conscious that the present system has failed, but they realize that a considerable service to education might be done if at least one model institution conducted on broad and liberal lines could be established. As regards the virtual restriction to the sons of the well-to-do which the high rate of fees must cause, Government felt that many of the students who pass through the doors of such an institution may ultimately become some of the prominent leaders in Bengal and it felt justified on political grounds as well in providing these boys with a more liberal education, calculated to train the character, no less the mind, than is supplied in many other schools in the Presidency. It was hoped at the time that the advantages of such an education would be readily grasped and that the need for such an institution would be recognized and that all the available accommodation would easily be filled. That unhappily has not yet been our experience; Government may perhaps have some justification in contending that the experiment has failed and that in the interest of economy they should close the school and cut its losses. Well, my Lord, as I myself admitted, Government themselves are apparently not satisfied with the present state of the school, but whilst admitting it Government are not prepared to cry peccavi. The whole question has received, as I have stated, the most anxious consideration of Government, and Government have come to the conclusion that the causes of the present failure of the institution are probably due to the following, viz., (a) The scale of fees which presses too severely on a number of families who can afford the facilities offered by the school; (b) That many persons in Calcutta who can well afford to pay the fees and who recognize the solid advantages which the school offers, prefer that their sons should live at home and attend the school as day-boarders. In the present circumstances, the number of day-scholars is only limited to one-third; (c) Many parents are disappointed that the recruitment of English school masters, trained in and thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the public school system in England has been delayed owing to the war. Finally the lack of professors for science teaching has undoubtedly been a distinct stumbling block to the progress of the scheme. Then, of course, the absence of separate messing arrangements for orthodox Hindus has perhaps kept out a certain number. The curriculum or studies with its failure to provide for matriculation examination has been the subject of a certain amount of criticism and the non-affiliation of the school to the University has also caused some misgiving. Referring, therefore to the latter part of the Hon'ble Member's resolution, I would frankly admit on behalf of Government that steps must be taken to place the school on a more satisfactory basis, and I may state at once that Government have arrived at the following conclusion, viz., that a properly-equipped science laboratory should be immediately provided, suitable rooms are already available, and the capital cost for equipment will amount only to Rs. 3,000; it is anticipated that the recurring cost will be recovered. Government propose to go ahead with this. The limitation on the number of day-scholars will be modified; of the total number of pupils that can be received (which I have said was 100) no less than half the number should be day-scholars. The Government of India have already been approached with a proposal to extend the period of experiment up to 1922. Pending sanction of the Secretary of State to this proposal Government are unable to take steps to recruit two additional English masters, who were sanctioned in the original scheme. Of course, if the sanction is received, which we hope will be the case, we shall set about securing these additional members of the staff. Government has already invited several leading associations in the Presidency on the question of separate messing arrangements for the orthodox, and if there is any reason to believe that the school will thereby be rendered accessible to boys whose parents at present stand aloof, Government will make such provision in this direction as the accommodation at Hastings House allows.

Resolutions.

Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan.

Resolutions.

Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari.

I turn now to the proposal of the Hon'ble Member to revise the syllabus of studies and to take steps to have the school recognised by some University by which I presume he means the Calcutta University. I may state that when the school was founded one of the many problems to be considered was to arrive at some decision upon the educational policy to be pursued. It was hoped that a certain percentage of pupils would on leaving the school proceed to a University. It was probable that some of them might graduate first at an Indian University while it was certain that some of the boys would not go to England at all. Government of course had no statistics to guide them in this matter but after careful consideration they decided that the senior Cambridge local examination would perhaps for sometime most satisfactorily serve the purposes of a school final examination. The Cambridge test provides a suitable academic standard while at the same time it has the advantage of having been held not only in England but also in India. Moreover it secures for successful candidates certain exemptions from University preliminary examinations. Accordingly the junior and senior Cambridge local examinations were made the intrinsic part of the school curriculum. As a matter of fact however it has been found that many parents view with some misgivings the elimination of the Matriculation examination and that they are anxious lest its non-recognition by the University may subsequently hamper or check the University career of their sons. The whole question, as I have said, has been carefully considered by Government and they have recently resolved that the Matriculation examination should be taken in class IV upper or V lower and that the boys who pass the Cambridge senior and are of an age to remain at the school should go on for study for even the Cambridge higher certificate or the Intermediate examination in Arts or Science of the Calcutta University. It is also proposed that in future all subjects except English and Mathematics should be taught through the medium of the vernacular in the lower school. The Hon'ble mover has asked that a committee should be appointed to make recommendations on these various matters; but I think he will see now that a good deal of what he had in mind has already been taken up by Government and that therefore the necessity of a committee no longer arises. The Hon'ble Mr. Altaf Ali seems to be very free about his movements and desires in wishing to withdraw from the committee and asking others to follow suit, but I wish to point out that a strong advisory committee does exist and that is a committee which is appointed by and to advise Government and it is not open to Mr. Altaf Ali to make such quick changes. If the Hon'ble Member after hearing what I have said to-day and after coming to know that some of his proposals have already been accepted by Government would like to bring this matter to the notice of the school authorities, I would advise him writing to the President of this committee and I think that under all these circumstances he would be well advised to await further developments and to withdraw his resolution regarding the appointment of a committee of the kind which he has in mind.

My Lord, on behalf of Government I am sorry I am unable to accept the resolution as it stands."

The Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari said :—

"My Lord, I had not the least idea of intervening in this debate for the very good reason that I know very little about the Hastings House school. Although I was one of the original signatories demanding the establishment of this institution, I have had no opportunities of knowing anything about it. I have, however, wished it well and am sorry to gather both from official and non-official statements here that it is not doing well.

My Lord, there are other reasons, however, why I cannot let the speech of the Hon'ble Member in charge go unnoticed. I may frankly state that nothing more is painful to me than to have to differ from the Hon'ble Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan upon whom I have always looked as one who is a leader among his class who has also the good of the people at heart. I do not now raise the question as to whether Government should spend largely out of public revenue on the education of the people who can afford to spend all that is needed, or whether so called political reasons such as the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur has indicated should rule the situation ; that is a question for Government to consider for the country will prefer to have its own leaders and not wait for those that the Hastings House will be supposed to breed. There is one other matter however which requires attention. My Lord, if I heard the Hon'ble Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan aright, I heard him say that education in this country is ridiculously cheap. I desire to protest against that assertion—an assertion which has been freely made by people who know nothing of the country—but which from the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan, Member in charge of the Education Department of your Excellency's Government, comes as a surprise to me, a painful surprise. I shall be glad to be told by the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur that I did not hear him aright and, if so, I apologise to him."

The Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan said :—

"May I rise to a point of order. I think the Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari seems to forget the subject matter of the resolution. We are discussing the question of the appointment of a committee to inquire into the working of the Hastings School and when I said that education in this country is ridiculously cheap I meant education for people who aspire for the kind of education as received in a public school of this nature in Bengal. I did not for a moment refer to the average education that is imparted to the people in the country."

The Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari (continuing) said :—

"That is satisfactory so far but does not go the whole way. Therefore my complaint and objection still hold good. The statement would seem to imply that those of us, in the lower middle classes, who have so far sought to avail themselves of the facilities provided by the Hastings School are not as badly off as they are described to be. If the Hastings House teaching is of the right public school type it should be within the reach of the poorest day scholar, though he need not aspire to the luxurious residential arragements. This morning I received a visit from a gentleman who had absolutely broken down in educating his sons. It may be said that he had no business to attempt this if he could not afford it. May I remind the Council, my Lord, of what is after all a commonplace. The best of our men have come from the class who can ill-afford to have any education, far less of the kind given by the Hastings School. I do not wish to refer to the somewhat unreasoning outcry about the question of the raising of fees as an evidence that education is not ridiculously cheap. That should be considered elsewhere."

The President said :—

"Order, order. Might I draw the attention of the Hon'ble Member to the resolution which is under discussion. The resolution relates to the appointment of a committee to inquire into the working of the Hastings School, Alipore ; but that does not permit the Hon'ble Member to cover the whole ground of education generally."

The Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari said :—

"I was trying to meet and protest against the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur's reasoning. But having regard to your Excellency's ruling, I do not wish to pursue the point further."

Resolutions.

Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur ; Babu Surendra Nath Ray.

The Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur said :—

"My Lord, I have listened to the statements which have been made by the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan and I can say this that in moving this resolution I thought that it was in the interest of the public that an inquiry should be made in this connection. No one denies the encouraging ideal on the part of those who established this school, but what is the result. If the school was on a firm basis as was thought it at the time when it was founded, perhaps I would not have come to the Council with grievances like this. But as the Chairman of the institution has said in his report that the provincial revenues are attacked and the Hon'ble Maharajadhiraja Bahadur has also explained would be the deficit every year and consequently an appeal is made to your Excellency's Government. I have referred to the several passages from the report. These are not mine but these are quotations from the educational authorities in charge of the institution. If you look to the laboratory, it is in a very bad condition : if you look to the number of boys, it is very discouraging. All these speak affirmatively that the institution is on a very low level and the high ideals of those who established the school have not been achieved. Our children—the children of the middle classes—receive their education in the middle schools but if the Hastings School is not established on broad and encouraging lines, what is the good of having such an institution. My Lord I have therefore thought it proper when I moved the resolution to bring these facts to the notice of the Council and the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur assures me that Government have taken action in the way which is indicated in this resolution and that instructions have been issued to the Director of Public Instruction and further than that notice has been taken of the several grievances. I submit that I have no other alternative than to withdraw the resolution with your Excellency's permission on the assurance which has been given by the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan.

Before I sit down I have one word to say, namely, I have no personal motive in bringing this matter to the notice of the Council. I have no sons, no children, nothing of the kind. I have moved the resolution in the interest of the public and the public alone. If there is waste of public revenues on schools like these one cannot but bring it to the notice of your Excellency's Government and the Council. I have come forward with a grievance which I have substantiated by reference to the report. My Lord, I do not wish to say anything more, but as I have already said I have no other alternative left but to withdraw the resolution on the assurance of the Hon'ble Member in charge."

The motion was then by leave of the President withdrawn.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEMS Nos. 7 AND 8.

The Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur was to have moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that immediate arrangements be made by Government for opening additional sections of classes in all Government Colleges in Bengal, for the accommodation of those successful students who have been refused admission into Colleges for want of accommodation.

The Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Ray was to have moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a committee be appointed to inquire into the difficulties of students in securing admission to Colleges and other educational institutions in Bengal, and to recommend suitable measures for providing adequate facilities for their studies.

Resolutions.

President ; Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq ; Sir Henry Wheeler.

The President said :—

"I understand that it has not been possible to secure the information necessary to deal with resolutions 7 and 8 to-day and I have, therefore, agreed to their being postponed until the meeting of the Council on the 3rd September."

The resolutions were then postponed till the meeting of the Council of the 3rd September, 1919.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 9.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq in the absence of Hon'ble Babu Bhabendra Chandra Ray moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a committee of officials and non-officials be appointed to inquire into the methods followed by the authorities in the matter of selection of candidates for admission into the Calcutta Medical College at the beginning of the current session.

The Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

"At the request of my Hon'ble friend who is absent to-day, I beg leave to move this resolution which stands in his name. I may say at once, my Lord, that, although I was asked to move this resolution by a letter which I received from the Hon'ble mover, I confess I do not know really the grounds on which he thought it fit to bring forward this resolution. I may, however, state here that there is a considerable feeling in this country that boys do really find difficulties in the way of their admission into the Medical College. Those difficulties are of varied character ; and I think that, in the interests of all concerned, it would be better if some enquiry be made in order that these grievances might be redressed. I do not wish to take up the time of the Council further. With this object in view, I beg to commend it for the consideration of the Council."

The Hon'ble Sir Henry Wheeler said :—

"Sir, I was interested to note that the Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq, in addition to the bountiful contributions he has made to the bill of fare of the present session, was also equal to the task of serving up the leavings of absentees, but my interest is somewhat discounted by his very candid admission that he does not know why this resolution was put forward, unless as a means of ventilating a vague sense of grievance. However, I am not sorry that he has undertaken the task, in so far as from the two questions that have been answered to-day and from this resolution it would seem that there is a certain amount of misapprehension about our position in regard to this matter, which a statement of the facts may perhaps dispel.

I may say at once that the Local Government are not prepared to accept the resolution, and they base that opinion mainly on two grounds. In the first place the question of selecting students for admission to the College is essentially the function of the Principal, and it would be absolutely detrimental to the authority of the Principal to delegate that power to a committee or to request a committee to revise his orders. The position of the Principal in the matter is definitely laid down in the rules. The second main ground is that there is nothing that requires investigation by a committee, as I am in a position to explain the considerations which weigh in the admission of students, and after having examined the account given by the Principal as to his procedure in making a choice, we are of opinion that he acted reasonably and justifiably in the lines that he adopted.

Resolutions.

Sir Henry Wheeler.

First of all it is as well to remind the Council what the rules governing admission are. We are concerned here with what are called the 'regular' classes, and the minimum qualification for admission to those classes is the I. Sc. pass of the Calcutta University. This is worth emphasising, as I imagine that the grievance underlying these questions and this resolution is that men of inferior educational qualifications have been taken in—that is, I. Sc.'s have been taken in—while B. Sc.'s were available and were not chosen. So long, however, as the rule definitely recognises the I. Sc. as a qualification, the claims of men so qualified cannot be disregarded. Apart from that, we have it in the rules that while preference for admission is usually given to candidates who have superior qualifications, yet the final selection lies entirely with the Principal, that is to say, the responsibility is that of the Principal We then have it laid down that one-fourth of the total number admitted shall be Muhammadans. That is a condition which, I take it commends itself fully to the Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Huq. Next, 12 candidates are nominated by the Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals, Bihar and Orissa, and 6 by Assam. In addition, the Bihar and Orissa Government nominates 6 scholars who must possess the I. Sc. qualification.

These are the rules, and I have here an account from Lt.-Col. Deare of the way in which he exercised his discretion on the last occasion, and it is on that account that I base my subsequent remarks. In the first place, he observes that the method of selection was precisely that which was followed in previous years, and that every application-letter was opened and every candidate selected by himself. That again is worth emphasising, as in connection with questions of this kind there is often a vague rumour that students get admitted because they pay a rupee to a clerk here or eight annas to a chaprasi there. We have it from the Principal that all applications were opened and considered by him personally. He says that the problem with which he was faced was to select for 145 vacancies from 947 candidates. First of all he picked out the 11 Muhammadans, of whom 9 actually joined. Then three lady students were admitted, which left him with 131 vacancies against 933 candidates. And for this he had to choose from one M. Sc., 186 B. Sc.'s, 604 I. Sc.'s and 156 I. A.'s, B A.'s and I. Sc.'s of other provinces. He first of all washed out the 156 candidates from other provinces as they were not admissible under the rules. When I say 'other provinces' I mean of course provinces other than those covered by the admission rules of the college, which include the jurisdiction of the Calcutta University and the province of Bihar and Orissa. That left him with 791 candidates for 131 vacancies, and he then began to scrutinize the names bearing in mind the following considerations :—

(1) To select according to seniority of qualification. By seniority he means, I take it, superiority of qualification and priority of dates of taking the same qualification.

(2) To distribute the vacancies among various districts. That, I think, is quite fair, bearing in mind that we are always hearing complaints that in the public services there are certain districts which are more favoured than others. It is quite fair in principle to let every district in Bengal have a chance.

(3) To take in candidates especially recommended, and this too is a fair consideration to which weight may reasonably be given.

(4) To make provision for immediate dependants of assistant surgeons and graduates of the Medical College. This, again, is a matter to which regard may justifiably be paid.

Proceeding on these general lines, he first of all took the one M. Sc. who did not however join. He then took the B. Sc.'s who passed in previous years and 47 B. Sc.'s who passed in 1919. With regard to this matter of B. Sc.'s there is a serious practical difficulty. I understand that the B. Sc.'s, because of their taking certain subjects at that examination, are entitled to admission to the 2nd year class of the Medical College, and it results therefrom that this class tends to become overcrowded. There is also an objection that students who enter that class straightaway do not get what is considered by the College authorities to be an adequate training in anatomy, and on these two grounds it is not possible to admit more than a certain number of B. Sc.'s. We have, however, the definite statement of the Principal that he filled the second year class up to the highest possible limit, and admitted more B. Sc.'s than in previous years. Having got through the B. Sc.'s he turned to the I. Sc.'s, and of them he took 75 who passed in the first division. 17 from the second division and one third division, the proportion in the first division being again higher than in the two previous years. It may be asked why did he take in second and third division men while he had first division men available? In answer to that Colonel Deare has replied that out of the 18 who were not in the first division. 16 were connected with past students and medical practitioners attached to the College. and I do not think that it is unfair that, up to a point, preference should be given to men of that class, the presumption being that the son of a doctor will have a greater hereditary disposition towards the profession of medicine. Educational institutions in other parts of the world do not hesitate to give preference to the sons of fathers who themselves attended those same institutions.

Resolutions.

Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq.

That is the method which the Principal adopted. He has also given details in his report bearing out his geographical argument. I submit that he has dealt with the matter fairly and with due regard to the various arguments which might be used in favour of particular candidates. He has dealt with it satisfactorily. and he has only followed customary methods which are in themselves perfectly reasonable. In these circumstances, there is no case for the appointment of a committee. On examining his account, and having regard to the grievance which, as I say. I imagine to have orginated the resolution, it has struck me that we might enquire further as to the possibility of screwing up the entrance qualification, say, from the I.Sc. to the B.Sc., if the argument is that we ought to take men of higher qualifications in preference to others of lower degrees. But how far that would be expedient I cannot say offhand, and I cannot promise more than this, that I am willing to make further enquiries from the Surgeon-General and the Principal of the Medical College on the point. But to the main recommendation in the resolution that a committee be appointed, I am afraid I must return a negative.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq said:—

"My Lord, having listened to what the Hon'ble Member has just now said and also to the replies that have been given to certain interpellations this morning I confess that no case has been made out for the appointment of a committee. I take it that the authority who can move a resolution has also the right to ask for the withdrawal of it; and in that view of the matter, I pray that the resolution may be withdrawn."

The resolution was then, by leave of the President, withdrawn.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 10.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq moved the following resolution :—

'This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that steps be taken immediately for the establishment of a Muhammadan Arts College at Dacca.

Resolutions.

Khan Sahib Aman Ali.

He said :—

"I think it would be some relief to the Hon'ble Members when I say that I am extremely anxious to get back to Calcutta as early as possible and that, therefore, I do not wish to detain the Council with any unnecessary remarks on this resolution, especially as it had been before the Council on two previous occasions when there were sufficient discussions on it. The question of a Muhammadan Arts College is one of great importance to the Muhammadans of Eastern Bengal and I think it is a matter which has now been definitely considered by Government to be absolutely necessary in fulfilment of the pledge that was given by His Excellency Lord Hardinge on the occasion of his visit to Dacca after the annulment of the partition. The number of Muhammadan students that yearly flock to the various colleges is increasing so rapidly that it has become absolutely necessary that some more colleges should be established in order to take in the students who are coming up in such large numbers, and it has been felt particularly that there should be some special institution where Muhammadan parents could secure for their sons such instructions as would be more suitable for Muhammadan boys. The question of a Muhammadan Arts College for Calcutta has also been considered on more than one occasion and I find in the Report of the Universities Commission—the little that I read of it—that the Commission is of opinion that a sufficiently strong case has been made out for the establishment of a Muhammadan Arts College in Calcutta. If that be the condition of things in Calcutta, it is with still greater reason that I urge on your Excellency's Government that the question of a Muhammadan Arts College for Dacca should be taken up at once. On former occasion we were told, and I admit, with sufficient reason, that the whole question should not be finally decided till the Universities Commission has submitted its report. That report has now been submitted; and, as I have already stated, the Commission does recognise the necessity for establishing a Muhammadan Arts College in Calcutta. The difficulties of Muhammadan students in getting admission into the existing colleges are at the present moment as keen as ever and, unless steps are taken for the establishment of a college at once, I may say that the road of high education, so far as hundred of Muhammadan students are concerned, will be blocked without any justifiable reason. I do not know what statement the Government is going to make with reference to this resolution. I, however, do not wish to take up the time of the Council any further because if a satisfactory statement is going to be made, it is unnecessary on my part to go into details. For the present I simply put the resolution for consideration."

The Hon'ble Khan Sahib Aman Ali said :—

"My Lord, the number of Muhammadan students is now growing very rapidly. I may speak of one college at Chittagong where 95 candidates were registered during a summer vacation. After the college re-opened another 30 students applied for admission. Out of these only 40 boys were admitted. From this it will be seen in what a difficult position the Muhammadan students now are. They have now taken to English education in right earnest and if at this stage, their desire is not fulfilled they would feel it very much and their progress would be very slow. Therefore a special college for Muhammadan students has become an essential necessity. The case I have cited is not an isolated one. If the Government make inquiries, they will find that such a state of things prevails in Comilla, in Dacca and various other places. I know of some of these Muhammadan students being admitted in the Dacca College but there are many who are refused admission simply because there were no seats. These considerations have compelled us to appeal to your Excellency's Government for a college for Muhammadan boys. With these remarks I beg to support the resolution."

Resolutions.

Mr. Dunn.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dunn said :—

" My Lord, the Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq has stated that the Calcutta University Commission has recommended the establishment of a Muhammadan Arts College. It will be my business in the course of my reply to explain that that is not altogether an accurate statement of the suggestions made by the Calcutta University Commission in their report. The resolution recommends that steps be taken immediately for the establishment of a Muhammadan Arts College in Dacca. The acceptance of this resolution would presumably lead to the founding of an Arts College staffed by Muhammadan lecturers and attended exclusively by Muhammadans, the institution being affiliated in the meantime to the University of Calcutta and perhaps in the future to the University of Dacca. The proposal is not a new one. It was considered in the deliberations of the Dacca University Committee and it was worked out in detail by the Hon'ble Mr. Hornell in 1915. It will not be out of place to state briefly what his proposals were. Provision had to be made in this proposed Muhammadan College for two sets of students (1) those who would follow the general course leading to the ordinary degrees in arts and (2) those who would read a special course in the department of Islamic studies. The original proposal having got so far there is every reason why the Muhammadan community of Eastern Bengal should be anxious to secure this type of institution. The scheme has long been under consideration, it was carefully discussed by the University Commission and I am glad to say that in the Calcutta University Commission Report every consideration had been given to the educational needs and aspirations of the Muhammadan community in Dacca and in Eastern Bengal. It is almost certain that the problem of Muhammadan education in Eastern Bengal will be solved in a manner much more satisfactory if the proposals of the Calcutta University Commission's Report are accepted in full, and if the resolution now before us be adopted and put into force. At this stage I may be allowed to give the briefest summary of the proposals of the Calcutta University Commission in so far as they deal with the question now at issue. In their report it is stated that a purely Musalman college would seriously limit the educational opportunities of Muhammadan students in Dacca and Eastern Bengal, that in the place of such an institution a University Moslem Hall should be founded. This would not segregate the Musalman from the Hindu students so far as the actual University work is concerned but would enable them to mix with the latter and to join in the general life of the University. This institution would necessitate a large provision for Muhammadans in Intermediate Colleges either in Dacca or in the surrounding muffassal districts and would not prevent the admission of Muhammadan students to other halls in the University if they so desired. When the Moslem Hall is full the question will arise whether a second similar hall should be erected or whether Muhammadan students would join mixed halls.

From these facts, Sir, it is fairly clear what the University Commission had in mind. For all the special purposes of the religious and social life of the Muhammadans ample provision has been made within the new Dacca University as at present outlined, but this provision will be so designed as to enable them to join in the full life of that University, to share in the best lectures and to enjoy the privileges of the best tutorial assistance. By this time it is well known that all Intermediate College work has to be removed from the sphere of University control and attached to high schools and to separate Intermediate Colleges. It is vital, therefore, that in these new institutions the interest of the Muhammadan community should be guarded.

Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq.

The University Commission have recommended definitely that an Intermediate College for Muhammadans should be founded in Dacca. This scheme is already under the consideration of the Education Department and there is no reason to believe that it will be long delayed. The higher education for Muhammadans runs broadly on two lines. The first is the purely oriental, classical or Islamic course of study for which ample provision will be made in the new University. The second is what is best described as the general course of study in Arts and Science Colleges. I am glad to be able to say that as regards the first, or the purely Islamic side of educational work, Government have already extended the courses of the senior Madrassa in Dacca to intermediate Islamic courses leading to further advanced study in the University when founded. Students have already passed from the senior Madrassa into these intermediate classes and provision is being made for the further encouragement of this work. On the one side therefore of Islamic education we may claim to be well advanced in Dacca, and to have anticipated the founding in the new University of courses of Islamic learning. By the time the University of Dacca is established there will be ready for this course a considerable number of Muhammadan young men. As regards the second or the general course I would point out that provision has already been made in Dacca of a Moslem High School wholly supported by Government. On the basis of this institution it is my intention to suggest to the authorities that an Intermediate College for Muhammadans be founded. Study in advance of the intermediate stage will be taken up in the University but for Muhammadan boys who will take up such study it is imperative that they should anticipate the demand which their later professional or official life will bring and mix with their fellow students of different races and religion on a footing of equality, thus securing the full benefit of University culture and discipline. In conclusion therefore I have to say that everything desired in the resolution under consideration has been anticipated by the Calcutta University Commission's Report, and that this resolution will be best realised by the foundation of a Moslem Hall in the new University, by the alternative courses of instruction on the Islamic and on the modern sides and by the creation of preparatory intermediate colleges, one of which for classical study has already been founded at Dacca, while the other is under immediate consideration. For these reasons I am not prepared to recommend the resolution to the Council."

The Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

"My Lord, I find what I rightly anticipated, that the reply of the Government as regards this resolution would be satisfactory. In view of what has been stated by the Hon'ble Mr. Dunn I think, my Lord, I can claim that the Government are prepared to accept the resolution. We have been told that the Intermediate College in Arts is already in contemplation. If that is so, it means that my recommendation that a Muhammadan Arts College at Dacca be established, is accepted. I have purposely refrained from saying that we want a first grade college of arts and if an Intermediate College in Arts is already in contemplation the resolution does not ask for more than what the Government themselves are going to do. I think I ought to say in justice to myself and those of my friends who have been good enough to support my resolution on previous occasions and also to-day, that we never wanted that this Muhammadan College or Moslem Hall, whatever it may be called, should be staffed by Muhammadan professors only and that it should be open only to Muhammadan students, and that non-Moslem students should not be allowed to study there. My Lord, we have no objection to having non-Moslem tutors and professors provided they are fully qualified and we have also no objection in taking in non-Muhammadan students provided that amplest facilities are given to Muhammadan students and that there are not enough Muhammadan candidates seeking admission in the college. This is of course by the way—in order to make clear what we want in regard to an arts college. But I repeat that the recommendation does not ask for more than what the Government are prepared to do and in that view of the matter I think I can fairly claim that the resolution has been accepted by the Government. If there is any objection to the word 'immediately' and if the word be considered to be too peremptory, I am prepared to substitute the words 'at an early date.'

The Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan said :—

"I do not think, my Lord, after what Mr. Dunn has said that there is any need to accept the resolution."

The President said :—

"I understand that the Hon'ble Maulvi wants to put the resolution to the Council, though he understands that what the Government are willing to do is equivalent to an acceptance of the resolution. On the other hand the Hon'ble Mr. Dunn has said that he cannot accept the resolution, so that Hon'ble Members are put in some difficulty in knowing what their action should be. If the Hon'ble Mr. Dunn could explain, in reply to the Hon'ble Maulvi's contention, that what Government are doing is equivalent to accepting the resolution, then Hon'ble Members would be in a better position to know to what decision they should come to."

The Hon'ble Mr. Dunn said :—

"My Lord, I am sorry if I failed to make my intention perfectly clear to the Hon'ble Member, but it seems to me that if we were to accept the resolution as it at present stands, namely, one which desires to start a Muhammadan Arts College at Dacca, we would be striking at the very root of those principles which the Calcutta University Commission have been at such pains to explain in their lengthy and interesting report. I understand that the Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq is in possession of that report. I have tried to explain what the intention of the Commission is with regard to the Muhammadan education at Dacca. Might I, with your permission, recapitulate one or two points. The foundation of a Moslem Hall is recommended for the new University. Work preceding entrance to the Moslem Hall will be carried on in intermediate colleges: one for Muhammadans has to be founded in Dacca and the other in the intermediate classes which I have already made clear, are now in operation in the Dacca Madrassa. This Moslem Hall will provide for the social, religious and racial interests of Muhammadans, but, while carrying on their studies in that particular type of institution in the new University they will have the full benefit of all lectures or all tutorial assistance whether it be given by Europeans or Indians either Muhammadan or Hindu. If that does not fulfil the intention of the present resolution I am afraid I fail to understand exactly what this resolution is intended to convey."

The Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

"After what Mr. Dunn has said I find that his remarks fulfil the purpose of my resolution and I, therefore, contend that my resolution has been accepted."

The motion was then put and lost.

Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq ; Maulvi Abul Kasem.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 11.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that steps be taken immediately for the appointment of qualified and suitable Muhammadans as Professors and Lecturers in Colleges in Bengal.

He said :—

"My Lord, I must admit that the questions raised by this resolution are of a somewhat delicate character, because it might be construed that if we are going to introduce racial considerations into educational questions, other questions of a controversial character, are bound to arise. Nothing was further from our thoughts than this, and if I have been induced to bring forward this resolution for the consideration of your Excellency's Government it is for the reason that in several instances I have found extremely qualified Muhammadans who have applied for posts of lecturers and professors in colleges have unfortunately been unsuccessful in their efforts to get an appointment. I do not wish to impute to anyone who has got the gift of these appointments in their hands, any motives of a questionable character, but I do say that if the failure of qualified Muhammadans to secure lectureships and professorships had been few and far between, we might have thought that the grievances of unsuccessful candidates were of a more or less sentimental character, but I find that hardly a week passes when we do not get complaints from extremely qualified persons, and we are therefore at a loss to understand how candidates possessing such qualifications can fail to get such appointments. I understand that the Director of Public Instruction has got nothing to do practically with these appointments and that he has delegated his functions to the various managing commitees or governing bodies as they are called of the various colleges in the Presidency. I am afraid that on these governing bodies Muhammadans are not properly represented and it may be that non-Muhammadan gentlemen who are serving on these governing bodies fail to appreciate the claims of these Muhammadan candidates properly and it is on this account that these grievances have arisen. If I am correct in my surmise, I think your Excellency's Government might devise some means for the proper representation of Muhammadans on these governing bodies or devise some other means by which these grievances might be removed. The question is of a very simple character, and I do not think I would be justified in taking up the time of this Council by any further remarks."

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem moved by way of amendment, that in the resolution of the Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq, item No. 11 in the List of Business, after the word "Colleges," in the last line, the following words be inserted, viz:—

"and as Head Masters and Assistant Head Masters and teachers in Government and aided schools."

He said :—

"My Lord, it is with a good deal of diffidence that I move not only this amendment, but rise to support the resolution of my Hon'ble friend Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq. It will be seen that we, the Muhammadans of this Council, always in season and out of season cry out in one form or another for help in the case of Muhammadans in the Educational service. My friend says he has been induced to give notice of this resolution because he has heard that qualified Muhammadans have applied for appointments

Resolutions.

Mr. Dunn.

as lecturers and professors, and they have failed to secure them. My object in supporting it, when notice of the amendment was given, was due to a different cause. I want that there should be some professors and lecturers in colleges as well as some teachers in high schools, not on the ground of securing employment for Muhammadan graduates, however desirable that may be, but for the purpose of creating in the educational institutions, an atmosphere sympathetic to Muhammadan students reading in that school or college. In a school where there is not a single or sufficient number of Muhammadan teachers the Muhammadan students find themselves like fish out of water and are not generally treated with that consideration or regard for their particular feelings and sentiments as they would be if there was any one on the staff of the educational institution to advise the authorities about them. It is generally the Persian professor or the Persian teacher who is the adviser of the head master or the Principal on all questions affecting the interests of Muhammadan boys. In my humble opinion it is not sufficient and does not at all meet the needs of the student community. The resolution with the amendment reads like a big order on the Government that the professors and lecturers and head masters, assistant head masters and teachers in Government aided schools should be Muhammadans. But we do not mean to say that in every college or each particular college there should be professors and lecturers and teachers who should be Muhammadans. What we suggest is that even if we are not explicit in the resolution, an attempt should be made to provide educational institutions with Muhammadan teachers be they head masters, or assistant head masters or if that is not practicable, simply as teachers in aided and Government schools. That will go a great way to make the position of the Muhammadan students in the schools comfortable and will remove much of their grievances and the sufferings under which they are labouring at the present moment. I do not think that it would serve any good purpose to make any lengthy remarks on this subject but I hope that this resolution will be accepted by your Excellency's Government."

The Hon'ble Mr. Dunn said :—

"My Lord, it will probably simplify matters if I deal with the resolution and with the amendment which are substantially the same, together. I would like to preface my remarks by the statement that I am, as far as possible, in the fullest sympathy with both the resolution and the amendment. The first resolution may be taken to mean that an early decision should be made to appoint to colleges in Bengal, Muhammadan professors and lecturers whose qualifications admit of such appointments. The Education Department has already given much thought to this question; and it sympathises with the desire of the Muhammadan community that the number of Muhammadan appointments in the educational service should be increased. Whenever appointments come to be made, the claims of Muhammadans (who have the necessary qualifications) receive most careful attention. It is desirable that most colleges should have, in addition to those who teach the Moslem classics, some Muhammadan members on their staff. This principle has already been recognised. But it is obvious that in the interests of the public at large, and in the interests of the Muhammadans themselves, the demand of any special community for representation cannot be allowed to overpower the claims of efficiency. The standard of education in our colleges must be maintained at as high a level as possible; and so long as this principle is adhered to, the Department of Education is prepared to consider all claims to collegiate posts that Muhammadan candidates may put forward. I am of opinion that had specific cases of hardship been quoted it would have been easier to deal with this resolution and this amendment. I am told by both the Hon'ble Members that the system of appointment in colleges is not altogether satisfactory and the Director of Public Instruction has practically delegated his functions and powers to governing bodies who may be non-Moslem in their constitution and whose sympathies may be antagonistic to the Muhammadan community. That, Sir, is scarcely a fair representation of the facts. It is necessary that responsible bodies such as the managing committees of schools and governing bodies of colleges should be empowered to represent the claims of their selected candidates for important posts, otherwise what would be the use of having governing bodies at all. The proposals of these governing bodies must be carefully considered ; but it is not accurate to say that appointments are made solely on the recommendations of the governing bodies of colleges or managing committees of schools, and wherever possible, subject to the very necessary condition of efficiency, the interests of Muhammadans are being considered. It will appear, therefore, that the intention of this resolution will be best realised if the interests of highly qualified Muhammadan applicants for posts in colleges be left to the care of Government and to the Government Department of Education.

Resolutions.

Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq.

As regards the amendment, the statement I have already made referring to this resolution will apply with equal force ; but in this connection there are certain difficulties to be faced. It is extremely hard to secure qualified Muhammadans as head masters of schools ; the reason is a very simple one. A Muhammadan who takes a pass degree or better than a pass degree is usually in a position to secure a much better appointment than that of a teacher in a school. I think I am not exaggerating the case when I say that our ablest Muhammadans are not in the ranks of the educational service and still less are they in the ranks of the aided school system. When, therefore, promotions to the higher posts come to be made it frequently happens that the Muhammadans available are inferior to their Hindu fellow teachers. Promotions in this case would be undeserved and would inevitably lead to a serious lowering of standards. These remarks apply to head masterships, and assistant head masterships. As regards teacherships the Department of Education exercises influence through its grant-in-aid rules, and the appointment and dismissal of teachers have to be reported to the Inspectors of Schools and in addition to this it has been ordered that in all aided schools where there is any considerable Muhammadan population, arrangements should be made for teaching of Arabic and Persian. Beyond this it is scarcely possible for the Department of Education to go without causing undue hardship to those already teaching in schools or to such as may apply for posts vacant in aided institutions.

For these reasons, Sir, while I sympathise with the aspirations which have been expressed I am unable to support either the resolution or the amendment."

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

"My Lord, I was responsible for the remark that the Director of Public Instruction has practically delegated his powers and functions so far as these appointments are concerned to various governing bodies or managing committees of schools and colleges. The Director of Public Instruction has taken exception to that remark but I do not think I need enter into a controversy as regards the correct interpretation of the position as to the appointment of candidates to these various posts. My chief object in saying a few words is to make my position clear so far as my own resolution is concerned. In the first place I wish to assure this Council that it has never been my intention to suggest that the demands of the Muhammadan community or for the matter of that the demands of any other community for a proper representation in the various posts in the Government service can for a moment be permitted to override the higher interests of efficiency. It is for this reason that even in this resolution I have been careful to add the words 'qualified and suitable' and nothing is further from my thoughts than to suggest that merely because it is desirable that Muhammadan teachers and professors should be on the staff of educational institutions that Government should go out into the street and catch hold of every Muhammadan teacher and put him into a post in order to fill up a possible vacancy. I do insist that the first sine quâ non for any appointment must be the qualifications according to rules which should be rigidly observed in the case of all candidates whether Muhammadan or non-Muhammadan. My contention is that the claims of a Muhammadan candidate who fulfils the necessary qualifications should be favourably considered even though there may be a non-Muhammadan who is equally qualified. It is thus and thus only that we should be able to secure for these educational institutions something like a reasonable representation of the Muhammadan or any other communities in this Presidency.

Resolutions.

Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq.

Then, my Lord, I have been told that it would serve the interest of my own community best if I were to leave the case of the appointment of Muhammadan teachers and professors to the care of Government and their officers. That we are perfectly prepared to do. I started with the suggestion that the Director of Public Instruction does no longer hold the appointments in his hands and I thought that it is for this reason that the claims of the community would be overlooked. I therefore suggested that if these functions are to be delegated to any committee or any governing body, care should also be taken to see that the interests of the various communities are properly represented on these bodies. I have been told, my Lord, that one difficulty in the way of getting suitable Muhammadans for the posts of lecturers and professors lies in the fact that whenever a Muhammadan passes out, he generally gets employment elsewhere. Possibly reference is made to the appointments which are annually made by the Chief Secretary to Government, but I think the Chief Secretary himself will bear me out when I say that there are hundreds of exceptionally meritorious Muhammadan candidates who failed to get admission into the provincial service, either the executive, or the judicial, the police service or the excise and salt. There are several exceedingly fine Muhammadan candidates every year who first of all seek for admission in these services and when they fail, they seek admission into the Education Department, or they flock to the University Law College and add to the number of unsuccessful legal practitioners in this country.

I know of certain Government appointments which are earmarked for non-Muhammadans. However, with the individual cases of hardship I am not concerned and I have purposely refrained from bringing forward in support of my resolution any case of individual hardship by reason of the fact that the introduction of individual cases in this discussion would import into our speeches something like personalities which ought to find no place in the discussions in the Council. I know of several cases and I hope the Director of Public Instruction will take them from me. I will give the facts of each particular case when I meet him next: but so far as the Council is concerned I do not wish to disclose these particular facts at this stage. I do stand by the resolution as originally put before the Council, and I submit that I have made out some case for its acceptance by the Government. If the Director of Public Instruction does give each individual case, as it comes up, his best consideration and takes proper steps to revise the decisions of these advisory committees with a view to properly representing the various communities on these bodies, the purpose which I had in view in bringing forward this resolution will be served. I understand the Director of Public Instruction to say that care is taken to properly safeguard the interests of the Muhammadans and I have no doubt that this is done. My Lord, in this view of the matter I do not think that it will serve any useful purpose if I delayed the discussion any further. I beg with your Excellency's permission to withdraw the resolution."

The motion and the amendment were then, by leave of the President, withdrawn.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 12.

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that suitable provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian be made in schools and colleges in the Presidency in all cases where such provision does not exist at present.

He said :—

"My Lord, as I anticipate a sympathetic and favourable consideration of this resolution by your Excellency's Government, I do not want to take up the time of the Council by making a speech in support of it. The only thing I would like to say is this. I am aware of the fact that there is a condition in granting aids to schools and colleges that provision should be made for the teaching of Arabic and Persian as has been stated by the Director of Public Instruction just now. But I know of educational institutions where this condition is fulfilled by appointing a Muhammadan gentleman as a Persian and Arabic teacher on a miserable pay who cannot and does not practically discharge the duties for which he is taken. It is simply, I take it, for the purpose of carrying out the order in the letter of the Education Department that this is done. I hope and trust that steps will be taken to see that in all cases arrangements are made for the teaching of Arabic and Persian and for the maintenance of a properly qualified teacher.

With these words, my Lord, I commend the resolution for the consideration of this Council."

The Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Ray said :—

"My Lord, I am sorry I have to oppose this resolution. My Muhammadan friends will agree with me that they consider Bengal to be their mother country and Bengali their mother tongue. So I am really astonished to see why they should try to move such a resolution as this. It would be necessary if the resolution of my friend be accepted that two extra teachers would have to be appointed in all schools and colleges in Bengal, namely, one for the teaching of Persian and the other for Arabic, for I know as a matter of fact all Persian teachers re not good Arabic scholars and they are not in a position to teach both Arabic and Persian. Then there is another thing to be taken into consideration. There may be one or two Muhammadan boys in a school and even in that case to make arrangements for the teaching of Arabic and Persian it will be necessary to employ two teachers. As a matter of fact what is now being done is that in all schools where there is a decent number of Muhammadan boys teachers are appointed to teach Persian and Arabic, and in schools and colleges where there is not a decent number of boys who want to read Arabic and Persian, teachers are not appointed. But the present resolution of my friend is a very large order upon Government and for these reasons I oppose this resolution."

Resolutions.

Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

My Lord, the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Ray has thought fit to oppose this resolution perhaps under a misconception. He is such an ardent supporter of Muhammadan claims that I was somewhat surprised when he rose to oppose the resolution, but after listening to him I find that he has not been able to adequately grasp the real reason which induced my Hon'ble friend, Maulvi Abul Kasem, to give notice of this resolution. I will therefore take the liberty as briefly as possibly to explain to him the position of Muhammadan students in the various schools and colleges. I do not think I need waste much time in trying to press the fact that a Muhammadan student like all oriental students considers that any education that he does receive must not be at the sacrifice of any religious training that he ought to receive at the same time. My friend knows very well that although Bengali happens to be the mother tongue, the Muhammadan student has got to read Arabic and Persian in order to be well versed in his religious language and literature. All his religious books and literature are in Arabic and Persian and it would be absurd to expect that a Muhammadan parent would send his boys to an educational institution where there are no facilities for the teaching of these two languages, which they consider almost as sacred languages, for the reason that their religious books are written in those two languages.

My friend has said that the acceptance of this resolution would mean that two extra teachers would have to be maintained at each school and college. Well, if the recommendation contained in this resolution does go to that length I am prepared to suggest that that course should be accepted. We have been told and we are always told that the Muhammadans are extremely backward in education and that their backwardness is a serious hindrance to the progress of other communities. I admit that the backwardness in education of so large a proportion as 56 per cent. must be a serious hindrance to the progress of the country as a whole and therefore it is not merely in the interests of the Muhammadans alone that the facilities should be given to the Muhammadans in the matter of teaching Arabic and Persian and that every inducement should be given to them to take advantage of the various educational institutions. In this connection I would like to remind my hon'ble friend about the deputation which waited on Lord Hardinge in 1912 and which went so far as to say that although the special facilities given to Muhammadans would be resented by non-Muhammadans they would be perfectly prepared to accept any suggestion of Government or any steps that might be taken by them in order to provide ample facilities in educational matters. I take it therefore that so far as educational problems are concerned our friends ought to give whole-hearted support to all schemes in furtherance of Muhammadan education in this country. If the acceptance of the resolution involves the appointment of two teachers at an extra cost of say Rs. 50, Rs. 60 or 100, I submit that the cost will not be too much in consideration of the objects that are to be achieved. The question therefore arises whether the provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian is so very essential and so very necessary. I submit with all the emphasis that I can command that the provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian is necessary for all institutions. If you do not appoint teachers or professors for the teaching of these languages in all schools and colleges how can you expect that students should go and take admission in these institutions. It cannot therefore be argued that no case has been made out for the appointment of Arabic and Persian professors. It may also be argued that there is no demand for such teaching and to this I should say that provision should first be made for the teaching of these languages and then you may be in a position to see whether there is really any very great demand or not, but you cannot, by making no provision, say that there is no demand for the teaching of these languages. I submit, therefore, my Lord, that provision must be made for the teaching of Arabic and Persian in all schools and colleges and I do not think that any question of expenditure should at all enter into the consideration of this question. For all these reasons I most strongly support the motion which is substantially the same as the next resolution which stands in my name.

Resolutions.

Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari; Mr. Dunn.

The Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari said :—

"There is an important consideration in connection with this question of which both the Hon'ble mover of the resolution as well as the gentleman opposing it have lost sight. Although Bengali is the mother tongue of Muhammadans in this province it is not yet reckoned as a classical subject in the University. Unless therefore facilities for the teaching of Persian and Arabic are provided in schools and colleges, Muhammadans will be obliged to take Pali or Sanskrit. I do not object to their taking either of these languages from the point of view of scholarship, but it would be a distinct hardship to the community if for want of facilities they were obliged to do so. If we provide for Sanskrit in a province so largely populated by Muhammadans equal facilities should be provided for the Arabic and Persian if they wish to take to them. Therefore to complete educational arrangements specially from the point of view of Muhammadans, facilities for the teaching of Arabic and Persian will have to be provided for. My Lord, I cannot quite understand Mr. Ray's point of view in opposing this resolution. Of course the money question is always there, but we are trying to improve Muhammadan education which certainly demands that some arrangements should be made. I do not want to be unkind to my Muhammadan friends, and remind them now they did all they could to get rid of the very little Arabic insisted on by the University in connection with Persian. The objection was on the score of the difficulty of Arabic to the Bengalee Musulman. It can hardly be therefore that there will be widespread demand for Arabic as an independent subject. But where there is such a demand I think that every facility should be given for the teaching of Arabic, a subject which ought to be thought of in connection with their religious and other teachings. One cannot, however, agree that every school and college, irrespective of real demand, should have arrangements both for Arabic and Persian."

The Hon'ble Mr. Dunn said :—

"My Lord, the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem in moving this resolution has stated that what he really desires is an improved quality of instruction rather than the extension of that instruction. But this is a very different thing to the intention of the resolution now before us, that suitable provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian be made in schools and colleges in the Presidency in all cases where such provision does not exist at present. No more comprehensive demand can be made for the teaching of Arabic than that which has been put forward. I feel compelled therefore to deal with this resolution as it stands while keeping in mind the corollary which the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem has added to the resolution. Unquestionably it is one that affects deeply the whole Muhammadan community of this Presidency. At present the principle underlying the resolution has been recognised in the fact that suitable provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian is being made in all schools and colleges under Government control. In this case, it is altogether reasonable to suggest that similar provision should be extended to schools other than those under Government management, where the interests of Muhammadan learning appear to have been neglected. If the principle is recognised in Government institutions, then we cannot set it aside in aided institutions. In dealing with the details I shall take each type of institution in turn. Of the 6 Government colleges in the Presidency, all are affiliated in Persian and 4 in

Resolutions.

Mr. Dunn.

Arabic up to the pass standard of the B. A. degree. Up to the honours standard. 3 are affiliated in both Arabic and Persian. Of the 13 aided colleges in the Presidency, 4 are affiliated in Persian up to the B. A. pass standard. Of the 13 unaided colleges, 2 are affiliated in Persian and 1 in both Arabic and Persian. Of the whole number of 32 colleges, 13 are affiliated in Persian to the pass standard, 4 to the honours standard, 5 to the pass standard in Arabic, and 3 to the honours standard in Arabic. In calculating the total number of colleges I have omitted the two training colleges for teachers which do not undertake graduate instruction, and such institutions as the Sanskrit College in Calcutta which cannot be expected to teach either Arabic or Persian. It is scarcely possible for the Education Department to bring pressure to bear upon unaided colleges in the Presidency. The controlling authority for such institutions is not the Department of Education but the University of Calcutta ; and to the widespread influence of that institution, I would venture to recommend the resolution of the Hon'ble Member.

As regards schools as distinct from colleges, we have to deal with Government institutions, with aided institutions and with those under private control without the enjoyment of a grant-in-aid. The only Government schools in which no provision is made for Arabic or Persian instruction are the Sanskrit Collegiate School and the Hindu School. but in these institutions no Muhammadans now read. It would not be reasonable, therefore, either to make provision for the teaching of Muhammadan classics in these institutions, or to bring pressure to bear upon them in order to introduce such instruction I take it, Sir, that the resolution of the Hon'ble Member does not fully cover such institutions as I have described, although it asks for provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian in all cases where such provision does not exist at present. As regards aided institutions, the attitude of the Education Department has been towards the encouragement of the study of Arabic and Persian. Inspectors have been specially instructed to investigate the needs of all schools situated in Muhammadan localities where the teaching of Arabic and Persian has been neglected. In all aided high schools, also, the need for the provision of instruction in the Islamic classics is carefully considered when grants are sanctioned for the first time or when grants come to be renewed.

As regards private schools, their control lies with the University of Calcutta ; but the Education Department has to report on the condition of these institutions for the University. In every case the reports submitted to the Syndicate lay stress upon the need (where the need exists) of Maulvis for the teaching of Arabic and Persian. In conclusion I would state that in Eastern Bengal where the Muhammadan population is large it is safe to say that very few, if any, of the high schools fail to teach one or both of the Muhammadan classical languages. Here at this stage I do not feel myself justified in entering into a discussion on the quality of that instruction. In Western Bengal where conditions are altogether different, there are many schools where no Maulvis are entertained, but in these schools in that area, I have no ground for the belief that a reasonable demand exists for this kind of instruction. Any complaints on this question from local Anjumans and other responsible bodies invariably meet with careful consideration ; and I shall be glad to investigate at any time any specific instances of neglect of Muhammadan interest in schools or colleges that may be brought to my notice. If then the resolution means that Arabic and Persian studies should be introduced in schools and colleges wherever they are desired, I would support it, as my department has already done, without hesitation and with enthusiasm. But if the resolution means that we must thrust Islamic studies upon schools that neither desire nor can make use of them, I am afraid that I cannot recommend its acceptance by this Council."

Resolutions.

Maulvi Abul Kasem.

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem said :—

"My Lord, when I moved the resolution I thought that it would be accepted on behalf of the Government and that there would be no discussions over it, but the opposition of my Hon'ble friend, Babu Surendra Nath Ray, came upon me as a surprise. I am sorry to find that he does not see the difficulties of the Muhammadan students in this connection. If he had been able to do so he would certainly have supported the resolution as it stands, as I believe there is no one in this Council more anxious to see Muhammadan boys advance in education than the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Ray himself. I am told that the resolution, as drafted, was different in spirit from my speech in introducing it to the Council because I am told, that I added a corrolary to it by saying that the quality of the education should be improved. By 'suitable provision'—the wording is quite clear—I meant that there must be capable teachers to teach Arabic and Persian and that the teachers must not be any and every Muhammadan caught hold of in the streets and installed in the chair of the Arabic and Persian Professor. As regards the demand for suitable teachers by high schools, I may relate an incident. When the present Director of Public Instruction was in charge of education in the Burdwan Division, the local association approached him on a matter of this kind. He held an inquiry as regards one particular school which used to maintain a Persian teacher on Rs. 30 a month. He held consultations with the authorities and came to the conclusion that the teaching was inefficient and he insisted upon the school authorities appointing a suitable teacher which the school authorities had to do. The result has been that within two years the number of Muhammadan students reading Arabic and Persian in that high school has risen from 10 to 85. This justifies me in saying that, if a proper provision is made for the teaching of these two languages, the number of Muhammadan students would certainly increase in our schools and colleges. It has been said that such provision has been made so far as Eastern Bengal districts are concerned, but if we examine the facts, we find that a good many Muhammadan boys take up Sanskrit as their second language, even in Eastern Bengal. Like the Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikari, I also do not object to Muhammadans taking up Sanskrit for academic distinctions or scholastic studies, but the difficulty is that they take up Sanskrit because the teaching of Arabic and Persian is not efficient and they cannot expect to get through the examinations, and the result is that they are driven to take up Sanskrit. The real object as to why we insist on Muhammadan boys taking up Arabic and Persian studies is not only that our religious books are written in those languages but for the fact that, without a proper study of Arabic and Persian, a Muhammadan loses in himself the Islamic character and also his position in Muhammadan society. The society demands that a Muhammadan must have the Islamic culture in him which can only be found in these two languages and he is also expected to know the ancient civilization and the history of his own race which are recorded in these two languages. I think so far as the objection of my Hon'ble friend, Babu Surendra Nath Ray, is concerned a sufficient reply has been given to him by the Hon'ble Sir Deba Prasad Sarbadhikhari whose long experience as the Vice-Chancellor of the Calcutta University has given him opportunities of studying the Muhammadan education problem, and the conclusion he has come to about this matter must commend itself to all interested in Muhammadan education. As my Hon'ble friend, Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq, has stated, the question of the advancement of Muhammadan education is so important that anything that ought to be done in this direction will have to be done not only in the interests of the Muhammadans themselves, but also in the interests of the province at large. We are told that we are handicapping the rest of the province. If that is so—and I admit to a certain extent it is true—then the earliest possible opportunity should be taken to remove this handicap and bring the Muhammadan on a par with Hindus so that the progress of the two communities may be parallel all along. The Hon'ble the Director of Public Instruction was kind enough to point out that the profession of the teaching of Arabic and Persian cannot be made in all colleges in Bengal, for instance it cannot be made in Sanskrit Colleges. But what we meant was that this provision may be made in colleges and schools where there were largely Muhammadan students. The task of getting admission into colleges has already become very difficult and there are two resolutions on the agenda paper to-day asking for provision to be made for candidates who have failed to get admission into colleges. Many colleges refused to take any Muhammadan boys because by taking them in they would not only have to refuse admission to Hindu students, but they will also have to take upon themselves the responsibility of making provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian, but, by turning them out, they will be relieved of the responsibility of maintaining a separate staff. Some three or four years back when this difficulty first arose, I suggested, when discussing the Financial Statement, that some provision should be made for helping private institutions and aided colleges with the special object of maintaining Arabic and Persian teachers in order that Muhammadan boys may receive education and may not be refused by any institution on that account. We have been told that, out of 15 colleges, only 4 are affiliated in Arabic pass. That is true. Most of the boys find difficulty in getting admission into colleges and the Muhammadan boys find it more difficult still. I remember the case of a Barisal student who took Arabic for his I. A. examination. He came to Calcutta and tried to get admission into one college which taught Arabic there. He could not get admission. Then he came to Dacca and by the time he came here the class was full and he could not be admitted. He went back to Barisal and ultimately he had to give up his studies altogether. So it must be admitted from the case I have just cited, as also that of Burdwan cited at the beginning of my speech, that, if suitable arrangements are made for the teaching of Persian and Arabic, there will be no lack of students. I may also cite another instance, and it is also perhaps known to the Hon'ble the Director of Public Instruction that in my district of Burdwan there was a school in which arrangements were made for the teaching of Arabic and Persian. Unfortunately at that time there was no vacancy in the grants-in-aid list, no grant-in-aid was made to it, and the school had to dispense with the services of the Persian and Arabic teachers. The Secretary and Proprietor, having failed in business, could not pay the cost of keeping them. We tried our best to secure a small grant-in-aid from the Education Department for that school in order that it might keep up its Persian and Arabic classes, but for the reasons stated above, we were unsuccessful, and the result has been that a large number of Muhammadan boys had to be sent away. These are the grounds on which I have brought forward this resolution and I think there will be no harm in accepting it."

Resolutions.

Mr. Dunn.

The Hon'ble Mr. Dunn said :—

"My Lord, I should be extremely unwilling to create the impression from any remarks which I found it necessary to make that my sympathies were not whole-heartedly with the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem in the general intention of his resolution. I think his purpose will be served if the resolution were to be as follows :—

'That provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian be made in schools and colleges in the Presidency in all cases where, owing to the presence of Muhammadan students, such provision is desirable.'

Resolutions.

Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq ; Mr. Dunn ; Maulvi Abul Kasem.

If that resolution be accepted I would like to take this opportunity of promising that, through the agency of my office and the Inspectors, a complete survey will be made of the existing provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian and that such cases as the Hon'ble Member has referred to in the district with which he is connected will be very carefully attended to. The general intention of the resolution is, I take it, clear and with the slight emendation which I have made, it will not only be clear but from the point of view of procedure more acceptable."

The Hon'ble Mr. Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

"Ordinarily I would not have the right of reply, but having regard to the fact that the next resolution which stands in my name on the same subject cannot now be moved, I beg your Excellency's permission to say these few words. The resolution, as now drafted, by the Hon'ble the Director of Public Instruction does meet our demand to a very great extent, but I would only ask him to consider—better still to reconsider—words at the end of the resolution which read thus : 'owing to the presence of Muhammadan students, some such provision is desirable'. My Lord, that at once involves an argument that in all cases where there are no Muhammadan students in colleges no provision seems to be necessary. I knew that argument, and it is often hurled at us that where there are no Muhammadans it may be taken for granted that there is no demand for the teaching of Arabic and Persian there. This argument is fallacious. If there are no Muhammadan students I may assure the Hon'ble the Director of Public Instruction, the absence is due to the fact that there is no provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian. I do not think it is unknown to the Hon'ble the Director of Public Instruction that there are some very devout Muhammadans whose religious susceptibilities are such that they would rather keep their children uneducated than send them to a school where there is no provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian, I submit that the question should not be left vague depending upon the presence or absence of Muhammadan students alone. I urge that this provision has got to be made. With these few remarks I would suggest that the Hon'ble the Director of Public Instruction might be pleased to reconsider his draft."

The Hon'ble Mr. Dunn said :—

"I would amend it again as follows :—

'That suitable provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian be made in schools and colleges in the Presidency in all cases where owing to the presence of Muhammadan students or owing to the demands of the Muhammadan community such provision is desirable."

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

"I will accept it."

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem said :—

"I also accept it and I am sure it will meet with the approval of those for whom we are speaking to-day."

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

"My Lord, we beg to offer our thanks for the kind consideration that has been shown to us."

The motion was then put and agreed to.

Resolutions.

Babu Surendra Nath Ray.

The following Resolution which stood in the name of the Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq was deemed to be withdrawn :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that suitable provision for the teaching of Arabic and Persian be made in all colleges and schools in Bengal.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 14.

The Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Ray moved the following Resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that the question of improving the status and condition of the Dacca School of Engineering be taken up at an early date.

He said :—

My Lord, the members of this Council are probably aware that the Dacca University Commission Report expressed strongly in favour of incorporating a College of Civil Engineering in the Dacca University. It was at one time contemplated by Government practically to knock down on the head the present Sibpur Engineering College and replace it by an Overseer Class, whereas Dacca was to have a residential well-equipped college for Civil Engineers. I moved a resolution in your Lordship's Council on the 28th February 1914 asking your Lordship's Government to drop the proposal for the abolition of the Sibpur Engineering College. Government did not then give any assurance as regards the retention of the Sibpur Engineering College, but intimated that the question would be considered after the publication of the report of the Public Services Commission. We have, however, now an assurance from the Government that the Sibpur Engineering College will not be abolished nor will its usefulness be curtailed. While opposed to the interference of Government with the usefulness of the Sibpur Engineering College I have never been opposed to have a good Civil Engineering College at Dacca as part of the Dacca University. But after the Report of the Calcutta University Commission I do not think I should be justified in asking for a full-fledged Engineering College at Dacca But I think the present School of Engineering at Dacca may be made useful in various other ways. It is very doubtful whether during the period of post-war reconstruction in Europe, there will be a supply of Engineers from England to this country, except of a very indifferent type who, having failed to receive employment there, will try to secure employment in this country. We must therefore have an adequate supply of our own in order that we may take the fullest advantage of the opportunities for industrial development which are likely to present themselves in this country.

That the Engineering classes of the School of Engineering at Dacca are popular and that there is not sufficient accommodation for those who want to get admission is quite evident. It is only the other day that the Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan was pleased to allow 10 additional boys to be admitted in the Sub-Overseer class and 10 additional boys in the Overseer class and I think he has also directed two additional teachers to be appointed. At present in the Dacca Engineering School boys are taught up to the Overseer or Upper Subordinate class.

In these days when the industrial development is the most important question before the country I think greater attention ought to be paid to the technical studies than to the studies of Arts course and as a matter of fact people have come to recognise the utility of such studies. They want to enter the technical department, but they find that they cannot qualify themselves properly for want of proper places of study and training. I ask your Lordship's Government to make the school as it is more satisfactory and to increase its utility so far as possible. I would suggest that there should be a revision of the scheme of technical education, and progressive and continuous course of study should be provided from the first year B class to the Final Overseer class. The Survey courses at Mainamati and at other places should be of the same kind. The Mainamati School staff is of inferior quality. There ought to be better qualified teachers in Dacca as there will not be a full-fledged Civil Engineering College at Dacca at least for the present. Steps may be taken from now for the development of the present School of Engineering. The present arbitrary limit to the admission of boys ought to be done away with.

Resolutions.

Babu Surendra Nath Ray.

In Dacca, in the new three years' course curriculum great importance has been given to theory rather than to workshop practice. A number of new subjects, i.e., Sanitary Engineering, Higher Mechanics, Accounts, etc., have been added to the already heavy old four years' course and practice, and practice in four different workshops have to be done in three years. I understand the new course has got no teaching in Physical Science and Chemistry for the Sub-Overseer classes. The general principles of the above subjects are the foundations of technical and industrial education. I am informed that practical survey teaching suffers a great deal as the students are sent in batches for want of accommodation in camp. The number of teachers for teaching theoretical subjects are inadequate. There is also not sufficient accommodation for class rooms even for the Overseer and Sub-Overseer departments, not to speak of the new Survey Class.

The want of pioneering and demonstration sections for converting raw material to useful articles of commerce and a suitable course of study and training in the higher technical institutions of the country are the main causes contributing to the failure of industrial development of the country. Industry cannot thrive till the workers are thoroughly trained in demonstration shops just after their full course of education in a technical institution. I think as much practical training as is possible in a School of Engineering ought to be imparted in the Dacca School of Engineering. Considering the importance of the big workshop of the Dacca School of Engineering, it should be put under a highly qualified Foreman Instructor who knows the working and management of a concern like this and whose teaching may be of real help to the students who want to devote their time and energy for the development of the industries of the country.

From the curriculum of study in the Dacca School of Engineering I now pass on to another subject connected with the school. I mean the pay and prospects of the teachers and the administration of the school In the recently created Calcutta Commercial Institute, the teachers are designated as lecturers and they have a very good initial salary to start with, though they are much junior to the Engineering Institution teachers, the former teaching such subjects as Arithmetic, Geography, Book-keeping and Type writing. I think some of the teachers of the Dacca School of Engineering possess the qualifications of any ordinary teacher in a second grade college. They are either graduates fully trained or specialists in their own line. They have been entrusted with a course of study the subject of which are much above those prescribed for the I. Sc. examination. The four Assistant Foreman Instructors deserve better emoluments and ought to be accommodated in the school itself

I think there ought to be a separate Principal for the Dacca School of Engineering. The present Principal is a general department man and cannot possibly understand the nature and wants of a technical school. The Dacca School of Engineering ought to have a governing body to control the internal affairs of the school. These are some of my suggestions.

Resolutions.

Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan.

I was quite delighted to see the Dacca School of Engineering this morning. Nearly 200 boys were working in the different workshops. Those who in season and out of season take a delight in stating that the Bengali boys of the bhadralok class were unfit for manual labour or that they think it beneath their dignity to do so and are therefore unfit to be admitted in large numbers to Technical Institutes will do well to come over to the place once and see with their own eyes how zealously and assiduously these boys have taken to the practical part of their work.

One of the grievances of the students is that there is no guaranteed post for the first boy of the Overseer class of this school as there is in the Sibpur Engineering College, though the course of study is the same. This is a matter which the Government will do well to take into consideration.

I need hardly impress upon your Lordship's Government the necessity of remodelling the present School of Engineering at Dacca and of placing it on a better footing.

We are fully alive to the steps already initiated by the Hon'ble Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan in this direction, and the country is grateful for the same. The number of students who are coming out from our schools every year is increasing by leaps and bounds. They cannot all expect to take to law. Nor can they all expect to take to medicine. It is therefore necessary that they should take to other professions. A properly equipped Civil Engineering School at Dacca means in addition to the impartation of knowledge of Engineering, laying the foundation of industrial development of the country of giving an impetus to the home industries for which Eastern Bengal is a congenial place to thrive."

The Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan said :—

"My Lord, the resolution before us to-day has been worded in somewhat indefinite phraseology and I may say that it is wide and does not really say exactly what the line of improvement the Hon'ble mover has in view, but in his speech he has given us indication as to the kind of improvement which he has in view with regard to the Dacca School of Engineering. I may say at once that I have been taking a certain amount of interest in the School of Engineering, since I came to Dacca; and I am fully convinced that the Government should improve the institution so far as it may be possible to do so. On the other hand I am glad that the Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Ray realises that Dacca, placed as it is, cannot for the present at any rate expect to have a fully-equipped engineering college, and anyone who goes through that portion of the Calcutta University Commission's report which deals with the University at Dacca must come across the fact that the Commission itself has considered this matter about an engineering college for Dacca and has come to the conclusion that there are certain obvious reasons against its establishment in the near future at any rate.

I now turn to the Dacca School of Engineering. I think when I briefly state and indicate what action Government have already taken to make the school a more efficient and complete school of engineering, and what proposals I have already sanctioned on behalf of Government or are about to sanction that I shall have met the Hon'ble Member's intentions to such an extent that it will not make it necessary for him to press the resolution which he has moved to-day. In the first place now that the Calcutta University Commission Report is out we have got to consider the Dacca University scheme as soon as the Government of India introduce a Bill with regard to the establishment of that University. I have gone into the question of the future site of the school of engineering. Two local gentlemen very kindly gave me exhaustive notes against the site proposed by the Government as well as discussed by the University Commission in their report, namely, the old Secretariat Press of the late Eastern Bengal and Assam Government. I am mentioning these facts to-day because these two gentlemen would no doubt like to know what the Government think of the site that they had in view. I was to have gone to see the place, but unfortunately I got an attack of influenza and, as Major Gourlay came and told me that there were 140 cases of influenza in the vicinity, I thought it best to stay away. Mr. Goode has been to see the place on behalf of Government and also Mr. Dunn, and both of them have reported against the place as being most unsuitable for the engineering school, therefore at present the Government's proposal is to transfer the school to the commodious building which is known as the old Secretariat Press. I have myself seen the building, and I consider that we can adapt it for the engineering school. I may here point out that the University Commission considered the building to be too substantial and magnificient for the purpose ; I am afraid I do not agree with them on the point. But this point need not be discussed as the University Commission themselves eventually thought that this was the place where the school of engineering could be removed to. What is important is that this large and growing school should be well-housed, and as this fine building is lying vacant for some years now, I can personally perceive no better use to which it can be put than that of accommodating the Dacca School of Engineering. There are, however, several other matters in connection with the school which will perhaps interest the Hon'ble mover of this resolution more. A very sound proposal was made some time ago by the Joint Technical Board to appoint a strong expert governing body and to assist the present Headmaster as he is at present fully occupied with the administration of the school. The Hon'ble mover of this resolution has also advocated that we should go into the question of the governing body. I cordially accept the suggestion which remained pending so long, and I have just passed orders for the constitution of the governing body and to bring final proposal before me regarding the powers which they will enjoy. The question of staff is a very important and urgent one, and I am satisfied that the school is at present understaffed, and I think that the pay and prospects of certain members of the staff should be improved. As the Hon'ble mover has already made a reference I do not again mention the subject, but I have already sanctioned two additional temporary hands, and the final question of staff will be gone into as soon as the matter has been considered by the Finance Department to whom we are making a reference now. It has, moreover, been brought to my notice that the equipment of the school is in some respects deficient, and that the instruments which the Headmaster of the school requires are not complete. The question of equipment is now being considered by the Director of Public Instruction, and I hope that the matter will be remedied soon.

Resolutions.

Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan.

Then again the Hon'ble mover has mentioned the question of the Dacca School of Engineering having a Principal of its own and of the removal of the nominal subordination of the school to the Dacca College. I have directed that the Headmaster in future should be designated as the Principal, and the question of extending some of the classes will also be at the same time considered.

The Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Ray has among other things laid stress on the point of reviving the second-year survey class in the school. Regarding that all that I can say at present is that the Joint Technical Board have been going into the matter again, and I believe that they have come to the conclusion that the second-year survey class in the Dacca School of Engineering can be revived, keeping the survey class at Mainamati as well. If that is so, and if the proposal come up to Government, I can assure the Resolutions.

Babu Surendra Nath Ray; Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq.

Hon'ble Member that the proposal will receive the closest attention, and if it is possible to revive it again, we shall do so.

Turning now to the other point that he has mentioned in connection with the admission of more students, well that is a general complaint. I have, as I have already said, been able to admit some additional students this year, and I trust that with the additional staff and with the removal of the school to a more commodious building we may next year be able to receive a considerably larger number of students, and if the number of would-be entrants justify this, we shall then be prepared to consider the question of doubling the class or duplicating the staff in consequence. But beyond that I cannot promise. I think the Hon'ble Mover of this resolution will see that some of the questions that he wanted to press before the Government have already been taken up by the Government, and therefore there is no necessity for him to press the resolution at this stage."

The Hon'ble Babu Surendra Nath Ray said :—

"After hearing the Member in charge I do not think I should be justified in pressing the resolution. It appears that, in fact, all my recommendations are now before Government and some of them have already been carried out. First, as regards the governing body the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur accepts my recommendations ; as regards the staff he thinks that their pay and prospects ought to be improved ; as regards the equipment of the school he says that it is now being considered by the Director of Public Instruction ; as regards the Principal, my suggestion is that the Principal ought to be a different man to the Principal of the local college ; that proposal also he is prepared to accept. Then as regards the second-year survey class, it can be revived, and as regards the admission of more students he is quite justified in saying that with additional staff and additional accommodation in the new Secretariat Press Building the question will be favourably considered. So in these circumstances I do not think I would be justified in pressing the resolution, and I beg leave to withdraw it."

The motion was then, by leave of the President, withdrawn.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 15.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq was to have moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that a Committee be appointed to inquire into the circumstances connected with the abolition of the Electrical and Mechanical classes in connection with the Dacca School of Engineering.

He said :—

"My Lord. I understand that the question of the improvement of the condition of the Dacca School of Engineering is under consideration, and in that case let me hope that the question of the abolition of the mechanical and electrical classes will also be taken up. In these circumstances I do not think I should press my proposal for the appointment of a committee and with the permission of the President I beg to withdraw the resolution."

The motion was then, by leave of the President, withdrawn.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 16.

The following resolution stood in the name of the Hon'ble Rai Radha Charan Pal Bahadur :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that out of the educational grants provided in the current year's Budget, a sum of Rs. 50,000 be granted to the promoters of the proposed Howrah College for the purpose of building the College.

The Hon'ble Member being absent, the resolution was not moved.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 17.

The Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that the Government of India be moved to sanction a special monthly war allowance for six months to all Government servants in Bengal drawing not more than Rs. 100 a month at the rate of 10 per cent. of their respective salaries.

He said :—

"My Lord, the principle underlying this resolution is not a matter of controversy. As a matter of fact the principle has been recognised in the Government resolution of the 12th June 1919, and with the object of affording some measure of relief to all Government servants, certain concessions have already been made to these ill-paid ministerial officers, so I need not take up the time of the Council in labouring the principle. All that this resolution seeks to recommend is this : that by the concession made by the resolution of the 12th June relief has been granted to this extent, namely, ranging from Re. 1 to Rs. 2-8. I have taken the liberty of recommending that the concession should be a little larger so as to make the relief really appreciable. What has been given is this. Rupee 1 in these days can purchase only 4 seers of rice. Taking an average family to consist of 5 members really what has been given means less than a seer of rice a month, and in the case of the maximum concession, namely, those who get over Rs. 40 and not over Rs. 50, in their case the monthly concession has been given at Rs. 2-8. According to the calculation that I have made it is something like 2 seers per head. I leave it to Your Excellency to consider whether that is a relief which is at all appreciable. Of course this is a case between masters and servants. These low-paid officers are the servants of Government and the whole question is whether they deserve consideration at the hands of the Government in a critical time like this. Some concession has already been made, and according to my calculation the rate comes to something like 5 per cent. in all these cases. I have ventured to demand 10 per cent. on behalf of these unfortunate officers. I should think, my Lord, my demand is rather meagre, but having regard to the difficulty which Government are bound to experience in meeting this extra cost, I have thought fit not to make a larger claim.

There is only one other matter which this resolution seeks to recommend. It is somewhat different from the concession already granted. In that resolution concession has been granted to those who draw below Rs. 50. Now, my Lord, even those ministerial officers who draw Rs. 100 are hard hit by the prevailing high prices, and living in the midst of these people we know what those men are really suffering. Your Lordship will excuse me if I submit that it is rather difficult for members of the Government to be able to realise the amount of their sufferings. I am inclined to think that if the Government

Resolutions.

Sir Henry Wheeler.

really knew the true extent of their sufferings, possibly Government might have been induced to make the concession a little larger. There is one other matter to which I would like to invite Your Excellency's attention, and it is this that in the resolution of the 12th June concession has been made to those whose pay is over Rs. 12; there is a large class of people whose pay is less than Rs. 12. I do not know the principle upon which these people have been excluded, probably because they were in the enjoyment of some grain compensation allowance. If not, their case should be considered also. This morning a Bill was introduced for the prevention of cruelty to animals, and I should think that if this concession were not granted it would be an act of cruelty as well. With these observations I press this resolution for the consideration of the Council."

The Hon'ble Sir Henry Wheeler said :—

"My Lord, this resolution is the first of three of a somewhat kindred type, in so far as they all deal with the pay of the ministerial officers of Government, though this one is of a more specific character than the other two in recommending the grant of relief with reference to existing post-war conditions. But the economic conditions which have brought about this resolution have equally brought about the other two, and so far as I now make any remarks of a general character, they will be equally applicable to the two other resolutions which follow.

The resolution which the Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta has just moved is very like a resolution that was moved last August by the Hon'ble Maulvi Faz-ul-Haq, which differed only in that it did not make a specific recommendation of a 10 per cent. enhancement. I then opposed that resolution, partly, it is true, on the ground that at that time food prices were fortunately not high. Again in March last, the Hon'ble Rai Mahendra Chandra Mitra Bahadur, in connection with the financial statement, moved a very similar resolution in Calcutta, and in connection with that I promised to consider it to the extent of giving relief to men drawing Rs. 30 and under. In answering those two resolutions, I stated the facts to the best of my ability, and I am afraid, therefore, that I have nothing very new to say on this occasion.

Of the economic facts we are, of course, only too painfully aware; whatever salary we are in receipt of, whatever position we occupy, this enhancement of prices is brought home to us in every purchase we make, and Government fully sympathises with the hardship which is being caused thereby to its more lowly paid servants. Cultivators have, to a certain extent, compensations, for with the prevailing high prices the agriculturist gets better prices for his produce, as, for instance, he does at the moment for his jute. But these compensations are not open to the Government clerk, and we cannot but sympathise with his position and appreciate the loyalty with which he has continued to do his work for Government despite the adverse circumstances which surround him. But there are facts what we cannot forget. I have been told before that I offer but poor comfort in pointing out that the whole world is suffering from this hardship of high prices, yet although it may be only cold comfort it is essential to remember that the whole world is a victim of the misfortunes that have come upon us on account of the war. It is perfectly impossible for this Government, with the best intentions in the world, to save their servants from the effects which are common over so wide an area. We can sympathise but we cannot entirely save. Our sympathy, moreover, has not only been lip sympathy; we have tried to do something for the more lowly paid, and that little we have done. The Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta may call it wholly indequate, but what we have done has involved us in a very considerable expenditure.

Resolutions.

Babu Akhil Chandra Datta.

Our first action was directed towards the relief of menials, and I explained its character in this Council room last August. I think the Hon'ble Member must be under some misapprehension in saying that we have done nothing for those drawing under Rs. 12; we raised the pay of all menials according to a revised classification of districts to Rs. 10, 9 and 8, and we gave an extra rupee to those drawing less than Rs. 12. That was what we first did, and that has cost us some 4 lakhs of rupees. As a result of the August discussion, I only promised in Council that we would try to do something up to Rs. 30; when we came to look into the matter further we thought that there was a case possibly for doing a little more, and we gave relief up to Rs. 50. That cost us Rs. 3½ lakhs, so, therefore, we have, at least, in recognition of the consequences of the war, incurred an expenditure of 7½ lakhs, and our difficulty in going further is simply one of practical finance. If we were to concede this resolution, we estimate, on a rough calculation, that enhancing the pay of those under Rs. 50, i.e., in raising it from 6 per cent. at which, approximately, it is now, to 10 per cent., would cost us Rs. 1½ lakhs, and giving 10 per cent, to those between 50 and 100 would cost us another 4 lakhs; so in addition to the expenditure of 7½ lakhs, this resolution, when we put it in figures, is a practical request that we should disburse another 5½ lakhs.

We feel that we are not justified in accepting that expenditure at the present moment. I have previously said in this Council, and have drawn the attention of Hon'ble Members to the fact, that our financial position under the Reform Scheme is not going to be a very advantageous one; since I last spoke on that topic we have made a more detailed examination of the figures, and the position has come out rather worse, I might say considerably worse, than what we anticipated. We have now got to discuss that question with the Government of India, and until we discuss it with them we really are very much in the dark as to what our future financial resources are going to be. Unless we receive a full recognition of our claims from the Government of India, our position will be one of some difficulty. A second objection is that these are not the only claims upon us. We see how these matters grow up; we give relief up to 6 per cent., and a few months later we are asked to go up to 10 per cent.; we give relief up to men on Rs. 50 and we are next pressed to go up to Rs. 100; while resolutions are constant in this Council asking us to do something for the sub-deputy collectors on Rs. 100, for the munsifs on Rs. 200, and so on. A matter to which attention has been prominently drawn in the recently published report of the University Commission is the inadequate pay of teachers, and any one can see that within the next few years their claims are going to be very forcibly represented. We are also faced with the possibility of having to raise the pay of the lower ranks of the police, and as regards constables especially recruitment may be affected by recent improvements in the pay of sepoys. Again, although we have given menials relief to the extent of Rs. 4 lakhs, the full scheme, if carried out, will cost us about Rs. 17 lakhs, and I could give other instances of a like type. These are all practical reasons which tend to staunch the flow of our sympathy, and we do not feel that we can, as a matter of fact, go much further than we have. On these grounds I am afraid that I cannot accept the resolution."

The Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta said :—

"My Lord, this is not a matter upon which there can be any argument. As regards the arguments based on the fact that there are munsifs and sub-judges, and so on, I should like to say this—that there is a remarkable difference between the case of those who are given only a living wage and those officers in whose case there is some margin. The ministerial officers receive a pay which does not allow any margin. That is the difference, my Lord. But if Government find that the financial position is such that it is impossible to make further concession, then, of course, I do not think I can press my resolution. I leave the matter to Your Excellency's Government."

The motion was then, by leave of the President, withdrawn.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 18.

The President said :—

"Items 18 and 19 raise substantially the same question and it will be convenient if they are both discussed together. I shall, however, be prepared to put them to the vote separately from the chair."

The Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that the Government of India be moved to raise the initial pay of the ministerial officers in all Government offices in Bengal to Rs. 40 per month.

The Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta said :—

"My Lord, the present scale was fixed in Western Bengal in 1906, I believe, and in Eastern Bengal so far as my recollection goes in 1911 or thereabout. Now the question is that the initial pay of Rs. 30 was fixed on the principle that it was adequate to furnish the employés with reasonable incentive to work honestly and conscientiously, but that amount was fixed because that was considered to be the lowest living wage for a man of the middle class. I take the liberty to read this passage from the report of the Ministerial Officers' Committee of Eastern Bengal and Assam of 1908-09 :—

'From these figures it is apparent that the prospects of an officer attaining, under present rules, a pay of Rs. 50 or over in the course of his service are remote, that to many a pay of less than Rs. 40 a month must be the ultimate goal of their ambition and that a great part of the official life of the majority will be spent in posts in which they will draw less than Rs. 30. The decision of the question whether on the whole the pay is adequate therefore depends to a considerable degree on the answer to the question whether a pay of less than Rs. 30 is such as will enable a man of the amla class to live in ordinary comfort and meet the reasonable expenses of men of the same class. To this question we have sought an answer from many sources, and the replies we have received lead us to the conclusion that there is no room for doubt that Rs. 30 a month is the very lowest sum which can be held to be a living wage for men of the amla class even at the beginning of their service. The facts and figures given in chapter X of the report of the Salaries Commission shows that even in 1885 Rs. 30 a month was as little as a man of the amla class could live on with comfort. In the twenty years which have passed since that report was drafted the cost of living has undoubtedly increased, and it is only on the most parsimonious scale that Rs. 30 will now suffice even for a man with a very small family.'

That was the principle, my Lord, underlying the scale that was fixed in 1908-09, because that was considered to be the lowest living wage without any reference to the question as to whether that pay could furnish a reasonable incentive to work honestly and conscientiously. Now, my Lord, if Rs. 30 was the lowest living wage even in 1885 and if Rs. 30 was considered to be parsimonious in 1905, then the question arises what is the present position in view of the fact that the prices of all articles, of all necessaries and of all essentials have risen very abnormally. Now there are two estimates given about the reasonable expenses—bare necessaries of life. These two estimates were given to the Ministerial Officers' Committee by two gentlemen of Dacca, namely, Khan Bahadur Khwaja Muhammad Yusuf and Rai Kali Prasanna Ghosh Bahadur. It will appear from these two estimates that according to the estimate of the Khan Bahadur Rs. 35 was the minimum expenses necessary for the ministerial officers : they could not do with less, and according to the other estimate—I mean the estimate of Rai Kali Prasanna Ghosh Bahadur—it was Rs. 30. Now if one goes through the items of these estimates it will be perfectly clear that prices have increased at least doubly in each one of these items. So that according to that calculation the lowest living wage should be held now to be Rs. 70 according to one estimate and Rs. 60 according to the other estimate. That is also borne out by the figures which were furnished by Your Excellency's Government in answer to a question of mine at the meeting of 3rd July last. From that statement it appears that the prices of necessaries of life have increased very very considerably—in some cases double, in some cases a little less than double, and so on. Therefore it is a very serious question as to what the initial pay of these officers should be. Your Excellency may well realise the inevitable results of inadequate pay. Without describing that in my own words I shall place before the Council a graphic description given by the Ministerial Officers' Committee in 1908 about the inevitable result of such an inadequate pay. In paragraph 28 of the report it is stated :—

Resolutions.

Babu Akhil Chandra Datta.

'From the low pay, the method of recruitment and want of training flow general inefficiency and—what is by far the most serious defect—the canker of corruption which has eaten so deeply into the ministerial staff. As the figures in paragraph 22 show, 57 per cent. of the staff must either depend in part on private means for their existence or must subsist by dishonesty, and if we count in the apprentices, the percentage rises to 64. Of private means amla and apprentices as a class are not possessed to any considerable extent. Mutual help, when there is a family party in the office, may keep some on low pay or no pay from the path of dishonesty ; but the Committee feel it is no exaggeration to say that fully one-half of the low-paid officers and of the apprentices live on what they, by illicit methods, extract from the public. The methods resorted to are many. As in 1885, so now, information is sold to the public which either it is in the interest of the Government to keep secret or which can only be obtained legitimately by payment of fees—delay is caused or procedure is expedited in return for a suitable douceur—processes are issued or not issued, served or not served, to suit the convenience of the man who bribes the highest, papers disappear or reappear mysteriously, and in extreme cases, when the cash equivalent is forthcoming records are tampered with, at times, in the most ingenious and, at times, in the most barefaced manner. The records of all or nearly all districts afford abundant instances in which dishonest dealings on the part of the office employes have been detected. But detection in such matters is a mere accident since it is neither in the interest of the briber or the bribed to disclose the transaction and the fellow officers of the bribed who mostly "live in glass houses" even if they knew of the transaction will not disclose it unless impelled to do so by enmity. It is of course not the men on low pay only who take bribes. A habit once acquired is not easy to shake off and the officer who was driven by necessity to take bribes while his pay was low finds the habit cling to him and even if he, when he has a living wage, desire to be honest he must often find that he cannot free himself from the mesh of the professional briber.'

Then, my Lord, the question discussed there is what is the remedy of this state of things. The recommendation of the Committee on the question is given in paragraph 30—

Resolutions.

Maulvi Abul Kasem.

First and foremost it is clearly essential that to every clerk who is employed in any capacity a living wage should be assured. This alone will not eradicate corruption; but at least it will reduce to a temptation, which can be resisted, what is now an imperious necessity, and will make it possible for all clerks to begin and run their official course without resort to dishonesty. To effect this it is in the first place necessary to raise the initial pay to Rs. 30.'

Under these circumstances the initial pay was raised to Rs. 30 in 1908-1909.

Now the question arises as to what is the lowest living wage now. That is a problem which Government ought to solve undeterred by the consideration that it is a question of great financial responsibility. It is true that the little concessions that have been granted to the menials have involved Government in a very large expenditure of about 7½ lakhs, but none the less that is a problem which must be solved. If Government do not do anything for these ill-paid clerks then they will eke out their existence by means of corruption. They must live and they must have their food to keep their body and soul together. Of course there is the question of luxuries, but that is a different matter. When the lowest living wage is very much more than Rs. 30, then the question arises how will they meet their wants. As I have already submitted they must live whether Government increase their pay or not. If the pay is not increased, they will have no other alternative left but to take to corruption. Now what is corruption, my Lord? It only means that they will have their money from the rate-payers at large not honestly but dishonestly by the back door. So if the whole question is analysed and critically examined it makes no difference whether that money makes its way into their pocket in the shape of bribe or in the shape of increased pay—I mean so far as the rate-payers of the country are concerned it makes no difference. So even according to that calculation it is high time, my Lord, that the whole question should be discussed and inquired into. What I wish is nothing more than that. I must admit that I have made a specific recommendation, because if I am to move a resolution like this I must make a specific recommendation. I do not pretend to say that the recommendation that I have made is very precise or exactly what it ought to be. That is a matter which must be left to Government and it is not for me to submit, but it any case, it is high time that the question as to what should be the lowest living wage, according to the present prices of things, should be considered, and after coming to a decision on this point the lowest living wage should be given to them by way of increment.

With these observations I beg to commend this resolution for the acceptance of the Council."

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem said :—

"My Lord, I rise to speak on this resolution. As has been observed by Your Excellency it is substantially the same as the one which stands in my name in general form. The question of the pay and prospects of ministerial officers should be in my humble opinion considered by Government without any further delay. I am not one of those who believe that simply by raising the pay of the ministerial officers corruption in the public courts and court offices will disappear like magic. They will not be able to do away with the habit which has a tradition of centuries behind it. but it is hoped that if they get living wages as has been remarked by my friend opposite, and if they are not driven to corruption, they will be more careful and it may gradually in the long run disappear. They will not, as they do now, venture boldly and openly to carry out corruption without any check because the only people who can bring about a check is the public at large,

Resolutions.

Maulvi Abul Kasem.

and the public will hesitate to bring it to the notice of the authorities because they know that these poor clerks do not get a living wage. My Lord, I am sure we will have the sympathy of Your Excellency's Government in our endeavour to better the unfortunate conditions of the ministerial officers of Government, and I am afraid we will be told that the financial position of Government does not admit of taking a large step at the present moment, just as we have been by Sir Henry Wheeler, and that any substantial increase in the pay of ministerial officers will also involve the expenditure of a large amount of money. So far as we can see our financial conditionis not very good and we have found it difficult to meet several of our pressing demands, but we know that whenever Government want to have something done they get the money for it, and they have it done without any very great difficulties. The present high prices have affected all classes of people, not only the poor men but the men in affluence as well. The pinch is felt all over the ladder, but everyone will agree with me when I say that the lowest rung of the ladder feels more keenly than the highest. Government have been more than considerate in considering the question of pay and allowances and the prospects of the various Imperial services, for instance, Medical, Civil, Police, Forest, etc., and money has been found for the improvement of the pay of these highly paid officers. We do not grudge them this improvement, but we think that other unfortunate servants of the State who do more or less hard and responsible work should receive some consideration at the hands of their employers. My Lord, I think it is not necessary in order to make out a good case in favour of these ministerial officers to place all the facts before the Council because Government are fully aware of these facts, and I know, my Lord, that some orders have been passed granting small allowances to lowly paid officers. The Hon'ble Sir Henry Wheeler has observed that most of the lowly paid clerks have received some allowance, but I beg to submit that it is neither adequate nor sufficient and has left the matter practically where it was. I think for the efficiency and purity of these officers it is absolutely necessary that immediate steps should be taken to improve the pay and prospects of these ministerial officers. In the resolution of which I have given notice I have specifically confined myself to ministerial officers of Government in the mufassal, because my experience is limited to mufassal offices only. I venture to say that those in Calcutta offices somehow or other make their position felt on the Councils of Government, and they have opportunities of pressing their claims on the Members of Government which the poor ministerial officers in the mufassal have not, just as in the case of the members of the Indian Civil Service who have influential friends at Home who press their claims before the Secretary of State and the House of Commons. The Heads of Departments who are in Calcutta press the claims of their subordinates before Government and sometimes they get a higher rate of pay sanctioned for their ministerial officers. But the ministerial officers in the mufassal cannot put forward their claims through their heads of offices before Government as the conditions in one district are the same as those in other districts and unless all the district officers come forward with a particular proposal, it can receive no consideration. It is not likely that for the sake of the ministerial officers all the district magistrates and district judges are going to hold a conference and bring forward a recommendation. I think the ministerial officers in the mufassal have been so long neglected that it is now high time that their claims should be pressed before Government. My Lord, even the clerks, not the head clerks or head assistants, but ordinary clerks, in the office of the Commissioner of Police get Rs. 200 to Rs. 300 a month and they have been given increments, whilst the sharistadars in district offices, who, in my humble opinion, have far more responsible work to do than the clerks in the office of the Commissioner of Police, draw only Rs. 125 to Rs. 150. I think that the time has come when this question should engage

Resolutions.

Sir Henry Wheeler.

the attention of Your Excellency's Council, and I hope and trust that the decision which Your Excellency's Government will come to will be favourable to these lowly paid clerks."

The Hon'ble Sir Henry Wheeler said :—

Sir, it must be obvious from what I have recently said what action Government is likely to take in connection with these two resolutions. If we cannot see our way to give temporary relief to a restricted number in respect of special conditions, we cannot equally see our way to give relief to a larger number and on a more permanent basis. I have already asked the Council to consider my previous general remarks in reference to these two resolutions, and there is little more that I wish to say. However there are one or two points particularly apposite to these two resolutions, and it may be convenient to mention first the second resolution—that moved by the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem—as that has the wider scope of the two. This resolution makes the general proposal that steps be taken to improve the pay and prospects of all ministerial officers in the mufassal, and in opposing it I do not want our attitude to be open to misconception. We are constantly taking steps to improve the position of our ministerial officers. Hardly a day passes in the Financial Department that some cases of this kind do not come up. In this year's budget, we have made provision to improve the pay of the registration clerks who, as everybody recognises, were inadequately remunerated. As another example, it was only a few days ago that I approved a scheme for the improvement of the pay of the clerks in civil surgeon's offices in the mufassal, and we have a proposal before us for improving the pay and prospects of the lower division clerks in the Secretariat. These are some instances of cases that are constantly coming before us, some of which go through and some are rejected according to the estimation we form of their merits. But I take it that this resolution really suggests that we should open an enquiry of a general character. Revisions following an enquiry of a general character were made in Eastern Bengal in 1911, and in Western Bengal in 1906, and practically what we object to in opposing this resolution, is that we should, at this juncture, undertake a general investigation which, as we know by experience, always involves a very large bill. We demur to undertaking that now, for the reasons which I have already given, and in particular the present time could not be more unfortunately chosen for an examination of this kind. Conditions are abnormal now, but we hope, whether or not prices ever fall to the pre-war level, that at any rate they will fall to an appreciable extent. Should we therefore set on foot an investigation of this character now that everybody is obsessed and oppressed by these high prices, we should be in great danger of fixing normal rates on abnormal conditions. That, to my mind, whatever we may have to do in future, is a conclusive reason for deferring now any investigation of the kind which is proposed to be set on foot.

Coming to the resolution of the Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta which deals merely with the initial pay of ministerial officers, and proposes that it should be raised to Rs. 40, the arguments of the Hon'ble Mover do not really amount to more than this : that recent economic developments have caused hardship. That, as I have already said, we fully admit. The position as regards the initial pay of the ministerial officers is briefly and roughly this : It is Rs. 25 in Western Bengal and Rs. 30 in Eastern Bengal : in Calcutta it is Rs. 40 in the Secretariat, and Rs. 30 in the offices of Heads of Departments. The question of adopting Rs. 30 as the minimum pay in both Western and Eastern Bengal has been under discussion for some time, and at this moment is merely awaiting the examination of a few remaining figures ; we expect to put this small concession through with as little further delay as as possible—that is to say, we are going to raise the initial pay in the Western Bengal districts from Rs. 25 to Rs. 30. A proposal to which I have just alluded relative to the lower division of the Secretariat also contemplates enhancing the initial pay from Rs. 40 to Rs. 50; and I very much fear—in the way these matters act and re-act upon one another—that it will have an effect even outside the Secretariat. So in that way certain things have been done, and certain things have been forced upon us, but for the reasons which I have just given, I would deprecate any general and sweeping investigation, or the raising of pay wholesale with one stroke of the pen from one rate to another. Action of that kind very often entails quite unexpected consequences. Obviously if we are to put up the mufassal rate to Rs. 40, we will be told that the Secretariat rate of Rs 50 is quite inadequate, and so on. Therefore while we will try to consider individual cases that may come up before us from time to time as sympathetically as we can, we demur to any general investigations or enhancements of the kind contemplated by these two resolutions.

Resolutions.

Babu Akhil Chandra Datta, Maulvi Abul Kasem, Maulvi A. K. Fazul-ul-Haq.

The Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta said :—

"My Lord, I have nothing more to add, but I would press this resolution."

The motion was then put and lost.

The following motion which stoods in the name of the Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem was then put and lost.

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that steps be taken to improve the pay and prospects of ministerial officers of the Government of Bengal in the mufassal.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 20.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that suitable instructions be issued to the officers concerned to ensure the selection of properly qualified persons to serve as jurors in the mufassal.

He said :—

"The recommendation contained in this resolution is of some importance in view of the fact that the system of trial by jury has now been extended to all the districts of the Presidency excepting of course Jalpaiguri and Darjeeling. In those districts, where the system of trial with the aid of assessors were in vogue, it did not very much matter if the assessors had not been very carefully selected because after all the opinion of the assessors was not at all binding on the Judge. But matters are different so far as jurors are concerned; and having regard to the finality which attaches to their verdict, it is of the utmost importance that care should be taken in selecting persons to serve as jurors. I do not wish to enter into the details of the arguments in support of my resolution, because I have reason to believe that the recommendation will commend itself to Your Excellency's Government."

The Hon'ble the Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan said :—

"My Lord, I accept the resolution on behalf of the Government. The object underlying it, namely, to ensure the selection of properly qualified persons to serve as jurors in the mafassal is one with which Government are in entire sympathy. But in this connection I should like to point out to the Hon'ble Mover that Government are already aware of the danger. What we propose to do is to draw the attention of the Sessions Judges of other districts as well to the circular on the subject and take such further steps as may be found necessary. Therefore we are willing to accept the resolution."

The motion was then put and agreed to.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 21.

The Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta was to have moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council to take such action as may be necessary to drop the proposal of making English the Court language in subordinate Courts in Bengal.

He said :—

"My Lord, I understand from the Hon'ble Member in charge that a communication has been received from the Hon'ble High Court saying that this proposal of making English the Court language has been dropped, and in view of this fact it is not necessary for me to move this resolution. I shall only say this : The news will be received by the country with a great sigh of relief : there was such a volume of feeling in this matter."

The President said :—

"Does the Hon'ble Member wish to withdraw the resolution ?"

The Hon'ble Babu Akhil Chandra Datta said :—

"Yes, my Lord."

The motion was then, by leave of the President, withdrawn.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 22.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that suitable instructions be issued to Magistrates in Bengal in regard to the trial of cases under section 110 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act V of 1898), particularly with a view to giving facilities to the accused persons—

(a) to defend themselves properly ; and

(b) to offer sureties for good behaviour after final orders have been passed.

He said :—

'My Lord, it may seem somewhat surprising to Hon'ble Members that I have been led to bring forward a discussion of this character in this Council. Ordinarily it is an accepted maxim that judicial independence of Magistrates should not be interfered with, and it may seem that circular orders of instructions from Government might be interpreted to be an indirect if not a direct interference with their judicial independence. But I will briefly explain the objects which I have in view, and I hope it will be apparent to Hon'ble Members that the grievances of such a serious character, as I am going to describe, ought, in my opinion, to be remedied.

The first part of the resolution refers to the defence of persons under section 110 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, or, as is popularly known, the section relating to the giving of security for good behaviour in the case of the suspected person. The first difficulty which an accused person in such a case encounters—and I am speaking from personal knowledge—is this:

That the Magistrates who are required to try these cases in the mufassal generally hold the trial practically in the thana compound. It may be that it is considered, in the interests of the accused persons themselves, that the trial should be held if not in his own village at least in the vicinity of his village or, as it is popularly called, within the locality. But things become quite different if the Magistrates hold the trial in the thana compound, because, in these circumstances, the witnesses are under the control of the Police. Secondly, it sometimes happens that as soon as proceedings are drawn up against an accused, he is immediately sent to hajat and he rarely gets an opportunity of communicating with his friends and relations. In such cases a short date is given and the trial is held several miles away from the district headquarters where the man is locked up, and the result is that he cannot engage a lawyer to defend him nor can he communicate with his friends and relatives. In such cases the man practically goes undefended. These are mainly the two difficulties which accused persons encounter under present conditions; and I beg to suggest that, without meaning in the least to interfere with the judicial independence of the Magistrates, some sort of general instructions may be given to them so that an accused person might get facilities for properly defending himself.

The second portion of the resolution refers to the difficulties of those persons who have come forward to offer sureties for their good behaviour after final orders are passed. It so happens that as soon as a surety comes up with an application offering as surety, the case is sent on to the Police for inquiry, and by the time the Police finish their inquiry, the man necessarily remains in hajat. It sometimes happens that days and days are wasted, and ultimately the Police report practically on no reasons whatever declining to accept those persons as sureties. The Magistrate accepts such recommendations without making any inquiry. In such cases I submit that it is due to the accused persons or to the sureties who come forward that the Magistrates must make an inquiry himself instead of relying solely on the Police. These are not matters of judicial discretion, and I venture to submit that in such matters directions may be given to the Magistrates. My Lord, I do not wish to take up the time of the Council any further regarding a resolution of this character. I never meant to suggest that instructions should be given to the Magistrates regarding the way in which they weigh the evidence or record or exercise their judicial discretion, but I only wish that instructions may be given to them in order that the procedure might be modified in such a manner that the accused persons may have opportunity of defending themselves and that after orders have been passed, that they may get proper opportunities for carrying out that order. With these words, I commend this resolution to the consideration of this House."

The Hon'ble Mr. Graham said :—

"My Lord, on behalf of Government I beg to oppose the resolution; and I do so not from any want of sympathy with the accused who have to defend themselves in these cases, but because the issue of such instructions, as have been proposed by the Hon'ble Mover of the resolution, appears to be superfluous and unnecessary. The recommendation made by the Hon'ble Mover is that suitable instructions should be issued to Magistrates in Bengal in regard to the trial of cases under section 110 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, particularly with a view to giving facilities to accused persons (a) to defend themselves properly, and (b) to offer sureties for good behaviour after final orders have been passed.

Resolutions;

Mr. Graham.

With regard to (a), the suggestion appears to be that the accused in these cases are not at present given facilities to defend themselves properly. I venture to think that there is no substance in this suggestion. As a matter of fact such facilities are provided in the Code itself. Section 117, sub-section (2) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, lays down that the inquiry, where the order requires security for good behaviour, shall be in the manner prescribed for conducting trials and recording evidence in warrant cases, except that no charge need be framed.

The procedure to be observed in the trial of warrant cases is given in Chapter XXI of the Code of Criminal Procedure, and it provides inter alia for the cross-examination of prosecution witnesses and the recording of defence evidence. It is also provided that, if the accused files a written statement, the Magistrate shall file it with the record. Furthermore, there is provision for the issue of process for compelling the production of evidence at the instance of the accused. I may mention too that, as a matter of fact, the accused in these cases are invariably defended either by a pleader or a mukhtear.

With regard to what has been said by the Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq with regard to the venue of the inquiry, and his statement to the effect that such inquiries are sometimes held in Thana compounds, I may point out that it is entirely within the discretion of the Magistrate to determine where the inquiry shall be held. At the same time, it is, I imagine, rare for such an inquiry to be held in a Thana compound. With all deference to what the Hon'ble Mover has said on this point, I do not remember any case in which such an inquiry has been held in a Thana compound. From a legal point of view all that is necessary is that the proceedings shall be taken within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Magistrate empowered, and that the person proceeded against shall reside within those limits. If, in any particular case, objection is taken by the defence to the place of inquiry, it is always open to them to move the Magistrate, and there is no reason to suppose that such an objection would not receive judicial consideration. I submit, therefore, that in view of what I have said above, it is reasonably clear that adequate facilities are provided for accused persons in these cases to defend themselves, and I do not see what further facilities can be given In view of these provisions of the law it would seem to be unnecessary to issue any such instructions to Magistrates, nor does it seem desirable that Government should adopt a course of action which might be regarded as interfering in any way with the discretion of Courts. Facilities for defence in criminal cases are matters which are appropriately dealt with in the Code of Criminal Procedure, and it would appear to be outside the province of the executive Government to deal with them. If in any particular case the facilities, which are provided by law, are not accorded, the accused has his remedy in an appeal to the District Magistrate under section 406 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

With regard to the second recommendation made by the Hon'ble Mover that facilities should be given to accused to offer sureties for good behaviour after final orders have been passed, it lies with the accused persons themselves and their friends to offer sureties, and it does not appear to be clear how Magistrates can afford facilities in the matter. It may be mentioned that a Magistrate cannot act arbitrarily in regard to accepting, or rejecting sureties, as under section 122 of the Code of Criminal Procedure he can only refuse to accept a surety on the ground of unfitness, and if he does so he is bound to record his reasons. Here again, if the Magistrate fails to comply with the provisions of the Code, the party aggrieved has his remedy in the appellate Court.

In as much therefore, as these matters are already provided for in the Code and, in any case, are not matters in relation to which the issue of instructions by the executive Government is desirable, I would ask the Council to negative the resolution.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

"My Lord, I admit that the cases to which I have referred are of a somewhat exceptional character, but such cases have occurred, and it appears to me that they do occur in spite of the fact that the Code of Criminal Procedure lays down elaborate provisions as to the manner in which the trial is to be held. There are certain matters within the discretion of a Magistrate where he acts more or less as an executive officer. However, a discussion of all these points will raise very controversial issues. I thought it proper to bring the matter to the notice of the Government, but, since the considered opinion of the Government is that this resolution cannot be accepted, I do not think it would be worth while to press this resolution any further. So, with your Excellency's leave, I beg to withdraw the resolution."

The motion was then, by leave of the President, withdrawn.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 23.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that immediate steps be taken to connect Barisal with Calcutta by rail.

He said :—

"This resolution is one of very simple character and it recommends that steps be taken to connect Barisal with Calcutta by rail. I brought forward this resolution for discussion in this Council about four years ago when the Hon'ble Mr. Beatson Bell (now Sir Nicholas Beatson Bell) on behalf of Government practically accepted the resolution and gave us to understand that the question of connecting Barisal with Calcutta by rail was under consideration by Government and probably would be given effect soon. Unfortunately, however, the war broke out and the question was shelved. Now with the return of peace and with better financial condition, I think the question might again be considered. With these few words, I beg to commend the resolution to the House."

The Hon'ble Mr. Cumming said :—

"My Lord, it is quite correct, as the Hon'ble Member who has moved this resolution has stated, that my predecessor in office accepted the resolution in those terms in August 1914. The Hon'ble Member is under the impression that the case still stands in the same position, and that it has not been carried into effect for financial reasons. If the Council will bear with me for a few moments, I will explain why it is that the deliberate opinion of Government with regard to this project is that it is inexpedient. Very shortly, the proposals regarding this project in a chronological form are these. In 1911 a reconnaissance was sanctioned by the Railway Board to ascertain the best means of connecting Barisal with Khulna; two alternative routes were examined, and, three years afterwards, the Railway Board sanctioned a detailed survey not only of the proposed line from Khulna viâ Madaripur to Barisal but also of an additional section from Faridpur to Madaripur. This survey was completed in 1914. While these proceedings were in hand various enquiries were made in this Council, and the Hon'ble Member himself in 1913 asked a question on the subject he was informed that steps were being taken to connect Barisal and Calcutta by rail. He then asked another question in the following year 1914, and was informed that the details were well in hand. At a meeting of this Council in August 1914, to which I have referred, an Hon'ble Member submitted a resolution representing the urgency of connecting Barisal and Calcutta by rail. This, as I have said, was accepted by my predecessor; he went so far as to say that the Bengal Government accorded their cordial support to the proposal to construct a broad gauge line from Khulna to Barisal; and indeed, in the same year, the Bengal Government in submitting their annual list of railway projects included this very project amongst their recommendations. It was after that that a change in opinion has taken place. The project was examined with great care from every point of view. One expert said that the Madumati river which it was proposed to cross between Khulna and Madaripur was so unstable that it would cost crores to hold it under a bridge, and another expert held that the waterways and headways given were quite inadequate. The Bengal Government then examined the matter very carefully; and after full reconsideration advised the Railway Board under the Government of India two years afterwards, in October 1916, that the alterations and additions which were then proposed to meet the requirements would render it impossible on financial grounds to carry out the scheme, and might even result in its entire abandonment. Apart from that, the Bengal Government stated to the Railway Board, that even if all the alterations and additions were carried out and even if a satisfactory solution could be found for the crossing of the Madumati river, the Bengal Government were apprehensive that the railway would be a constant menace to the general health of the population. The Bengal Government were not able to inform the public at that time because the matter was still sub judice; in fact, in September 1917, when another Member asked a question in this Council he was informed that the matter was still under consideration in the Government of India in the Railway Board. A further enquiry was then made in August 1918 by a Council question, and the Council were informed that the Government of India had decided to abandon the project. In abandoning this project the Railway Board had obviously been influenced by the views of the Bengal Government, expressed in October 1916, said that while the main project might be abandoned, they, the Railway Board, were considering how they could arrange for the financing of a smaller line from Faridpur to Bhanga in the same district. The last communication received from the Railway Board is that of August 1918, when they said that they would defer the consideration of the financing of this branch line until after the end of the war. Since then we have heard nothing further on the subject. This, then, my Lord, is a statement of the discussion in connection with the project to connect Barisal and Calcutta by rail, which it is desirable to place on record. It will be seen that the Bengal Government on the basis of fuller information changed their minds on the ground of the menace to the health of the community which the construction of the project on the original alignment would entail. Indeed from the point of view of the people of Bengal themselves, the construction of railways which are likely to interfere with the natural ebb and flow of water over the land is to be deprecated. An increase of malaria is too high a price to pay even for improved railway communication, and the Hon'ble Member himself must be fully aware of the complaint in Bengal that such and such a railway has done permanent harm to the tract which it covers. In this instance the main objection was that the alignment in question was at right angles to the drainage of the country.

So far, Sir, I have to disappoint the Hon'ble Member. He may well ask what is proposed to be done now. My reply is that the Bengal Government did propose an alternative scheme of connecting Calcutta with Barisal by means of an extension of the existing railway from Faridpur, and at the present moment the Bengal Government are prepared to recommend to the Railway Board that the possibility of completing this alignment should be reconsidered. In view of this, Sir, and of the fact that while one approach to Barisal from the west has been definitely condemned on engineering, financial and sanitary grounds, still an approach from the north-west is possible, I hope the Hon'ble Member may see his way not to press the resolution. Government desire to do what my predecessor accepted in 1916, viz., to connect the headquarters of the province with the headquarters of an important district like Bakarganj if it can be properly done."

The Hon'ble Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq said :—

"My Lord, it would not be a proper recognition of what has fallen from the Hon'ble Member were I now to press this resolution. I therefore beg leave to withdraw it."

The motion was then, by leave of the President, withdrawn.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 24.

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that steps be taken to improve communication between Calcutta and Dacca, either by accelerating the existing train and steamer services or by such other means as to the Government may appear fit and proper.

He said :—

"My Lord, the resolution which has just been withdrawn bears a family resemblance to the one which I now move. It has also an ancient history behind it, and it also wants to connect an Eastern Bengal district with Calcutta, but I hope, my Lord, that this resolution will receive a more favourable consideration at the hands of the Hon'ble Member in charge because it wants to connect the capital of Eastern Bengal with the capital of the province. In this resolution I have purposely avoided mentioning any particular scheme, because in my experience in this Council I have found that it is always safer to leave the question vague; because whenever any particular scheme is suggested Government experts come forward with objections which it is very difficult for a layman to meet. I understand, my Lord, that for a long time a proposal has been pending before the Government about connecting the town of Dacca with Aricha in the Manikganj subdivision on the south, and if a railway is constructed connecting Dacca with Aricha and a ferry service between Aircha and Goalundo and the train service between Goalundo and Calcutta is made a little faster, I think this journey to Dacca from Calcutta can be completed in eight hours or exactly half the time now taken to come from Calcutta to Dacca. What with the prospect of a well-equipped College in Dacca and the future prospect of a large Medical College here, it is as important that the people of Calcutta should be in close touch with Dacca as that the people of Dacca should be in close touch with the people of Calcutta, and I have been further told that this project of a railway between Dacca and Aricha has received sympathetic consideration at the hands of the Railway Board as well; but another objection has been raised that a railway on an embanked road will cause interference with the free drainage of the locality, and bring in malaria, as has been just mentioned by the Hon'ble member in charge. True it is that to a very large extent our railways are responsible for the spread of malaria in this country, and if we are to believe the historians, we learn that malaria was unknown in this country before railways were introduced. However, if the question of malaria did not interfere in the construction of the railway line from Howrah to Kalka, I do not think the small tract of land which has got many rivers and channels in it from Dacca to Calcutta will suffer much. The advantages of having more easy communication between two important centres of the Presidency will have greater weight with the public and the Government than the danger of malaria, and that can easily be avoided if we have a sufficient number of openings in the railway road for the passage of water. At the present moment there is an embanked road practically from Dacca to Aricha which does obstruct the drainage, except perhaps with the exception of 4 or 5 miles. The road is 45 miles long, about 40 miles of it is embanked road and only 5 miles is low road through which the water passes. I think if the project be taken in hand and openings made here and there, it will also protect us from malaria and at the same time afford greater facility for communication between Calcutta and Dacca which will be of mutual benefit to the people of this part of the Presidency as well as to the people of Calcutta. With these few words, I beg to commend this resolution to the consideration of the Council."

Resolutions.

Mr. Cumming.

The Hon'ble Mr. Cumming said :—

"My Lord, the Hon'ble Member has made a proposal regarding the improvement of communications in this province which is of peculiar interest both to the residents of the eastern districts and of course to members of this Council who have been summoned to attend at Dacca. He has said that he has purposely framed it in an indefinite form because he is aware that definite proposals are more liable to attack. In his argument, however, he has made one practical suggestion, namely, the suggestion regarding a railway from Dacca to a point opposite Goalundo. This has been the subject of a good deal of local discussion within recent months here in Dacca and the local press is very desirous that such a project should materialise. Government, I may say at once, are prepared to accept the resolution in general terms without committing themselves, any more than the Hon'ble Member has done, to any specific project.

It goes without saying that Government are prepared to accept all reasonable improvements in communications which are both the means and the proof of material progress. There are two forms of improvement. There is improvement of the existing means of transportation, and in the second place there is the creation of new lines of transportation. As regards the existing means of transportation, I shall be prepared to send a copy of these proceedings to the carrying companies and agencies concerned both by road and water. As regards new lines of transportation there are again two possibilities, improvement entirely by land or improvement of steamer service by water. The Hon'ble Member is perhaps not aware regarding the second possibility, namely, improvement of service by water, that Government have in contemplation an improved water route which if constructed would shorten the river journey to Dacca by one-half ; but on account of various engineering and financial considerations Government are not in a position to say if, and when, effect will be given to the scheme. If, however, this scheme does materialise, it will be of very substantial benefit to Eastern Bengal. As regards the other alternative of improvement of communication by land, this proposal of a railway from Dacca to a point opposite Goalundo has been revived, and, as I have said, there is much local opinion in favour of this particular alignment. On this point, however, I can say but little at present. This much, however, may be said :—that the soundness of this project as a financial proposition is at present under examination, and in the second place that as regards a railway alignment, the railway policy of the Government must be ultimately under the control of the Railway Board. I am afraid, however, that those who advocate the construction of this line have never seriously considered what the cost would be if adequate waterways were given ; and, as I have mentioned regarding the previous resolution, that a possible source of disease may be created if adequate waterway be not given, and secondly, those who advocate this particular project have not considered what the effect of an embankment at right angles to the line of spill of the big rivers Dhaleswari and Padma would be. I may say at once that this railway project was definitely rejected many years ago by the Railway Board, although it had then been considered for a number of years. This, as the Hon'ble Member is aware, is primarily a matter for engineering experts to determine, in view of the more recent knowledge that we have of the hydraulics of the area, namely, what scheme would be the least innocuous in point of view of public health and what in point of view of capital outlay would be the least expensive. In these circumstances, as I have already stated, Government are prepared to accept the resolution with a perfectly open mind, in view of the further inquiries which are at present being made, as to what may ultimately be a practical solution."

Resolutions.

Maulvi Abul Kasem ; Maulvi Fazl-ul-Haq.

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem said :—

"My Lord, I have to thank the Hon'ble Member for the sympathetic reception which he has given this resolution."

The motion was then put and agreed to.

The Hon'ble Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Haq was to have moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that suitable steps be taken for a proper and effective representation of the Eastern Bengal districts on the Legislative Council to be formed under the Reform Scheme, either by proper representation to the Government of India or by such other methods as to the Government may seem fit and proper.

He said :—

hurry and in response to an urgent request of some of my Dacca friends who thought that Eastern Bengal districts had been somewhat neglected in the distribution of seats under the proposed Reform Scheme. At that time it was not possible for me to verify the figures because, if I waited one day I would have been out of time. I now find from an examination of the report that I cannot honestly say that the Eastern Bengal districts have been unfairly treated. As advised at present therefore, I do not think I can press this resolution. I therefore beg leave to withdraw it."

The motion was then, by leave of the President, withdrawn.

The following resolution stood in the name of the Hon'ble Rai Radha Charan Pal Bahadur:—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that an expert in town-planning be appointed as the Chairman of the Calcutta Improvement Trust when that office becomes vacant, in consequence of the grant of any leave to, or on the retirment of, the present incumbent.

The Hon'ble Member being absent, the resolution was not moved.

LIST OF BUSINESS—ITEM No. 27.

The Hon'ble Mauvi Abul Kasem moved the following resolution :—

This Council recommends to the Governor in Council that extensions of service be granted to officers in this Presidency in cases in which they happen to be deprived of full pension by reason of too strict an interpretation of the recent circular orders of the Secretary of State for India.

He said :—

"My Lord, we began this day's sitting by the introduction of a Bill to which reference has been made once before—I mean the Bill for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. I think I will be guilty of cruelty to members of this Council if I make a speech at this hour of the day in recommending this resolution to the Council. What I mean is quite clear from this resolution, and the Government and the members will understand what is meant. Under the old rules when an officer had to retire under the 25-year rule, discretion was given to the Government to grant him an extension on the ground that he has not earned his full pension. Under the recent orders, an amendment of the old rules, it lays down that no extension can be granted except on public grounds. The fact that an officer has not earned or is not entitled to full pension is not 'public grounds' and therefore an officer is made to retire simply because he has not reached the full period of service, although he is capable of good and hard-work. I think, my Lord, that in such cases either by moving the Secretary of State or a change in the regulation, a point may be stretched in their favour and officers who have done good service and are capable of rendering further good service in the interest of the people, who will have the advantage of their service, a small extension should be granted in order to enable them to earn the pension to which they are morally entitled."

The Hon'ble Sir Henry Wheeler said:—

"My Lord, to put it in the briefest form, the reason why we cannot accept this resolution is that, constituted as Government is at the moment in this country, whatever may be the case hereafter, the matter is one in which we are governed by the orders of the Secretary of State, and it would not be open to us, even if we would, to say to that authority 'We do not like your orders, and we do not mean to carry them out'. It is perfectly true that we have occasionally stretched a point in special cases where the interval between the ordinary date of retirement and the term qualifying for full pension is very small; but we cannot accept any proposition that we should do so in an ordinary way. The rule has only recently been framed in its present form, and it was so framed after full discussion. Before 1917, the old rules, although a man could be called on to retire at 55, used to favour his retention if he was fit in the interests of the superannuation charges. In 1917 the whole matter was thrashed out, and, contrary to the practice that obtained up to that time, it was definitely laid down that an officer, other than a ministerial officer, should retire at 55 except when exceptional public grounds for his retention existed and there was no doubt as to his physical fitness. These are the instructions by which we are governed and only recently, on a representation which came from a certain quarter that we were interpreting this rule too strictly, we made a reference to the Government of India in which we explained our practice as follows :—

'The local Government have felt bound to interpret the new rule strictly in the case of all services, and they have held that the retention of the services of an officer after he has attained the age of 55 would not be justified if an equally or almost equally capable officer can be found to take his place without serious detriment to the public interest.'

We were told in answer to that, that our interpretation of the rule was correct, and I am afraid, so far as we are concerned, that closes the discussion."

The Hon'ble Maulvi Abul Kasem said :—

"My Lord, after what has fallen from the Hon'ble Member, I beg leave to withdraw this resolution."

The motion was then, by leave of the President, withdrawn.

REPORT ON FAMINE IN THE DISTRICT OF BANKURA FOR THE WEEK ENDING THE 23RD AUGUST 1919.

THE rainfall during the week was general and sufficient. Transplantation has been almost completed. The distress is decreasing owing to hopeful agricultural prospects. Sixty-four relief works were open during the week and the number of persons relieved on them was 7,467. The total number of persons on gratuitous relief was 17,334, viz., 12,186 on cash doles in 128 unions, 3,683 on paddy-husking advances, 885 weavers and 580 better class poor. The grand total of persons relieved was 24,801. The increase in the number of persons relieved on works was due to the completion of field work, and the decrease in the number of persons relieved on cash doles was due to better agricultural prospects and harvesting of early bhadoi crops. The number of persons relieved on private works was 800. The charitable societies also relieved 925 persons on weekly rice doles and 1,000 on daily rice doles and cooked food. One case of rice looting is reported during the week. The public health on the whole is good. Sporadic cases of cholera, malaria and influenza are reported. Cloth is being distributed to destitutes. The price of common rice varied from 5½ to 5¾ seers per rupee. Burma rice is being sold.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON THE OPERATIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL, FOR 1918-19.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Agriculture Branch.

CALCUTTA, THE 2ND SEPTEMBER 1919.

RESOLUTION—No. 7274.

READ—

The Report on the Operations of the Department of Agriculture, Bengal, for the year 1918-19.

MR. S. MILLIGAN was in charge of the department throughout the year, but after its close was compelled to go on medical leave. Of the two Deputy Directors, Mr. K. McLean returned from military duty to the department early in February and Mr. F. Smith went on leave on account of ill-health at the end of January. In their absence Mr. Rajeswar Das Gupta continued to officiate as Deputy Director during the year, with such success that, he has subsequently, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, been appointed permanently to the Indian Agricultural Service and confirmed in the third post of Deputy Director which has been created. The province is still without the services of its separate Chemical Expert, Mr. Annett, who was working in the United Provinces. Mr. Finlow, the Fibre Expert, therefore, performed the duties of Agricultural Chemist in addition to his own. Mr. Hector was Economic Botanist throughout the year. To each division a Superintendent, a member of the Provincial or Bengal Agricultural Service, was attached. The recruitment of district agricultural officers for each district in the Presidency was completed after the close of the year.

2. The number of students from Bengal at the inter-provincial agricultural college at Sabour, in the district of Bhagalpur, in the province of Bihar and Orissa, rose from 17 in the previous year to 32 in the year under review; of these, four held scholarships awarded by District Boards. The advance in numbers is remarkable and is attributed to the stimulus afforded by the creation of a service of district agricultural officers in Bengal, which was at the time under recruitment. On the basis of a scheme formulated by Mr. E. Biss of the Education Department, the establishment of two agricultural vernacular schools, one at Dacca and the other at Chinsura, was sanctioned during the year, for the training of the sons of cultivators in improvements in purely practical agriculture. It is hoped that most of the boys who attend these schools will return to their homes to make practical use of what they have been taught; and there is no thought or design of providing them with employment in Government service subsequently. It is expected that the school at Dacca will open in next January. A prospectus is under preparation which will be obtainable from the Director of Agriculture. The result of this experiment will be awaited with much interest. At the same time a scheme for the creation of an Agricultural Institute at Dacca, as foreshadowed by the Calcutta University Commission, is also under consideration.

3. The indrasail variety of transplanted aman paddy, or winter rice, which the Agricultural Department discovered by a process of selection, continues to be the best in point of view of yield; it is estimated that it yields three maunds per acre more grain than the average of the local varieties it displaces. Originally the distribution of the seed of this variety had been confined to the Dacca and Mymensingh districts; but in the year under review it was extended over wider areas in Eastern and Northern Bengal, where the variety is reported to be generally suitable. Seventy-five tons of seed were distributed in 10-lbs. packets, and those cultivators. who are so fortunate as to possess a surplus of seed, are supplying their neighbours with seed. It is estimated that there will be 250,000 acres under this variety in the present season, 1919-20. Its success appears to be established. Experiments were made in the selection of the best deep-water winter varieties suitable to the low-lying areas in the east and south-east of the province. The Kataktara variety of aus paddy, or autumn rice, also discovered by a process of selection, was tested in nearly all the districts in which such rice is grown. It met with remarkable success and a large demand has arisen round centres where the seed has been distributed ; for, it is not only superior in yield but also in quality to the ordinary variety of autumn rice. Another variety of autumn rice, viz., the Surjamukhi. which appears to have nearly the same advantages as Kataktara together with superior advantages in the way of straw, is under experiment. A special effort is also being made to discover an early but heavy yielder for use in the high lands of such districts as Bankura, where the crop is precarious and frequently fails in a year of short rainfall. So far the results from the trials of the selected variety of Kataktara as a transplanted rice in that district are encouraging, whilst in the Botanical Section experiments are. being made to obtain by a series of crosses a combination in one variety of the two qualities of earliness and high yield. Moreover, a survey of the varieties grown in the Presidency and Burdwan Divisions has been started at Chinsura. with the object of selecting the best early varieties suitable to the west of the province.

4. During the year the distribution of seed of the selected Kakya Bombai variety of Capsularis jute was extended to cultivators in Eastern and Northern Bengal outside the Dacca and Mymensingh districts to which the distribution had previously been confined. Fifty-five tons of seed were so distributed. Approximately 25 tons in 1918 against 4 tons in 1917 was also distributed in ¼ lb. packets for the multiplication of seed, but only 50 per cent. of the resulting crop was actually used for this purpose ; the fibre of the remainder was sold. On account of its heavy yield not only the cultivators, but also the trade, appear to be well satisfied with it for ordinary purposes. It is estimated that it produces two maunds per acre more jute than the average local races, and that 100,000 acres have been planted with it in the present season, 1919-20. The demand for the seed is greater than the supply. with the result that in Faridpur cultivators have been forced to grow their own seed requirements, in this way fulfilling one of the aims of the Agricultural Department. Experiments continued to be made in the selection of the best variety of Corchorus Olitorius, which is more suitable to Western Bengal than Capsularis. Tests are being made of a promising new race (Chinsura green).

5. Investigations were continued into the "ufra" disease which attacks deep-water paddy. These confirm the general recommendations which have been made with regard to this pest, viz., the burning of the stubble of the previous crop and dealing with the low-lying area which remains wet throughout the year. But as the burning of stubble confers no benefit on the individual unless all his neighbours do it, the lines of attack developed by the department during the year were the conversion of low-lying areas into boro lands, and the encouragement of rabi cultivation and of the growth of early varieties of paddy which escape the disease.

An investigation into Chlorosis, a disease of the jute plant, has led to the tentative conclusion that immunity of the plants to the disease is hereditary in character.

Along with diseases may be mentioned that pest, the water-hyacinth, which is gaining ground in this Presidency with the rapidity of rabbits in Australia. The department has been spreading amongst the cultivators information of the uses which can be made of the weed as a fertilizer, as fuel or as fodder. An apparatus has also been devised for the extraction of potash salts on the spot but it is expensive to work. Too much emphasis cannot, however, be laid on the fact that such measures for the utilization of the weed, where they can be taken without fear of the pest being exploited or fostered for commercial gain, are only palliatives. Local bodies have therefore been advised to address themselves to the work of the complete extinction of the weed by uprooting and burning it, root and branch. In this herculean task the Governor in Council invites the co-operation of the whole population.

6. Amongst other activities of the Agricultural Department during the year under review may be mentioned the investigation of fertilizers suitable for jute; the chemical survey of the different soils in the province; the expansion of the new crop of groundnut in the Burdwan Division; the improvement of the tobacco crop; and the examination and selection of local and exotic varieties of sugarcane in respect of their suitability to Bengal conditions. Strides have been made in the work done at the Rangpur cattle farm, and it is now anticipated that the question whether the importation of outside blood is necessary or desirable for the improvement of breed will soon be answered. Until, however, this problem is solved, the Director of Agriculture rightly remarks that such operations should not be extended. During the year, owing to the marked rise in the price of cotton goods, public attention was attracted to the question of extending the cultivation of cotton in Bengal. A free distribution of the Dharwar variety was accordingly sanctioned for the April sowings, the result of which must be awaited; and Mr. N. Pillai, the Weaving Expert, was placed on special duty to investigate the requirements of the local weavers in respect of cotton and the number of charkas (spinning wheels) in the province. That conditions in Bengal are not generally favourable to any marked extension of cotton cultivation is now confirmed by the opinion expressed in the report of the Indian Cotton Committee. 1919, that exotic varieties of cotton are unsuited to the climatic and other conditions of the province, and that there seems no prospect of any appreciable extension of the area under the indigenous varieties. The recommendations of that Committee are under examination.

7. In pursuance of the policy of providing each district in Bengal with a farm, the establishment of three new farms was sanctioned in Mymensingh, Comilla and Bogra. It is anticipated that they will be ready for work in the forthcoming cold weather. The District Boards of Pabna and Bakarganj have also come forward with offers of co-operation in the establishment of farms in these two districts. Further, Sir Daniel Hamilton placed a farm at the disposal of the Agricultural Department at Gosaba in the 24-Parganas. The establishment of seed stores at each district headquarters in the province was sanctioned during the year.

8. An encouraging feature of the year is the growth of small non-official thana associations of practical cultivators as a link between the Agricultural Department and the cultivators in the districts of Birbhum and Faridpur. The attitude of Government towards these associations and the functions they are expected to perform in providing this link have been described in an important Resolution, No. 631T.R., published by this Government on the 7th June 1919. Since the close of the year a Board of the Agricultural Department, Bengal, has been established to advise on agricultural questions affecting the whole province. Its constitution is as follows :—

(1) The Director of Agriculture, Bengal, ex officio President;
(2) The Deputy Directors of Agriculture, Bengal;
(3) The Agricultural Experts in Bengal; and
(4) The Superintendent, Civil Veterinary Department, Bengal, so long as the Veterinary and Agricultural Departments are amalgamated.

The duties of the Board will be mainly advisory; they will advise Government on matters referred to them for opinion or on any other matter which the President may consider suitable for discussion. The President is empowered to convene committees to sit at any time during the year, to which visitors may be invited whose presence is necessary for the discussion of the particular matter in hand, such as, representatives of a trade concerned, and others.

There will be an annual meeting which will be held on such date and in such place as the President may decide. To it the Director of Agriculture is empowered to invite other officials interested in agriculture, large land-owners, representative agriculturists, representatives of the allied trades and others interested in rural development, selected in such a manner as to be representative of the agricultural interests of each district throughout the presidency.

9. Another remarkable feature of the year was the increase in the sale of the Government-examined seed of silkworms by 31 per cent. under the control of Babu A. C. Ghosh, coupled with the discovery that the area of land under mulberry cultivation had increased by 33 per cent. since the year 1913. These facts are both tokens of the growing popularity of the Government seed as well as of a stronger demand for Bengal silk. Cross-breeding experiments were continued both at Berhampore under Mr. P. C. Chaudhuri and in Calcutta under Miss Cleghorn. Certain results have been obtained, but it is not intended to distribute the new hybrid races until their hardiness and immunity to disease under local conditions is established.

10. From the above description of the work of the department during the year, it will appear that there is considerable justification for the Director's assertion that the past year may be said to have been one of all-round progress for the Agricultural Department. If it does not provide a sufficient answer to the critics of the department, who allege that its successes are either non-existent or not very conspicuous, the following quotation from the report may serve to bring home to them the fallacy of such an allegation :—

"The departmentally selected rice and jute at present occupy roughly 250,000 acres and 100,000 acres, respectively. Taking the average increased yields of the improved paddy and jute over local races which they have replaced, to be 3 maunds (240 lbs.) and 2 maunds (160 lbs.) per acre, respectively, we arrive at the conclusion that, in the present year, the Bengal cultivator will, in the aggregate, be better off, on this account alone, by about Rs. 40 lakhs (£250,000 sterling). This figure may be expected to increase rapidly, for practically the whole rice and jute crops of the province will probably be affected in quite a few years. In this case the net income of the cultivators of rice and jute in Bengal would be increased by as much as Rs. 12 crores (£7,500,000 sterling) per annum."

If the department does only this, it will have fully justified its existence, though there are still many other ways in which it can prove its usefulness. The Governor in Council has, therefore, much pleasure in acknowledging the services of Mr. Milligan, the permanent Director of Agriculture, of Mr. Finlow, the present officiating Director, and of those of the officers who have assisted them; the support which has been given them by numerous private individuals, commercial firms and local bodies; and the zeal with which Mr. G. S. Dutt, I.C.S., the Collector of Birbhum, has entered into the question of the development of agriculture in that district.

By order of the Governor in Council,

FIFTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE GOVERNMENT CINCHONA PLANTATIONS AND FACTORY IN BENGAL FOR THE YEAR 1918-19.

1. General.—From the beginning of 1875-76, the year in which factory products began to be issued, to the end of 1918-19, a period of 44 years, 219,200 lbs. of Cinchona Febrifuge were issued. Up to the end of 1886-87 this drug was the only and up to the end of 1889-90 the main product of the factory, but from 1890-91 onwards its issue steadily declined until 1914-15 when the scarcity and high cost of quinine brought Cinchona Febrifuge again into medical fashion. During the 18 years 1901-02—1918-19 the total quantity issued was 79,390 lbs., of which 36,842 lbs., or over 46 per cent., were sold during the last four years. From the beginning of 1887-88, in which year quinine began to be issued, to the end of 1918-19, a period of 32 years, the total quantity of quinine issued was 577,490 lbs., 15 oz. Of this quantity 242,296 lbs., or almost 42 per cent. of the total, were issued during the last four years. These figures are eloquent of the strain thrown on the Department by the demands of the war years. The immediate brunt fell upon the quinine reserve which the Department was fortunately enabled to build up at very low cost and just in time, and which stood at over 163,000 lbs. when war broke out. The reserve, however, could not meet indefinitely such a drain, and as during the latter half of the war period it was impossible to purchase either bark or quinine to supplement it, or even to foretell when such could be purchased, recourse was perforce had during the last two years to the otherwise undesirable expedient of increasing the immediate plantation harvest by cutting out immature acreages. Thus, the average age of the Munsong acreage cut out in 1918-19 was 6·7 years with an average total yield per acre of about 2,000 lbs. against an yield of 3,260 lbs. per acre from Mungpoo, where the average age of the acreage cut out was 9 years. In the circumstances this sacrifice of bark increment paid well, for the price of such quinine as could be got in the market ranged from Rs. 28 to Rs. 60 or more per lb. as against Rs. 7, the cost of manufacture from plantation bark. Still, the fact has to be faced that 2,270 acres of the 2,600 now under Cinchona are under 7 years of age. To allow of these acreages gaining a normal amount of bark increment, only a normal amount of "thinnings" should be harvested for the next few years. It should be possible to arrange for this, as the demand for quinine should now sink to a more reasonable level, and there is likely to be available from outside sources bark to be purchased by the Government of India, which bark with the harvest normal to the ages of the acreages of the plantations should suffice to keep the factory output up to a normal demand. As the partial sacrifice of bark increment was not in itself sufficient to counteract the heavy drain on the reserve, Government, as soon as export of quinine was resumed from Java, purchased in 1918, 49,000 lbs. of quinine at a cost of practically Rs. 13 lakhs. Although the purchase of this quinine has no direct bearing on the work of the Department, which has not even handled the quinine, for accounts purposes its cost and the revenue from its sale are most conveniently considered as coming within the Department's scope. All the Cinchona on the plantation, except 48 acres, has been planted since 1909-10. The total expenditure on the entire Department for the last ten years, exclusive of the Rs. 13 lakhs, is Rs. 27,30,806, and the total revenue, exclusive of the Prisons Department's share, is Rs. 71,79,916. The surplus, Rs. 44,49,110, is equal to a return of 28 per cent. per annum on each year's total expenditure during the period from the year of expenditure to the end of the period. In addition, the value of block and stock, exclusive of the 49,000 lbs. of quinine added to the latter, at the end of 1918-19 is over Rs. 20 lakhs in excess of the value of block and stock at the beginning of 1909-10. The debiting of Rs. 13 lakhs has the immediate effect of reducing the annual percentage figure to 18 per cent., but of course the value of stock is also increased by about Rs. 10 lakhs, not Rs. 13 lakhs, as the price of quinine has gone down since the purchase of the 49,000 lbs. As the stock is disposed of the percentage return will mount up again. The total value of block and stock at present is about Rs. 40 lakhs.

Had there been a sufficient acreage under Cinchona in India to produce the extra 49,000 lbs. of quinine that had to be purchased, the quinine would have cost only Rs. 3,43,000 instead of Rs. 13 lakhs. This is a practical argument in favour of India endeavouring to produce all the quinine it requires, and it is one that is likely during the next decade to present further opportunities of being appreciated, though it is to be hoped not in so pronounced a fashion as on this occasion.

2. Extensions, acreages and crops.—(a) Mungpoo.—Rainfall was 136·29 inches against an average of 123·56. Violent hailstorms on several occasions played havoc in the Cinchona nurseries with the result that there was a shortage of seedlings, which prevented the full programme of planting being carried through. Reversion to close planting—4 feet by 4 feet—also curtailed the superficial acreage planted. Cinchona extensions in all were 132 acres, consisting of 122 of C. Ledgeriana—100 on Mungpoo and 22 on Sittong divisions respectively,—and 10 of C. Ledgeriana × C. succirubra on Sittong. Nearly 56,700 trees, equivalent to 61 acres, of Cinchona of various ages, but of an average age of 9 years, were cut out, yielding 197,929 lbs. of dry bark, an average of 3·4 lbs. per tree or 3,260 lbs. per acre. Of the total bark harvest, 3,593 lbs. were C. succirubra, 35,949 lbs. C. Ledgeriana × C. succirubra and 158,387 lbs. C. Ledgeriana. The average quinine percentage of the Ledger bark was 5·11—the highest percentage yet recorded—of the hybrid bark 4·26, and of the mixed barks 4·9. At the end of March 1919 there were 525 acres under a full complement of Cinchona. During the year 202 acres were reafforested, bringing the total area now planted up with fuel and timber trees to 3,040 acres. Over 1,060 tons of wood fuel of value Rs. 1,740 and over 3,000 cubic feet of sawn timber of value Rs. 872 were supplied free to the Factory. Two Sirocco driers were purchased which have proved most useful in hastening the drying of bark during the rains.

(b) Munsong.—Rainfall was 103·18 inches against an average of 96·10. As in Mungpoo, hailstorms did considerable damage and a descent of frost killed about 30,000 seedlings. Extensions were 330 acres, consisting of 258 C. Ledgeriana (74 on Munsong, 44 on Burmiak and 140 on Sangser divisions. respectively), 42 of C. Ledgeriana × C. succirubra on Munsong division and 30 of C. Ledgeriana × C. officinalis on Burmiak. About 334,000 trees, equivalent to 311 acres, of various ages, but averaging 6·7 years, were cut out, yielding 624,850 lbs. of dry bark or an average of about 2 lbs. per tree and 2,000 lbs. per acre. Of the total harvest 541,650 lbs. were C. Ledgeriana, 35,680 lbs. C. Ledgeriana × C. succirubra, 38,880 C. officinalis, 8,320 C. succirubra, and 320 (C. Ledgeriana × C. officinalis). The average quinine percentage of the Ledger bark was 4·87, of the Hybrid (C. Ledger × succirubra) 3 66 and of the C. officinalis, 3·93. The average of the mixed barks was 4·8. At the end of March 1919, there were 2,075 acres under a full complement of Cinchona. During the year 62 acres of old Cinchona land were reafforested, bringing the total reafforested area on Munsong up to 366 acres.

(c) Plantations as a whole.—The total area under a full complement of Cinchona is 2,600 acres, of which 2,270 are under 7 years of age. Details are given in Appendix A.* The approximate number of Cinchona trees is 3,700,000, of which about 910,000 are on Mungpoo and 2,790,000 on Munsong. The total bark harvest was 822,779 lbs.

3. Factory work.—186,500 lbs. of Mungpoo, 564,414 lbs. of Munsong, and 15,249 lbs. of South Indian, in all 766,163 lbs. were worked up. The average quinine percentages of the various barks were Mungpoo 4·9, Munsong 4·8, South Indian 3·12, so that the total amount of quinine sulphate theoretically available in the total quantity of bark used was 36,127 lbs. The actual quantity of quinine sulphate made was 32,640¼ lbs. This, with 1,251 lbs. in the Cinchona Febrifuge and other quinine salts made, is equivalent to an extraction efficiency of 93·8 per cent. In addition to the 32,640·25 lbs. of

DISTRICT REPORTS ON WEATHER AND CROPS.

For the week ending on the 28th August 1919.

Summary.—During the week rainfall was heavy in the Chittagong Division and generally light to moderate elsewhere. The recent rainfall has facilitated further transplanting of winter paddy, but more rain is still urgently needed for the purpose in North Bengal and in parts of East Bengal. Transplanting has nearly been completed in West Bengal, where prospects are reported to be hopeful. Weeding is progressing. Autumn paddy is being reaped and a satisfactory outturn is expected. Owing partly to deficient rainfall and partly to lowness of river flood steeping of jute is being hampered in North and East Bengal. The average price of common rice for the province has risen by about 6·30 per cent. as compared with that of the previous week. The average number of persons engaged daily in test works in Brahmanbaria subdivision of Tippera district was 154.
